PROPOSED TRANSACTION—YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

The board of directors of Nabi Biopharmaceuticals (“Nabi”) has unanimously approved and declared advisable a Merger Implementation Agreement (the “Transaction Agreement”), dated as of April 22, 2012, and amended as of August 6, 2012, by and between Nabi and Biota Holdings Limited (“Biota”), pursuant to which Nabi will acquire all of the outstanding shares of Biota in exchange for shares of Nabi common stock, and Biota will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Nabi (the “Transaction”). Upon the completion of the Transaction, shares of Nabi common stock representing approximately 74% of the outstanding common stock of the combined company will be issued to former Biota stockholders, and the shares of common stock held by existing Nabi stockholders will represent approximately 26% of the outstanding common stock of the combined company immediately after the completion of the Transaction. The combined company will be named Biota Pharmaceuticals, Inc., and the shares of the combined company will be traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol “BOTA.”

We are sending you the accompanying proxy statement to ask you to attend a special meeting of the stockholders of Nabi (to be held at The Bethesda Marriott Hotel, 5151 Pooks Hill Road, Bethesda, Maryland on September 24, 2012, at 10:00 a.m. local time), or to vote your shares by proxy, in respect of the following proposals in connection with the Transaction:

- to approve an amendment to the Nabi Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the “Nabi certificate of incorporation”) to increase the authorized shares of Nabi common stock from 125,000,000 shares to 200,000,000 shares;
- to approve an amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation to change the name of Nabi from “Nabi Biopharmaceuticals” to “Biota Pharmaceuticals, Inc.”;
- to approve an amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation to effect a reverse stock split of Nabi common stock at any time prior to December 31, 2012 at a ratio ranging from four-to-one to eight-to-one, as determined by Nabi’s board of directors in its sole discretion;
- to approve the issuance of shares of Nabi common stock to Biota stockholders contemplated by the Transaction Agreement;
- to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation payable to certain executive officers of Nabi under existing arrangements in connection with the Transaction; and
- to approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve any of proposals 1 through 4.

After careful consideration, Nabi’s board of directors has determined that it is advisable and in the best interests of Nabi and its stockholders to consummate the Transaction as contemplated by the Transaction Agreement, and unanimously recommends that you vote “FOR” each of the foregoing proposals. In addition, you should be aware that Mangrove Partners Fund, L.P. and certain affiliated persons (“Mangrove”) have filed a preliminary proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission indicating that they may solicit proxies to vote against the foregoing proposals on the green proxy card, or by following the instructions accompanying this proxy statement. For the reasons set forth in the accompanying proxy statement, Nabi’s board of directors strongly disagrees with the views expressed in Mangrove’s preliminary proxy statement and recommends that Nabi stockholders not execute any proxy that they receive from Mangrove.

The accompanying proxy statement provides you with information about the Transaction Agreement, the Transaction and the special meeting of Nabi’s stockholders. Nabi encourages you to read the proxy statement carefully and in its entirety, including the Transaction Agreement, which is attached as Annex A. Before deciding how to vote, you should consider the “Risk Factors” beginning on page 31 of the proxy statement. You may also obtain more information about Nabi from documents Nabi has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission as described under “Where You Can Find More Information” beginning on page 145 of the proxy statement.

Your vote is important.

The Transaction cannot be completed unless the proposals to approve the amendments to the Nabi certificate of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares and to change the name of the company are approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Nabi's common stock entitled to vote thereon, and the proposal to approve the issuance of Nabi common stock to Biota stockholders in the Transaction is approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the votes cast on the proposal at the special meeting of Nabi stockholders. Accordingly, whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, you are requested to promptly vote your shares by completing, signing and dating the enclosed WHITE proxy card or WHITE voting instruction form and returning it in the postage-paid envelope provided, or by voting over the telephone or via the Internet as instructed in these materials. The following summary highlights selected information in this proxy statement and may not contain all of the information that may be important to you. Accordingly, you are urged to read carefully this entire proxy statement, including the attached annexes, and the other documents to which this proxy statement refers you in order for you to fully understand the Transaction. See “Where You Can Find More Information” beginning on page 145 of this proxy statement. Each item in this summary refers to the page of this proxy statement on which that subject is discussed in more detail.

The functional currency of Nabi is the United States (“U.S.”) dollar. Unless otherwise specified, all references to “dollars,” “$,” or “U.S.$” shall mean U.S. dollars. Biota uses the Australian dollar (“A$”) as its functional currency.

Recent Developments

Nabi’s previously announced “modified Dutch auction” tender offer expired on Monday, July 30, 2012. In accordance with the terms and conditions of the tender offer, Nabi accepted for purchase an aggregate of 14,547,996 shares of Nabi common stock at a purchase price of $1.68 per share, for an aggregate cost of approximately $24.4 million, excluding fees and expenses relating to the tender offer which were approximately $0.2 million. Included within the shares accepted for purchase were 857,520 additional shares that Nabi elected to purchase pursuant to its right to purchase up to an additional 2% of the shares outstanding immediately prior to the commencement of the tender offer. The 14,547,996 shares accepted for purchase in the tender offer represented approximately 33.93% of Nabi’s issued and outstanding common stock as of July 1, 2012, the last day prior to commencement of the tender offer. Based upon the final count by American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC, the depositary for the tender offer, 18,430,349 shares were properly tendered and not properly withdrawn at or below a purchase price of $1.68 per share, making the tender offer oversubscribed by 4,739,873 shares. As a result of the over-subscription, the final proration factor for the tender offer was approximately 78.9%. After giving effect to the purchase of shares in the tender offer, 28,328,034 shares were issued and outstanding immediately after the completion of the tender offer. The completed tender offer reduced Nabi’s cash balance (consisting of cash, cash equivalents and marketable securities), which as of June 30, 2012 was $92.7 million, by $24.6 million.

Special Meeting of Nabi Stockholders

Nabi’s stockholders are being asked to consider and vote upon the following proposals in connection with the Transaction:

1. to approve an amendment to the Nabi Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the “Nabi certificate of incorporation”) to increase the authorized shares of Nabi common stock from 125,000,000 shares to 200,000,000 shares;
2. to approve an amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation to change the name of Nabi from “Nabi Biopharmaceuticals” to “Biota Pharmaceuticals, Inc.”;
3. to approve an amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation to effect a reverse stock split of Nabi common stock at any time prior to December 31, 2012, at a ratio ranging from four-to-one to eight-to-one, as determined by Nabi’s board of directors in its sole discretion;
4. to approve the issuance of shares of Nabi common stock to Biota stockholders contemplated by the Transaction Agreement;
5. to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, of the compensation payable to certain executive officers of Nabi under existing arrangements in connection with the Transaction; and

6. to approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve any of proposals 1 through 4.

Proposals 1, 2 and 3 are collectively referred to herein as the “Charter Amendment Proposals.” Proposals 1, 2 and 4 are collectively referred to herein as the “Transaction Proposals.”

The Nabi stockholder’s vote on such proposals will take place at a special meeting to be held at 10:00 a.m. local time on September 24, 2012, at The Bethesda Marriott Hotel, 5151 Pooks Hill Road, Bethesda, Maryland.

Record Date for the Special Meeting (see page 48)

You can vote at the special meeting all of the shares of Nabi’s common stock you held of record as of the close of business on August 3, 2012, which is the record date for the special meeting. As of the close of business on the record date, there were 28,328,034 shares of Nabi’s common stock outstanding.

Recommendation of the Nabi Board of Directors (see page 64)

Nabi’s board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote “FOR” each of the proposals to be considered and voted upon at the special meeting. In connection with its decision to recommend that you vote “FOR” each of the proposals, Nabi’s board of directors has determined that it is advisable and in the best interests of Nabi and its stockholders to adopt each amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation and to issue the Nabi shares in connection with the Transaction. See “The Transaction—Nabi Reasons for the Transaction” beginning on page 61 of this proxy statement and “The Transaction—Recommendation of the Nabi Board of Directors” beginning on page 64 of this proxy statement for more information about the factors considered by Nabi’s board of directors.

Required Vote (see page 51)

Each share of Nabi’s common stock is entitled to one vote at the special meeting. The holders of issued and outstanding shares of Nabi’s common stock which represent a majority of the votes entitled to be cast at the special meeting, present in person or represented by proxy, will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the special meeting. Abstentions will be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum at the special meeting. Banks, brokers and other nominees that hold their customers’ shares in street name may not vote their customers’ shares on “non-routine” matters without instructions from their customers. As each of the proposals to be voted upon at the special meeting is considered “non-routine,” such organizations do not have discretion to vote on any proposal for which they do not receive instructions from their customers (this is referred to in this context as a “broker non-vote”). As a result, if you fail to provide your broker, bank or other nominee with any instructions regarding how to vote your shares, your shares will not be considered present at the special meeting, will not be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum and will not be voted on any of the proposals. If you provide instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee which indicate how to vote your shares with respect to certain proposals but not with respect to a particular proposal, your shares will be considered present at the special meeting and be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum but will not be voted with respect to that particular proposal.

Approval of the proposals presented at the special meeting will require the following:

Approval of each of the Charter Amendment Proposals requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Nabi’s common stock outstanding at the close of business on the record date. An abstention from voting or a broker non-vote on any of the Charter Amendment Proposals will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal.

Approval of the issuance of shares of Nabi common stock to Biota stockholders as contemplated by the Transaction Agreement will require the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Nabi's common stock properly cast on the proposal at the special meeting. An abstention from voting or a broker non-vote on this proposal will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on this proposal.

Approval, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, of the compensation payable to certain executive officers of Nabi under existing arrangements in connection with the Transaction will require the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Nabi's common stock properly cast on the proposal at the special meeting. An abstention from voting or a broker non-vote on this proposal will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on this proposal.

Approval of one or more adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve any of proposals 1 through 4, will require the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Nabi's common stock properly cast on the proposal at the special meeting. An abstention from voting or a broker non-vote on this proposal will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on this proposal.

Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management of Nabi Stock (see page 50)

As of the close of business on August 3, 2012, the record date for the special meeting, the current directors and executive officers of Nabi were deemed to beneficially own 2,950,496 shares of Nabi's common stock, which represented approximately 10.4% of the shares of Nabi's common stock outstanding on that date. Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), as described below under "The Special Meeting—Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management of Nabi Stock" beginning on page 50 of this proxy statement.

The Mangrove Solicitation

Mangrove Partners Fund, L.P. and certain affiliated persons ("Mangrove") have filed a preliminary proxy statement with the SEC indicating they will solicit proxies to vote against the proposals described herein. Nabi's board of directors strongly disagrees with the views expressed by Mangrove in its preliminary proxy statement. As described in more detail in this proxy statement, Nabi's board of directors believes that the Transaction is in the best interests of Nabi and its stockholders and that the Transaction offers an opportunity for Nabi's stockholders to participate in the growth of the combined company. As described in this proxy statement, Nabi's board of directors arrived at this conclusion after conducting a robust and comprehensive strategic alternatives process and carefully considering, with the assistance of financial advisors and outside legal counsel, various alternatives to the Transaction, including the liquidation and dissolution of Nabi. See "The Transaction—Background of the Transaction" beginning on page 56 of this proxy statement, "The Transaction—Nabi Reasons for the Transaction" beginning on page 61 of this proxy statement and "The Transaction—Recommendation of the Nabi Board of Directors" beginning on page 64 of this proxy statement for more information about the factors considered by Nabi's board of directors.

If Mangrove proceeds with its solicitation of proxies against the Transaction, you may receive an opposition proxy statement and green proxy card from Mangrove. To vote as Nabi's board recommends, you should disregard any such green proxy card and instead vote by submitting the WHITE proxy card accompanying this proxy statement or following the voting instructions accompanying this proxy statement in accordance with the instructions described herein. If you vote against the Transaction using a green proxy card, you have the right to change your vote by submitting a subsequent vote as described herein.

The Transaction

Structure of the Transaction (see page 56)

On April 22, 2012, Nabi and Biota entered into the Transaction Agreement, pursuant to which Nabi will acquire all of the outstanding ordinary shares of Biota in accordance with a scheme of arrangement under Australian corporate law and to be submitted for approval by the Supreme Court of Victoria, Australia. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Transaction Agreement, upon the completion of the Transaction, each ordinary share of Biota outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the Transaction will be transferred to Nabi in exchange for 0.448722952 newly issued shares of Nabi common stock (the “exchange ratio”), subject to certain adjustments as described below. Biota does not have any class or series of capital stock outstanding other than the ordinary shares. As a result of the Transaction, Biota will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Nabi. A copy of the Transaction Agreement is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement. Nabi encourages you to read the Transaction Agreement carefully and in its entirety, as it is the principal legal document that governs the Transaction.

Consideration (see page 110)

Nabi stockholders. Nabi stockholders will continue to own their existing shares of Nabi common stock after the Transaction. Nabi stockholders should not return their stock certificates with the enclosed proxy card.

Biota stockholders. Nabi has agreed to issue 0.448722952 shares of Nabi common stock for each ordinary share of Biota outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the Transaction, subject to certain adjustments as described below. (The original exchange ratio (the “original exchange ratio”) set forth in the Transaction Agreement was 0.669212231, which was subsequently adjusted pursuant to the terms of the Transaction Agreement to reflect the 14,547,996 shares of Nabi common stock purchased in Nabi’s issuer tender offer that expired on July 30, 2012.) Immediately after the completion of the Transaction, Nabi’s existing stockholders collectively will own approximately 26% of the outstanding common stock of the combined company, and Biota’s former stockholders collectively will own approximately 74% of the outstanding common stock of the combined company. In the event that Nabi implements the reverse stock split described in the proxy statement before the completion of the Transaction, the number of shares of Nabi common stock to be issued in exchange for each ordinary share of Biota will be adjusted in accordance with the Transaction Agreement in order to preserve the respective percentage of shares of the outstanding common stock of the combined company to be held immediately after the completion of the Transaction by Biota’s former stockholders on the one hand (collectively being approximately 74%) and Nabi’s existing stockholders on the other hand (collectively being approximately 26%). Nabi currently expects that, subject to the approval by Nabi stockholders at the special meeting, the reverse stock split will be implemented immediately prior to the completion of the Transaction.

Treatment of Equity-Based Awards (see page 110)

Biota has represented in the Transaction Agreement that, immediately prior to the completion of the Transaction, there will be no outstanding rights to acquire any ordinary shares of Biota under Biota’s equity incentive arrangements.

Opinion of Financial Advisor to the Nabi Board of Directors (see page 65)

On April 20, 2012, Houlihan Lokey Financial Advisors, Inc., which we refer to as Houlihan Lokey, rendered its written opinion to Nabi’s board of directors as to the fairness to Nabi from a financial point of view as of such date of the original exchange ratio provided for in the Transaction pursuant to the Transaction Agreement.

Houlihan Lokey's opinion was directed to Nabi's board of directors (in its capacity as such) and only addressed the fairness to Nabi, from a financial point of view, of the original exchange ratio provided for in the Transaction pursuant to the Transaction Agreement and did not address any other aspect or implication of the Transaction. The summary of Houlihan Lokey's opinion in this proxy statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of its written opinion, which is included as Annex C to this proxy statement and sets forth the procedures followed, assumptions made, qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken and other matters considered by Houlihan Lokey in preparing its opinion. However, neither Houlihan Lokey's opinion nor the summary of its opinion and the related analyses set forth in this proxy statement are intended to be, and do not constitute, advice or a recommendation to any Nabi stockholder as to how such stockholder should act or vote with respect to any matter relating to the Transaction.

Interests of Nabi Executive Officers and Directors in the Transaction (see page 71)

In considering the recommendation of Nabi's board of directors to vote in favor of each of the proposals to be considered and voted upon at the special meeting, you should be aware that Nabi's executive officers and directors have interests in the Transaction that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Nabi's stockholders generally. Nabi's board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, when it approved the Transaction Agreement and the Transaction. See "The Transaction—Interests of Nabi Executive Officers and Directors in the Transaction" beginning on page 71 of this proxy statement for more information.

Accounting Treatment (see page 75)

Under accounting principles generally accepted in the U.S. ("U.S. GAAP"), the Transaction will be accounted for as a "reverse acquisition" pursuant to which Biota will be considered the acquiring entity for accounting purposes. As such, Biota will allocate the total purchase consideration to Nabi's tangible and identifiable intangible assets and liabilities based on their relative fair values at the date of the completion of the Transaction. Biota's historical results of operations will replace Nabi's historical results of operations for all periods prior to the Transaction; after completion of the Transaction, the results of operations of both companies will be included in Nabi's consolidated financial statements.

Directors and Executive Officers Following the Transaction (see page 76)

The parties have reached certain agreements regarding the governance of the combined company following the completion of the Transaction, including the following:

- Board of Directors. The board of directors of the combined company will initially consist of eight directors, six of whom will be former directors of Biota and two of whom will be former directors of Nabi. It is currently expected that a certain number of directors of the combined company who were former directors of Biota will not stand for election at the first stockholders' meeting of the combined company following the Transaction. Thereafter, it is currently expected that the board of directors of the combined company will consist of fewer members with a majority of the directors being based in the U.S.
- Executive Officers. Biota's current chief executive officer, Peter Cook, and Biota's current chief financial officer, Damian Lismore, will fill those roles within the combined company for an appropriate transition period until U.S. based executives are appointed and assume responsibility. It is anticipated that senior management positions in the combined company will be filled principally from current members of the Biota management team.
- Headquarters. It is the current intention of Biota and Nabi that the combined company's corporate headquarters will initially be located in Rockville, Maryland.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Transaction (see page 80)

There are no material U.S. federal income tax consequences to Nabi's existing stockholders that will result from the issuance of Nabi shares in the Transaction. See "Proposal 3: Amendment to Certificate of Incorporation to Effectuate Reverse Stock Split—Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Reverse Stock Split" beginning on page 134 of this proxy statement for a discussion of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of the proposed reverse stock split described in this proxy statement.

Australian Regulatory Matters

Under the Corporations Act of 2001 (Cth) ("Corporations Act"), the Transaction must be approved by Biota stockholders and a Supreme or Federal Court of Australia (expected to be the Supreme Court of Victoria, Australia) to become effective. The Corporations Act expressly prevents a court from granting approval unless:

- the Australian Securities and Investments Commission ("ASIC") provides the court with a statement that it has no objection to the Transaction; or
- the court is satisfied that the Transaction has not been proposed for the purpose of enabling any person to avoid the operation of any of the provisions of Chapter 6 of the Corporations Act (which relates to takeovers).

On August 9, 2012, Biota will apply to the Supreme Court of Victoria, Australia at a first court hearing (the "first court hearing") for (1) an order that a meeting of holders of issued ordinary shares of Biota be convened and (2) an approval of the distribution of the explanatory memorandum about the Transaction to Biota stockholders. Pursuant to the requirements of the Corporations Act, Biota has provided ASIC at least 14 days' notice before the first court hearing and is allowing ASIC a reasonable opportunity to review the explanatory memorandum and to make submissions to the court with respect to it. Biota also intends to apply to ASIC for ASIC to provide to the court a written statement that it has no objection to the Transaction. Provided that ASIC is satisfied with the terms of the Transaction documents (including the Transaction Agreement) and the explanatory memorandum to be provided to Biota stockholders, Biota expects that ASIC will provide to the court at the first court hearing a letter stating that ASIC intends to issue a no-objection statement at the second court hearing (described below).

Pursuant to the orders expected to be made by the court at the first court hearing, Biota will convene a meeting of Biota stockholders to vote on a resolution to approve the Transaction. The Transaction requires the approval of a majority in number of Biota stockholders that are present and voting in person or by proxy at the meeting, as well as at least 75% of the votes cast on the resolution in person or by proxy by Biota stockholders at the meeting. The Biota stockholders meeting is expected to occur on or about September 25, 2012.

If the Transaction is approved at the Biota stockholders meeting and all other conditions to the Transaction are satisfied, Biota will seek to obtain court approval of the Transaction at the second court hearing (the "second court hearing"). The second court hearing is expected to occur on or about September 28, 2012. If the court approves the Transaction, a copy of the court order will be filed with ASIC and the Transaction will become binding on all applicable classes of Biota stockholders, including those who voted against the Transaction (the "effective date of the scheme of arrangement").

Trading in ordinary shares of Biota on the ASX will be suspended from the close of trading on the effective date of the scheme of arrangement, which is anticipated to be shortly after the date of court approval. A record date (which will be the fifth business day following the effective date of the arrangement) will be set to determine the Biota stockholders entitled to receive shares of Nabi common stock as consideration in the Transaction. The Transaction consideration will be provided to Biota stockholders three business days after such record date and the Transaction will be deemed to have been completed or implemented on that date (the “implementation date”).

Biota Stockholder Approval

Biota will hold a special meeting of its stockholders on or about September 25, 2012 to consider and vote upon a resolution to approve the Transaction. The Transaction must be approved by the requisite majorities of the Biota stockholders under Section 411(4)(a)(ii) of the Corporations Act (a majority in number of Biota stockholders that are present and voting in person or by proxy at the meeting, as well as at least 75% of the votes cast on the resolution in person or by proxy by Biota stockholders at the meeting).

HSR Approval

The Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and the implementing regulations thereunder (the “HSR Act”) require the parties to certain acquisitions and other transactions that meet specified minimum size requirements to file notifications with the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice and the U.S. Federal Trade Commission and observe a waiting period before closing, unless an exemption applies. Nabi and Biota believe that the Transaction is exempt from the notification requirements based on the fair market value of Biota’s non-exempt assets, namely its assets in the U.S. Accordingly, neither Nabi nor Biota is expected to make a notification under the HSR Act with respect to the Transaction. If such exemption does not apply, the Transaction would not be able to be consummated until notification and report forms have been filed with the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission by Nabi and Biota, and the applicable waiting period has expired or been terminated.

Other than as described above, neither Nabi nor Biota is aware of any regulatory approvals required to be obtained, or waiting periods required to expire, to complete the Transaction. If Nabi and Biota discover that other approvals or waiting periods are necessary, Nabi and Biota intend to seek to obtain or comply with them in accordance with the Transaction Agreement.

Nabi has agreed to obtain listing approval from the NASDAQ for the Nabi shares that will be issued in the Transaction.

No Appraisal Rights (see page 81)

Under Delaware law, holders of shares of Nabi common stock are not entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the Transaction or any of the matters to be acted on at the special meeting.

Conditions to Completion of the Transaction (see page 112)

As more fully described in this proxy statement and in the Transaction Agreement, the completion of the Transaction is conditioned on the satisfaction or, where legally permissible, waiver of a number of conditions, including among others:

- Biota stockholder approval of the Transaction;
- Nabi stockholder approval of the Transaction Proposals;
- approval of the Transaction by the Supreme Court of Victoria, Australia;
- approval by the NASDAQ of the listing of the Nabi shares that will be issued in the Transaction;

- Nabi having a closing net cash balance of no less than $54 million after satisfying outstanding liabilities; and
- expiration or early termination of any applicable waiting period under the HSR Act and certain other competition laws.

Each party's obligation to complete the Transaction is subject to certain other conditions, including the absence of any injunction, restraint or governmental restriction prohibiting the Transaction, the accuracy of the other party's representations and warranties contained in the Transaction Agreement, material compliance by the other party with its obligations under the Transaction Agreement, and the absence of a material adverse effect related to the other party. Nabi cannot be certain when, or if, the conditions to the Transaction will be satisfied or waived, or that the Transaction will be completed. Approval, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, of the compensation payable under existing arrangements to certain executive officers of Nabi and approval of the proposed amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation to effect a reverse stock split are not conditions to completion of the Transaction.

Non-Solicitation of Other Offers (see page 125)

The Transaction Agreement obliges each party to abide by certain restrictions on such party's ability to solicit competing proposals from third parties and to provide non-public information to and enter into discussions or negotiations with third parties regarding competing proposals. Notwithstanding this obligation, each party may under certain circumstances furnish information to and engage in discussions or negotiations with third parties with respect to unsolicited competing proposals if such company's board of directors determines in good faith that the competing proposal is, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, a superior proposal, as defined in the Transaction Agreement, and that not taking such action would, or would be likely to, involve a breach of the fiduciary or statutory duties owed by a director.

Termination of the Transaction Agreement (see page 127)

The Transaction Agreement may be terminated and the Transaction abandoned at any time before the effective time of the Transaction upon the mutual agreement of Nabi and Biota. In addition, either Nabi or Biota may terminate the Transaction Agreement if:

- there is a breach or non-fulfillment of a condition to closing described under "—Conditions to Completion of the Transaction" above that is not waived;
- a condition to closing becomes incapable of being satisfied, and the parties are unable to reach an agreement to resolve the matter within 15 business days after a notice is given by the non-breaching party to the breaching party;
- before the approval of the Transaction by the Supreme Court of Victoria, Australia, if the other party is in material breach of any clause of the Transaction Agreement and the breach continues to exist for 15 business days after a notice is given by the non-breaching party to the breaching party; or
- the Transaction has not become effective on or before October 31, 2012.

Nabi may terminate the Transaction Agreement if Biota's board of directors publicly changes (including by attaching qualifications) or withdraws its recommendation in favor of the Transaction or publicly recommends, promotes or otherwise endorses a superior proposal. Similarly, the Transaction Agreement may be terminated by Biota if (1) Nabi's board of directors publicly changes (including by attaching qualifications) or withdraws its recommendation in favor of the Transaction Proposals or publicly recommends, promotes or otherwise endorses a superior proposal or (2) if Nabi does not comply with its obligations, after the Transaction is approved by the Supreme Court of Victoria, Australia, to provide the Nabi closing net cash balance certificate to Biota on the implementation date showing a Nabi closing net cash balance of no less than $54 million.

Expenses and Break Fees (see page 128)

In certain circumstances described under “The Transaction Agreement—Break Fee” beginning on page 128 of this proxy statement, Nabi may be obligated to pay Biota a break fee of A$2.0 million or Biota may be obligated to pay Nabi a break fee of A$2.0 million. The Transaction Agreement generally provides that each party will bear its own costs and expenses, except as described under “The Transaction Agreement—Costs and Expenses” beginning on page 129 of this proxy statement.

Repurchase of Shares of Nabi Common Stock; Dividends and Distributions (see page 82)

On July 30, 2012, Nabi’s previously announced tender offer expired, pursuant to which Nabi purchased 14,547,996 shares of its common stock for approximately $24.4 million. Nabi plans to return to its stockholders, before the completion of the Transaction, its remaining cash in excess of the $54 million required to be held by Nabi at the completion of the Transaction after satisfying outstanding liabilities. Such distribution is expected to take the form of a dividend or return of capital, and currently is expected to be in the range of approximately $1 million to $5 million in the aggregate.

Contingent Value Rights (see page 82)

Nabi plans to issue contingent value rights (each, a “CVR” and collectively, the “CVRs”) to existing Nabi stockholders before the completion of the Transaction. Nabi expects that one CVR will be issued for each share of Nabi common stock outstanding as of a record date to be set at a date prior to the completion of the Transaction. However, the CVRs will not be attached to the shares of Nabi common stock. A CVR will be a non-transferrable (subject to certain limited exceptions) right to potentially receive certain cash payments in connection with a NicVAX Transaction (as defined in the CVR Agreement) upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in a Contingent Value Rights Agreement to be entered into between Nabi and a rights agent (the “CVR Agreement”). The form of the CVR Agreement is attached to this proxy statement as Annex G.

See “Repurchase of Shares of Nabi Common Stock; Dividends and Distributions; Contingent Value Rights—Contingent Value Rights” beginning on page 82 of this proxy statement for more information regarding the CVRs, the CVR Agreement and the NicVAX Transaction.

Considerations by the Nabi Board of Directors if the Transaction is Not Completed

In the event that the Transaction is not completed, either because of the failure of either Nabi’s or Biota’s stockholders to approve the Transaction, or the failure of another condition to completion of the Transaction, Nabi’s board of directors will consider alternative strategic options available to Nabi. If Nabi’s board of directors determines that liquidation and dissolution is advisable, it will approve a plan of liquidation and dissolution and submit the plan to Nabi stockholders for their approval. Any stockholder meeting to consider such a plan likely would be held approximately three or four months after the termination of the Transaction Agreement. Thereafter, if the plan is approved by stockholders, Nabi believes it will take approximately three years to complete the dissolution and winding-up process and distribute all remaining assets to Nabi stockholders in accordance with the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (“DGCL”). The DGCL requires a dissolving company to continue its legal existence for a period of at least three years after the filing of a certificate of dissolution with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware for the purpose of winding up its business and affairs.

Following stockholder approval of a plan of liquidation and dissolution and the filing of a certificate of dissolution in Delaware but prior to the completion of the dissolution and winding-up process, Nabi likely will make one or more initial or interim liquidating distribution to Nabi stockholders of a majority of Nabi's remaining cash assets, which distribution amounts will depend on known, unknown, contingent and pending claims at the time of the distributions. Nabi currently estimates such initial or interim liquidating distributions to be approximately $1.51 to $1.68 per share of Nabi common stock in the aggregate (assuming no changes to the currently outstanding number of shares of Nabi common stock). The estimated range of the liquidating distributions described in the preceding sentence is based on Nabi having cash of $92.7 million as of June 30, 2012, less approximately $1.5 million of estimated operating expenses until September 30, 2012, less approximately $24.6 million used for purchasing shares in its previously announced issuer tender offer (including related fees and expenses), and less approximately $13.5 million in the aggregate to pay, and make provision for, existing and known potential claims and liabilities, including severance payments and transaction-related fees and liabilities, expenses related to continuing operations during the liquidation process, including making required regulatory filings and the establishment of a mechanism for collecting and distributing any future distributions, milestone or royalty payments under existing agreements and any potential new agreements with respect to NicVAX[®] (Nicotine Conjugate Vaccine) and Phoslyra[®]. In addition, a reserve amount of approximately $5 million to $10 million in the aggregate would be set aside for the satisfaction of unknown future contingent and potential claims and liabilities in accordance with the DGCL. The amount remaining from the $5 million to $10 million reserve, if any, together with any other remaining assets, after satisfying Nabi's remaining, actual, contingent or potential claims and liabilities will be distributed to the stockholders. Nabi currently is unable to predict the precise nature, amount or timing of the liquidating distributions described above. The range of the liquidating distributions and the other amounts referred to in this paragraph are preliminary estimates based on the information currently available to Nabi and are subject to change based on factors currently unknown to Nabi that may affect its remaining cash in the future, such as additional expenditures and/or liabilities. Therefore, the actual amounts of the liquidating distributions may be lower or higher than Nabi's current estimates.

Selected Historical Consolidated Financial Data of Nabi

The following table sets forth selected consolidated financial data for Nabi. The data should be read in conjunction with Nabi's audited consolidated historical financial statements and related notes included in Nabi's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011 and Nabi's unaudited condensed consolidated historical financial statements and related notes included in Nabi's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended March 31, 2012. See "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 145 of this proxy statement for information regarding how you can view Nabi's periodic reports filed with the SEC. The summary financial data for the three months ended March 31, 2012 and March 26, 2011 are unaudited, but in the opinion of Nabi's management reflect all adjustments of a normal recurring nature necessary for a fair statement of Nabi's financial position and results of operations at the dates and for the periods indicated. The results for the three months ended March 31, 2012 are not necessarily indicative of results that may be expected for any other interim period or the entire fiscal year.

Nabi's historical financial data may not be indicative of the results of operations or financial position to be expected in the future.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial data is intended to show how the Transaction might have affected historical financial statements if the Transaction had been completed on January 1, 2011 for the purpose of the statement of operations and March 31, 2012 for the purposes of the balance sheet, and was prepared based on the historical financial results reported by Nabi and Biota. This data also includes the adjustments to reflect the shares of Nabi common stock purchased in Nabi's issuer tender offer that expired on July 30, 2012. The information has been prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP. It has been derived from and should be read in conjunction with the audited and unaudited historical financial statements of each of Nabi and Biota and the notes thereto, as well as the disclosures contained in each company's Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations. For more information about Nabi, see "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 145 of this proxy statement for information regarding how you can view Nabi's periodic reports filed with the SEC. For more information about Biota, see "Information About the Companies—Biota Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" beginning on page 102 of this proxy statement and the consolidated financial statements of Biota and the related notes to those financial statements included in Annex B to this proxy statement. The fiscal year end of the combined company is expected to be December 31.

The Transaction will be accounted for as a reverse acquisition under the acquisition method of accounting. Under the acquisition method of accounting, Biota will be treated as the accounting acquirer and Nabi will be treated as the "acquired" company for financial reporting purposes because, immediately upon completion of the Transaction, Biota's stockholders prior to the Transaction will hold a majority of the voting interest of the combined company. In addition, the eight member board of directors of the combined company will be comprised of six of the current members of the Biota board of directors and therefore Biota's current board of directors will possess majority control of the board of directors of the combined company. Members of the current management of Biota will be responsible for the management of the combined company and the majority of the combined company's activities will be activities related to Biota's current business.

The unaudited pro forma combined financial statements were prepared in accordance with the regulations of the SEC. The pro forma adjustments reflecting the completion of the Transaction and the Nabi issuer tender offer are based upon the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with U.S. GAAP, and upon the assumptions set forth in the notes to the unaudited pro forma combined financial statements.

The unaudited pro forma combined balance sheet as of March 31, 2012 combines the historical balance sheets of Nabi and Biota as of March 31, 2012 and gives pro forma effect to the Transaction and the Nabi issuer tender offer as if they had been completed on March 31, 2012.

The unaudited pro forma combined statement of operations for the three months ended March 31, 2012 combines the unaudited historical statements of operations of Nabi and Biota for their respective three-month periods ended March 31, 2012 and gives pro forma effect to the Transaction and the Nabi issuer tender offer as if they had been completed on January 1, 2011. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2011 combines the historical statements of operations of Nabi and Biota for their respective twelve months ended December 31, 2011 and gives pro forma effect to the Transaction and the Nabi issuer tender offer as if they had been completed on January 1, 2011. Statements of operations information is presented for the continuing operations of Nabi for all periods.

Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Information

The tables presented below reflect the unaudited pro forma adjustments mentioned above to Nabi's statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2011 and the three-month period ended March 31, 2012 and to Nabi's balance sheet as of March 31, 2012.

1. Basis of Presentation

The historical financial data has been adjusted to give pro forma effect to events that are (i) directly attributable to the Transaction and the completion of Nabi's issuer tender offer that expired on July 30, 2012, (ii) factually supportable, and (iii) with respect to the statements of operations, expected to have a continuing impact on the combined results. The pro forma adjustments are preliminary and based on Biota's management's estimates of the fair value and useful lives of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed and have been prepared to illustrate the estimated effect of the acquisition and certain other adjustments. The final purchase price allocation and a final determination of these fair values will reflect Biota's management's consideration of relevant information including discounted cash flows analysis and Biota's management's own estimates and taking into account significant changes, if any, in long term assumptions. This final purchase price allocation will be based on the actual net tangible and intangible assets that exist as of the closing date of the acquisition. Any final adjustment will change the allocation of purchase price, which could affect the fair value assigned to the assets and liabilities of Nabi and could result in a significant change to the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information, including goodwill.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial data is presented for illustrative purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of the financial condition or results of operations of future periods or the financial condition or results of operations that actually would have been realized had the entities been combined during the periods presented. In addition, as explained in more detail in the accompanying notes to the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements, the preliminary acquisition-date fair value of the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed reflected in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements is subject to adjustment and may vary from the actual amounts that will be recorded upon completion of the Transaction.

2. Description of Transaction

On April 22, 2012, Nabi entered into the Transaction Agreement with Biota. Pursuant to the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Transaction Agreement, Biota will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Nabi.

On the completion of the Transaction, each outstanding share of Biota ordinary shares will be converted into the right to receive that number of shares of Nabi common stock as determined pursuant to the exchange ratio, as calculated pursuant to the terms of the Transaction Agreement. Immediately upon completion of the Transaction and regardless of the exact exchange ratio, Biota shareholders are expected to receive shares of Nabi common stock representing an aggregate of approximately 74% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the combined company. Nabi stockholders will continue to own their existing shares of Nabi common stock, which will not be affected by the Transaction, and will not receive any additional shares of Nabi common stock as a result of the Transaction. As a result, such shares will represent an aggregate of approximately 26% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the combined company.

Under the acquisition method of accounting, the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed of Nabi will be recorded at the acquisition date fair values and added to those of Biota. The pro forma adjustments are preliminary and based on Biota's management's estimates of the fair value and useful lives of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed and have been prepared to illustrate the estimated effect of the acquisition. These estimates are based on the most recently available information. To the extent there are significant changes to the combined company's business following the completion of the Transaction, the assumptions and estimates set forth in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements could change significantly. The allocation is dependent upon certain valuation and other studies that will not be completed until after the Transaction. Accordingly, the pro forma purchase price adjustments are subject to further adjustments as additional information becomes available and as additional analyses and final valuations are conducted following the completion of the Transaction. There can be no assurances that these additional analyses and final valuations will not result in significant changes to the estimates of fair value set forth below under Note 4.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements assume an exchange ratio of 0.448722952. Such ratio was calculated by adjusting the original exchange ratio pursuant to the terms of the Transaction Agreement to reflect the 14,547,996 shares of Nabi common stock purchased in Nabi's issuer tender offer that expired on July 30, 2012, and assuming that Nabi does not implement the reverse stock split described in the proxy statement. Should Nabi implement the reverse stock split described in the proxy statement prior to the closing of the transaction, the exchange ratio will be adjusted such that Biota shareholders receive approximately 74% of the outstanding shares of the combined company.

3. Calculation of estimated consideration transferred

The purchase consideration in a reverse acquisition is determined with reference to the value of equity that the accounting acquirer (in this case Biota, the legal subsidiary) would have had to issue to the owners of the accounting acquiree (Nabi, the legal parent) to give them the same percentage interest in the combined entity. A preliminary estimate of the purchase price is as follows:

Number of Biota shares deemed issued	65,980,514
Value per share	$ 0.70
Estimated purchase price (in thousands)	$ 46,324

For pro forma purposes, the fair value of the Biota common stock used in determining the purchase price was $0.70 per share based on the closing price of Biota ordinary shares on August 3, 2012 and the U.S./A$ exchange rate on that day. The final purchase consideration could differ from the amounts presented in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements due to movements in Biota's share price and the U.S./A$ exchange rate between August 3, 2012 and the closing date of the Transaction. For example, if the Biota share price and U.S./A$ exchange rate on April 22, 2012 (the date of the Transaction Agreement) were used, the value per share would have been $0.98 and the estimated purchase price calculated would be $62,506,000.

The impact of possible movements in the Biota share price and the U.S./A$ exchange rate from those applied above is as follows:

Impact on estimated purchase price (in thousands)
Share price fluctuations of +/- A$0.10	$6,447
Exchange rate fluctuation of +/- U.S.$0.10	$5,015

4. Preliminary allocation of consideration transferred to net assets acquired

The estimated acquired tangible and intangible assets and liabilities assumed based on their estimated fair values as of March 31, 2012 comprises (table in thousands):

Cash and cash equivalents	54,000
Property, plant and equipment	17
	54,017
Excess of fair value of assets over purchase price	(7,693)
Total estimated purchase price based on value of Biota shares	46,324

The allocation of the purchase price is preliminary. The final determination of the purchase price allocation will be based on the fair values of assets acquired, other identifiable intangibles and the fair values of liabilities assumed as of the date that the Transaction is completed. Any excess of the purchase price over the fair value of assets and liabilities acquired is allocated to goodwill. Any excess of the fair value of assets and liabilities over the purchase price is recognized as a gain in profit or loss on the acquisition date by the acquirer. The preliminary valuation analysis conducted by Nabi and Biota determined that the fair value of identifiable assets acquired less the fair value of identifiable liabilities assumed by the combined company were greater than the estimated purchase price, resulting in a gain in profit or loss. In accordance with the regulations of the SEC, this gain has not been included in the pro forma statements of operations but has been included in the pro forma balance sheet adjustments. As noted in 3 above, the determination of the purchase price is preliminary as of the date of this filing. If the Biota share price and U.S./A$ exchange rate on April 22, 2012 (the date of the Transaction Agreement) were used, the estimated purchase price calculated would be $62,506,000. Applying this estimated purchase price to the fair value of assets and liabilities indicated above would lead to an allocation to goodwill of $8,489,000.

The estimates of assets acquired and assumed liabilities will remain preliminary until the combined company completes a valuation of identifiable intangible assets acquired and determines the fair values of other assets and liabilities acquired. The final determination of the fair values is expected to be completed as soon as practicable after the completion of the Transaction. The final amounts could differ from the amounts presented in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements, because the amounts allocated will not be determined until the date of the Transaction.

No amounts have been allocated to identifiable intangible assets. Nabi's remaining assets include:

- The residual value of NicVAX® and any next-generation nicotine vaccine (a specific form of a next generation nicotine vaccine was licensed to GSK in 2010), subject to the right of holders of CVRs to potentially receive certain cash payments in connection with a NicVAX Transaction (as defined in the CVR Agreement) upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the CVR Agreement, as more fully described under "Repurchase of Shares of Nabi Common Stock; Dividends and Distributions; Contingent Value Rights—Contingent Value Rights" beginning on page 82 of this proxy statement; and
- the potential royalty of Phoslyra which was sold to a third party in 2006.

Given the significant uncertainty associated with future cash flows from these assets, no value has been ascribed to them in the preliminary allocation of the purchase price.

Cash and cash equivalents

Nabi will return to its existing shareholders cash in excess of the $54 million required to be held by Nabi under the terms of the Transaction Agreement, through a dividend or return of capital prior to the completion of the Transaction. The cash balance presented as part of the pro forma adjustments reflects the cash balance expected to remain in Nabi after the return of capital and settlement of Nabi's obligations including the severance obligations discussed below.

Nabi Severance Obligations

All of Nabi's employees are eligible for severance payments upon termination of employment under certain circumstances, including following a merger or liquidation of Nabi. Following the completion of the Transaction, the majority of Nabi's employees will not continue to be employed by the combined company. However, these terminations did not form part of the negotiations in advance of the signing of the Transaction Agreement, and the Transaction is not conditioned on any such arrangements. The accounting guidance for business combinations (ASC805-10-55) requires severance obligations that are incurred by the acquiree for the benefit of the acquirer to be recognized as an expense in the post-combination period. Because the terminations were determined by the Nabi Board in advance of the Transaction, are not at the option of Biota and were a consequence of changes to Nabi's operations prior to the completion of the Transaction rather than a consequence of the Transaction, the severance obligations have been deemed to be for the benefit of Nabi prior to the acquisition. For purposes of preparing the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements, Nabi has assumed that all severance payouts will be made prior to the closing date of the Transaction. No provision was recognized in the Nabi historical balance sheet. The payments have been included in the determination of the cash balance expected within Nabi on acquisition date.

5. Notes to the Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Statement of Operations

- (A) Represents Nabi's historical financial information in 2011 under U.S. GAAP.
- (B) The information is derived from the historical consolidated financial statements of Biota for its fiscal year ended June 30, 2011 under U.S. GAAP adjusted for the following to derive a comparable reporting period with Nabi:
- information for the six month period ended December 31, 2011 is included in the pro forma financial information for Biota; and
 - information for the six month period ended December 31, 2010 has not been included in the pro forma financial information for Biota.

The information for Biota and the pro forma adjustments above were originally denominated in Australian dollars and have been converted to U.S. dollars based on the average exchange rate of U.S.$1.0000 = A$0.9681 for the year ended December 31, 2011.

The historical financial statements of Biota for the six month periods ended December 31, 2011 and 2010 under U.S. GAAP from which the above information is derived are unaudited.

- (C) Represents the loss per share, taking into consideration the adjusted number of common shares described in note 3 above.
- (D) Represents the number of common shares, in thousands, adjusted by 84,092,187 common shares anticipated to be issued in connection with the Transaction and the 14,547,996, shares of Nabi common stock purchased in Nabi's issuer tender offer that expired on July 30, 2012. The weighted average number of pro forma shares has been adjusted as if the shares had been issued on January 1, 2011.
- (E) Represents Nabi's unaudited historical financial information in the three-month period ended March 31, 2012 under U.S. GAAP.
- (F) Represents Biota's unaudited historical financial information in the three-month period ended March 31, 2012 under U.S. GAAP. The information for Biota and the pro forma adjustments above were originally denominated in Australian dollars and have been converted to U.S. dollars based on the average exchange rate of U.S.$1.0000 = A$0.9480 for the three month period ended March 31, 2012.

6. Notes to the Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet

- (A) Represents Nabi's unaudited historical financial information as of March 31, 2012 under U.S. GAAP.
- (B) Represents the unaudited historical financial information of Biota as of March 31, 2012 under U.S. GAAP. The information for Biota and the pro forma adjustments above were originally denominated in Australian dollars and have been converted to U.S. dollars based on the period end rate of U.S.$1.0000 = A$0.9629.
- (C) Reflects the acquisition method of accounting based on an appraisal of the assets and liabilities of Nabi as discussed in notes 3 and 4 above. This includes the elimination of Nabi's historical stockholder's equity accounts as Nabi is not considered the accounting acquiror. It also incorporates an accrual for acquisition costs contingent on the Transaction.

COMPARATIVE PER SHARE DATA

The following table sets forth selected historical share information of Nabi and Biota and unaudited pro forma share information after giving effect to the Transaction and the completion of Nabi's issuer tender offer that expired on July 30, 2012, assuming that 0.448722952 shares of Nabi common stock had been issued in exchange for each outstanding share of Biota common stock.

This assumption is based on an estimate of the exchange ratio assuming that Nabi does not implement the reverse stock split described in the proxy statement. The pro forma equivalent information of Biota was derived using the historical share information assuming that 0.448722952 shares of Nabi common stock had been issued in exchange for each outstanding share of Biota common stock. You should read this information in conjunction with the selected historical financial information, the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information and the separate historical financial statements of Nabi and Biota and the notes thereto included elsewhere in or incorporated by reference in this proxy statement. The historical share information as of and for the three-month period ended March 31, 2012 is derived from unaudited consolidated financial statements of Nabi and Biota as of and for the three-months ended March 31, 2012. The historical share information as of and for the year ended December 31, 2011 is derived from audited financial statements of Nabi for the year ended December 31, 2011. Given that Biota's fiscal year ends June 30, 2011, Biota's results represents the sum of unaudited historical financial information in the six-month period ended June 30, 2011 and in the six-month period ended December 31, 2011. The amounts set forth below are in thousands, except per share amounts. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements and the pro forma share information are not necessarily indicative of the operating results or financial position that would have been achieved had the Transaction and Nabi's issuer tender offer been consummated at the beginning of the period presented and should not be construed as representative of future operations. Biota's results as reported in Australian dollars have been converted into U.S. dollars using the average and period end exchange rates set out in notes 5 and 6 under "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Information" beginning on page 14 of this proxy statement.

- (1) These amounts were calculated by applying an assumed exchange ratio of 0.448722952 to the historical Biota shares.
- (2) The historical book value per common share is computed by dividing total stockholders' equity by the number of shares of common stock outstanding at the end of the period. The pro forma book value per share is computed by dividing pro forma stockholders' equity by the pro forma number of shares of common stock as of each of the periods presented.

COMPARATIVE PER SHARE MARKET PRICE AND DIVIDEND INFORMATION

Shares of Nabi common stock are currently listed and principally traded on the NASDAQ under the symbol "NABI." Ordinary shares of Biota are currently listed and principally traded on the ASX under the symbol "BTA." The following table sets forth, for the periods indicated, the high and low sales prices per share of Nabi common stock and Biota ordinary shares as reported on the NASDAQ and the ASX, respectively. Price per share information for Biota ordinary shares is presented in Australian dollars.

The table below sets forth the closing sale prices of Nabi common stock and Biota ordinary shares as reported on the NASDAQ and ASX, each on April 20, 2012, the last trading day prior to the public announcement of the transaction. The table also shows the implied value of one ordinary share of Biota, which was calculated by multiplying the closing price of Nabi common stock on that date by the exchange ratio of 0.669212231, the original exchange ratio set forth in the Transaction Agreement (without any adjustments made for the shares of Nabi common stock purchased in Nabi's issuer tender offer or the potential reverse stock split described in this proxy statement). The market prices of Nabi common stock and Biota ordinary shares likely will fluctuate between the date of this proxy statement and the time of the special meetings and the completion of the Transaction. No assurance can be given concerning the market prices of Nabi common stock or Biota ordinary shares before the completion of the Transaction or the market price of Nabi common stock after the completion of the Transaction. The Transaction consideration is fixed in the Transaction Agreement and will not be adjusted for changes in the market value of the Nabi common stock or Biota ordinary shares, except that it will be adjusted in the event that Nabi implements the reverse stock split described in the proxy statement prior to the completion of the Transaction in order to preserve the respective percentage of shares of the outstanding common stock of the combined company to be held immediately after the completion of the Transaction by Biota's former stockholders on the one hand (collectively being approximately 74%) and Nabi's existing stockholders on the other hand (collectively being approximately 26%). As a result, the market value of the Nabi common stock that Biota stockholders will receive in the Transaction may vary significantly from the prices shown in the table below.

Nabi stockholders should obtain current market prices for shares of Nabi common stock and Biota ordinary shares in deciding whether to vote for the approval of the Transaction Proposals.

Dividends

Nabi has never declared or paid cash dividends on its capital stock. However, Nabi plans to return to Nabi stockholders, before the completion of the Transaction, through cash dividends or return of capital, as applicable, its remaining cash in excess of the $54 million required to be held by Nabi at the completion of the Transaction after satisfying outstanding liabilities. Such remaining cash amount is currently expected to be in the range of approximately $1 million to $5 million.

Biota has never declared nor paid cash dividends on its capital stock and does not expect to pay any cash dividends in the foreseeable future.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE SPECIAL MEETING

The following are some questions that you, as a stockholder of Nabi, may have regarding the Transaction and the other matters being considered at the special meeting of Nabi stockholders, as well as answers to those questions. Nabi urges you to read this proxy statement carefully and in its entirety because the information in this section does not provide all of the information that might be important to you with respect to the Transaction and the other matters being considered at the special meeting. Additional important information is also contained in the annexes to, and the documents incorporated by reference into, this proxy statement.

Q: Why am I receiving this proxy statement?

A: Nabi and Biota are proposing to combine the two companies in the Transaction pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Transaction Agreement that is described in this proxy statement. In the Transaction, Nabi will acquire all of the outstanding ordinary shares of Biota in exchange for shares of Nabi common stock pursuant to a scheme of arrangement under Australian corporate law, and Biota will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Nabi. Upon the completion of the Transaction, shares of Nabi common stock representing approximately 74% of the outstanding common stock of the combined company will be issued to former Biota stockholders, and the shares of common stock held by existing Nabi stockholders will represent approximately 26% of the outstanding common stock of the combined company immediately after the completion of the Transaction. The combined company will be named “Biota Pharmaceuticals, Inc.” A copy of the Transaction Agreement is attached to this proxy statement as Annex A.

In order to complete the Transaction, Nabi stockholders must approve an amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of Nabi common stock, an amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation to change the name of the company to “Biota Pharmaceuticals, Inc.,” and the issuance of shares of Nabi common stock to Biota stockholders in the Transaction. In addition, Biota stockholders must approve the Transaction, and all other conditions to the Transaction must be satisfied or waived.

The amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of Nabi common stock, the amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation to change the name of the company, and the issuance of Nabi common stock in Transaction will not occur unless all of these proposals are approved by Nabi’s stockholders. Nabi will hold a special meeting of its stockholders to obtain the required approvals of its stockholders, and Biota will hold a separate special meeting of its stockholders to obtain the required approval of the Biota stockholders.

At the Nabi special meeting, Nabi’s stockholders also will be asked to consider and vote upon certain other proposals in connection with the Transaction as described below and under “The Special Meeting” beginning on page 98 of this proxy statement.

Q: What will I receive in the Transaction?

A: Nabi stockholders will continue to own their existing shares of Nabi common stock after the Transaction. Immediately after the completion of the Transaction, Nabi’s existing stockholders will own collectively approximately 26% of the outstanding common stock of the combined company, and Biota’s former stockholders will own collectively approximately 74% of the outstanding common stock of the combined company.

Q: Will Nabi distribute any cash on hand or other assets to the existing Nabi stockholders?

A: Nabi plans to return to its stockholders, before the completion of the Transaction, its remaining cash in excess of the $54 million required to be held by Nabi at the completion of the Transaction after satisfying outstanding liabilities. Such distribution is expected to take the form of a dividend or return of capital, and currently is expected to be in the range of approximately $1 million to $5 million in the aggregate. On July 30, 2012, Nabi’s previously announced tender offer expired, pursuant to which Nabi purchased 14,547,996 shares of its common stock for approximately $24.4 million.

In addition, Nabi plans to issue CVRs to existing Nabi stockholders before the completion of the Transaction. Nabi expects that one CVR will be issued for each share of Nabi common stock outstanding as of a record date to be set at a date prior to the completion of the Transaction. However, the CVRs will not be attached to the shares of Nabi common stock. A CVR will be a non-transferrable (subject to certain limited exceptions) right to potentially receive certain cash payments in connection with a NicVAX Transaction upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the CVR Agreement to be entered into between Nabi and a rights agent. The form of the CVR Agreement is attached to this proxy statement as Annex G. See “Repurchase of Shares of Nabi Common Stock; Dividends and Distributions; Contingent Value Rights—Contingent Value Rights” beginning on page 82 of this proxy statement for more information regarding the CVRs, the CVR Agreement and the NicVAX Transaction.

Q: What will happen if the Transaction is not completed?

A: In the event that the Transaction is not completed, either because of the failure of either Nabi’s or Biota’s stockholders to approve the Transaction, or the failure of another condition to completion of the Transaction, Nabi’s board of directors will consider alternative strategic options available to Nabi. If Nabi’s board of directors determines that liquidation and dissolution is advisable, it will approve a plan of liquidation and dissolution and submit the plan to Nabi stockholders for their approval. Any stockholders meeting to consider such a plan likely would be held approximately three or four months after the termination of the Transaction Agreement. Thereafter, if the plan is approved by stockholders, Nabi believes it will take approximately three years to complete the dissolution and winding-up process and distribute all remaining assets to Nabi stockholders in accordance with the DGCL. The DGCL requires a dissolving company to continue its legal existence for a period of at least three years after the filing of a certificate of dissolution with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware for the purpose of winding up its business and affairs.

Following stockholder approval of a plan of liquidation and dissolution and the filing of a certificate of dissolution in Delaware but prior to the completion of the dissolution and winding-up process, Nabi likely will make one or more initial or interim liquidating distribution to Nabi stockholders of a majority of Nabi’s remaining cash assets, which distribution amounts will depend on known, unknown, contingent and pending claims at the time of the distributions. Nabi currently estimates such initial or interim liquidating distributions to be approximately $1.51 to $1.68 per share of Nabi common stock in the aggregate (assuming no changes to the currently outstanding number of shares of Nabi common stock). The estimated range of the liquidating distributions described in the preceding sentence is based on Nabi having cash of $92.7 million as of June 30, 2012, less approximately $1.5 million of estimated operating expenses until September 30, 2012, less approximately $24.6 million used for purchasing shares in its previously announced issuer tender offer (including related fees and expenses), and less approximately $13.5 million in the aggregate to pay, and make provision for, existing and known potential claims and liabilities, including severance payments and transaction-related fees and liabilities, expenses related to continuing operations during the liquidation process, including making required regulatory filings and the establishment of a mechanism for collecting and distributing any future distributions, milestone or royalty payments under existing agreements and any potential new agreements with respect to NicVAX[®] (Nicotine Conjugate Vaccine) and Phoslyra[®]. In addition, a reserve amount of approximately $5 million to $10 million in the aggregate would be set aside for the satisfaction of unknown future contingent and potential claims and liabilities in accordance with the DGCL. The amount remaining from the $5 million to $10 million reserve, if any, together with any other remaining assets, after satisfying Nabi’s remaining, actual, contingent or potential claims and liabilities will be distributed to the stockholders. Nabi currently is unable to predict the precise nature, amount or timing of the liquidating distributions described above. The range of the liquidating distributions and the other amounts referred to in this paragraph are preliminary estimates based on the information currently available to Nabi and are subject to change based on factors currently unknown to Nabi that may affect its remaining cash in the future, such as additional expenditures and/or liabilities. Therefore, the actual amounts of the liquidating distributions may be lower or higher than Nabi’s current estimates.

Q: Is the Transaction expected to be taxable to stockholders?

A: Nabi's existing stockholders will simply retain their shares of Nabi common stock in the Transaction, and accordingly there will be no material U.S. federal income tax consequences to Nabi's existing stockholders resulting from the issuance of Nabi shares in the Transaction. See "Proposal 3: Amendment to Certificate of Incorporation to Effectuate Reverse Stock Split—Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Reverse Stock Split" beginning on page 134 of this proxy statement for a discussion of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of the proposed reverse stock split described in this proxy statement.

Q: When and where will Nabi hold its special meeting?

A: The special meeting will be held at 10:00 a.m. local time on September 24, 2012, at The Bethesda Marriott Hotel, 5151 Pooks Hill Road, Bethesda, Maryland, to consider and vote on each of the proposals described below.

Q: What will the Nabi stockholders be asked to vote upon at the special meeting?

A: At the special meeting, Nabi's stockholders will be asked to consider and vote upon the following proposals:

1. to approve an amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation to increase the authorized shares of Nabi common stock from 125,000,000 shares to 200,000,000 shares;
2. to approve an amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation to change the name of Nabi from "Nabi Biopharmaceuticals" to "Biota Pharmaceuticals, Inc.";
3. to approve an amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation to effect a reverse stock split of Nabi common stock at any time prior to December 31, 2012 at a ratio ranging from four-to-one to eight-to-one, as determined by Nabi's board of directors in its sole discretion;
4. to approve the issuance of shares of Nabi common stock to Biota stockholders contemplated by the Transaction Agreement;
5. to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation payable to certain executive officers of Nabi under existing arrangements in connection with the Transaction; and
6. to approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve any of proposals 1 through 4.

Proposals 1, 2 and 3 are collectively referred to herein as the Charter Amendment Proposals. Proposals 1, 2 and 4 are collectively referred to herein as the Transaction Proposals.

Q: What will the Biota stockholders be asked to vote upon?

A: Biota stockholders will not be asked to vote on any of the proposals to be considered and voted upon at the Nabi special meeting. Rather, Biota will hold a separate special meeting of its stockholders, pursuant to Australian corporate law, at which Biota's stockholders will be asked to consider and vote upon a resolution to approve the Transaction.

Q: Who is eligible to vote at the special meeting?

A: Holders of Nabi common stock as of the close of business on August 3, 2012, the record date for the special meeting, are eligible to vote.

Q: How many votes do Nabi's stockholders have?

A: Holders of Nabi's common stock are entitled to cast one vote on each motion properly brought before the special meeting for each share of Nabi common stock that such holder owned at the close of business on the record date.

Q: What constitutes a quorum for the special meeting?

A: A majority of the outstanding shares of Nabi common stock entitled to vote being present in person or represented by proxy constitutes a quorum for the special meeting. Abstentions will be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum at the special meeting. Banks, brokers and other nominees that hold their customers' shares in street name may not vote their customers' shares on "non-routine" matters without instructions from their customers. As each of the proposals to be voted upon at the special meeting is considered "non-routine," such organizations do not have discretion to vote on any proposal for which they do not receive instructions from their customers (this is referred to in this context as a "broker non-vote"). As a result, if you fail to provide your broker, bank or other nominee with any instructions regarding how to vote your shares, your shares will not be considered present at the special meeting, will not be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum and will not be voted on any of the proposals. If you provide instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee which indicate how to vote your shares with respect to certain proposals but not with respect to a particular proposal, your shares will be considered present at the special meeting and be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum but will not be voted with respect to that particular proposal.

If a quorum is not present at the meeting, the chairman of the meeting may adjourn the meeting to continue to solicit proxies.

Q: What vote by the Nabi stockholders is required to approve the Charter Amendment Proposals and the proposal to approve the issuance of Nabi common stock to Biota stockholders in the Transaction?

A: Approval of each of the Charter Amendment Proposals requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Nabi's common stock outstanding at the close of business on the record date. Approval of the issuance of shares of Nabi common stock to Biota stockholders as contemplated by the Transaction Agreement will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the holders of Nabi's common stock properly cast on the proposal at the special meeting.

Q: Why is my vote important? What happens if I don't vote?

A: In order to complete the Transaction, Nabi stockholders must approve each of the Transaction Proposals. If you abstain from voting, fail to vote (either in person or by proxy), or fail to provide your broker, bank or other nominee with instructions on how to vote your shares in connection with any Charter Amendment Proposal, it will have the same effect as a vote against that proposal.

Q: Why am I being asked to cast an advisory (non-binding) vote to approve the executive compensation payable in connection with the Transaction?

A: The SEC adopted rules that require some public companies to seek an advisory (non-binding) vote with respect to certain payments that will be made in transactions such as the Transaction. These rules require us to seek such an advisory vote regarding certain payments to Nabi's named executive officers under existing arrangements in connection with the Transaction.

Q: What will happen if the Nabi stockholders do not approve the executive compensation payable in connection with the Transaction?

A: Approval, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, of the compensation payable to certain of Nabi's executive officers under existing arrangements in connection with the Transaction is not a condition to completion of the Transaction. The vote with respect to such compensation is an advisory vote and will not be binding on Transaction. Nabi is contractually obligated to pay such compensation. Therefore, if the Transaction Proposals are adopted by the stockholders and the Transaction is completed, the compensation payable to Nabi's named executive officers will still be paid regardless of the outcome of this advisory vote.

Q: Why am I being asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to amend the Nabi certificate of incorporation to effect a reverse stock split of the Nabi common stock?

A: The primary intent of the reverse stock split is to make the price of Nabi common stock more attractive to a broader range of institutional and other investors and to ensure Nabi's stock price remains in compliance with NASDAQ listing requirements. However, approval of the amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation to effect such a reverse stock split is not a condition to completion of the Transaction.

Q: Why am I being asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the issuance of shares of Nabi common stock to Biota stockholders contemplated by the Transaction Agreement?

A: Because Nabi common stock is listed for trading on NASDAQ, issuances of Nabi common stock are subject to the NASDAQ Stock Market Listing Rules. NASDAQ Stock Market Listing Rule 5635 requires stockholder approval for the issuance of Nabi common stock (1) in connection with the acquisition of the stock or assets of another company if the issuance would result in an increase of 20% or more of the total number of shares of Nabi common stock outstanding before any such proposed issuance, or (2) that constitutes a change of control of Nabi. Because both of these events will occur if the Transaction is completed, we are asking you to approve the issuance of Nabi common stock in the Transaction.

Q: How does Nabi's board of directors recommend that I vote?

A: Nabi's board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" each of the proposals to be considered and voted upon at the special meeting.

Q: Is anyone soliciting proxies to vote contrary to the recommendation of Nabi's board of directors?

A: Yes. Mangrove has filed a preliminary proxy statement with the SEC indicating it will solicit proxies to vote against the proposals described herein. Nabi's board of directors strongly disagrees with the views expressed by Mangrove in its preliminary proxy statement. As described in more detail in this proxy statement, Nabi's board of directors believes that the Transaction is in the best interests of Nabi and its stockholders and that the Transaction offers an opportunity for Nabi's stockholders to participate in the growth of the combined company. As described in this proxy statement, Nabi's board of directors arrived at this conclusion after conducting a robust and comprehensive strategic alternatives process and carefully considering, with the assistance of financial advisors and outside legal counsel, various alternatives to the Transaction, including the liquidation and dissolution of Nabi. See "The Transaction—Background of the Transaction" beginning on page 56 of this proxy statement, "The Transaction—Nabi Reasons for the Transaction" beginning on page 61 of this proxy statement and "The Transaction—Recommendation of the Nabi Board of Directors" beginning on page 64 of this proxy statement for more information about the factors considered by Nabi's board of directors.

If Mangrove proceeds with its solicitation of proxies against the Transaction, you may receive an opposition proxy statement and green proxy card from Mangrove. To vote as Nabi's board recommends, you should disregard any such green proxy card and instead vote by submitting the WHITE proxy card accompanying this proxy statement or following the voting instructions accompanying this proxy statement in accordance with the instructions described below. If you vote against the Transaction using a green proxy card, you have the right to change your vote by submitting a subsequent vote as described below.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: Please read this proxy statement carefully, including its annexes, to consider how the Transaction affects you. After you read this proxy statement, you should complete, sign and date your WHITE proxy card and mail it in the enclosed return envelope or submit your proxy over the telephone or over the Internet as soon as possible so that your shares can be voted at the special meeting. If you sign, date and mail your WHITE proxy card without indicating how you wish to vote, your vote will be counted as a vote "FOR" each of the proposals being considered and voted upon at the special meeting.

Q: How do I vote?

A: If you are a stockholder of record, you may vote in any of the following ways:

- To vote in person, come to the special meeting and you will be able to vote by ballot. To ensure that your shares are voted at the special meeting, Nabi's board of directors recommends that you submit a proxy even if you plan to attend the special meeting.
- To vote using the enclosed WHITE proxy card, simply complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and return it promptly in the enclosed return envelope. If you return your signed WHITE proxy card to Nabi before the special meeting, Nabi will vote your shares as you direct.
- To vote by telephone, dial the toll-free telephone number located on the enclosed proxy card using a touch-tone phone and follow the recorded instructions. You will be asked to provide the company number and control number from the enclosed proxy card. Your vote must be received by 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on September 23, 2012 to be counted.
- To vote over the Internet, go to the web address located on the enclosed proxy card to complete an electronic proxy card. You will be asked to provide the company number and control number from the enclosed proxy card. Your vote must be received by 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on September 23, 2012 to be counted.

If your shares of common stock are held in "street name" by your broker, bank or other nominee, you should have received a WHITE voting instruction form with these proxy materials from that organization rather than from Nabi. Your broker, bank or other nominee will vote your shares only if you provide instructions to that organization on how to vote. You should provide your broker, bank or other nominee with instructions regarding how to vote your shares by following the enclosed procedures provided by that organization. Your shares will not be voted with respect to any proposal for which you fail to provide instructions, which will have the same effect as voting against the Charter Amendment Proposals, but which will have no effect on approval of the other proposals.

A control number, located on your proxy card or voting instruction form, is designed to verify your identity and allow you to vote your shares of Nabi common stock, and to confirm that your voting instructions have been properly recorded when voting over the Internet or by telephone.

Q: What does it mean if I receive more than one set of materials?

A: This means you own shares of Nabi common stock that are registered under different names. For example, you may own some shares directly as a stockholder of record and other shares through a broker or you may own shares through more than one broker, bank or other nominee. In these situations, you will receive multiple sets of proxy materials. You must complete, sign, date and return each of the WHITE proxy cards and voting instruction forms that you receive, or vote all of your shares over the telephone or over the Internet in accordance with the instructions above in order to vote all of the shares you own. Each proxy card you receive comes with its own prepaid return envelope and control number(s). If you vote by mail, make sure you return each WHITE proxy card in the return envelope that accompanies that proxy card or voting instruction form, and if you vote by telephone or via the Internet, please follow the enclosed instructions and use your control number(s).

Q: What happens if I sell my shares of common stock before the special meeting?

A: The record date for stockholders entitled to vote at the special meeting is earlier than the date of the special meeting. If you transfer your shares of Nabi common stock after the record date but before the date of the special meeting, you will retain your right to vote at the special meeting unless special arrangements are made between you and the person to whom you transfer your shares.

Q: May I vote in person?

A: If you are the stockholder of record of shares of common stock, you have the right to vote in person at the special meeting with respect to those shares. If you are the beneficial owner of shares of Nabi common stock, you are invited to attend the special meeting but, since you are not the stockholder of record, you may not vote these shares in person at the special meeting, unless you obtain a document called a “legal proxy” from your broker, bank or other nominee giving you the right to vote the shares at the special meeting. Even if you plan to attend the special meeting as a stockholder of record, we recommend that you also submit your WHITE proxy card or voting instructions as described above under “How do I vote?” so that your vote will be counted if you later decide not to attend the special meeting.

Q: How can I change or revoke my vote?

A: If you are the stockholder of record of shares of Nabi common stock, you have the right to revoke a proxy, delivered by mail, by telephone, or over the Internet, at any time before it is exercised, by voting again at a later date through any of the methods available to you, by delivering written notice of revocation to our Corporate Secretary by the time the special meeting begins, or by attending the special meeting and voting in person.

If your shares of Nabi common stock are held in “street name” and you have voted your shares by following the directions your broker, bank or other nominee has provided to you, you may change or revoke your vote by following the directions you have received from your broker, bank or other nominee.

If you have voted the Mangrove green proxy card, you may change your vote and revoke that proxy by executing a later dated Nabi WHITE proxy card, if you are a stockholder of record, or by following the directions you have received from your broker, bank or other nominee, if your shares are held in “street name.”

Please remember—your last vote is the vote that will be counted.

Q: Am I entitled to appraisal rights?

A: No. Under Delaware law, holders of shares of Nabi common stock are not entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the Transaction or any of the matters to be acted on at the special meeting.

Q: Is completion of the Transaction subject to any conditions?

A: Yes. Nabi and Biota are not required to complete the Transaction unless a number of conditions are satisfied or waived, including receipt of the required approvals from the Nabi stockholders and Biota stockholders. See “The Transaction Agreement—Conditions Precedent to the Transaction” beginning on page 112 of this proxy statement for a more complete summary of the conditions that must be satisfied or waived prior to completion of the Transaction.

Q: Who can help answer my questions?

A: The information provided above in the question-and-answer format is for your convenience only and is merely a summary of some of the information in this proxy statement. You should carefully read the entire proxy statement, including its annexes. If you would like additional copies of this proxy statement, without charge, or if you have questions about the Transaction, including the procedures for voting your shares, you should contact Morrow & Co., LLC, Nabi’s proxy solicitation agent. The address of Morrow & Co., LLC is 470 West Avenue, Stamford, CT 06902 You can call Morrow & Co., LLC at (203) 658-9400 or toll-free at (800) 607-0088.

You may also wish to consult your legal, tax and/or financial advisors with respect to any aspect of the Transaction, the Transaction Agreement or other matters discussed in this proxy statement.

RISK FACTORS

You should carefully consider the following risk factors related to the Transaction and the anticipated business of the combined company after the closing of the Transaction, as well as the other information contained in this proxy statement, including the attached annexes, in evaluating whether to approve the Transaction Proposals. If any of the risks described below, or elsewhere in this proxy statement, actually occurs, the business, financial results, financial condition, operating results or stock price of the combined company could be materially adversely affected.

Risks Related to the Transaction

Nabi stockholders will suffer immediate and substantial dilution to their equity and voting interests as a result of the issuance of Nabi common stock to Biota stockholders.

In connection with the Transaction, Nabi will issue approximately 84 million shares of common stock, which number will be adjusted depending on the number of shares of Nabi common stock that remain outstanding after completion of the reverse stock split described under “Proposal 3: Amendment to Certificate of Incorporation to Effectuate Reverse Stock Split” beginning on page 134 of this proxy statement. (If the reverse stock split is implemented prior to the completion of the Transaction, the number of shares of Nabi common stock to be issued to Biota stockholders will be in the range of approximately 10.5 million to 21.0 million, depending on the actual ratio determined by Nabi’s board of directors.) Regardless of whether or not the reverse stock split is implemented prior to the completion of the Transaction, immediately following the completion of the Transaction, former Biota stockholders will own collectively approximately 74% of the total number of shares of the combined company’s outstanding common stock and existing stockholders of Nabi will own approximately 26% of the outstanding common stock of the combined company. Accordingly, the issuance of Nabi common stock to Biota stockholders will have the effect of reducing the percentage of equity and voting interest held by each of Nabi’s existing stockholders. Consequently, Nabi stockholders as a group will have significantly less influence over the management and policies of the combined company after the Transaction than they currently exercise.

The integration of Biota with Nabi will subject the combined company to liabilities that may exist at Biota.

The integration of Biota with Nabi may pose special risks, including one-time write-offs or restructuring charges, unanticipated costs, and the loss of key employees. There can be no assurance that integration of Nabi and Biota will be accomplished effectively or in a timely manner. In addition, the integration of Biota will subject the combined company to liabilities that may exist at Biota, some of which may be unknown. While Nabi and its advisors have conducted due diligence on the operations of Biota, there can be no guarantee that Nabi is aware of any and all liabilities of Biota. These liabilities, and any additional risks and uncertainties related to the Transaction not currently known to Nabi or that Nabi may currently deem immaterial, could negatively impact the combined company’s future business, financial condition and results of operations.

The price of the combined company’s common stock and the combined company’s results of operations after the Transaction will likely be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the price of Nabi common stock and Nabi’s results of operations.

Biota’s business is different in certain ways from that of Nabi, and the combined company’s results of operations, as well as the price of the combined company’s common stock after the Transaction, may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting Nabi’s results of operations and the price of Nabi common stock. The price of the combined company’s common stock may fluctuate significantly following the Transaction, including as a result of factors over which Nabi and Biota have no control. See “—Risks Related to Biota and the Combined Company” beginning on page 37 of this proxy statement for a discussion of Biota’s business and certain factors to consider in connection with such business, including risk factors for Biota.

Some Biota and Nabi stockholders may not intend to hold shares of the combined company's common stock received in the Transaction. If a significant number of Biota or Nabi stockholders seek to sell their shares of the combined company's common stock, this may adversely affect the trading price of the combined company's common stock following the completion of the Transaction.

Nabi will incur significant transaction and combination-related costs in connection with the Transaction.

Nabi and Biota expect to incur significant costs associated with the Transaction and combining the operations of the two companies. Nabi's fees and expenses related to the Transaction include financial advisors' fees, filing fees, legal and accounting fees, soliciting fees, regulatory fees and mailing costs, some of which will be paid regardless of whether the Transaction is completed. Such fees and expenses will reduce Nabi's cash on hand and the amount of cash that Nabi may be able to distribute to Nabi stockholders in a form of dividend or return of capital. Furthermore, following the completion of the Transaction, the combined company will incur costs associated with combining the operations of the two companies. However, it is difficult to predict the amount of these costs before the combined company begins the integration process. The combined company may incur additional unanticipated costs as a consequence of difficulties arising from efforts to integrate the companies.

The market price of Nabi common stock may decline as a result of the Transaction.

The market price of the combined company's common stock may decline as a result of the Transaction if the integration of Biota's business is unsuccessful, the perceived benefits of the Transaction are not achieved as rapidly or to the extent anticipated by financial analysts or investors, or the effect of the Transaction on the combined company's financial results after the completion of the Transaction is not consistent with the expectations of financial analysts or investors.

The Transaction Agreement limits Nabi's ability to pursue alternatives to the Transaction, and in certain instances requires payment of a break fee, which could deter a third party from proposing an alternative transaction to the Transaction.

While the Transaction Agreement is in effect, subject to certain limited exceptions, Nabi is prohibited from soliciting, initiating, encouraging or entering into certain transactions, such as a merger, sale of assets or other business combination, with any third party. See "The Transaction Agreement—Exclusivity; No-Solicitation" beginning on page 125 of this proxy statement for a description of the foregoing limitations. As a result of these limitations, Nabi may lose opportunities to enter into a more favorable transaction than the Transaction.

Moreover, under specified circumstances, Nabi could be required to pay Biota a break fee of A$2 million in connection with the termination of the Transaction Agreement. See "The Transaction Agreement—Break Fee" beginning on page 128 of this proxy statement for a description of Nabi's obligations in these circumstances. The break fee could deter a third party from proposing an alternative to the Transaction.

The Transaction is subject to conditions to closing that could result in the Transaction being delayed or not completed and the Transaction Agreement can be terminated in certain circumstances, each of which could negatively impact the price of Nabi common stock and its future business and operations.

The Transaction is subject to conditions to closing as set forth in the Transaction Agreement. See "The Transaction Agreement—Conditions Precedent to the Transaction" beginning on page 112 of this proxy statement. In addition, each of Nabi and Biota has the right, in certain circumstances, to terminate the Transaction Agreement. See "The Transaction Agreement—Termination" beginning on page 127 of this proxy statement. If the Transaction Agreement is terminated or any of the conditions to closing are not satisfied and, where permissible, not waived, the Transaction will not be completed. Failure to complete the Transaction or any delay in the completion of the Transaction or any uncertainty about the completion of the Transaction may adversely affect the price of Nabi common stock or have an adverse impact on Nabi's future business and operations.

If the Transaction is not completed, Nabi's ongoing business may be adversely affected and, without realizing any of the benefits of having completed the Transaction, Nabi would be subject to a number of risks, including the following:

- negative reactions from the financial markets and from persons who have or may be considering business dealings with Nabi;
- incurring and paying significant expenses in connection with the Transaction, such as financial advisors' fees, filing fees, legal and accounting fees, soliciting fees, regulatory fees, mailing costs and other related expenses; and
- paying a break fee of A$2 million if the Transaction Agreement is terminated in certain circumstances or the Transaction is not completed for certain reasons. See "The Transaction Agreement—Break Fee" beginning on page 128 of this proxy statement for further information regarding break fees.

In addition, Nabi could be subject to litigation related to any failure to complete the Transaction or seeking to require Nabi to perform its obligations under the Transaction Agreement.

Certain directors and executive officers of Nabi may have potential conflicts of interest in connection with the Transaction.

The interests of certain of the directors and executive officers of Nabi are different from those of Nabi stockholders generally, and such directors and executive officers of Nabi participate in arrangements that are different from, or in addition to, those of Nabi stockholders. See "The Transaction—Interests of Nabi Executive Officers and Directors in the Transaction" beginning on page 71 of this proxy statement for more information. Nabi stockholders should consider whether these interests may have influenced those directors and executive officers with respect to the Transaction.

As of August 3, 2012, Nabi directors and executive officers collectively beneficially owned approximately 2,950,496 or 10.4% of the shares of Nabi common stock then outstanding.

Nabi's actual liquidation/dissolution distribution amounts, if the Transaction is not completed and Nabi pursues a liquidation and dissolution of the company, may be significantly different from the current estimates.

In the event that the Transaction is not completed, either because of the failure of either Nabi's or Biota's stockholders to approve the Transaction, or the failure of another condition to completion of the Transaction, Nabi's board of directors will consider alternative strategic options available to Nabi. If Nabi's board of directors determines that liquidation and dissolution is advisable, it will approve a plan of liquidation and dissolution and submit the plan to Nabi stockholders for their approval. Any stockholders meeting to consider such a plan likely would be held approximately three or four months after the termination of the Transaction Agreement. Thereafter, if the plan is approved by stockholders, Nabi believes it will take approximately three years to complete the dissolution and winding-up process and distribute all remaining assets to Nabi stockholders in accordance with the DGCL. The DGCL requires a dissolving company to continue its legal existence for a period of at least three years after the filing of a certificate of dissolution with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware for the purpose of winding up its business and affairs.

Following stockholder approval of a plan of liquidation and dissolution and the filing of a certificate of dissolution in Delaware but prior to the completion of the dissolution and winding-up process, Nabi likely will make one or more initial or interim liquidating distribution to Nabi stockholders of a majority of Nabi's remaining cash assets, which distribution amounts will depend on known, unknown, contingent and pending claims at the time of the distributions. Nabi currently estimates such initial or interim liquidating distributions to be approximately $1.51 to $1.68 per share of Nabi common stock in the aggregate (assuming no changes to the currently outstanding number of shares of Nabi common stock). The estimated range of the liquidating distributions described in the preceding sentence is based on Nabi having cash of $92.7 million as of June 30, 2012, less approximately $1.5 million of estimated operating expenses until September 30, 2012, less approximately $24.6 million used for purchasing shares in its previously announced issuer tender offer (including related fees and expenses), and less approximately $13.5 million in the aggregate to pay, and make provision for, existing and known potential claims and liabilities, including severance payments and transaction-related fees and liabilities, expenses related to continuing operations during the liquidation process, including making required regulatory filings and the establishment of a mechanism for collecting and distributing any future distributions, milestone or royalty payments under existing agreements and any potential new agreements with respect to NicVAX[®] (Nicotine Conjugate Vaccine) and Phoslyra[®]. In addition, a reserve amount of approximately $5 million to $10 million in the aggregate would be set aside for the satisfaction of unknown future contingent and potential claims and liabilities in accordance with the DGCL. The amount remaining from the $5 million to $10 million reserve, if any, together with any other remaining assets, after satisfying Nabi's remaining, actual, contingent or potential claims and liabilities will be distributed to the stockholders. Nabi currently is unable to predict the precise nature, amount or timing of the liquidating distributions described above. The range of the liquidating distributions and the other amounts referred to in this paragraph are preliminary estimates based on the information currently available to Nabi and are subject to change based on factors currently unknown to Nabi that may affect its remaining cash in the future, such as additional expenditures and/or liabilities. Therefore, the actual amounts of the liquidating distributions may be significantly lower or higher than Nabi's current estimates.

The application of the purchase method of accounting may adversely affect the market value of Nabi common stock following the Transaction.

In accordance with U.S. GAAP, the Transaction will be accounted for as a "reverse merger" pursuant to which Biota will be considered the acquiror of Nabi. The combined company will account for the Transaction using the purchase method of accounting, which may result in charges to the combined company's earnings that could adversely affect the market value of the combined company's common stock following the completion of the Transaction.

Under the purchase method of accounting, the combined company will allocate the total estimated purchase price to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed from Nabi based on their fair values as of the completion date of the Transaction, and record any excess of the purchase price over those fair values as goodwill. For certain tangible and identifiable intangible assets (excluding goodwill), recording their fair values as of the completion date of the Transaction may result in the combined company incurring significant additional depreciation and/or amortization expense that exceed the amounts recorded by Nabi prior to the Transaction. This increased expense will be recorded by the combined company over the useful lives of the underlying assets. In addition, to the extent the value of goodwill or identifiable intangible assets were to become impaired, the combined company may be required to incur charges relating to the impairment of those assets.

If the fair value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed from Nabi exceed the estimated purchase price at the completion date, instead of recording goodwill, the combined company will recognize a gain for such excess on the completion date of the Transaction.

The pro forma financial information is presented for illustrative purposes only and may not be an indication of the combined company's financial condition or results of operations following the Transaction.

The unaudited condensed pro forma financial information contained in this proxy statement is presented for illustrative purposes only and may not be an indication of the combined company's financial condition or results of operations following the Transaction for several reasons. For example, the unaudited condensed pro forma financial information has been derived from the historical financial statements of Nabi and Biota and certain adjustments and assumptions have been made regarding the combined company after giving effect to the Transaction. The information upon which these adjustments and assumptions have been made is preliminary, and these kinds of adjustments and assumptions are difficult to make with complete accuracy. Moreover, the unaudited condensed pro forma financial information does not reflect all costs that are expected to be incurred by the combined company in connection with the Transaction. For example, the impact of any incremental costs incurred in integrating Nabi and Biota is not reflected in the unaudited condensed pro forma financial information. As a result, the actual financial condition and results of operations of the combined company following the Transaction may not be consistent with, or evident from, the unaudited condensed pro forma financial information. Additionally, the purchase price used in preparing the pro forma financial information is based on the closing price of Biota's shares as of August 3, 2012, which may be materially different from the closing price of Biota's shares on the completion date of the Transaction. The assumptions used in preparing the unaudited condensed pro forma financial information may not prove to be accurate, and other factors may affect the combined company's financial condition or results of operations following the Transaction. The combined company's stock price may be adversely affected if the actual results of the combined company fall short of the historical results reflected in the unaudited condensed pro forma financial information contained in this proxy statement. See "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Information" beginning on page 14 of this proxy statement.

Biota's public filings are subject to Australian disclosure standards, which differ from SEC requirements.

Biota is an Australian issuer that is required to prepare and file its periodic and other filings in accordance with Australian securities laws. As a result, certain of the information about Biota, including any management's discussion and analysis, that is contained in this proxy statement was prepared in conjunction with Biota's financial statements that were prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") or Australian GAAP and other Australian disclosure regulations, rather than the requirements that would apply in the U.S. Because Australian disclosure requirements are different from SEC requirements, the information about Biota contained in this proxy statement may not be comparable to similar information available about Nabi or other U.S. issuers.

Following the Transaction, the combined company's exposure to foreign currency risk will be increased.

Following the completion of the Transaction, the combined company will hold assets, incur liabilities, earn revenues and pay expenses for its Australian operations in Australian dollars. Because the combined company's financial statements will continue to be presented in U.S. dollars, the combined company will be required to translate assets, liabilities, income and expenses that relate to the combined company's Australian operations and that are denominated in Australian dollars into U.S. dollars at the then-applicable exchange rates. Consequently, increases and decreases in the value of the U.S. dollar versus the Australian dollar will affect the value of these items in the combined company's financial statements, even if their underlying value has not changed, and as a result, the combined company's financial results could be more volatile as a result of the Transaction. Although the combined company may enter into transactions to hedge portions of this foreign currency translation exposure, the combined company may not be able to eliminate this exposure.

Nabi cannot assure you whether, when or in what amounts the combined company will be able to use Nabi's net operating losses following the Transaction.

Based on current U.S. tax law, as of December 31, 2011, Nabi had approximately $167.2 million of net operating losses ("NOLs") for U.S. federal income tax purposes. After entering into the Transaction Agreement, the combined company's ability to utilize these tax attributes to offset future taxable income became subject to significant limitations under Sections 382 and 383 and other provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "IRC"). Moreover, issuances or sales of the combined company's common stock following the Transaction (including certain transactions outside of Nabi's control) could result in an ownership change further limiting the combined company's ability to utilize the NOLs. Determining whether an ownership change has occurred and the limitations applicable to the NOLs is technical and highly complex. For these and other reasons, Nabi cannot assure you that the combined company will be able to use Nabi's NOLs after the Transaction in the amounts it projects.

If the number of Nabi's authorized shares of common stock is increased as we are proposing and the proposed reverse stock split is implemented, the combined company may be able to issue a significant number of additional shares of common stock in the future. Additional issuances of common stock by the combined company would dilute the combined company stockholders' ownership interest in the combined company, could reduce some or all of the combined company's financial measures on a per share basis and could reduce the trading price of the combined company's stock.

The combined company may issue equity in the future following the completion of the Transaction in connection with acquisitions, strategic transactions or for other purposes. To the extent the combined company issues additional equity securities, the combined company stockholders' ownership interest in the company would be diluted. Furthermore, some or all of the combined company's financial measures on a per share basis could be reduced. In addition, the shares of the combined company's common stock that the combined company issues may not be subject to resale restrictions and may be freely tradable in the U.S. The market price of the combined company's common stock could decline if certain large holders of the combined company's common stock, or recipients of the combined company's common stock, sell all or a significant portion of their shares of the combined company's common stock or are perceived by the market as intending to sell these shares other than in an orderly manner.

If the shares of Nabi common stock to be issued in the Transaction are not exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, Nabi must use its best endeavors to register such shares with the SEC, which will cause Nabi to incur significant additional costs and delay the completion of the Transaction.

The shares of Nabi common stock to be issued in the Transaction have not been, and are not expected to be, registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction. The shares of Nabi common stock to be issued in the Transaction will be issued pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements provided by Section 3(a)(10) of the Securities Act based on the approval of the Transaction by the Supreme Court of Victoria, Australia. See "Transaction—Federal Securities Laws Consequences; Stock Transfer Restrictions" beginning on page 79 of this proxy statement for more information on the exemption from the registration requirements provided by Section 3(a)(10) of the Securities Act.

In the event that the exemption from the registration requirements provided by Section 3(a)(10) of the Securities Act is not available for any reason, Nabi has agreed in the Transaction Agreement to use its best endeavors (as such term is qualified in the Transaction Agreement) to file a Registration Statement on Form S-4 (or on such other form that may be available to Nabi) in order to register the shares of Nabi common stock to be issued in the Transaction and to use its best endeavors to cause such registration statement to become effective prior to the completion of the Transaction. Preparing, filing and causing effectiveness of such registration statement will result in significant additional costs for Nabi, consisting of additional filing fees, legal and accounting fees, mailing costs and other related expenses, and will delay the completion of the Transaction.

Nabi may not issue CVRs and, even if issued, CVRs may not result in any cash payments to its holders.

Although Nabi currently plans to enter into the CVR Agreement and issue CVRs to Nabi stockholders, there is no assurance that the CVRs will be issued at all or based on the terms currently set forth in the form of the CVR Agreement. See "Repurchase of Shares of Nabi Common Stock; Dividends and Distributions; Contingent Value Rights—Contingent Value Rights" on page 82 of this proxy statement for more information on the terms of the CVR Agreement. Nabi currently has not entered into the CVR Agreement and Nabi's board of directors may determine in its sole discretion not to issue the CVRs based on, among other things, the progress of the remaining investigator-initiated combination clinical trial in the Netherlands for NicVAX[®] with Pfizer Inc.'s varenicline (Chantix/Champix). Furthermore, if Nabi and Biota agree, the terms of the CVR Agreement as currently contemplated may be changed prior to Nabi entering into the CVR Agreement.

Even if CVRs are issued, they may not result in any cash payments to its holders. Under the CVR Agreement, the combined company will not have any obligation whatsoever to pursue, engage in, negotiate, enter into or consummate an actual or potential NicVAX Transaction (as such term is defined in the CVR Agreement) or to research, develop or commercialize NicVAX (Nicotine Conjugate Vaccine) or any other product that would trigger a payment to CVR holders. Even if the combined company enters into a NicVAX transaction, holders of CVRs will not receive any cash payments unless certain threshold amount requirements are met.

Risks Related to Biota and the Combined Company

Biota and Nabi each have a history of net losses, and following the Transaction, the combined company may never achieve or maintain profitability.

Biota and Nabi each have a history of significant net losses. Biota's net losses from continuing operations were approximately A$1.8 million for the three months ended March 31, 2012, A$28.1 million for the twelve months ended June 30, 2011, a profit of A$16.2 million in 2010 and a profit of A$38.2 million in 2009. Nabi's net income/losses from continuing operations were approximately $1.4 million in net losses for the three months ended March 31, 2012, $7.5 million in net losses for the twelve months ended December 31, 2011, $0.9 million in net income for the twelve months ended December 25, 2010, and $18.7 million in net losses for the twelve months ended December 26, 2009.

Following the Transaction, the combined company may continue to incur significant expenses for the foreseeable future for research and development and regulatory activities and maintaining existing and obtaining additional intellectual property rights. Following the Transaction, the combined company cannot provide you any assurance that it will ever achieve profitability and, even if the combined company achieves profitability, that it will be able to sustain or increase profitability on a quarterly or annual basis.

The continuation of the BARDA contract depends on the ability of the combined company to meet milestones previously agreed with BARDA, on results of certain key clinical trials relating to laninamivir and the combined company's compliance with certain operating procedures and protocols. The termination or suspension of the BARDA contract could adversely affect the business of the combined company and its ability to further develop and commercialize laninamivir.

Biota was awarded a contract for the late stage development of laninamivir. Under this contract, Biota is entitled to up to $231 million in funding. Biota is relying on this funding to pay for development of laninamivir. BARDA might attempt to terminate or suspend this contract should laninamivir fail to achieve primary end points of key clinical trials or should the combined company otherwise fail to satisfy various objectives or milestones or fail to comply with normal operating procedures and processes approved by BARDA and its audit agency, Defense Contract Audit Agency. There can be no assurance that laninamivir will achieve these end points or that the combined company will continue to comply with these procedures and protocols.

If the BARDA contract were terminated or suspended this would adversely affect the business of the combined company and its ability to further develop and commercialize laninamivir. The combined company may not have access to sufficient resources to continue to fund its development and commercialization of laninamivir.

The BARDA contract can be varied or terminated by the U.S. Federal Government prior to completion, which could result in revenue shortfalls and reduce profitability or cause losses on the BARDA contract.

The BARDA contract is with a U.S. Federal Government agency and contains provisions permitting BARDA to vary the contract or terminate it on short notice, with or without cause. Variation or unexpected termination of this contract could result in significant revenue shortfalls. If revenue shortfalls occur and are not offset by corresponding reductions in expenses, the combined company's business could be adversely affected. Biota cannot anticipate if, when or to what extent BARDA might vary or terminate its contract with Biota.

It is the current intention of Biota and Nabi that the combined company will rely upon third parties for all of the manufacturing and most of the distribution of its products.

It is the current intention of Biota and Nabi that the combined company will rely upon third parties to manufacture, distribute and market most of its products.

The combined company's reliance on third parties for the manufacture of its products creates a dependency that could disrupt the combined company's research and development, clinical testing, and sales and marketing of its products if the sources of such supply prove to be unreliable or unavailable. If the contracted manufacturing and/or distribution sources become unreliable or unavailable, the combined company and its licensees may not be able to manufacture or market the combined company's products.

Biota's collaboration and license agreement with Daiichi Sankyo does not fully address the respective rights and obligations of Biota and Daiichi Sankyo with respect to how laninamivir may be developed and marketed outside of Japan or how the proceeds from any direct sales of laninamivir outside of Japan would be shared. As a result, unless Biota and Daiichi Sankyo come to an agreement disputes between Biota and Daiichi Sankyo could result in litigation or arbitration and could adversely affect the business, results of operations or financial condition of the combined company.

The collaboration and license agreement between Biota and Daiichi Sankyo does not fully address the respective rights and obligations of Biota and Daiichi Sankyo with respect to how laninamivir may be developed and marketed outside of Japan or how the proceeds from any direct sales by Biota or Daiichi Sankyo of laninamivir outside of Japan would be shared. Also, the agreement includes a provision which restricts either Biota or Daiichi Sankyo from developing, commercializing or otherwise handling or dealing with laninamivir in any country (or enter into any license, collaboration or agreement with a third party to do any of the foregoing).

Unless Biota and Daiichi Sankyo come to an agreement with respect to the development and marketing of laninamivir outside of Japan, disputes between Biota and Daiichi Sankyo could result in litigation or arbitration, which can be expensive and time consuming. If any such dispute were to be resolved unfavorably to Biota, the amount of future revenue laninamivir generates could be reduced. This may have a material adverse effect on the business, results of operations or financial condition of the combined company.

If the combined company fails to attract and retain highly qualified personnel, it may be unable to successfully develop new product candidates, manage clinical trials or enter into strategic collaborations.

The combined company's future success will depend in large part on its ability to attract and retain highly qualified scientific, technical and management personnel, as well as personnel with expertise in preclinical testing, clinical development, regulatory affairs, government relations and strategic partnering. The combined company will face competition for personnel from other companies, universities, public and private research institutions, government entities and other organizations. Competition for qualified personnel in the pharmaceutical field is intense, and there is a limited pool of qualified potential employees to recruit. The combined company may not be able to attract and retain quality personnel on acceptable terms. If the combined company is unsuccessful in its recruitment and retention efforts, its business may be harmed.

The combined company's clinical trials may not be successful.

Following the Transaction, the combined company will only obtain marketing approval to commercialize a product candidate if it or its licensee can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (the "FDA") or the applicable non-U.S. regulatory authority, in clinical trials, that the product candidate is safe and effective, and otherwise meets the appropriate standards required for approval for a particular indication. Clinical trials are lengthy, complex and extremely expensive processes with uncertain results. A failure of one or more of the combined company's clinical trials may occur at any stage of testing and may preclude the ability of the combined company or its licensees to submit an application for marketing approval of its product candidate.

It is the current intention of Biota and Nabi that the combined company will rely on third parties to conduct certain preclinical development activities and clinical trials and those third parties may not perform satisfactorily.

It is the current intention of Biota and Nabi that following the Transaction, the combined company will not conduct in its facilities certain preclinical development activities with respect to its product candidates, such as preclinical studies in animals, nor will it conduct clinical trials for its product candidates itself. It is the current intention of Biota and Nabi that the combined company will rely on, or work in conjunction with, third parties to perform these functions, such as contract research organizations, medical institutions and clinical investigators. The combined company's reliance on these third parties for preclinical and clinical development studies may reduce its control over these activities. The combined company will remain responsible for ensuring that the preclinical development activities and clinical trials with respect to each of its product candidates is conducted in accordance with the applicable U.S. federal and state laws and foreign regulations, general investigational plans and protocols. However, other than contracts between these third parties and the combined company or its licensees, it has no direct control over these researchers or contractors, as they will not be employees of the combined company. Moreover, the regulatory authorities will require the combined company to comply with standards, commonly referred to as Good Laboratory Practices and Good Clinical Practices for conducting, recording and reporting the results of its preclinical development and clinical trials, respectively, to assure that data and reported results are credible and accurate and that the rights, safety and confidentiality of trial participants are protected. The combined company's reliance on third parties that it will not control, including its licensees, will not relieve the combined company of these responsibilities and requirements. Furthermore, these third parties may have relationships with other entities, some of which may be the combined company's competitors. If these third parties do not successfully carry out their contractual duties, meet expected deadlines or conduct the combined company's preclinical development activities or clinical trials in accordance with regulatory requirements or the stated protocols of the combined company or its licensees, the combined company or its licensees may not be able to obtain, or may be delayed in obtaining, marketing approvals for its product candidates and may not be able to, or may be delayed in its efforts to successfully commercialize its product candidates. These third parties may be warned, suspended or otherwise sanctioned by the FDA or other government or regulatory authorities for failing to meet the applicable requirements imposed on such third parties. As a result, the third parties may not be able to fulfill their contractual obligations, and the results obtained from the preclinical and clinical research using their services may not be accepted by the regulatory authorities to support the marketing approval of the combined company's product candidates. If the third parties or their employees become debarred by the regulatory authorities, the combined company and its licensees will not be able to use the research data derived from their services to support the marketing approval of the combined company's product candidates. Finally, these third parties may be bought by other entities, change their business plans or strategies or they may go out of business, thereby preventing them from meeting their contractual obligations to the combined company and its licensees.

It is the current intention of Biota and Nabi that the combined company will rely on pharmaceutical companies with whom they partner to pay the majority of the costs associated with obtaining regulatory approval for, and manufacturing and marketing of, most of its existing products and future product candidates. If the combined company is unable to obtain agreements with strategic partners to fund these costs, it will have to fund such costs itself or it may not be able to continue its development of these product candidates.

It is the current intention of Biota and Nabi that the combined company will continue to rely on significant collaborative relationships with major pharmaceutical companies for the advanced development, regulatory approval, sales and marketing of its products. There are existing relationships with GSK for Relenza™ and Daiichi Sankyo for laninamivir (marketed as Inavir® in Japan). As the combined company continues to advance its product candidates following the Transaction, Biota and Nabi currently intend that the combined company will either license product candidates to, or partner with, one or more major pharmaceutical companies at some point in their product development. If the combined company is able to do so, it is the current intention of Biota and Nabi for these licensees or partners to pay the majority of the costs associated with any remaining development work, regulatory submissions, clinical trials and the manufacturing and marketing of its product candidates. If the combined company is unable to license its future product candidates or otherwise partner with third parties, the combined company will have to fund the costs of its development itself.

Following the Transaction, the combined company's dependence on collaborative arrangements with third parties would subject it to a number of risks. These collaborative arrangements may not be on terms favorable to the combined company. Agreements with collaborative partners typically allow partners significant discretion in electing whether or not to pursue any of the planned activities. The combined company will not be able to control the amount and timing of resources its collaborative partners may devote to products based on the collaboration, and the combined company's partners may choose to pursue alternative products. The combined company's partners may not perform their obligations as expected. Business combinations or significant changes in a collaborative partner's business strategy may adversely affect a partner's willingness or ability to complete its obligations under the arrangement. Moreover, the combined company could become involved in disputes with its partners, which could lead to delays or termination of the collaborations and time-consuming and expensive litigation or arbitration. Even if the combined company fulfills its obligations under a collaborative agreement, its partner may be able to terminate the agreement under certain circumstances. If any collaborative partner were to terminate or breach the combined company's agreement with it, or otherwise fail to complete its obligations in a timely manner, the combined company's chance of successfully commercializing its product candidates would be materially and adversely affected.

Preclinical results may not be indicative of clinical results. In addition, clinical results may not be sufficient to obtain marketing approvals necessary for marketing its product candidates, including approval by regulatory authorities.

The combined company has a number of product candidates that are at an early stage of development. The combined company may not be able to progress its product candidates that are undergoing preclinical testing into clinical trials. Success in preclinical testing and early clinical trials does not ensure that later clinical trials will be successful, and favorable initial results from a clinical trial do not necessarily predict outcomes in subsequent clinical trials. The indications of use for which the combined company will pursue development may have clinical effectiveness endpoints that have not previously been reviewed or validated by regulatory authorities, which may complicate or delay the combined company's effort to ultimately obtain marketing approval. The combined company cannot therefore guarantee that the clinical trials of its product candidates will ultimately be successful.

The combined company and its licensees may not successfully design or implement clinical trials required for marketing approval of the combined company's product candidates. The combined company might not be able to demonstrate that its product candidates meet the appropriate standards for marketing approval.

Regulatory authorities may impose requirements on the combined company's clinical trials that are difficult to comply with, which could harm the business of the combined company.

The requirements that regulatory authorities may impose on clinical trials for product candidates of the combined company are uncertain. As a result, the combined company cannot guarantee that it or its licensees will be able to comply with such requirements. For example, regulatory authorities may require endpoints in the combined company's late-stage clinical trials that are different from or in addition to the endpoints in its early-stage clinical trials or the endpoints which the combined company or its licensees may propose. The endpoints or other study elements, including sample size, required by regulatory authorities may make it less likely that the combined company's Phase III clinical trials are successful or may delay or increase the cost of completing the clinical trials. If the combined company or its licensees are unable to comply with the requirements of regulatory authorities, the combined company and its licensees will not be able to obtain marketing approval for product candidates and the business of the combined company will suffer.

Table of Contents

If the combined company or its licensees are not able to conduct clinical trials properly and on schedule, marketing approval by regulatory authorities may be delayed or denied.

Clinical trials of the product candidates by the combined company or its licensees may be delayed or terminated for many reasons, including, but not limited to, if:

- regulatory authorities do not grant permission to proceed or places the trial on clinical hold;
- subjects do not enroll or remain in the clinical trials at the expected rate;
- the incidence of infectious viruses targeted by the product candidate is low or fluctuates during the clinical trial;
- a third party fails to manufacture the necessary amounts of product candidate;
- a third party fails to manufacture product candidate in a timely manner;
- a third party manufacturing facility is ordered by a government or regulatory authority to temporarily or permanently shut down due to violations of current GMP or other applicable requirements, or infections or cross-contaminations of product candidates in the manufacturing process;
- subjects experience an unacceptable rate or severity of adverse side effects;
- reports from preclinical or clinical testing on similar technologies and products raise safety and/or efficacy concerns;
- third party clinical investigators lose their license or permits necessary to perform the clinical trials of the combined company or its licensee, do not perform clinical trials on the anticipated schedule or consistent with the clinical trial protocol, Good Clinical Practice and regulatory requirements, or other third parties do not perform data collection and analysis in a timely or accurate manner;
- inspections of clinical trial sites by regulatory authorities or Institutional Review Boards (“IRBs”) find regulatory violations that require the combined company or its licensee to undertake corrective action, suspend or terminate one or more sites, or prohibit the combined company or its licensee from using some or all of the data in support of the marketing applications for such product candidate; and
- third party contractors become debarred or suspended or otherwise penalized by regulatory or other government authorities for violations of regulatory requirements, in which case the combined company or its licensee may need to find a substitute contractor, and the combined company or its licensee may not be able to use some or any of the data produced by such contractors in support of the marketing applications for such product candidates; or one or more IRBs or the combined company’s Data Safety Monitoring Board (“DSMB”), refuses to approve, suspends or terminates the clinical trial at an investigational site, precludes enrollment of additional subjects, or withdraws its approval of the clinical trial.

If the combined company or its licensees are unable to conduct clinical trials in a proper or timely manner, the regulatory authorities may delay or deny marketing approval.

As the combined company loses patent protection on its marketed products, it may have a material adverse effect on the combined company’s business.

Following the Transaction, the combined company will rely on certain patents to provide it and its licensees with exclusive rights for certain of the combined company’s products. When all patents underlying a license expire, the combined company’s revenue from that license may cease, and there can be no assurance that the combined company will be able to replace it with revenue from new or existing licenses. The primary patents on Relenza™ will expire in December 2014 in the U.S., May 2015 in Australia and major countries of the European Union, and July 2019 in Japan.

The combined company's patents and proprietary rights may not provide sufficient protection, and patents of other companies could prevent the combined company or its licensees from developing and marketing the combined company's products.

The patent positions of pharmaceutical firms generally are highly uncertain and involve complex legal and factual questions. The ultimate degree of patent protection that will be afforded to pharmaceutical and biotechnology products and processes in the U.S. and in other important markets remains uncertain and is dependent upon the scope of protection decided upon by the patent offices, courts and lawmakers in these countries. There can be no assurance that existing patent applications will result in issued patents, that the combined company will be able to obtain additional licenses to patents of others or that it will be able to develop additional patentable technology of its own. The combined company cannot be certain that it was the first creator of inventions covered by its patents or pending patent applications or that it was the first to file patent applications for such inventions. There can be no assurance that any patents issued to the combined company will provide the combined company or its licensees with competitive advantages or will not be challenged by others. Furthermore, there can be no assurance that others will not independently develop similar products, or, if patents are issued to the combined company, others may design their patents around such patents.

A number of pharmaceutical companies, biotechnology companies, universities and research institutions may have filed patents or patent applications or received patents relating to products or processes competitive with or similar to those of the combined company. Some of these applications or patents may compete with the applications of the combined company or conflict in certain respects with claims made under applications of the combined company. Such a conflict could result in a significant reduction of the coverage of the combined company's patents, if issued. In addition, if patents that contain competitive or conflicting claims are issued to others and such claims are ultimately determined to be valid, the combined company or its licensees may be required to obtain licenses to these patents or to develop or obtain alternative technology. For more information, see "Information About the Companies—Biota Holdings Limited—Patents and Proprietary Rights" beginning on page 96 of this proxy statement.

If any license is required, there can be no assurance that the combined company would be able to obtain any such license on commercially favorable terms, if at all. The failure of the combined company to obtain a license to any technology that it may require in order to commercialize its products could have a material adverse effect on the future business, financial condition and results of operations of the combined company.

Litigation may be necessary to enforce any patents issued to the combined company or to determine the scope or validity of third party proprietary rights or to defend against any claims that the combined company's products infringe on third party proprietary rights. Patent litigation is expensive and time consuming and could result in substantial cost to the combined company or its licensees. The costs of patent litigation and the ability of the combined company to prevail in such litigation could have a material adverse effect on its future business, financial condition and results of operations.

It is also the current intention of Biota and Nabi that the combined company will rely on secrecy to protect its technology, especially where patent protection is not believed to be appropriate or obtainable. It is also intended that the combined company will maintain strict controls and procedures regarding access to and use of its proprietary technology and processes. However, there can be no assurance that these controls or procedures will not be violated, that the combined company would have adequate remedies for any violation, or that trade secrets of the combined company will not otherwise become known or be independently discovered by competitors.

The combined company or its licensees may be subject to costly and damaging product liability and other claims in connection with the development and commercialization of the combined company's products.

Pharmaceutical and biotechnology companies may be subject to litigation, including class action lawsuits, and governmental and administrative investigations and proceedings, including with respect to product pricing and marketing practices. There can be no assurance that lawsuits will not be filed against the combined company or its licensees, or that either will be successful in the defense of these lawsuits. Defense of suits can be expensive and time consuming, regardless of the outcome, and an adverse result in one or more suits could have a material adverse effect on the combined company's future business, financial condition and results of operations. In recent years, coverage and availability of cost-effective product liability insurance has decreased, so the combined company or its licensees may be unable to maintain sufficient coverage for product liabilities that may arise.

Adverse market and economic conditions may exacerbate certain risks affecting the combined company's business.

Sales of the combined company's products are dependent on government purchases and on reimbursement from government health administration authorities, private health insurers, distribution partners and other organizations. These organizations may be unable to satisfy their reimbursement obligations or may delay payment due to deteriorating global economic conditions, uncertainty about the direction and relative strengths of their economies, volatility in the credit and financial markets, and other disruptions due to natural disasters, political instability or otherwise. These adverse market and economic conditions also may cause governmental health authorities to reduce the extent of reimbursements and private insurers to increase their scrutiny of claims. A reduction in the availability or extent of reimbursement could reduce product sales and revenue of the combined company, or result in additional allowances or significant bad debts, which may adversely affect the results of operations of the combined company.

The combined company will earn royalties on sales by licensees of influenza drugs. Sales of influenza drugs are seasonal and cyclical in nature and are often dependent on the severity and resistance profile of the circulating influenza viruses. In addition governments may purchase large quantities of influenza antiviral drugs for stockpiling purposes. It is impossible to accurately predict future revenue.

The combined company faces significant competition.

The combined company faces significant competition from large pharmaceutical and biotechnology companies, many of whom have substantially greater resources. Zanamivir and laninamivir compete with oseltamivir (Tamiflu®), an anti-influenza drug that is sold by F. Hoffmann-La Roche Ltd and associated companies.

In addition, a number of companies are pursuing the development of technologies which are competitive with the combined company's existing products and research programs. These companies include specialized pharmaceutical firms and large pharmaceutical companies acting either independently or together with other pharmaceutical companies.

If significant safety issues arise for the combined company's marketed products, the combined company's future royalty revenue may be reduced, which would adversely affect its results of operations.

The data supporting the marketing approvals for the combined company's marketed products and forming the basis for the safety warnings in the product labels of such products were obtained in controlled clinical trials of limited duration and, in some cases, from post-approval use. As the combined company's marketed products may be used over longer periods of time by many patients with underlying health problems, taking numerous other medicines, the combined company expects to continue to find new issues such as safety, resistance or drug interaction issues, which may require the combined company's licensees to provide additional warnings or contraindications on their labels or narrow the approved indications, each of which could reduce the market acceptance of these products.

If serious safety, resistance or drug interaction issues arise with the combined company's marketed products, sales of these products could be limited or halted by the combined company or its licensees or by regulatory authorities and the results of operations of the combined company would be adversely affected.

The future royalty revenue of the combined company depends on compliance with regulatory requirements and comparable international regulations. Failure to obtain broad approvals on a timely basis or to maintain compliance could delay or halt commercialization of the combined company's products and reduce the royalty revenue receivable by the combined company.

The product candidates being developed by the combined company or its licensees must be approved for marketing and sale by regulatory authorities and, once approved, are subject to extensive regulation by these regulatory authorities. The combined company will progress the clinical trials of laninamivir planned by Biota. The combined company currently anticipates that it will file for marketing approval of laninamivir with the FDA in 2016. This product may fail to receive such marketing approvals on a timely basis, or at all.

On September 27, 2007, President Bush signed into law the Food and Drug Administration Amendments Act of 2007, which significantly expanded the FDA's authority, including, among other things, to:

- require sponsors of marketed products to conduct post-approval clinical studies to assess a known serious risk, signals of serious risk or to identify an unexpected serious risk;
- mandate labeling changes to products, at any point in a product's lifecycle, based on new safety information; and
- require sponsors to implement a Risk Evaluation and Mitigation Strategy for a product which could include a medication guide, patient package insert, a communication plan to healthcare providers or other elements as the FDA deems are necessary to assure safe use of the drug, which could include imposing certain restrictions on the distribution or use of a product.

Failure to comply with these or other requirements, if imposed on a sponsor by the FDA, could result in significant civil monetary penalties and the combined company's operating results may be adversely affected.

Expenses associated with clinical trials may cause the combined company's earnings to fluctuate, which could adversely affect its stock price.

The clinical trials required for regulatory approval of the combined company's product candidates, as well as clinical trials required to be conducted after approval, are expensive. It is difficult to accurately predict or control the amount or timing of these expenses from quarter to quarter and regulatory authorities may require more clinical testing than originally anticipated. Uneven and unexpected spending on these programs may cause the combined company's operating results to fluctuate from quarter to quarter, and the combined company's stock price may decline.

Some of the combined company's operating expenses will increase as a result of operating as a public company, and the combined company's management may be required to devote substantial time to complying with U.S. public company regulations.

The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 ("SOX"), the recently enacted Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, as well as rules subsequently implemented by the SEC and NASDAQ, have imposed increased regulation and disclosure and have required enhanced corporate governance practices of U.S. public companies. The combined company's efforts to comply with evolving laws, regulations and standards in this regard are likely to result in increased administrative expenses and a diversion of management's time and attention from revenue-generating activities to compliance activities. Even acknowledging that Biota will give up its ASX listing, these changes may require a significant commitment of additional resources. The combined company may not be successful in implementing these requirements, and implementing them could materially adversely affect its business, results of operations and financial condition. If the combined company does not implement such requirements in a timely manner or with adequate compliance, it might be subject to sanctions or investigation by regulatory authorities, such as the SEC or NASDAQ. Any such action could harm the combined company's reputation and the confidence of investors and customers in the combined company and could materially adversely affect its business and cause its share price to fall.

Failure to establish and maintain adequate internal controls in accordance with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and other regulations could have a material adverse effect on the combined company's business and stock price.

As a U.S. public company, the combined company will be required to establish and maintain an adequate internal control structure and procedures for financial reporting and to assess the effectiveness of its internal control procedures in order to satisfy the requirements of SOX. In addition, in fiscal 2012, the combined company's independent registered public accounting firm will be required to issue a report that addresses the effectiveness of its internal controls over financial reporting for the first time with respect to the combined company. During the course of assessing the combined company's internal controls, the combined company or its independent registered public accounting firm may identify deficiencies that the combined company may not be able to remediate in time to meet its deadline for compliance with SOX. Establishing, maintaining and assessing the effectiveness of the combined company's internal controls can divert its management's attention from other matters that are important to the operation of its business. The combined company also expects regulations to continue to increase its legal and financial compliance costs, to make it more difficult to attract and retain qualified officers and members of its Board of Directors, particularly to serve on its audit committee, and to make some activities more difficult, time consuming and costly. The combined company may not be able to conclude on an ongoing basis that it has effective internal controls over financial reporting, or its independent registered public accounting firm may not be able or willing to issue an unqualified report on the effectiveness of its internal controls over financial reporting. If the combined company or its independent registered public accounting firm conclude that its internal controls over financial reporting are not effective, the combined company cannot be certain as to the timing of remediation actions or their effect on its operations because there is presently no precedent available by which to measure compliance adequacy.

If the combined company is unable to conclude that it has effective internal controls over financial reporting, its independent auditors may be unable to provide it with an unqualified report on the effectiveness of the combined company's internal controls over financial reporting or it may be required to restate its financial statements or fail to meet its public reporting obligations. As a result, investors could lose confidence in the combined company's reported financial information, which could have a negative effect on the trading price of its stock.

The trading price of the combined company's shares of common stock may fluctuate significantly.

The price of the combined company's shares of common stock may be volatile, which means that it could decline substantially within a short period of time. The trading price of the shares may fluctuate, and investors may experience a decrease in the value of the shares that they hold, sometimes regardless of the combined company's operating performance or prospects. The trading price of the combined company's common stock could fluctuate significantly for many reasons, including the following:

- large quarterly and even yearly variations in operating results since the market for Relenza™ and Inavir® is likely to continue to be volatile, unpredictable and difficult to forecast because influenza outbreaks are highly variable in terms of severity, frequency and morbidity, and because government stockpiling decisions can change over time;
- future announcements concerning the combined company's business and that of its competitors including in particular, the progress of the combined company's development of laninamivir pursuant to the BARDA contract and the development programs for the other product candidates;
- regulatory developments, enforcement actions bearing on advertising, marketing or sales of Relenza™, Inavir® or pipeline products;
- introduction of new products or changes in product pricing policies by the combined company or its competitors;
- fluctuations of investor interest in the NI product sector; and
- fluctuations in the economy, world political events or general market conditions.

THE SPECIAL MEETING

Date, Time and Place

The special meeting will take place at 10:00 a.m., local time, on September 24, 2012, at The Bethesda Marriott Hotel, 5151 Pooks Hill Road, Bethesda, Maryland.

Purpose

At the special meeting, the holders of Nabi's common stock, par value $0.10 per share, will be asked to consider and vote upon the following six proposals:

1. to approve an amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation to increase the authorized shares of Nabi common stock from 125,000,000 shares to 200,000,000 shares;
2. to approve an amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation to change the name of Nabi from "Nabi Biopharmaceuticals" to "Biota Pharmaceuticals, Inc.";
3. to approve an amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation to effect a reverse stock split of Nabi common stock at any time prior to December 31, 2012 at a ratio ranging from four-to-one to eight-to-one, as determined by Nabi's board of directors in its sole discretion;
4. to approve the issuance of shares of Nabi common stock to Biota stockholders contemplated by the Transaction Agreement;
5. to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation payable to certain executive officers of Nabi under existing arrangements in connection with the Transaction; and
6. to approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve any of proposals 1 through 4.

Board Recommendation

After determining that it is advisable and in the best interests of Nabi and its stockholders to consummate the Transaction as contemplated by the Transaction Agreement, Nabi's board of directors unanimously authorized, approved, and declared advisable each amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation and the issuance of shares of Nabi common stock. Accordingly, Nabi's board of directors unanimously recommends that Nabi's stockholders vote "FOR" each of the foregoing proposals.

The effectiveness of proposals 1 through 4 is conditioned upon the approval of each proposal, except that failure to approve proposal 3 will not affect the implementation of proposals 1, 2 or 4. The Nabi stockholders can cast separate votes on each proposal. The proposal to approve the compensation payable to executive officers of Nabi in connection with the Transaction is subject to a vote by Nabi's stockholders separate from each of the votes on proposals 1 through 4, and approval of the executive compensation is not a condition to completion of the Transaction.

There are certain risks associated with the Transaction. See "Risk Factors" beginning on page 31 of this proxy statement for more information regarding such risks. Nabi stockholders should carefully read this proxy statement in its entirety for more detailed information concerning the Transaction. In particular, Nabi stockholders are directed to the Transaction Agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement.

Record Date; Outstanding Shares; Shares Entitled to Vote

Nabi's board of directors has fixed the close of business on August 3, 2012 as the record date for determination of stockholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting. Only stockholders of record of shares of Nabi common stock as of the close of business on the record date will receive notice of, and be entitled to vote at, the special meeting and any adjournments, postponements or continuations of the special meeting.

As of the close of business on the record date for the special meeting, there were 28,328,034 shares of Nabi common stock outstanding and held by approximately 774 holders of record. Each stockholder is entitled to one vote at the special meeting for each share of Nabi common stock held by that stockholder at the close of business on the record date. Nabi's common stock is the only security the holders of which are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting.

If you own shares that are registered in the name of someone else, such as a broker, bank or other nominee, you need to direct that organization to vote those shares or obtain an authorization from them and vote the shares yourself at the meeting.

Quorum

The holders of issued and outstanding shares of Nabi common stock which represent a majority of the votes entitled to be cast at the special meeting, present in person or represented by proxy, will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the special meeting. A quorum must be present in order for the votes on the Charter Amendment Proposals, the proposal to approve the issuance of Nabi common stock to Biota stockholders pursuant to the Transaction Agreement, and the other proposals to be taken. It is important that Nabi stockholders vote promptly so that their shares are counted toward the quorum.

Abstentions will be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum at the special meeting. Banks, brokers and other nominees that hold their customers' shares in street name may not vote their customers' shares on "non-routine" matters without instructions from their customers. As each of the proposals to be voted upon at the special meeting is considered "non-routine," such organizations do not have discretion to vote on any proposal for which they do not receive instructions from their customers (this is referred to in this context as a "broker non-vote"). As a result, if you fail to provide your broker, bank or other nominee with any instructions regarding how to vote your shares, your shares will not be considered present at the special meeting, will not be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum and will not be voted on any of the proposals. If you provide instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee which indicate how to vote your shares with respect to certain proposals but not with respect to a particular proposal, your shares will be considered present at the special meeting and be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum but will not be voted with respect to that particular proposal.

Nabi may seek to adjourn the special meeting if a quorum is not present at the meeting.

Required Vote

Assuming a quorum is present at the special meeting, approval of the Charter Amendment Proposals will require the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Nabi common stock as of the close of business on the record date for the special meeting. If you fail to vote, if you fail to provide instruction to your broker, bank or other nominee to vote on your behalf, or if you abstain from voting, the effect will be the same as if you had voted against each of the Charter Amendment Proposals.

Assuming a quorum is present at the special meeting, approval of the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of Nabi common stock to Biota stockholders as contemplated by the Transaction Agreement will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Nabi's common stock properly cast on the proposal at the special meeting. An abstention from voting on this proposal will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on this proposal. If you fail to submit a proxy and do not attend the special meeting in person, or if you fail to provide instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee to vote on your behalf, your shares will not affect whether this proposal is approved.

Assuming a quorum is present at the special meeting, approval, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, of the compensation payable to certain executive officers of Nabi under existing arrangements in connection with the Transaction will require the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Nabi's common stock properly cast on the proposal at the special meeting. An abstention from voting on this proposal will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on the proposal. Because the vote on this proposal is advisory, the result of the vote will not be binding on Nabi. If you fail to submit a proxy and do not attend the special meeting in person, or if you fail to provide instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee to vote on your behalf, your shares will not affect whether this proposal is approved.

Approval of one or more adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to permit further solicitation of proxies in favor of any of proposals 1 through 4, will require the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Nabi's common stock properly cast on the proposal at the special meeting. An abstention from voting on this proposal will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on the proposal. If you fail to submit a proxy and do not attend the special meeting in person, or if you fail to provide instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee to vote on your behalf, your shares will not affect whether this proposal is approved.

Voting by Proxy

This proxy statement is being sent to you on behalf of Nabi's board of directors for the purpose of requesting that you allow your shares of Nabi common stock to be represented at the special meeting by the persons named in the enclosed WHITE proxy card. All shares of Nabi common stock represented at the meeting by properly executed proxy cards, voted over the telephone or voted over the Internet will be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated on those proxies. If you sign and return a WHITE proxy card without giving voting instructions, your shares will be voted as follows:

- "FOR" approval of an amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation to increase the authorized shares of Nabi common stock from 125,000,000 shares to 200,000,000 shares;
- "FOR" approval of an amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation to change the name of Nabi from "Nabi Biopharmaceuticals" to "Biota Pharmaceuticals, Inc.";
- "FOR" approval of an amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation to effect a reverse stock split of Nabi common stock at any time prior to December 31, 2012 at a ratio ranging from four-to-one to eight-to-one, as determined by Nabi's board of directors in its sole discretion;
- "FOR" approval of the issuance of shares of Nabi common stock to Biota stockholders contemplated by the Transaction Agreement;
- "FOR" approval, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation to certain executive officers of Nabi under existing arrangements in connection with the Transaction; and
- "FOR" approval of one or more adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve any of proposals 1 through 4.

How to Vote

Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting in person, you should submit your proxy as soon as possible.

If you own shares of Nabi common stock in your own name, you are an owner or holder of record. This means that you may use the enclosed WHITE proxy card or the Internet or telephone voting options to tell the persons named as proxies how to vote your shares of Nabi common stock. You have four voting options:

- In Person. To vote in person, come to the special meeting and you will be able to vote by ballot. To ensure that your shares are voted at the special meeting, Nabi's board of directors recommends that you submit a proxy even if you plan to attend the special meeting.
- Mail. To vote using the enclosed WHITE proxy card, simply complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and return it promptly in the enclosed return envelope. If you return your signed WHITE proxy card to Nabi before the special meeting, Nabi will vote your shares as you direct.
- Telephone. To vote by telephone, dial the toll-free telephone number located on the enclosed proxy card using a touch-tone phone and follow the recorded instructions. You will be asked to provide the company number and control number from the enclosed proxy card. Your vote must be received by 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on September 23, 2012 to be counted.

- Internet. To vote over the Internet, go to the web address located on the enclosed proxy card to complete an electronic proxy card. You will be asked to provide the company number and control number from the enclosed proxy card. Your vote must be received by 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on September 23, 2012 to be counted.

If your shares of common stock are held in “street name” by your broker, bank or other nominee, you should have received a WHITE voting instruction form, as well as voting instructions with these proxy materials from that organization rather than from Nabi. Your broker, bank or other nominee will vote your shares only if you provide instructions to that organization on how to vote. You should provide your broker, bank or other nominee with instructions regarding how to vote your shares by following the enclosed instructions provided by that organization. Your shares will not be voted with respect to any proposal for which you fail to provide instructions, which will have the same effect as voting against the Charter Amendment Proposals, but which will have no effect on approval of the other proposals.

The Internet and telephone voting options available to holders of record are designed to authenticate stockholders’ identities, to allow stockholders to give their proxy voting instructions and to confirm that these instructions have been properly recorded. Proxies submitted over the Internet or by telephone through such a program must be received by 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on September 23, 2012. Submitting a proxy will not affect your right to vote in person if you decide to attend the special meeting.

Revoking Your Proxy

Your grant of a proxy on the enclosed WHITE proxy card or through one of the alternative methods discussed above does not prevent you from voting in person or otherwise revoking your proxy at any time before it is voted at the special meeting. If your shares of Nabi common stock are registered in your own name, you may revoke your proxy in one of the following ways:

- by delivering to Nabi Biopharmaceuticals, 12270 Wilkins Avenue, Rockville, Maryland 20852, Attn: Corporate Secretary, a written notice revoking your proxy that bears a date later than the date of the proxy that you are revoking and that is received before the special meeting;
- by submitting another proxy card bearing a later date and mailing it so that it is received before the special meeting;
- by submitting another proxy using the Internet or telephone voting procedures; or
- by attending the special meeting and voting in person, although simply attending the meeting will not revoke your proxy, as you must deliver a notice of revocation or vote at the special meeting in order to revoke a prior proxy.

If you have instructed a broker, bank or other nominee to vote your shares, you must follow the directions received from your broker, bank or other nominee if you wish to change your vote.

If you have voted the Mangrove green proxy card, you may change your vote and revoke that proxy by executing a later dated Nabi WHITE proxy card, if you are a stockholder of record, or by following the directions you have received from your broker, bank or other nominee, if your shares are held in “street name.”

Your last vote is the vote that will be counted.

Voting in Person at the Special Meeting

All stockholders of record may vote their shares in person by attending the special meeting and submitting the ballot that will be provided there. If your shares are held in “street name,” you may vote in person at the special meeting if you have a document known as a “legal proxy” from the holder of record. You will need to ask the broker, bank or other nominee holding your shares for a legal proxy and bring the legal proxy with you to the special meeting. You will not be able to vote your shares at the meeting without a legal proxy. If you request a legal proxy, any previously executed proxy will be revoked, and your vote will not be counted unless you appear at the special meeting and vote in person or legally appoint another proxy to vote on your behalf.

Adjournments and Postponements

Although it is not currently expected, the special meeting may be adjourned or postponed to a later date. Any adjournment or postponement to a date not more than 30 days after the date originally fixed for the special meeting may be made without notice, other than by an announcement made at the special meeting of the time and place of the adjourned meeting. Any adjournment of the special meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies will allow Nabi’s stockholders who have already sent in their proxies to revoke them at any time before voting occurs at the special meeting as adjourned. See “Proposal 6: Adjournment of Special Meeting” beginning on page 143 of this proxy statement for more information about the proposal relating to adjournments of the special meeting.

Householding

Certain of Nabi’s stockholders who share an address are being delivered only one copy of this proxy statement unless Nabi or one of its mailing agents has received contrary instructions. Upon the written or oral request of a stockholder at a shared address to which a single copy of this proxy statement was delivered, Nabi will promptly deliver a separate copy of such document to the requesting stockholder. Written requests should be made to Nabi Biopharmaceuticals, Attention: Investor Relations, 12270 Wilkins Avenue, Rockville, Maryland 20852, and oral requests may be made by calling Investor Relations of Nabi at (706) 645-8553.

In addition, Nabi stockholders who wish to receive a separate copy of Nabi’s proxy statements and annual reports, if any, in the future should notify Nabi either in writing addressed to the foregoing address or by calling the foregoing telephone number. Nabi stockholders sharing an address who are receiving multiple copies of Nabi’s notice of Internet availability of proxy materials and/or proxy statements and annual reports may request delivery of a single copy of such documents by writing Nabi at the address above or calling Nabi at the telephone number above.

Solicitation of Proxies

Nabi is soliciting proxies for the special meeting from Nabi stockholders. Nabi will bear the entire cost of soliciting proxies from Nabi stockholders, including the expenses incurred in connection with the preparation of the proxy statement and its filing with the SEC. In addition to this mailing, Nabi’s directors, officers and employees, who will not receive any additional compensation for their services, may solicit proxies personally, electronically or by telephone. Arrangements also will be made with brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward proxy solicitation materials to the beneficial owners of Nabi common stock held of record by those persons, and Nabi will reimburse these brokerage firms, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for related, reasonable out-of-pocket expenses they incur.

Nabi has engaged Morrow & Co., LLC to assist in the solicitation of proxies for the special meeting and will pay Morrow & Co., LLC a fee of approximately $35,000, plus reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses. The address of Morrow & Co., LLC is 470 West Avenue, Stamford, CT 06902. You can call Morrow & Co., LLC at (203) 658-9400 or toll-free at (800) 607-0088.

A list of stockholders entitled to vote at the special meeting will be open for examination by any Nabi stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours for a period of ten days before the meeting at Nabi’s principal executive offices at 12270 Wilkins Avenue, Rockville, Maryland 20852, and at the time and place of the meeting during the entire time of the meeting.

The Mangrove Solicitation

Mangrove has filed a preliminary proxy statement with the SEC indicating it will solicit proxies to vote against the proposals described herein. Nabi's board of directors strongly disagrees with the views expressed by Mangrove in its preliminary proxy statement. As described in more detail in this proxy statement, Nabi's board of directors believes that the Transaction is in the best interests of Nabi and its stockholders and that the Transaction offers an opportunity for Nabi's stockholders to participate in the growth of the combined company. As described in this proxy statement, Nabi's board of directors arrived at this conclusion after conducting a robust and comprehensive strategic alternatives process and carefully considering, with the assistance of financial advisors and outside legal counsel, various alternatives to the Transaction, including the liquidation and dissolution of Nabi. See "The Transaction—Background of the Transaction" beginning on page 56 of this proxy statement, "The Transaction—Nabi Reasons for the Transaction" beginning on page 61 of this proxy statement and "The Transaction—Recommendation of the Nabi Board of Directors" beginning on page 64 of this proxy statement for more information about the factors considered by Nabi's board of directors.

If Mangrove proceeds with its solicitation of proxies against the Transaction, you may receive an opposition proxy statement and green proxy card from Mangrove. To vote as Nabi's board recommends, you should disregard any such green proxy card and instead vote by submitting the WHITE proxy card or following the voting instructions accompanying this proxy statement in accordance with the instructions described above. If you vote against the Transaction using a green proxy card, you have the right to change your vote by submitting a subsequent vote as described above.

Other Business

Nabi does not expect that any matter other than the proposals listed above will be brought before the special meeting. If, however, other matters are properly brought before the special meeting, or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting, the persons named as proxies will vote in accordance with their judgment.

Assistance

If you need assistance in completing your WHITE proxy card or have questions regarding the various voting options with respect to the special meeting, please contact Nabi's proxy solicitor, Morrow & Co., LLC at (203) 658-9400 or toll-free at (800) 607-0088.

THE TRANSACTION

The following discussion contains important information relating to the Transaction. You are urged to read this discussion together with the Transaction Agreement and related documents attached as annexes to this proxy statement and incorporated herein by reference before voting on the amendments to Nabi's certificate of incorporation, the issuance of Nabi common stock in the Transaction, and the other proposals to be considered and voted upon at the special meeting.

Structure of the Transaction

Nabi and Biota are proposing to engage in a business combination under Australian corporate law, pursuant to which Nabi will acquire all of the outstanding ordinary shares of Biota, and Biota will thereby become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Nabi. As set forth in the Transaction Agreement, the business combination will be carried out in accordance with a scheme of arrangement to be submitted for approval by Biota stockholders and the Supreme Court of Victoria, Australia.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Transaction Agreement, at the effective time of the Transaction, each ordinary share of Biota outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the Transaction will be transferred to Nabi in exchange for 0.448722952 shares of Nabi common stock, or approximately 84 million shares in aggregate, as such amount may be adjusted as described below. (The original exchange ratio set forth in the Transaction Agreement was 0.669212231, which was subsequently adjusted pursuant to the terms of the Transaction Agreement to reflect the 14,547,996 shares of Nabi common stock purchased in Nabi's issuer tender offer that expired on July 30, 2012.) Immediately after the completion of the Transaction, the shares of Nabi common stock issued to former Biota stockholders will represent collectively approximately 74% of the outstanding common stock of the combined company, and the shares of common stock held by existing Nabi stockholders will represent collectively approximately 26% of the outstanding common stock of the combined company. The number of shares to be issued in connection with the Transaction will be adjusted based on the number of shares of Nabi common stock that remain outstanding after completion of the reverse stock split, as described under "Proposal 3: Amendment to Certificate of Incorporation to Effectuate Reverse Stock Split" beginning on page 134 of this proxy statement, in order to preserve the respective percentage of shares of the outstanding common stock of the combined company to be held immediately after the completion of the Transaction by Biota's former stockholders on the one hand (collectively being approximately 74%) and Nabi's existing stockholders on the other hand (collectively being approximately 26%). Nabi currently expects that, subject to the approval by Nabi stockholders at the special meeting, the reverse stock split will be implemented immediately prior to the completion of the Transaction. If the reverse stock split is implemented prior to the completion of the Transaction, the number of shares of Nabi common stock to be issued to Biota stockholders will be in the range of approximately 10.5 million to 21.0 million, depending on the actual ratio determined by Nabi's board of directors.

The Transaction will be accounted for under the purchase method of accounting in accordance with U.S. GAAP for accounting and financial reporting purposes, as described under "—Accounting Treatment" beginning on page 75 of this proxy statement.

The Transaction is expected to be completed in October 2012 subject to satisfaction or waiver of the various closing conditions set forth in the Transaction Agreement. See "The Transaction Agreement—Conditions Precedent to the Transaction" beginning on page 112 of this proxy statement for more information regarding the conditions to closing the Transaction.

Background of the Transaction

The following is a summary of the meetings, negotiations, material contacts and discussions between Nabi and Biota that preceded the execution of the Transaction Agreement, as well as certain contacts and discussions Nabi had with third parties concerning a potential strategic transaction with Nabi.

Table of Contents

Over the past seven years, Nabi has sold or licensed all of its marketed products and product candidates. In 2010, Nabi granted to GSK an option to exclusively license NicVAX, Nabi's sole remaining product in development, on a worldwide basis and a license to develop follow-on next-generation nicotine vaccines using Nabi's intellectual property combined with GSK proprietary technology. On July 18, 2011, Nabi announced that NicVAX did not meet its primary endpoint in Nabi's first of two confirmatory Phase III clinical trials and that the results from its second confirmatory Phase III clinical trial were expected before the end of calendar year 2011. At that time, Nabi had approximately $100 million in cash and marketable securities. The negative clinical trial results rendered remote the likelihood that GSK would exercise its option. (During the first quarter of 2012, GSK notified Nabi that GSK did not intend to exercise its option.) In light of these developments, Nabi's board of directors directed Nabi's management to focus on reducing costs and to identify a financial advisor to assist the board in evaluating and pursuing strategic alternatives.

On August 23 and 24, 2011, Nabi's board of directors held a meeting, which included Nabi's management and representatives from Nutter McClennen & Fish, LLP, Nabi's corporate and securities counsel ("Nutter"), and Nabi's tax advisers, and discussed the various strategic alternatives available to Nabi, including liquidating the company and distributing Nabi's remaining assets to stockholders as well as pursuing a business combination transaction with another company. Such discussion included a review of the potential costs of pursuing various alternatives and the potential return to stockholders. Following these discussions, Nabi's board of directors concluded that the company would explore a possible business combination transaction with a commercial or near-commercial stage company while continuing to review the alternative course of liquidating the company. During this meeting, Nabi's board of directors met with a representative from a financial advisor for possible engagement, and directed Nabi's management to identify and recommend for further discussion one or more additional financial advisors.

At the meeting held on August 24, 2011, Nabi's board of directors also adopted a stockholder rights agreement for the purpose of preserving Nabi's NOL tax assets, which as of December 25, 2010 included NOL carry-forwards of approximately $178 million.

On October 11, 2011, Nabi's board of directors held a meeting, at the recommendation of Nabi's management, and met with representatives from Piper Jaffray & Co. ("Piper Jaffray"). Nabi's board of directors discussed with representatives from Piper Jaffray its qualifications as well as the proposed strategic alternatives process. After such discussion, Nabi's board of directors approved the engagement of Piper Jaffray as its financial advisor based on, among other factors, its experience in the biopharmaceutical industry and in strategic transactions. Nabi's board authorized Nabi's management to direct Piper Jaffray to solicit indications of interest regarding a possible business combination transaction with Nabi and to focus those efforts on companies with a commercial or near-commercial stage product.

On November 7, 2011, Nabi announced that NicVAX did not meet its primary endpoint in its second confirmatory Phase III clinical trials. Nabi also announced that it had retained Piper Jaffray to assist Nabi's board of directors in its review of the strategic alternatives available to Nabi.

During October through December of 2011, Piper Jaffray contacted a total of 92 companies, focusing on companies with a commercial or near-commercial stage product, rather than those with products in early stage clinical trials or still undergoing development. A total of 26 companies expressed preliminary interest in considering a business combination transaction with Nabi, all of whom entered into confidentiality agreements and received a confidential information memorandum. These companies also were granted access to Nabi's online data room.

During the period between November 24, 2011 and December 15, 2011, Nabi received preliminary non-binding proposals from 11 companies (including Biota).

On December 15, 2011, Nabi received a preliminary non-binding proposal from a company referred to in this proxy statement as "Company A."

Table of Contents

On December 15, 2011, Nabi's board of directors held a meeting, which included representatives from Piper Jaffray and Nutter, at which meeting, Nabi's board of directors reviewed the preliminary non-binding proposals taking into account considerations such as valuation, strategic fit, and risks and uncertainties (both related to the potential success of the business of the combined company as well as the potential for the successful consummation of a transaction). Based on such review, Nabi's board of directors determined to invite six companies (including Biota) to participate in the next phase of the process, which was to include mutual due diligence reviews. Of the six companies, Nabi's board of directors considered four to be the leading candidates based on the considerations described immediately above. Nabi's board of directors determined that these four companies—namely, Biota, Company A and two other companies referred to in this proxy statement as "Company B" and "Company C"—should be the focus of the initial mutual due diligence reviews. At the meeting, representatives from Piper Jaffray informed Nabi's board of directors that Piper Jaffray had been previously retained, and were currently engaged, by Biota as its financial advisor to assist in a strategic alternatives process for Biota. Nabi's board of directors discussed Piper Jaffray's role as Nabi's financial advisor, including with its legal advisors from Nutter.

During the December 15, 2011 meeting, Nabi's board of directors met with representatives from Company A regarding Company A's preliminary proposal. Company A's preliminary proposal included a deadline by which Nabi was required to enter into an exclusivity agreement, which would have required Nabi to negotiate exclusively with Company A. After the meeting with Company A and after discussions with its financial and legal advisors Nabi's board of directors determined that it would not be in the best interest of Nabi to enter into an exclusivity agreement at this time with Company A, and Nabi's management informed Company A of the board's determination.

During the remainder of December 2011 and January and February 2012, Nabi's management conducted preliminary due diligence review of all six companies, including on-site visits to four of the six companies (including Biota). On January 27, 2012, Nabi received a revised preliminary non-binding proposal from Company A. On February 13, 2012, Nabi received a revised preliminary non-binding proposal from Biota.

On February 13, 2012, Nabi's board of directors held a meeting, which included representatives from Piper Jaffray and Nutter and Nabi's management to discuss the preliminary due diligence review conducted by Nabi's management and its advisers of the six companies. Following such discussions and based on the considerations set forth at the December 15, 2011 meeting (as described above), Nabi's board of directors determined not to pursue a potential strategic transaction with two of the six companies but to continue the process with Biota, Company A, Company B and Company C. Nabi's board of directors instructed Piper Jaffray to inform the two companies of the board's decision not to pursue a potential business combination transaction with them. Regarding the four remaining companies, Nabi's board of directors preliminarily determined Biota's proposal to be most favorable to Nabi as compared to the proposals from the other three companies based on Biota's financial position, likely future capital needs, product risk, pipeline of potential new products and potential for market appreciation, the proposed premium over Nabi's cash to be held at closing, and the proposed transaction structure allowing Nabi to return a portion of its cash to Nabi stockholders. Based on such determination, Nabi's board of directors directed Nabi's management to advise Biota of Nabi's interest in pursuing a potential business combination transaction with Biota, to continue with the due diligence review of Biota and to seek to improve the terms of the Biota proposal. Nabi's board of directors also determined that it should not exclude the remaining three other candidates (Company A, Company B and Company C) from continuing in the process and to continue to evaluate an alternative course of liquidating and dissolving the company. During the second half of February 2012, each of Company A, Company B and Company C was informed by Nabi's management and/or representatives of Piper Jaffray that Nabi's board of directors was considering its preliminary proposal and that it was one of the remaining companies in Nabi's strategic alternatives review process. In addition, Nabi's management continued with the due diligence review of Biota, Company A, Company B and Company C.

At the February 13, 2012 meeting, Nabi's board of directors also determined that Piper Jaffray would continue as its financial advisor based on, among other factors, its significant role in Nabi's strategic alternatives review process up to this point and its confirmation of the implementation of an information wall between the Piper Jaffray representatives advising Nabi and those representatives advising Biota. Nabi's board of directors also determined that it would engage an additional financial advisor to, if requested by the Nabi board, render an opinion with respect to the fairness to Nabi, from a financial point of view, of the exchange ratio provided for in a proposed transaction.

Following the February 13, 2012 board meeting, Nabi's management continued its due diligence review of Biota and sought to obtain improved terms from Biota, including Nabi being able to issue to Nabi stockholders CVRs with respect to NicVAX.

On February 25, 2012, Nabi's board of directors held a meeting, which included representatives from Piper Jaffray and Nutter and Nabi's management, and discussed with Nabi's management the progress of the negotiations with Biota, including the proposed terms of the CVRs with respect to NicVAX. Nabi's management updated Nabi's board of directors with respect to its due diligence review of Biota. Nabi's board of directors also discussed Biota's proposal as compared to the alternative course of liquidating and dissolving the company.

On February 29, 2012, Nabi received notification from Company C that it would no longer pursue a transaction with Nabi. On March 2, 2012, Nabi received a revised preliminary non-binding proposal from Company B.

On March 15, 2012, Nabi's board of directors held a meeting, which included representatives from Piper Jaffray and Nutter and Nabi's management. Representatives of Piper Jaffray discussed with Nabi's board of directors, among other things, the financial terms of the Biota proposal and certain financial implications of a transaction with Biota, as well as certain factors which the board might consider when evaluating the Biota proposal. Nabi's management discussed with Nabi's board of directors its due diligence review of Biota. Later during the March 15, 2012 meeting, at the invitation of Nabi's board of directors, Peter Cook, Chief Executive Officer of Biota, made a presentation to the board, including a review of Biota's products, programs, plans and competitive landscape.

On March 16, 2012, Nabi's board of directors held a meeting, which included representatives from Piper Jaffray, Nutter and Hogan Lovells US LLP, special U.S. transaction counsel to Nabi ("Hogan Lovells"), and Nabi's management to review the discussions, including the meeting with Mr. Cook, from the previous day. Nabi's board of directors also reviewed the various aspects of Biota's proposal and discussed the alternative course of liquidating and dissolving Nabi. Nabi's board of directors discussed with a representative from Hogan Lovells the legal process involved in combining Biota with Nabi, the likely timetable for a business combination transaction, the preliminary terms and conditions of a draft transaction agreement proposed by Biota, as well as the fiduciary obligations of a board of directors of a Delaware corporation when considering a business combination. Nabi's board of directors directed Nabi's management to continue negotiations with Biota on the terms of the proposed transaction and authorized Nabi's management to retain Houlihan Lokey to, if requested by Nabi's board, render an opinion to Nabi's board with respect to the fairness to Nabi, from a financial point of view, of the exchange ratio provided for in a proposed transaction. Nabi's management discussed with Nabi's board of directors its due diligence review of Company A and Company B. Nabi's board of directors determined not to pursue a potential strategic transaction with either Company A or Company B. The board's determination with respect to Company A was based on the findings from the due diligence review that Company A's products were at much earlier stages of development than originally expected and with respect to Company B was based on the conclusion by the board that Company B's revised preliminary proposal was not as competitive as the other remaining proposals and on the findings from the due diligence review that Company B's products presented potentially more financial risks than originally expected. Following the meeting, representatives of Piper Jaffray informed each of Company A and Company B of the determination by Nabi's board of directors not to pursue a potential strategic transaction with them.

During the week of March 19, 2012, Nabi and Biota continued to negotiate the terms of the proposed transaction, including the amount of cash required to be held by Nabi at closing, the exchange ratio pursuant to which the Biota shares will be converted to Nabi shares, and the other terms and conditions of the Transaction Agreement, as well as the terms of the CVRs.

On March 25, 2012, Nabi's board of directors held a meeting, which included representatives from Piper Jaffray, Hogan Lovells and Nutter and Nabi's management, and discussed with Nabi's management and its legal and financial advisers the status of the negotiations with Biota.

During the weeks of March 26, 2012 through April 16, 2012, Nabi and Biota continued to negotiate the terms of the proposed transaction, including, among other things, the amount of cash required to be held by Nabi at closing, the exchange ratio pursuant to which the Biota shares will be converted to Nabi shares, and the other terms and conditions of the Transaction Agreement, as well as the terms of the CVRs.

On April 19, 2012, Nabi's board of directors held a meeting, at which representatives from Piper Jaffray, Houlihan Lokey, Hogan Lovells and Nutter and Nabi's management were also present, during which Nabi's management and representatives from Hogan Lovells discussed with the board the due diligence review of Biota. Representatives from Hogan Lovells also provided a review of the terms of the Transaction Agreement. Hogan Lovells also reviewed the fiduciary obligations of a board of directors of a Delaware corporation when considering a business combination. Representatives from Nabi's management and from Hogan Lovells discussed with the board the terms of the CVRs. During the course of this meeting, representatives of Houlihan Lokey reviewed their preliminary financial analysis of Nabi, Biota and the proposed Transaction. At the meeting, members of Nabi's board of directors discussed the financial and legal aspects of the proposed transaction and the other matters described under "—Nabi Reasons for the Transaction" beginning on page 61 of this proxy statement. After such discussion, Nabi's board of directors unanimously determined that, subject to the receipt of Houlihan Lokey's updated financial analysis and opinion with respect to the fairness to Nabi, from a financial point of view, of the original exchange ratio provided for in the Transaction pursuant to the Transaction Agreement, the Transaction Agreement and the Transaction are advisable, fair to and in the best interests of Nabi and Nabi stockholders and approved the Transaction Agreement. Nabi's board of directors also unanimously recommended that Nabi stockholders vote "FOR" each of the proposals to be considered and voted upon at the special meeting and described in this proxy statement. Nabi's board of directors also approved an amendment terminating the stockholder rights agreement, which was adopted for the purpose of preserving Nabi's NOL tax assets, effective immediately prior to the execution of the Transaction Agreement.

On April 20, 2012, representatives of Houlihan Lokey provided the members of Nabi's board of directors with Houlihan Lokey's financial analysis of Nabi, Biota and the proposed Transaction, as well as Houlihan Lokey's opinion to the effect that, subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken and other matters considered by Houlihan Lokey in preparing its opinion, as of April 20, 2012, the original exchange ratio provided for in the Transaction pursuant to the Transaction Agreement was fair to Nabi from a financial point of view. After receipt of Houlihan Lokey's updated financial analysis and opinion, Nabi's board of directors, by unanimous written consent and for the reasons described under "—Nabi Reasons for the Transaction" beginning on page 61 of this proxy statement, determined that the Transaction Agreement and the Transaction are advisable, fair to and in the best interests of Nabi and Nabi stockholders and approved the Transaction Agreement.

On April 22, 2012, Nabi and Biota executed the Transaction Agreement. See "The Transaction Agreement" beginning on page 110 of this proxy statement for a discussion of the terms of the Transaction Agreement. Prior to the opening of the U.S. financial markets on April 23, 2012, Nabi and Biota issued separate press releases publicly announcing the execution of the Transaction Agreement and the Transaction.

On August 6, 2012, Nabi and Biota executed an amendment deed to the Transaction Agreement to provide that, in the event that Nabi implements a reverse stock split with respect to its common stock prior to the consummation of the Transaction as permitted by the Transaction Agreement, the number of shares of Nabi common stock to be issued in exchange for each ordinary share of Biota will be adjusted in order to preserve the respective percentage of shares of the combined company common stock to be held immediately after the completion of the Transaction by Biota's former stockholders on the one hand (collectively being approximately 74%) and by Nabi's existing stockholders on the other hand (collectively being 26%). Nabi currently expects that, subject to the approval by Nabi stockholders at the special meeting, the reverse stock split will be implemented immediately prior to the completion of the Transaction.

Nabi Reasons for the Transaction

In reaching its unanimous determination that it is advisable and in the best interests of Nabi and its stockholders to complete the Transaction as contemplated by the Transaction Agreement and to recommend that Nabi stockholders vote "FOR" the Transaction Proposals described in this proxy statement, Nabi's board of directors consulted and received advice from its financial and legal advisors and Nabi's management and considered a number of factors, including the following material factors:

- the lack of significant on-going operations as a stand-alone entity except with respect to the remaining clinical trials for NicVAX and remaining royalty payments (if certain milestones are met) related to Phoslyra;
- the fact that the $54 million in cash to be held by Nabi at the closing of the Transaction was valued at a 19% premium in the calculation of the exchange ratio for the number of shares of Nabi common stock to be issued for one ordinary share of Biota;
- Nabi's ability, under the terms of the Transaction Agreement, to return its remaining cash (after satisfying or reserving for certain liabilities) in excess of $54 million to its stockholders prior to the completion of the Transaction either in the form of a dividend or return of capital or through an issuer tender offer or a combination thereof (Nabi completed its previously announced tender offer, pursuant to which Nabi purchased 14,547,996 shares of its common stock for approximately $24.4 million (see "Summary—Recent Developments" on page 2 of this proxy statement for more information regarding the tender offer) and currently expects to return its remaining cash, in the range of approximately $1 million to $5 million in the aggregate, in the form of a dividend or return of capital);
- the likelihood that Nabi would not be able to distribute immediately all of its remaining cash to its stockholders in the event of a liquidation and dissolution of the company, given the current estimation that Nabi would need to set aside a reserve in the range of approximately $18.5 million to $23.5 million in the aggregate to pay, and make provisions for, existing and future contingent and potential claims and liabilities, including severance payments and transaction-related fees and liabilities, expenses related to continuing operations including making required regulatory filings and the establishment of a mechanism for collecting and distributing any future distributions, milestone or royalty payments under existing agreements with respect to NicVAX and Phoslyra (of the foregoing amount, approximately $5 million to $10 million in the aggregate would need to be set aside for unknown future contingent and potential claims and liabilities in accordance with Delaware corporate law) (see "Considerations by Nabi's Board of Directors If the Transaction is Not Completed" on page 80 of this proxy statement for more information);
- the likely timing and expenses with respect to any potential liquidation and dissolution process;
- the Transaction will allow Nabi stockholders to participate in the benefits of the combined company, including future potential value from Biota's marketed products and pipeline of new product candidates;
- the combination of Nabi and Biota will provide substantial financial resources for the combined company for the execution of near-term goals and further development of Biota's new product candidates;

Table of Contents

- Nabi's ability, under the terms of the Transaction Agreement, to issue CVRs to its stockholders prior to the completion of the Transaction, which CVRs are subject to the terms and conditions contained in the CVR Agreement;
- the financial analysis provided to the Nabi board of directors by representatives of Houlihan Lokey as well as the opinion of Houlihan Lokey to the effect that, subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken and other matters considered by Houlihan Lokey in preparing its opinion, as of April 20, 2012, the original exchange ratio provided for in the Transaction pursuant to the Transaction Agreement was fair to Nabi from a financial point of view; see "—Opinion of Financial Advisor to the Nabi Board of Directors" beginning on page 65 of this proxy statement;
- the terms and conditions of the Transaction Agreement, including the following related factors:
 - the determination that the relative percentage ownership of Nabi stockholders and Biota stockholders is fixed, providing certainty as to the number of shares of Nabi common stock to be issued to Biota stockholders and the percentage of the total shares of Nabi common stock that Nabi stockholders will own immediately after the completion of the Transaction;
 - Nabi's ability to provide material non-public information to, and engage in negotiations with, a third party that makes an acquisition proposal that is or is reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal (as described in "The Transaction Agreement—Exclusivity; No-Solicitation" beginning on page 125 of this proxy statement), on the terms and subject to the conditions of the Transaction Agreement;
 - Nabi's ability, under certain circumstances, to terminate the Transaction Agreement in order to enter into an alternative transaction that is deemed by Nabi's board of directors to be a superior proposal;
 - the ability of Nabi's board of directors, under certain circumstances not involving a superior proposal, to change its recommendation that Nabi stockholders vote in favor of the Transaction Proposals described in the proxy statement;
 - the circumstances under which the break fee is payable by Nabi under the Transaction Agreement and the view of Nabi's board of directors that these provisions should not preclude a bona fide alternative proposal involving Nabi;
 - the view of Nabi's board of directors that the size of the A$2 million break fee is reasonable in light of the size and benefits of the Transaction; and
 - the fact that the representations, warranties and covenants of Nabi and Biota are generally reciprocal; and
- the results of the due diligence review of Biota by Nabi's management, financial and legal advisors and outside consultants.

In the course of its deliberations, Nabi's board of directors also considered a variety of risks and other potentially negative factors related to the Transaction, including the following material factors:

- the fact that the shares of Nabi common stock to be issued in the Transaction will represent 74% of the outstanding common stock of the combined company immediately after the completion of the Transaction, thus causing existing Nabi stockholders to experience significant dilution in their percentage ownership of Nabi as a result of the Transaction;
- the challenges and costs of combining clinical, regulatory and administrative operations of a U.S. company and an Australian company, which could adversely affect the combined company's operating results and prevent the achievement of the anticipated benefits of the Transaction;

Table of Contents

- the fact that Nabi will incur significant costs associated with the Transaction, some of which will be paid regardless of whether the Transaction is completed, and that such costs will reduce the amount of cash that Nabi may be able to distribute to its stockholders in the form of a dividend or return of capital;
- the fact that, under the terms of the Transaction Agreement, Nabi must pay to Biota a A$2 million break fee in connection with the Transaction if the Transaction Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, which may deter other parties from proposing an alternative transaction that may be more advantageous to Nabi stockholders or which may become payable in circumstances where no alternative acquisition agreement or superior proposal is available to Nabi;
- the fact that, while Nabi expects the Transaction to be completed, there can be no assurance that all conditions to the parties' obligations, including with respect to Nabi obtaining stockholders approval of the Transaction Proposals, to complete the Transaction will be satisfied within the time frames contemplated by the Transaction Agreement and, as a result, the Transaction may not be completed;
- the effect of the pendency of the Transaction and the effect of the delay or failure to complete the Transaction may have on:
 - the trading price of shares of Nabi common stock;
 - incurring and paying significant expenses in connection with the Transaction; and
 - paying a break fee of A$2 million if the Transaction is terminated in certain circumstances or the Transaction is not completed for certain reasons;
- the fact that Nabi directors and officers may have interests in the Transaction that are different from, or in addition to, Nabi stockholders as described in "—Interests of Nabi Executive Officers and Directors in the Transaction" beginning on page 71 of this proxy statement; and
- the other risks associated with the Transaction and the combined company, including those described in "Risk Factors" beginning on page 31 of this proxy statement and "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" beginning on page 46 of this proxy statement.

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by Nabi's board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but rather includes the material factors considered by the board. In reaching its decision that it is advisable and in the best interests of Nabi and its stockholders to complete the Transaction as contemplated by the Transaction Agreement and to recommend that Nabi stockholders vote "FOR" the Transaction Proposals set forth in the proxy statement, Nabi's board of directors did not quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the factors considered and individual members of the board may have given different weight to different factors. Nabi's board of directors based its decision on the totality of the information presented.

Biota Reasons for the Transaction

In reaching its unanimous determination that it is advisable and in the best interests of Biota and its shareholders to complete the Transaction as contemplated by the Transaction Agreement and to recommend that Biota shareholders vote in favor of the scheme of arrangement for the Transaction, in the absence of a Superior Proposal (as defined in the Transaction Agreement), Biota's board of directors (the "Biota board") consulted and received advice from its financial and legal advisors and Biota's management and considered a number of factors, including the following:

- the Biota board is of the view that the Transaction is the best way to improve the value of the Biota shares and the U.S. capital markets are best positioned to recognize the value of Biota's contract with BARDA;

Table of Contents

- the Transaction will strengthen Biota's cash position and provide the combined company with sufficient funds for at least the next two years (based on Biota's current planned activities). The Biota board considers this to be an appropriate and advisable balance to achieve successful post-Transaction trading on NASDAQ;
- the Biota board is of the view that a NASDAQ listing, rather than an ASX listing, will increase options to deliver higher value from future programs;
- Biota shareholders should be entitled to defer any Australian capital gains tax until the date on which they sell their shares in the combined company (provided Australian capital gains tax roll-over relief is available in their personal circumstances); and
- the Transaction will deliver to Biota an immediate U.S. shareholder base of scale, which should assist share trading liquidity on and from the implementation of the Transaction.

In the course of its deliberations, the Biota board also considered a variety of risks and other potentially negative factors related to the Transaction, including the following:

- the combined company, due to its listing on NASDAQ rather than the ASX, will be subject to a different regulatory regime and currency exposure;
- Biota shareholders' ownership in Biota will be diluted following completion of the Transaction;
- if the Transaction is completed, Biota shareholders with registered addresses outside Australia and its external territories, New Zealand, the U.S. and the United Kingdom ("U.K.") will not receive shares in the combined company. Instead, shares which would otherwise be attributable to such shareholders will be issued to a nominee who will sell those shares on NASDAQ and remit the proceeds to those shareholders; and
- the Transaction could result in taxation consequences for Biota shareholders earlier than may otherwise have been the case.

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by the Biota board is not intended to be exhaustive, but rather includes the material factors considered by the Biota board. In reaching its decision that it is advisable and in the best interests of Biota and the Biota shareholders to complete the Transaction as contemplated by the Transaction Agreement and to recommend that Biota shareholders vote to approve the scheme of arrangement, the Biota board did not quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the factors considered and individual members of the board may have given different weight to different factors. The Biota board based its decision on the totality of the information presented.

Recommendation of the Nabi Board of Directors

After careful consideration, Nabi's board of directors has determined that it is advisable and in the best interests of Nabi and its stockholders to consummate the Transaction as contemplated by the Transaction Agreement. Accordingly, Nabi's board of directors unanimously recommends that Nabi's stockholders vote:

- "FOR" approval of an amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation to increase the authorized shares of Nabi common stock from 125,000,000 shares to 200,000,000 shares;
- "FOR" approval of an amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation to change the name of Nabi from "Nabi Biopharmaceuticals" to "Biota Pharmaceuticals, Inc.";
- "FOR" approval of an amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation to effect a reverse stock split of Nabi common stock at any time prior to December 31, 2012 at a ratio ranging from four-to-one to eight-to-one, as determined by Nabi's board of directors in its sole discretion;
- "FOR" approval of the issuance of shares of Nabi common stock to Biota stockholders contemplated by the Transaction Agreement;

Table of Contents

- “FOR” approval, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, of the compensation payable to certain executive officers of Nabi under existing arrangements in connection with the Transaction; and
- “FOR” approval of one or more adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve any of proposals 1 through 4.

When you consider recommendation of Nabi’s board of directors, you should be aware that Nabi’s directors have interests in the Transaction that may be different from, or in addition to, your interests. See “—Interests of Nabi Executive Officers and Directors in the Transaction” beginning on page 71 of this proxy statement for more information regarding such interests.

Opinion of Financial Advisor to the Nabi Board of Directors

On April 20, 2012, Houlihan Lokey rendered its written opinion to Nabi’s board of directors as to the fairness to Nabi from a financial point of view as of such date of the original exchange ratio provided for in the Transaction pursuant to the Transaction Agreement.

Houlihan Lokey’s opinion was directed to Nabi’s board of directors (in its capacity as such) and only addressed the fairness to Nabi, from a financial point of view, of the original exchange ratio provided for in the Transaction pursuant to the Transaction Agreement and did not address any other aspect or implication of the Transaction. The summary of Houlihan Lokey’s opinion in this proxy statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of its written opinion, which is included as Annex C to this proxy statement and sets forth the procedures followed, assumptions made, qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken and other matters considered by Houlihan Lokey in preparing its opinion. However, neither Houlihan Lokey’s opinion nor the summary of its opinion and the related analyses set forth in this proxy statement are intended to be, and do not constitute, advice or a recommendation to any Nabi stockholder as to how to such stockholder should act or vote with respect to any matter relating to the Transaction.

In arriving at its opinion, Houlihan Lokey:

1. reviewed an execution copy, received on April 20, 2012, of the Transaction Agreement, including the form of the scheme of arrangement set out in annexure A thereto;
2. reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information relating to Biota and Nabi that Houlihan Lokey deemed to be relevant;
3. reviewed certain information relating to the historical, current and future operations, financial condition and prospects of Biota and Nabi made available to Houlihan Lokey by Biota and Nabi, including (a) financial projections prepared by Nabi (and adjustments thereto based on discussions with management of Nabi) relating to the future financial results and condition of Biota for the fiscal years June 30, 2012 through June 30, 2020 based on certain information regarding the future operations, financial condition and prospects of Biota provided to Nabi by management of Biota, which we refer to as the “Nabi Projections for Biota,” (b) limited financial estimates (and adjustments thereto based on discussions with management of Nabi) provided by management of Nabi relating to the future financial results of certain drugs and other biopharmaceutical products currently under development, testing, or production by Nabi which reflected probability weightings applied by Nabi management based on observed average clinical phase transition probabilities and clinical approval success probabilities as published by the Tufts Center for the Study of Drug Development, as further adjusted by the management of Nabi, which we refer to as the “Nabi Projections” and (c) the estimates of Nabi’s NOLs prepared and provided to Houlihan Lokey by management of Nabi, which we refer to as the “Nabi NOLs” and estimates of the potential tax savings available to Nabi on a standalone basis or to a potential buyer in connection with an acquisition of Nabi on a pro forma basis based on the Nabi NOLs as discussed with the management of Nabi, which we refer to as the “Estimated NOL Tax Savings”;

4. spoke with certain members of the managements of Biota and Nabi regarding the respective businesses, operations, financial condition and prospects of Biota and Nabi, the Transaction and related matters;
5. reviewed the current and historical market prices and trading volume for certain of Biota’s and Nabi’s publicly traded securities, and the current and historical market prices and trading volume of the publicly traded securities of certain other companies that Houlihan Lokey deemed to be relevant; and
6. conducted such other financial studies, analyses and inquiries and considered such other information and factors as Houlihan Lokey deemed appropriate.

Houlihan Lokey relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all data, material and other information furnished, or otherwise made available, to it, discussed with or reviewed by it, or publicly available, and did not assume any responsibility with respect to such data, material and other information. In addition, management of Nabi advised Houlihan Lokey, and Houlihan Lokey assumed, that the Nabi Projections for Biota were reasonably prepared in good faith on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Nabi as to the future financial results and condition of Biota and were a reasonable basis on which to evaluate Biota and, for purposes of Houlihan Lokey’s analyses and opinion, management of Nabi directed Houlihan Lokey to rely on the Nabi Projections for Biota. Furthermore, management of Nabi advised Houlihan Lokey, and Houlihan Lokey assumed, that (A) the Nabi Projections reviewed by Houlihan Lokey were reasonably prepared in good faith on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of management of Nabi as to the future financial results of such drugs and other biopharmaceutical products currently under development, testing or production by Nabi and (B) the Nabi NOLs were reasonably prepared in good faith on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of management of Nabi as to the amount of such NOLs, and the Estimated NOL Tax Savings were a reasonable basis on which to evaluate the Nabi NOLs. Houlihan Lokey expressed no opinion with respect to any of the foregoing projections or estimates or the assumptions on which they were based. For purposes of Houlihan Lokey’s analyses and opinion, Nabi advised Houlihan Lokey, and Houlihan Lokey assumed that: (i) immediately prior to closing of the Transaction, Nabi would not have any material assets other than (a) cash held in a bank account in an amount not in excess of $54 million, (b) certain payment rights arising from the future sale, transfer, license or a similar transaction involving NicVAX[®], (c) certain payment rights with respect to Phoslyra[®] and (d) the Nabi NOLs; (ii) on a standalone basis, Nabi was not expected to be able to utilize the Nabi NOLs to reduce taxes in the foreseeable future and, consequently, the Nabi NOLs had little if any value to Nabi on a standalone basis; and (iii) there was a low probability that the payment rights referred to above with respect to NicVAX[®] and Phoslyra[®] would result in significant payments to Nabi. Houlihan Lokey also relied upon, without independent verification, the assessments of the managements of Biota and Nabi as to Biota’s existing and future technology, products, services and the validity and marketability of, and risks associated with, such technology, products and services (including, without limitation, the development, testing and marketing of such technology, products and services; the receipt of all necessary governmental and other regulatory approvals for the development, testing and marketing thereof; and the life of all relevant patents and other intellectual and other property rights associated with such technology, products and services), and Houlihan Lokey assumed, at Nabi’s direction, that there would be no developments with respect to any such matters that would adversely affect Houlihan Lokey’s analyses or opinion. Houlihan Lokey relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that there had been no change in the business, assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows or prospects of Biota and Nabi since the respective dates of the most recent financial statements and other information, financial or otherwise, provided to Houlihan Lokey that would be material to its analyses or opinion, and that there was no information or any facts that would make any of the information reviewed by Houlihan Lokey incomplete or misleading.

Houlihan Lokey relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that (a) the representations and warranties of all parties to the Transaction Agreement and all other related documents and instruments that are referred to therein were true and correct, (b) each party to the Transaction Agreement and such other related documents and instruments would fully and timely perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party, (c) all conditions to the consummation of the Transaction will be satisfied without waiver thereof, (d) the CVRs would be distributed to Nabi's stockholders, and the Permissible Nabi Stockholder Cash Transactions (which is defined in the Transaction Agreement as one or more of an issuer tender offer, a dividend or a capital distribution by Nabi to Nabi stockholders, to be launched or declared at Nabi's sole and absolute discretion, provided that the applicable Nabi closing net cash balance certificate provided by Nabi under the Transaction Agreement show a Nabi closing net cash balance of no less than $54 million) would be effected by means of a pro-rata cash dividend to Nabi's stockholders prior to the record date for the implementation of the Transaction, (e) any substantial payments with respect to the sale, transfer, license or a similar transactions relating to NicVAX® would occur prior to the expiration of the CVRs and (f) the Transaction would be consummated in a timely manner in accordance with the terms described in the Transaction Agreement and such other related documents and instruments, without any amendments or modifications thereto. Houlihan Lokey also relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that (i) the Transaction would be consummated in a manner that complies in all respects with all applicable international, federal and state statutes, rules and regulations, and (ii) all governmental, regulatory, and other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Transaction would be obtained and that no delay, limitations, restrictions or conditions would be imposed or amendments, modifications or waivers made that would result in the disposition of any assets of Biota or Nabi, or otherwise have an effect on the Transaction, Biota or Nabi or any expected benefits of the Transaction that would be material to Houlihan Lokey's analyses. In addition, Houlihan Lokey relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that any adjustment to the original exchange ratio pursuant to the Transaction Agreement or otherwise would not be material to its analyses or its opinion and that the final form of the Transaction Agreement would not differ in any respect from the execution copy of the Transaction Agreement identified above.

Furthermore, in connection with its opinion, Houlihan Lokey was not requested to make, and did not make, any physical inspection or independent appraisal or evaluation of any of the assets, properties or liabilities (fixed, contingent, derivative, off-balance-sheet or otherwise) of Biota, Nabi or any other party, nor was Houlihan Lokey provided with any such appraisal or evaluation. Houlihan Lokey did not estimate, and expressed no opinion regarding, the liquidation value of any entity or business. Houlihan Lokey did not undertake any independent analysis of any potential or actual litigation, regulatory action, possible unasserted claims or other contingent liabilities to which Biota or Nabi was or may be a party or was or may be subject, or of any governmental investigation of any possible unasserted claims or other contingent liabilities to which Biota or Nabi was or may be a party or was or may be subject.

Houlihan Lokey was not requested to, and did not, (a) initiate or participate in any discussions or negotiations with, or solicit any indications of interest from, third parties with respect to the Transaction, the securities, assets, businesses or operations of Nabi or any other party, or any alternatives to the Transaction, (b) negotiate the terms of the Transaction, or (c) advise Nabi's board of directors or any other party with respect to alternatives to the Transaction. Houlihan Lokey's opinion was necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to it as of, the date of its opinion. Houlihan Lokey did not undertake, and is under no obligation, to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw its opinion, or otherwise comment on or consider events occurring or coming to its attention after the date thereof. Houlihan Lokey did not express any opinion as to what the value of Nabi's shares of common stock actually would be when issued pursuant to the Transaction or the price or range of prices at which the shares of common stock of Nabi or the ordinary shares of Biota could be purchased or sold at any time.

Houlihan Lokey's opinion was furnished for the use by Nabi's board of directors (in its capacity as such) in connection with its evaluation of the Transaction and may not be used for any other purpose without Houlihan Lokey's prior written consent. Houlihan Lokey's opinion should not be construed as creating any fiduciary duty on Houlihan Lokey's part to any party. Houlihan Lokey's opinion is not intended to be, and does not constitute, a recommendation to Nabi's board of directors, Nabi, any of Nabi's stockholders or any other party as to how to act or vote with respect to any matter relating to the Transaction or otherwise.

Houlihan Lokey's opinion only addressed whether, as of the date thereof, the original exchange ratio provided for in the Transaction pursuant to the Transaction Agreement was fair to Nabi from a financial point of view, and did not address any other aspect or implication of the Transaction or any agreement, arrangement or understanding entered into in connection therewith or otherwise. Houlihan Lokey's opinion did not express an opinion as to or otherwise address, among other things: (i) the underlying business decision of Nabi's board of directors, Nabi, its security holders or any other party to proceed with or effect the Transaction, (ii) the terms of any arrangements, understandings, agreements or documents related to, or the form, structure or any other portion or aspect of, the Transaction or otherwise (other than the original exchange ratio to the extent expressly specified herein), (iii) the fairness of any portion or aspect of the Transaction to the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of Nabi, or to any other party, except if and only to the extent expressly set forth in the last sentence of its opinion, (iv) the relative merits of the Transaction as compared to any alternative business strategies or transactions that might be available for Nabi or any other party, (v) the fairness of any portion or aspect of the Transaction to any one class or group of Nabi's or any other party's security holders or other constituents vis-à-vis any other class or group of Nabi's or such other party's security holders or other constituents (including, without limitation, the allocation of any consideration amongst or within such classes or groups of security holders or other constituents), (vi) whether or not Biota, Nabi, their respective security holders or any other party is receiving or paying reasonably equivalent value in the Transaction, (vii) the solvency, creditworthiness or fair value of Biota, Nabi or any other participant in the Transaction, or any of their respective assets, under any applicable laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance or similar matters, or (viii) the fairness, financial or otherwise, of the amount, nature or any other aspect of any compensation to or consideration payable to or received by any officers, directors or employees of any party to the Transaction, any class of such persons or any other party, relative to the original exchange ratio or otherwise. Furthermore, no opinion, counsel or interpretation was intended in matters that require legal, regulatory, accounting, insurance, tax or other similar professional advice. It was assumed that such opinions, counsel or interpretations have been or will be obtained from the appropriate professional sources. Furthermore, Houlihan Lokey relied, with the consent of Nabi's board of directors, on the assessments by Biota, Nabi and their respective advisors, as to all legal, regulatory, accounting, insurance and tax matters with respect to Biota, Nabi and the Transaction or otherwise.

In preparing its opinion to Nabi's board of directors, Houlihan Lokey performed a variety of analyses, including those described below. The summary of Houlihan Lokey's analyses described below is not a complete description of the analyses underlying Houlihan Lokey's opinion. The preparation of such opinions is a complex process involving various quantitative and qualitative judgments and determinations with respect to the financial, comparative and other analytical methods employed and the adaptation and application of those methods to the unique facts and circumstances presented. As a consequence, neither Houlihan Lokey's opinion nor its underlying analyses is readily susceptible to summary description. Houlihan Lokey arrived at its opinion based on the results of all analyses undertaken by it and assessed as a whole and did not draw, in isolation, conclusions from or with regard to any individual analysis, methodology or factor. Accordingly, Houlihan Lokey believes that its analyses and the following summary must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, methodologies and factors, without considering all analyses, methodologies and factors or the narrative description of the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying Houlihan Lokey's analyses and opinion. Each analytical technique has inherent strengths and weaknesses, and the nature of the available information may further affect the value of particular techniques.

In performing its analyses, Houlihan Lokey considered general business, economic, industry and market conditions, financial and otherwise, and other matters as they existed on, and could be evaluated as of, the date of the opinion. The implied original exchange ratio reference ranges and valuation reference ranges indicated by Houlihan Lokey's financial analyses are illustrative and not necessarily indicative of actual values or predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by the analyses. In addition, such analyses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold, which may depend on a variety of factors, many of which are beyond Nabi's control. Much of the information used in, and accordingly the results of, Houlihan Lokey's analyses are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty.

Houlihan Lokey's analyses and opinion were provided to Nabi's board of directors in connection with its consideration of the proposed Transaction and were among many factors considered by Nabi's board of directors in evaluating the proposed Transaction. Neither Houlihan Lokey's opinion nor its analyses were determinative of the original exchange ratio or of the views of Nabi's board of directors or management with respect to the Transaction or original exchange ratio. The type and amount of consideration payable in the Transaction were determined through negotiation between Nabi and Biota, and the decision to enter into the Transaction Agreement was solely that of Nabi's board of directors.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses performed by Houlihan Lokey in preparing its written opinion, dated April 20, 2012, to Nabi's board of directors.

Biota Discounted Cash Flow/Nabi Sum of the Parts Analyses

Houlihan Lokey calculated an implied exchange ratio reference range based on:

- for Biota, the net present value of Biota's unlevered, after-tax future free cash flows:
 - in performing a discounted cash flow analysis with respect to Biota, Houlihan Lokey applied:
 - discount rates ranging from 14% to 17% to the unlevered, after-tax future free cash flows for Biota through the fiscal year ended June 30, 2020 based on the Nabi Projections for Biota, and
 - terminal value multiples ranging from 2.00x to 2.50x to estimated revenue for Biota for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2020 based on the Nabi Projections for Biota, which range was selected taking into account, among other things, the selected companies' data described below; and
- for Nabi, the net present value of Nabi based on a sum-of-the-parts analysis:
 - for purposes of its sum of the parts analysis with respect to Nabi, Houlihan Lokey was advised by Nabi and assumed that immediately prior to closing of the Transaction and after giving effect to the distribution of the CVRs and Permissible Nabi Stockholder Cash Transactions, Nabi would not have any material assets other than:
 - cash held in a bank account in an amount not in excess of $54 million;
 - certain payment rights arising from the future sale, transfer, license or a similar transaction involving NicVAX® and Phoslyra®, with respect to which, in performing a discounted cash flow analysis, Houlihan Lokey applied discount rates ranging from 14% to 17% to the probability weighted cash flows for NicVAX® and Phoslyra® included in the Nabi Projections; and
 - the Nabi NOLs, which management of Nabi had advised Houlihan Lokey and Houlihan Lokey had assumed Nabi was not expected to be able to utilize to reduce taxes in the foreseeable future.

The discounted cash flow analysis with respect to Biota indicated an implied aggregate equity valuation range for Biota of $231 million to $298 million. The sum of the parts analysis with respect to Nabi indicated an implied aggregate equity valuation range of $54 million to $61.3 million consisting of an implied aggregate valuation of the cash in a Nabi bank account at closing of $54 million; an implied aggregate valuation reference range of the payment rights arising from the future sale, transfer, license or a similar transaction involving NicVAX® and Phoslyra® of approximately $0.0 to $6.4 million; and an implied aggregate valuation reference range for the Nabi NOLs of approximately $0.0 to $0.9 million. Based on the discounted cash flow analysis with respect to Biota and the sum of the parts analysis with respect to Nabi, Houlihan Lokey calculated an implied exchange ratio reference range of 0.977 to 1.111 shares of Nabi common stock for each ordinary share of Biota, as compared to the original exchange ratio in the proposed Transaction of 0.669212231 of a share of Nabi common stock for each ordinary share of Biota.

Other Analysis

Solely for illustrative purposes, Houlihan Lokey also calculated the implied exchange ratio reference range indicated by historical stock trading prices of Nabi common stock and Biota ordinary shares and the implied exchange ratio reference range indicated by the sum of the parts analysis with respect to Nabi and historical stock trading prices of Biota ordinary shares. The analysis of historical stock trading prices of Nabi common stock and Biota ordinary shares indicated an implied exchange ratio reference range of 0.830 to 0.841 of a share of Nabi common stock for each ordinary share of Biota, as compared to the original exchange ratio in the proposed Transaction of 0.669212231 of a share of Nabi common stock for each ordinary share of Biota. The analysis of the sum of the parts analysis with respect to Nabi and historical stock trading prices of Biota ordinary shares indicated an implied exchange ratio reference ranges of 0.754 to 0.781 of a share of Nabi common stock for each ordinary share of Biota, as compared to the original exchange ratio in the proposed Transaction of 0.669212231 of a share of Nabi common stock for each ordinary share of Biota.

Selected Companies' Data

Houlihan Lokey also reviewed certain data for selected biopharmaceutical companies with publicly traded equity securities that Houlihan Lokey deemed relevant, including enterprise values as multiples of 2012E revenue and 2013E revenue. The selected companies were selected because they were deemed similar to Biota in one or more respects, including the nature of their business, size, diversification and financial performance. The selected companies and resulting data were:

AVI Biopharma, Inc.
Bavarian Nordic A/S
BioCryst Pharmaceuticals, Inc.
Dynavax Technologies Corporation
Emergent BioSolutions, Inc.
Eurocine Vaccines AB
Hemispherx Biopharma, Inc.

Other Matters

Houlihan Lokey was engaged by Nabi to provide an opinion to Nabi's board of directors regarding the fairness to Nabi, from a financial point of view, of the original exchange ratio provided for in the Transaction pursuant to the Transaction Agreement. Nabi selected Houlihan Lokey based on Houlihan Lokey's experience and reputation. Houlihan Lokey is regularly engaged to render financial opinions in connection with mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, leveraged buyouts, recapitalizations, and for other purposes. Houlihan Lokey will receive a fee of $275,000 for its services, no portion of which is contingent upon the successful completion of the Transaction. Nabi has also agreed to reimburse Houlihan Lokey for certain expenses and to indemnify Houlihan Lokey, its affiliates and certain related parties against certain potential liabilities and expenses arising out of Houlihan Lokey's engagement.

In the ordinary course of business, certain of Houlihan Lokey's employees and affiliates, as well as investment funds in which they may have financial interests, may acquire, hold or sell, long or short positions, or trade or otherwise effect transactions, in debt, equity, and other securities and financial instruments (including loans and other obligations) of, or investments in, Biota, Nabi or any other party that may be involved in the Transaction and their respective affiliates, or any currency or commodity that may be involved in the Transaction. Houlihan Lokey and certain of its affiliates may provide investment banking, financial advisory and other financial services to Biota, Nabi, other participants in the Transaction and certain of their respective affiliates in the future, for which Houlihan Lokey and such affiliates may receive compensation.

Interests of Nabi Executive Officers and Directors in the Transaction

In considering the recommendations of Nabi's board with respect to the Transaction Agreement, you should be aware that Nabi's directors and executive officers have interests in the Transaction that may be different from, or in addition to, those of Nabi's stockholders generally. These interests may create potential conflicts of interest. The board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, when it adopted the Transaction Agreement and approved the Transaction and voted to recommend that Nabi's stockholders vote in favor of approving the Transaction Agreement.

Employment and Change of Control Agreements

We have entered into agreements with our executive officers and certain former executive officers providing for the payment of severance benefits in the event of a qualifying termination of employment within a specified period of time following, and in certain circumstances preceding, a change of control of Nabi. Nabi's obligation to provide severance benefits in connection with a change of control is conditioned upon the executive's execution of a separation agreement containing a release of claims against Nabi.

Change of Control Agreements with Paul Kessler and Matthew Kalnik

Each of Dr. Kessler, Nabi's former Senior Vice President—Clinical, Medical and Regulatory Affairs, and Dr. Kalnik, Nabi's former Senior Vice President—Strategic Planning and Business Operations, has entered into a separate change of control agreement pursuant to which he is entitled to receive change of control benefits if (i) within twelve months after a change of control, his employment is terminated by Nabi without cause or he terminates his employment with Nabi for good reason, or (ii) within six months prior to a change of control, his employment is terminated by Nabi at the request of a third party who has taken steps reasonably calculated to effect a change of control or his termination otherwise arises in anticipation of a change of control and not for reasons unrelated to the change of control. Effective August 5, 2012, each of Drs. Kessler and Kalnik's employment was terminated by Nabi in connection with the general reduction in force associated with the anticipated completion of the Transaction. Consequently, if the Transaction is completed on or before February 5, 2013, each of Drs. Kessler and Kalnik will be entitled to the change of control benefits described below.

Drs. Kessler and Kalnik's benefits under the agreements include a payment equal to two times their base salary plus target bonus for the year in which the change of control occurs, payable in equal installments over a 24-month period. They also are entitled to receive the continuation of benefits under Nabi's employee welfare benefit plans and any other employee benefit program or arrangements (including without limitation, medical and dental insurance plans and disability and life insurance plans) for twelve months following termination if it is possible to do so under the general terms and provisions of such plans and programs and up to $18,000 for executive outplacement services. In addition, all outstanding equity awards vest upon a change of control of Nabi and, in the case of options, remain exercisable for 24 months or, in most circumstances in connection with the Transaction Agreement, for the full remaining option term. See "—Amendment of Outstanding Option Terms" on page 73 of this proxy statement. Any severance benefit paid under these change of control provisions is in lieu of any severance benefits that might otherwise be payable to the executive under any employment agreement with Nabi.

Change of Control Provisions in Employment Agreement with Raafat Fahim

In March 2011, Dr. Fahim, our President and Chief Executive Officer, entered into an amended and restated employment agreement with Nabi. Under this agreement, Dr. Fahim is entitled to receive change of control benefits under his employment agreement if (i) within twelve months after a change of control or during a potential change of control period he terminates his employment with Nabi for good reason or dies or becomes disabled; (ii) during a potential change of control period or within twelve months after a change of control his employment is terminated by Nabi without cause (including Nabi's failure to renew his employment agreement); or (iii) during the six-month period beginning six months after a change of control he terminates his employment for any reason, unless the change of control arises from the exercise by GSK of the NicVAX option under the Exclusive Option and License Agreement, dated as of November 13, 2009, between Nabi and GSK. In 2012, GSK notified Nabi that GSK did not intend to exercise such NicVAX option. Dr. Fahim also will be entitled to receive change of control benefits in the event that his employment is terminated (i) by Nabi without cause, (ii) by Nabi if it fails to renew his agreement at the expiration of the term or (iii) by Dr. Fahim for good reason, within (a) the twelve-month period ending upon a change of control (other than as a result of a liquidation or dissolution of Nabi approved by Nabi's stockholders), (b) the twelve-month period ending upon the execution by Nabi of a definitive agreement and providing for and resulting in a change of control or (c) the 18-month period ending upon a change of control constituted solely by a liquidation or dissolution of Nabi approved by Nabi's stockholders.

Dr. Fahim's change of control severance benefits include his regular severance benefits that he would receive in any non-change of control situation (which are described below) plus a lump sum amount equal to (A) two and one-half (2.5) times the sum of (a) the higher of (x) Dr. Fahim's then current annual base salary or (y) his base salary immediately prior to the date of termination plus (b) the target bonus Dr. Fahim could have earned under Nabi's VIP Management Incentive Plan or any comparable bonus plan maintained by Nabi for the fiscal year in which the date of termination occurs), reduced by (B) an amount equal to the sum of (x) two times Dr. Fahim's base salary in effect as of the last day of the employment term, plus (y) the amount of any pro-rated bonus paid or payable pursuant to any such bonus plan (i.e., reduced by the amount of Dr. Fahim's regular severance benefits). In addition, all outstanding equity awards vest upon a change of control of Nabi and, in the case of options, remain exercisable for 24 months or, in most circumstances in connection with the Transaction Agreement, for the full remaining option term. See "—Amendment of Outstanding Option Terms" on page 73 of this proxy statement. While Dr. Fahim's regular severance benefits include 24 months of salary continuation, following a change of control or an approval of a bankruptcy court that (A) qualifies as an event described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-3(j)(4)(ix)(A) or (B) permits acceleration of Dr. Fahim's regular severance pay, all unpaid amounts of the regular severance pay will be paid to him in a lump sum on the date of the change of control or within 10 days of the approval of the bankruptcy court, as the case may be. Nabi has agreed to reimburse Dr. Fahim on a grossed-up basis for any excise tax that is payable by him under Sections 409A or 4999 of the IRC as a result of any payments by Nabi to him under his employment agreement with Nabi.

Dr. Fahim's regular severance benefits that he would receive in a non-change of control situation consist of (i) severance pay equal to his base salary as in effect at the time of such termination for 24 months, (ii) bonus compensation prorated for the portion of the year worked, (iii) the continuation of certain fringe benefits for 24 months, (iv) immediate vesting of any non-vested stock options or shares of restricted stock held by the executive, which will be exercisable for 12 months after the termination date, but in no event later than the original option expiration date, and (v) up to $20,000 for executive outplacement services.

Other key Nabi employees also have change of control agreements with terms that vary from the terms of the change of control agreements with Drs. Fahim, Kessler and Kalnik.

VIP Management Incentive Plan Special Bonus

In connection with the approval by the compensation committee of Nabi's board of directors of Nabi's VIP Management Incentive Plan, the compensation committee approved a special additional bonus available to all 2012 VIP Management Incentive Plan participants in the event that Nabi completes a transaction resulting from the announced strategic alternative process that results in a premium for Nabi's stockholders to Nabi's net cash at the time of the execution of the definitive agreement for any such transaction. In the event that Nabi completes a transaction resulting from the strategic alternatives process that results in a premium for Nabi's stockholders to Nabi's net cash, each participant in the 2012 VIP Management Incentive Plan will be entitled to receive an additional bonus equal to the bonus amount that such participant would have received under the VIP Plan for 2011, but for the fact that the compensation committee exercised its discretion to reduce the payments under the VIP Plan for 2011. The maximum potential cash award available under the special additional bonus to Drs. Fahim, Kessler and Kalnik is $59,373, $37,548 and $36,748 respectively.

Indemnification and Insurance

Under the terms of the Transaction Agreement, Biota's directors and executive officers will be entitled to indemnification by Nabi after consummation of the Transaction in specified circumstances. In addition, for a period of six years after the completion of the Transaction, Nabi will maintain in effect directors' and officers' liability insurance covering those persons who are currently covered by Nabi's and Biota's directors' and officers' liability insurance policy on terms no less favorable to those applicable to the then current directors and officers of Nabi; provided, that Nabi will not be required to expend in excess of 300% of the annual premium paid by Nabi at the time of the completion of the Transaction for such coverage or such coverage as is available for 300% of the annual premium. See "The Transaction Agreement—Additional Obligations—Indemnification and Insurance" beginning on page 123 of this proxy statement for more information regarding these indemnification and insurance provisions.

Amendment of Outstanding Option Terms

Effective June 8, 2012, Nabi's board of directors modified the terms of all outstanding Nabi stock options held by all current employees, officers and directors of Nabi to provide that the term of any Nabi stock option held by any person whose employment with or service to Nabi ends while the Transaction Agreement is in effect or after completion of the Transaction, other than as a result of such person's voluntary termination while the Transaction Agreement is in effect or termination by Nabi for cause, shall be the full original term of such option. Without the modification, the stock options held by Nabi employees who are not officers would terminate 90 days after the termination of their employment, the stock options held by Nabi executive officers would terminate two years after the termination of their employment (in connection with a change of control) and the stock options held by Nabi directors and the corporate secretary would terminate one year after their service to Nabi ends. The majority of Nabi's outstanding options have terms of seven years. Prior to 2007, most Nabi stock options had a term of 10 years. Nabi's outstanding stock options had a weighted average exercise price of $6.09 as of December 31, 2011. The lowest currently outstanding stock option exercise price is $1.87.

Executive Compensation Payable in Connection with the Transaction

Nabi terminated the employment of Drs. Kessler and Kalnik effective on August 5, 2012. Under the terms of their employment agreements with Nabi, each of Drs. Kessler and Kalnik are entitled to receive the following severance benefits: (1) severance pay equal to his base salary as in effect at the time of such termination for 18 months ($525,146 in the case of Dr. Kessler and $477,405 in the case of Dr. Kalnik), (2) pro rated bonus 2012 compensation for the portion of the year worked (up to $79,600 in the case of Dr. Kessler and up to $73,900 in the case of Dr. Kalnik), (3) the continuation of certain perquisites and benefits for 18 months (up to $68,950 in the case of Dr. Kessler and $70,470 in the case of Dr. Kalnik), (4) immediate vesting of all non-vested stock options (options to purchase 135,500 shares in the case of Dr. Kessler and 97,500 shares in the case of Dr. Kalnik) and shares of restricted stock (52,500 shares in the case of Dr. Kessler and 39,000 shares in the case of Dr. Kalnik), which options will be exercisable until the original option expiration date, and (5) up to $18,000 for executive outplacement services for the benefit of each of Drs. Kessler and Kalnik. The obligation of Nabi to provide severance benefits is conditioned upon execution by each such executive officer of a separation agreement containing a release of claims against Nabi.

In addition to the severance benefits discussed above, the following table sets forth the amount of payments and benefits that each of Nabi’s named executive officers would receive under their agreements providing for change of control severance benefits in connection with the Transaction, assuming (1) the Transaction was completed on October 30, 2012, (2) that each of the named executive officers and former executive officers incurred a severance-qualifying termination under the officer’s employment or change of control agreement on or before such date and (3) the price per share of Nabi’s common stock is $1.65, which was the average closing price of Nabi’s common stock for the first five business days following the first announcement of the Transaction. In the case of Drs. Kessler and Kalnik, any change of control severance benefits to which they become entitled may be reduced by the amount of any severance benefits that they receive under their employment agreements.

These payments and benefits are the subject of an advisory (non-binding) vote of Nabi stockholders, as described below under “Proposal 5: Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation” beginning on page 142 of this proxy statement.

The cash severance amount for Dr. Fahim is $1,236,943, for Dr. Kessler is $700,195 and for Dr. Kalnik is $636,541. The cash bonus potential amount assumes the bonus earned in the year of termination under the VIP Management Incentive Plan was equal to 100% of the target bonus under their employment agreements. The potential bonus amount for Dr. Fahim is $989,555, for Dr. Kessler is $385,107 and for Dr. Kalnik is $350,097. The cash compensation set forth in the table also includes amounts payable under the 2012 VIP Management Incentive Plan for achievement of the corporate goals that completion of the Transaction would satisfy. The amounts payable under the 2012 VIP Management Incentive Plan, subject to discretionary adjustment by the Compensation Committee and/or adjustment for the period of service in 2012, are $217,702 for Dr. Fahim, $101,522 for Dr. Kessler and $94,906 for Dr. Kalnik.
- (2) Represents the value of awards of shares of restricted common stock held by the named executive officer on the date of termination as to which vesting would accelerate.

Reflects reimbursements for federal taxes payable by Drs. Kessler and Kalnik on contributions made by Nabi under its Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan and supplemental life insurance policies.
- (5) In certain circumstances, all amounts payable to Dr. Fahim may be payable upon a single trigger (that is, amounts triggered by a change-in-control for which payment is not conditioned upon the executive officer's termination without cause or resignation for good reason). In other circumstances, all amounts may be payable only following a double trigger (that is, amounts triggered only if there is a change-in-control and the executive officer's employment is terminated without cause or the executive resigns for good reason).
- (6) All amounts payable to Drs. Kessler and Kalnik are payable only upon a double trigger (that is, a qualified termination of the executive's employment within twelve months following consummation of the Transaction).

A description of the arrangements pursuant to and circumstances in which the amounts set forth in the table above would be payable to the named executive officers is set forth above under “—Interests of Nabi Executive Officers and Directors in the Transaction—Employment and Change of Control Agreements” beginning on page 71 of this proxy statement. The potential amounts of payments and benefits upon termination of employment in connection with a change of control disclosed above are estimates only and do not necessarily reflect (except as otherwise indicated) the actual amounts that would be paid to the named executive officers, which would only be known at the time that they become eligible for payment and would only be payable if a termination of employment or change of control were to occur.

Accounting Treatment

Under U.S. GAAP, the Transaction will be accounted for as a “reverse acquisition” pursuant to which Biota will be considered the acquiring entity for accounting purposes. As such, Biota will allocate the total purchase consideration to Nabi's tangible and identifiable intangible assets and liabilities based on their relative fair values at the date of the completion of the Transaction. Biota's historical results of operations will replace Nabi's historical results of operations for all periods prior to the Transaction; after completion of the Transaction, the results of operations of both companies will be included in Nabi's consolidated financial statements.

Nabi will account for the Transaction using the purchase method of accounting under U.S. GAAP. Accounting Standards Codification 805 “Business Combinations,” referred to as “ASC 805,” provides guidance for determining the accounting acquiror in a business combination when equity interests are exchanged between two entities. ASC 805 provides that in a business combination effected through an exchange of equity interests, such as the Transaction, the entity that issues the equity interests is generally the acquiring entity. Commonly, the acquiring entity is the larger entity. However, the facts and circumstances surrounding a business combination sometimes indicate that a smaller entity acquires a larger one. ASC 805 further provides that in identifying the acquiring entity in a combination effected through an exchange of equity interests, all pertinent facts and circumstances must be considered, including the relative voting rights of the stockholders of the constituent companies in the combined entity, the composition of the board of directors and senior management of the combined company and the terms of the exchange of equity securities in the business combination, including payment of any premium.

Based on the facts that the board of directors of the combined entity will be composed of six former-Biota board members and two former-Nabi directors and that the chief executive officer and chief financial officer of the combined entity will be the former chief executive officer and former chief financial officer of Biota, as well as the terms of the exchange, pursuant to which the Nabi stockholders will receive a premium of approximately 19.0% over the $54 million cash contribution of Nabi to the combined company at the date of signing the Transaction Agreement, Biota is considered to be the acquiror of Nabi for accounting purposes. This means that the total purchase price will be allocated to Nabi's tangible and identifiable intangible assets and liabilities based on their estimated relative fair market values at the date of the completion of the Transaction. Final valuations of property, plant and equipment, and intangible and other assets have not yet been completed as management is still reviewing the existence, characteristics and useful lives of Nabi's intangible assets. The completion of the valuation work could result in significantly different amortization expenses and balance sheet classifications. After completion of the Transaction, the results of operations of both companies will be included in the consolidated financial statements of Nabi. For further discussion of the accounting treatment, see "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Information" beginning on page 14 of this proxy statement.

company, then Nabi's board of directors will have the sole right to replace such individual director with a new director designee, with the prior written consent of Biota, which consent is not to be unreasonably withheld.

The Transaction Agreement provides that the appointment of each of the former Biota directors and Nabi directors listed above to serve as a director of the combined company is subject to satisfaction of the regulatory requirements for directors set out in any applicable laws and the rules of NASDAQ.

Executive Officers. Following the effective time of the Transaction, Biota's current chief executive officer, Mr. Peter Cook, and Biota's current chief financial officer, Mr. Damian Lismore, are expected to serve as the chief executive officer and chief financial officer, respectively, of the combined company. See "—Board of Directors and Management of the Combined Company Following the Transaction; Headquarters—Board of Directors" beginning on page 76 of this proxy statement for biographical information regarding Mr. Peter Cook. Set forth below is biographical information regarding Mr. Damian Lismore.

Mr. Damian Lismore

Damian Lismore, age 53, has served as Chief Financial Officer of Biota since his appointment in August 2005. Mr. Lismore's experience includes 10 years with Price Waterhouse (now PricewaterhouseCoopers) in Australia and six years with Deloitte Haskins & Sells in the U.K. Mr. Lismore has held several management roles, including Group Financial Controller and General Manager Buying & Finance, for Sigma, an Australian pharmaceutical company. Mr. Lismore has extensive experience in the healthcare industry, particularly in acquisitions and restructurings, commercialization of new technologies and investor relations. Mr. Lismore holds a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Accountancy from the University of Ulster, is a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia, a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Ireland and is a member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.

Following the Transaction, Biota's current chief executive officer, Peter Cook, and Biota's current chief financial officer, Damian Lismore, will fill those roles within the combined company for an appropriate transition period until U.S.-based executives are appointed and assume responsibility. It is anticipated that senior management positions in the combined company will be filled principally from current members of the Biota management teams.

Headquarters. It is currently proposed that following the completion of the Transaction, the corporate offices of the combined company will initially be located in Rockville, Maryland.

Federal Securities Laws Consequences; Stock Transfer Restrictions

The shares of Nabi common stock to be issued in the Transaction have not been, and are not expected to be registered under the Securities Act or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction. The shares of Nabi common stock to be issued in the Transaction will be issued pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements provided by Section 3(a)(10) of the Securities Act based on the approval of the Transaction by the Supreme Court of Victoria, Australia. In the event that the exemption from the registration requirements provided by Section 3(a)(10) of the Securities Act is not available for any reason, Nabi has agreed to use its best endeavors (as such term is qualified in the Transaction Agreement) to file a Registration Statement on Form S-4 (or on such other form that may be available to Nabi) in order to register the shares of Nabi common stock to be issued in the Transaction and to use its best endeavors to cause such registration statement to become effective prior to the completion of the Transaction.

Section 3(a)(10) of the Securities Act exempts securities issued in exchange for one or more bona fide outstanding securities from the general requirement of registration where the fairness of the terms and conditions of the issuance and exchange of the securities have been approved by any court or authorized governmental entity, after a hearing upon the fairness of the terms and conditions of exchange at which all persons to whom the securities will be issued have the right to appear and to whom adequate notice of the hearing has been given. If the Supreme Court of Victoria, Australia approves the Transaction, its approval will constitute the basis for the shares of Nabi common stock to be issued without registration under the Securities Act in reliance on the exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act provided by Section 3(a)(10) of the Securities Act.

The shares of Nabi common stock issued in the Transaction to Biota stockholders will be freely transferable under U.S. federal securities laws, except by persons who are deemed to be “affiliates” (as that term is defined under the Securities Act) of Nabi, including persons who are deemed to have been affiliates of Nabi within 90 days before the date of the closing of the Transaction. In the event that the shares issued by Nabi in the Transaction are in fact held by affiliates of Nabi, those holders may resell the shares (1) in accordance with the provisions of Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act, or (2) as otherwise permitted under the Securities Act. Rule 144 generally provides that “affiliates” of Nabi may not sell securities of Nabi received in the Transaction unless the sale is effected in compliance with the volume, current public information, manner of sale and timing limitations set forth in such rule. These limitations generally permit sales made by an affiliate in any three-month period that do not exceed the greater of 1% of the outstanding shares of Nabi common stock or the average weekly reported trading volume in such securities over the four calendar weeks preceding the placement of the sale order, provided that the sales are made in unsolicited, open market “broker transactions” and that current public information on Nabi is available. Persons who may be deemed to be affiliates of an issuer generally include individuals or entities that directly or indirectly control, are controlled by, or are under common control with, that issuer and may include officers and directors of the issuer as well as beneficial owners of 10% or more of any class of capital stock of the issuer.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Transaction

There are no material U.S. federal income tax consequences to Nabi’s existing stockholders that will result from the issuance of Nabi shares in the Transaction.

CONSIDERATIONS BY NABI’S BOARD OF DIRECTORS IF THE TRANSACTION IS NOT COMPLETED

In the event that the Transaction is not completed, either because of the failure of either Nabi’s or Biota’s stockholders to approve the Transaction, or the failure of another condition to completion of the Transaction, Nabi’s board of directors will consider alternative strategic options available to Nabi. If Nabi’s board of directors determines that liquidation and dissolution is advisable, it will approve a plan of liquidation and dissolution and submit the plan to Nabi stockholders for their approval. Any stockholders meeting to consider such a plan likely would be held approximately three or four months after the termination of the Transaction Agreement. Thereafter, if the plan is approved by stockholders, Nabi believes it will take approximately three years to complete the dissolution and winding-up process and distribute all remaining assets to Nabi stockholders in accordance with the DGCL. The DGCL requires a dissolving company to continue its legal existence for a period of at least three years after the filing of a certificate of dissolution with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware for the purpose of winding up its business and affairs.

Following stockholder approval of a plan of liquidation and dissolution and the filing of a certificate of dissolution in Delaware but prior to the completion of the dissolution and winding-up process, Nabi likely will make one or more initial or interim liquidating distribution to Nabi stockholders of a majority of Nabi’s remaining cash assets, which distribution amounts will depend on known, unknown, contingent and pending claims at the time of the distributions. Nabi currently estimates such initial or interim liquidating distributions to be approximately $1.51 to $1.68 per share of Nabi common stock in the aggregate (assuming no changes to the currently outstanding number of shares of Nabi common stock). The estimated range of the liquidating distributions described in the preceding sentence is based on Nabi having cash of $92.7 million as of June 30, 2012, less approximately $1.5 million of estimated operating expenses until September 30, 2012, less approximately $24.6 million used for purchasing shares in its previously announced issuer tender offer (including related fees and expenses), and less approximately $13.5 million in the aggregate to pay, and make provision for, existing and known potential claims and liabilities, including severance payments and transaction-related fees and liabilities, expenses related to continuing operations during the liquidation process, including making required regulatory filings and the establishment of a mechanism for collecting and distributing any future distributions, milestone or royalty payments under existing agreements and any potential new agreements with respect to NicVAX[®] (Nicotine Conjugate Vaccine) and Phoslyra[®]. In addition, a reserve amount of approximately $5 million to $10 million in the aggregate would be set aside for the satisfaction of unknown future contingent and potential claims and liabilities in accordance with the DGCL. The amount remaining from the $5 million to $10 million reserve, if any, together with any other remaining assets, after satisfying Nabi's remaining, actual, contingent or potential claims and liabilities will be distributed to the stockholders. Nabi currently is unable to predict the precise nature, amount or timing of the liquidating distributions described above. The range of the liquidating distributions and the other amounts referred to in this paragraph are preliminary estimates based on the information currently available to Nabi and are subject to change based on factors currently unknown to Nabi that may affect its remaining cash in the future, such as additional expenditures and/or liabilities. Therefore, the actual amounts of the liquidating distributions may be significantly lower or higher than Nabi's current estimates.

NO APPRAISAL RIGHTS

Under Delaware law, holders of shares of Nabi common stock are not entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the Transaction or any of the matters to be acted on at the special meeting.

REPURCHASE OF SHARES OF NABI COMMON STOCK; DIVIDENDS AND DISTRIBUTIONS; CONTINGENT VALUE RIGHTS

Issuer Tender Offer

On July 30, 2012, Nabi's previously announced tender offer expired, pursuant to which Nabi purchased 14,547,996 shares of its common stock for approximately $24.4 million.

Dividends and Distributions

Nabi plans to return to its stockholders, before the completion of the Transaction, its remaining cash in excess of the $54 million required to be held by Nabi at the completion of the Transaction after satisfying outstanding liabilities. Such distribution is expected to take the form of a dividend or return of capital, and currently is expected to be in the range of approximately $1 million to $5 million in the aggregate.

Contingent Value Rights

Nabi plans to issue CVRs to existing Nabi stockholders before the completion of the Transaction. Nabi expects that one CVR will be issued for each share of Nabi common stock outstanding as of a record date to be set at a date prior to the completion of the Transaction. However, the CVRs will not be attached to the shares of Nabi common stock. Nabi plans to enter into the CVR Agreement with a rights agent for the purpose of establishing the terms and conditions of the CVRs and the procedures by which payments, if any, will be made to the CVR holders. The form of the CVR Agreement is attached to this proxy statement as Annex G and is incorporated by reference herein.

The following is a summary of the material terms of the CVR Agreement. This summary does not purport to describe all of the terms of the CVR Agreement and is qualified by reference to the complete text of the form of the CVR Agreement. Nabi urges you to read the form of the CVR Agreement carefully and in its entirety.

The CVRs will be nontransferable, subject to certain limited exceptions as set forth in the CVR Agreement. The CVRs will not represent an equity or ownership interest, and CVR holders will have no voting or dividend rights. The rights of CVR holders will be limited to those rights expressly set forth in the CVR Agreement.

Pursuant to the CVR Agreement, CVR holders may, under certain circumstances, have rights to receive a portion of the cash proceeds actually received by the combined company in connection with a NicVAX Transaction. A "NicVAX Transaction" means a full or partial sale, license, transfer or any other similar transaction entered into by Nabi or the combined company with respect to the NicVAX Program (which is defined in the CVR Agreement to include those assets of Nabi that currently are or have been used in the research, development and manufacture of Nabi's products for the prevention or treatment of nicotine addiction or for use as an aid to smoking prevention and/or cessation, including Nabi's proprietary vaccine known as NicVAX[®] (Nicotine Conjugate Vaccine). NicVAX Transactions also include those transactions contemplated by the Exclusive Option and License Agreement, dated as of November 13, 2009, between Nabi and GSK, and any transactions involving any Nabi intellectual property not licensed to GSK under such agreement.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the CVR Agreement, if the combined company consummates a NicVAX Transaction within the 18-month period following the completion of the Transaction (the "Initial CVR Term"), CVR holders will be entitled to receive cash payments equal to such holder's pro rata portion of (1) 75% of the cash proceeds in excess of $5 million actually received by the combined company in connection with such NicVAX Transaction during the Initial CVR Term (provided that such right is triggered only when the combined company actually receives $5.5 million or more in connection with such NicVAX Transaction) and (2) 75% of the first cash milestone payment actually received by the combined company in connection with such NicVAX Transaction during a five-year tail period following the expiration of the Initial CVR Term (provided that such right is triggered only when the combined company actually receives $0.5 million or more as such milestone payment and certain other thresholds are met). If the combined company does not consummate a NicVAX Transaction during the Initial CVR Term, or if the cash proceeds actually received by the combined company in connection with a NicVAX Transaction do not exceed certain thresholds as set forth in the CVR Agreement, no cash payment will be payable to CVR holders.

Under the CVR Agreement, the combined company will not have any obligation whatsoever to pursue, engage in, negotiate, enter into or consummate an actual or potential NicVAX Transaction or to research, develop or commercialize NicVAX[®] (Nicotine Conjugate Vaccine) or any other product that would trigger a payment to CVR holders; provided, that if the combined company makes a decision to pursue, engage in, negotiate or enter into a NicVAX Transaction, then it will need to use commercially reasonable efforts to seek to ensure that consideration paid to it in connection with a NicVAX Transaction is paid in cash and prior to the expiration of the Initial CVR Term.

Although Nabi currently plans to enter into the CVR Agreement and issue CVRs to Nabi stockholders, there is no assurance that CVRs will be issued at all or based on the terms currently set forth in the form of the CVR Agreement. Nabi currently has not entered into the CVR Agreement and Nabi's board of directors may determine in its sole discretion not to issue the CVRs based on, among other things, the progress of the remaining investigator-initiated combination clinical trial in the Netherlands for NicVAX with Pfizer Inc.'s varenicline (Chantix/Champix). Furthermore, if Nabi and Biota agree, the terms of the CVR Agreement as currently contemplated may be changed prior to Nabi entering into the CVR Agreement.

REGULATORY AND OTHER APPROVALS REQUIRED FOR THE TRANSACTION

Australian Regulatory Matters

Under the Corporations Act, the Transaction must be approved by Biota stockholders and a Supreme or Federal Court of Australia (expected to be the Supreme Court of Victoria, Australia) to become effective. The Corporations Act expressly prevents a court from granting approval unless:

- ASIC provides the court with a statement that it has no objection to the Transaction; or
- the court is satisfied that the Transaction has not been proposed for the purpose of enabling any person to avoid the operation of any of the provisions of Chapter 6 of the Corporations Act (which relates to takeovers).

On August 9, 2012, Biota will apply to the Supreme Court of Victoria, Australia at the first court hearing for (1) an order that a meeting of holders of issued ordinary shares of Biota be convened and (2) an approval of the distribution of the explanatory memorandum about the Transaction to Biota stockholders. Pursuant to the requirements of the Corporations Act, Biota has provided ASIC at least 14 days' notice before the first court hearing and is allowing ASIC a reasonable opportunity to review the explanatory memorandum and to make submissions to the court with respect to it. Biota also intends to apply to ASIC for ASIC to provide to the court a written statement that it has no objection to the Transaction. Provided that ASIC is satisfied with the terms of the Transaction documents (including the Transaction Agreement) and the explanatory memorandum to be provided to Biota stockholders, Biota expects that ASIC will provide to the court at the first court hearing a letter stating that ASIC intends to issue a no-objection statement at the second court hearing.

Pursuant to the orders expected to be made by the court at the first court hearing, Biota will convene a meeting of Biota stockholders to vote on a resolution to approve the Transaction. The Transaction must be approved by a majority in number of Biota stockholders that are present and voting in person or by proxy at the meeting, as well as at least 75% of the votes cast on the resolution in person or by proxy by Biota stockholders at the meeting. The Biota stockholders meeting is expected to occur on or about September 25, 2012.

If the Transaction is approved at the Biota stockholders meeting and all other conditions to the Transaction are satisfied, Biota will seek to obtain court approval of the Transaction at the second court hearing. The second court hearing is expected to occur on or about September 28, 2012.

If the court approves the Transaction at the second court hearing, a copy of the court order will be filed with ASIC and the Transaction will become binding on all classes of Biota stockholders, including those who voted against the Transaction (referred to herein as the "effective date of the scheme of arrangement").

Trading in Biota's ordinary shares on the ASX will be suspended from the close of trading on the effective date of the scheme of arrangement, which is anticipated to be shortly after the court approval of the scheme. A record date (which will be the fifth business day following the effective date of the scheme of arrangement) will be set to determine the Biota stockholders entitled to receive shares of Nabi common stock as consideration for the Transaction. The Transaction consideration will be provided to Biota stockholders three business days after such record date and the Transaction will be deemed to have been completed or implemented on that date (referred to herein as the "implementation date").

Biota Stockholder Approval

As described above, Biota will hold a special meeting of its stockholders on or about September 25, 2012 to consider and vote upon a resolution to approve the Transaction. The Transaction must be approved by the requisite majorities of the Biota stockholders under Section 411(4)(a)(ii) of the Corporations Act (a majority in number of Biota stockholders that are present and voting in person or by proxy at the meeting, as well as at least 75% of the votes cast on the resolution in person or by proxy by Biota stockholders at the meeting).

NASDAQ Initial Listing Application Requirement

Under the NASDAQ Listing Rule 5110(a), a NASDAQ listed corporation must apply for initial listing in connection with a transaction whereby the NASDAQ listed corporation combines with a non-NASDAQ entity, resulting in a change of control of the NASDAQ listed corporation and potentially allowing the non-NASDAQ entity to obtain a NASDAQ listing. On May 14, 2012, Nabi received a letter from The NASDAQ Stock Market notifying the staff's conclusion that the Transaction would constitute a change of control under NASDAQ Rule 5110(a). Nabi plans to re-apply for initial listing prior to the completion of the Transaction.

HSR Approval

The HSR Act requires the parties to certain acquisitions and other transactions that meet specified minimum size requirements to file notifications with the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice and the U.S. Federal Trade Commission and observe a waiting period before closing, unless an exemption applies. Nabi and Biota believe that the Transaction is exempt from the notification requirements based on the fair market value of Biota's non-exempt assets, namely its assets in the U.S. Accordingly, neither Nabi nor Biota is expected to make a notification under the HSR Act with respect to the Transaction. If such exemption does not apply, the Transaction would not be able to be consummated until notification and report forms have been filed with the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission by Nabi and Biota, and the applicable waiting period has expired or been terminated.

Other than as described above, neither Nabi nor Biota is aware of any regulatory approvals required to be obtained, or waiting periods required to expire, to complete the Transaction. If Nabi and Biota discover that other approvals or waiting periods are necessary, Nabi and Biota intend to seek to obtain or comply with them in accordance with the Transaction Agreement.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE COMPANIES

Nabi Biopharmaceuticals

Nabi is a biopharmaceutical company that has focused on the development of vaccines addressing unmet medical needs, including nicotine addiction. Nabi has sought to leverage its experience and knowledge in powering the human immune system to target these serious unmet medical needs. Nabi has been incorporated in Delaware since 1969 and its operations are located in Rockville, Maryland.

Nabi's sole remaining product currently in development is NicVAX[®] (Nicotine Conjugate Vaccine), an innovative and proprietary investigational vaccine for the treatment of nicotine addiction and prevention of smoking relapse based on patented technology. Nabi suffered a significant setback in 2011 when NicVAX did not achieve the primary endpoint in two Phase III efficacy trials conducted in the U.S. As of March 31, 2012, Nabi's remaining assets include the following: (1) $94.9 million of cash and cash equivalents, (2) the potential residual value of NicVAX as well as any next-generation nicotine vaccine which was licensed to GSK in 2010, (3) the potential royalty from Phoslyra which was sold to Fresenius USA Manufacturing, Inc. in 2006, and (4) the potential value of our NOLs.

Biota Holdings Limited

Business

Biota is an anti-infective drug development company based in Melbourne, Australia. Since its initial public offering in Australia on the ASX in 1985, Biota has evolved from a one-program research company to a diversified drug discovery and development company. Biota currently receives royalties from sales of two influenza antiviral drugs by its licensees and has a pipeline of candidate drugs aimed at treating HRV, RSV, HCV and bacterial infections. Biota also has recently completed a Phase IIb study in asthmatics of its lead compound, vapendavir, for HRV infections.

Biota's first revenue-producing product, zanamivir, was developed and commercialized as the first-in-class NI to treat influenza pursuant to a research and license agreement entered into with GSK in 1990. Under the terms of the agreement, Biota licensed zanamivir on an exclusive, worldwide basis to GSK, which markets the product as Relenza[™]. Under the agreement, Biota receives royalty payments of 7% of GSK's annual net sales of Relenza[™] in major countries and 10% of GSK's annual net sales of Relenza[™] in Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and Indonesia. Biota's relationship and agreements with GSK are described in more detail below under "—Biota's Products and Product Candidates—Zanamivir: marketed globally by GSK as Relenza[™]" beginning on page 90 of this proxy statement.

Biota's second revenue-producing product is laninamivir, a second-generation NI, which was developed in collaboration with Daiichi Sankyo, pursuant to a collaboration and license agreement which provides for the cross-licensing of NI patents and other information relating to long acting NI ("LANI") drugs, including laninamivir. Under the collaboration and license agreement, Biota and Daiichi Sankyo agreed to share equally any royalties, license fees, or milestone or other payments received from any third party licensee of laninamivir outside of Japan.

In September 2010, Inavir[®] was approved by the Japanese Ministry of Health and Welfare for the treatment of influenza in adults and children, which enabled Daiichi Sankyo to market the product in time for the 2010/2011 influenza season. Daiichi Sankyo is currently conducting a Phase III trial in Japan to investigate the effectiveness of laninamivir to prevent influenza. A successful outcome in this study would increase Biota's revenue potential by allowing Daiichi Sankyo to market Inavir[®] in Japan for the prevention of influenza.

Laninamivir is marketed in Japan by Daiichi Sankyo as Inavir[®] pursuant to a commercialization agreement. Under the commercialization agreement, Biota receives a 4% royalty on Daiichi Sankyo's net sales of Inavir[®].

and has the right to earn up to an additional $18 million upon the achievement of sales milestones by Daiichi Sankyo in Japan. The royalty rate can increase to up to 6% of Daiichi Sankyo's net sales of Inavir® in Japan if laninamivir is licensed under suitable terms to a third party outside of Japan.

Biota's relationship and agreements with Daiichi Sankyo are described in more detail below under “—Biota's Products and Product Candidates— Laninamivir: marketed in Japan by Daiichi Sankyo as Inavir®” beginning on page 90 of this proxy statement and “—Collaborative Relationships—Collaboration and License Agreement between Biota and Daiichi Sankyo” beginning on page 95 of this proxy statement.

On March 31, 2011, Biota's wholly owned subsidiary, Biota Scientific Management Pty Ltd. (“BSM”), was awarded a contract by BARDA. BARDA is part of the U.S. Office of the Assistant Secretary for Preparedness and Response (“ASPR”) within the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (“HHS”). The BARDA contract is for the late stage development of laninamivir on a cost-plus-fixed-fee basis, not to exceed $231,252,675 (of which $15,128,679 represents BSM's fixed-fee and $216,123,996 represents the estimated costs reimbursable by BARDA). Pursuant to the BARDA contract, reimbursable costs include those costs incurred by BSM for manufacturing, a pilot clinical evaluation, scale-up development, and manufacturing facility design (but not facility construction) leading towards licensure of laninamivir by the FDA. The BARDA contract is designed to fund and provide BSM with technical and clinical data and U.S. based manufacturing to support a U.S. new drug application (“NDA”) to the FDA for laninamivir. The performance period of the BARDA contract commenced on March 31, 2011, and continues for 60 months. Biota's agreement with BARDA is described in more detail below under “—BARDA Contract” beginning on page 91 of this proxy statement.

Market Opportunity

What is Influenza?

Influenza is a respiratory infection caused by a member of the influenza virus family. Influenza virus infections are usually more severe than other respiratory virus infections and typically involve a combination of respiratory (cough, sore throat) and constitutional (fever, headache, muscle aches) symptoms. In older adults and people with certain pre-existing medical conditions, influenza infections can lead to serious and even life-threatening complications. A notable feature of influenza is that repeated infections can occur throughout life.

Influenza viruses circulate in every part of the world. Seasonal influenza is an acute viral infection caused by an influenza virus. There are three types of seasonal influenza—A, B and C. Type A and type B viruses are of particular public health concern. They can be readily distinguished from each other by laboratory tests but not by clinical symptoms. Type C influenza viruses occur much less frequently than A and B and are of limited public health significance. Only influenza A and B viruses are included in seasonal influenza vaccines.

Type A influenza viruses are further classified into subtypes according to different kinds and combinations of virus surface proteins. Influenza viruses are coated with two proteins, called haemagglutinin (“HA”) and neuraminidase (“NA”). There are many subtypes of influenza A with different variants of HA and NA, although most of these subtypes only circulate in birds.

Influenza B viruses only infect humans and are not classified into subtypes. Two-closely related lineages of type B viruses are currently circulating in humans.

Occasionally a new subtype of influenza A virus emerges that has an HA to which most humans have not previously been exposed—this is known as “antigenic shift.” In addition to “antigenic shift,” the HA and NA of type A and B viruses continually change by mutation to produce new strains of the virus, a process referred to as “antigenic drift.”

The highest risk of complications arising from yearly influenza outbreaks occurs among children younger than age two, adults age 65 or older, and people of any age with certain medical conditions, such as chronic heart, lung, kidney, liver, blood or metabolic diseases (such as diabetes), or weakened immune systems.

Table of Contents

Seasonal influenza occurs yearly during autumn and winter in temperate regions. Illnesses result in hospitalizations and deaths mainly among high-risk groups (the very young, elderly or chronically ill). Worldwide, these annual outbreaks result in about three to five million cases of severe illness, and about 250,000 to 500,000 deaths. Most deaths associated with influenza in industrialized countries occur among people age 65 or older. In some tropical countries, influenza viruses circulate throughout the year with two peaks during wet seasons.

Pandemic Influenza

In addition to seasonal influenza, from time to time there are influenza pandemics that spread worldwide and infect a large proportion of the population. These pandemics occur irregularly, typically when a new strain of influenza emerges to which most of the human population has not been exposed or which is transmitted to humans from another species. The lack of previous exposure means that immunity within the community is low, allowing rapid infection and transmission of the new strain amongst people on a global scale. Over the course of the last 100 years, there have been four influenza pandemics.

In 2009, the world experienced its first pandemic in 41 years with the emergence of the Pandemic A(H1N1) 2009 virus. This virus had many characteristics of viruses circulating in swine and also is related to the 1918 pandemic virus (known as the Spanish flu). Other major influenza outbreaks during the last century include the 1957 Asian flu and the 1968 Hong Kong flu. Pandemics can cause high mortality and it has been estimated that the Spanish flu killed over 50 million people.

For most people infected by the H1N1 2009 pandemic virus, symptoms were relatively mild. However, certain population groups were at higher risk for severe illness or complications.

The timing and severity of pandemics are unpredictable. The key event that leads to a pandemic is a random genetic shuffling which generates a new influenza virus able to spread easily among humans.

Avian H5N1 and other influenza viruses

While only two influenza A subtypes currently circulate broadly in humans, influenza A viruses of all subtypes can infect birds. Of particular concern to public health authorities is the highly pathogenic avian influenza A(H5N1) virus (“bird flu”) which causes devastating disease in domestic poultry flocks. H5N1 viruses spread rapidly at a local level amongst poultry and their global transmission has been facilitated by international trade in poultry and poultry products and, to some extent, by migratory birds. Most known cases of human infection with these viruses have occurred in people who have had close contact with infected birds. To date cases of human-to-human transmission of A(H5N1) viruses have been extremely rare. H7 and H9 avian influenza subtypes are also known to infect humans occasionally but such cases are also relatively rare.

Public health authorities are concerned that an H5N1 virus may undergo changes that allow it to spread easily between humans, causing a pandemic. Furthermore, in cases where people have been infected by the H5N1 virus, the disease has been particularly severe and aggressive. If the new virus retained the properties of current H5N1 viruses that cause severe disease in humans, the mortality rate would be expected to be high.

While birds can be infected by all known influenza A subtypes, a smaller number of subtypes are also known to infect pigs, horses, dogs and other species. Historically there have been no recorded instances of natural transmission from horses or dogs to humans, but transmission from pigs to humans does occur from time to time. The Pandemic H1N1 influenza strain that emerged in 2009, commonly referred to as the “swine flu,” was the result of a series of genetic shuffling events between swine, avian and human influenza viruses that had occurred over many years, ultimately producing a virus that is now transmitted readily between people.

Current Approaches to Management and Treatment of Influenza

There are two different approaches to managing influenza outbreaks: prevention-only versus treatment and prevention.

The prevention-only approach involves administration of a vaccine to a wide population of people who may be vulnerable to influenza. The goal of the vaccine is to stimulate the production of the body's own antibodies to combat future exposure to the influenza virus. While the prevention-only approach to managing influenza outbreaks is not as expensive as the treatment and prevention approach, it has limitations. First, influenza vaccinations are most effective when circulating viruses are well-matched with vaccine viruses. Influenza viruses are constantly changing. Second, the efficacy of the prevention-only approach depends on vaccinating a sufficient percentage of the potential patient population to contain the spread of the disease. Third, the effectiveness of influenza vaccine varies according to the age and immunocompetence of the vaccine recipient.

Unlike the prevention-only approach to managing influenza, the treatment and prevention approach involves using drugs known as neuraminidase inhibitors or NIs to both treat and prevent the disease. NIs are drugs that block the enzyme that releases virions from the host lung cell, following replication. The neuraminidase enzyme is common to all strains of influenza and therefore NIs are the only option to treat all strains. In addition, NIs can be used for prevention of influenza.

There are two forms of treatment for influenza: symptomatic and antiviral. Drugs that lessen the symptoms of the disease, such as a runny nose, high temperature, coughs and headache, are available over the counter in pharmacies and sometimes supermarkets but these treatments have no effect on the course of the infection. Other drugs that limit the multiplication of the virus are generally only available by prescription from a doctor. This second group comprises the drugs known as NIs, zanamivir (Relenza™), laninamivir (Inavir®) and oseltamivir (Tamiflu®) which act on both influenza A and B, and the older drugs amantadine and rimantadine. Amantadine and rimantadine are no longer recommended for treatment of influenza as currently circulating strains have developed resistance to this class of drugs. Not all antiviral drugs are available in all countries.

Biota holds a significant portion of the current treatment options and development pipeline of NIs.

The Global Market for NIs

NIs are sold in two ways—through prescriptions to treat patients who have contracted influenza and to governments, which seek to build stockpiles to ensure adequate supplies in the case of an epidemic or pandemic.

According to IMS Health, during the 2009/2010 influenza season worldwide prescription sales of NIs from July 2009 through June 2010 were approximately $1.4 billion, distributed through pharmacies. Of this total, approximately $800 million of sales were in the U.S. and approximately $400 million were in Japan. Biota believes that Relenza™ accounted for approximately 17% of worldwide NI sales in this period, while Tamiflu® accounted for the remainder.

Unlike the prescription market, the stockpile market is focused on sales to U.S. and foreign governments. Stockpiling is desirable because the shelf life for NIs is relatively long—up to seven years. The World Health Organization (“WHO”) recommends that NIs be stockpiled to cover 25% of the global population. The U.S. government has a policy to keep a stockpile that would cover 35% of its population, while some other developed countries are aiming for over 50% coverage.

A report published in 2011 by Market Research Media Ltd indicates that over the past five years, government spending worldwide on pandemic influenza preparedness (including vaccines, antivirals and medical supplies) has more than tripled from $2.2 billion in 2004 to $7 billion in 2009.

Biota believes that prior to reports of emerging resistance to Tamiflu® in 2009, the relative percentages of Tamiflu® and Relenza™ in government stockpiles were approximately 85% and 15%, respectively. However, Biota believes that the market share of Relenza™ in new stockpile purchases should increase due to concerns about viral resistance and side effects associated with Tamiflu® and statements by relevant government authorities that they intend to rebalance stockpiles of NIs. A significant portion of the U.S. stockpile of Tamiflu® expires in 2012. Biota believes that there is significant opportunity for sales to the U.S. government as the current stockpile expires and is replenished.

Biota's Products and Product Candidates

Zanamivir: marketed globally by GSK as Relenza™

In 1990, Biota and GSK entered into a research and license agreement, as amended on March 30, 1998 and November 28, 2001, pursuant to which GSK developed and commercialized zanamivir, the world's first-in-class neuraminidase inhibitor antiviral drug for influenza. Zanamivir has been marketed by GSK as Relenza™ since 1999. GSK holds exclusive rights to manufacture, market and sell zanamivir globally for which Biota receives royalties at 7% of net sales in major countries and royalties of 10% of net sales in Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and Indonesia.

Influenza outbreaks are highly variable in terms of severity, frequency and morbidity and the market for Relenza™ is likely to continue to be volatile, unpredictable and difficult to forecast. Government purchases of Relenza™ for influenza pandemic stockpiles resulted in increased royalties to Biota in 2009 and 2010, particularly in the lead up to, and during, the H1N1 2009 pandemic. The threat of another influenza outbreak remains, and Biota believes that there are a number of countries that have aging stockpiles with inventory expiring from 2012.

GSK's obligation to pay royalties to Biota on sales of Relenza™ ceases upon expiry of the patents covering zanamivir on a country-by-country basis. Accordingly, Biota believes that royalties on sales of Relenza™ could continue to provide an important revenue stream until key patents expire from December 2014 in the U.S., May 2015 in major countries of the European Union, and July 2019 in Japan. See “—Patents and Proprietary Rights—Projected Patent Estate Expiration in the U.S., European, Japanese and Australian Pharmaceutical Markets” beginning on page 96 of this proxy statement.

Laninamivir: marketed in Japan by Daiichi Sankyo as Inavir®

Biota's LANI program seeks to address the limitations of the first generation neuraminidase inhibitors, which require twice daily dosing. The ability to dose patients with laninamivir on a “one and done” basis for treatment and the potential for once weekly dosing for prevention offers a number of potential benefits. Less frequent dosing may result in the patient being more likely to use the product as and when intended, as well as a reduced cost of storage and deployment in instances where the product is intended to be stockpiled.

On September 29, 2003, Biota and Sankyo Co., Ltd (now Daiichi Sankyo Company Limited) agreed to merge their respective LANI programs (laninamivir and FLUNET) pursuant to a collaboration and license agreement. On March 27, 2009, Daiichi Sankyo exercised its option under the agreement to develop and commercialize the LANI compound laninamivir in Japan. BSM, Biota and Daiichi Sankyo entered into a commercialization agreement, pursuant to which Daiichi Sankyo obtained the exclusive right to market laninamivir in Japan as Inavir®, in return for funding an extensive range of Japanese clinical trials. Daiichi Sankyo is also required to market and sell Inavir® in Japan with a view to maximizing net sales in accordance with a marketing plan. The collaboration and license agreement, as amended, is described in more detail below under “—Collaborative Relationships—Collaboration and License Agreement between Biota and Daiichi Sankyo” beginning on page 95 of this proxy statement.

Under the commercialization agreement, Daiichi Sankyo is required to pay Biota a royalty of 4% of net sales of Inavir® in Japan. In certain circumstances, this royalty rate can increase up to 6% of net sales if laninamivir is licensed to a third party outside of Japan. The royalty rate may be reduced in the event a generic equivalent is successfully launched in Japan. Daiichi Sankyo is also required to pay Biota fixed sum payments up to $18 million on the achievement of specified sales milestones.

The commercialization agreement with Daiichi Sankyo terminates upon the later of the expiration of all patents covering the product and 12 years from the launch of the product in Japan, subject to its earlier termination for material breach.

In September 2010, the Japanese Ministry of Health and Welfare approved a new drug application for laninamivir, which permitted the product to be marketed in Japan for treatment of influenza in time for the 2010/2011 influenza season. Currently, Inavir® is approved in Japan for the treatment of influenza in adults and children. Depending on the results of a Phase III prophylaxis study that is currently underway, Biota expects that Daiichi Sankyo will apply for the approval from the Japanese Ministry of Health and Welfare to be able to market Inavir® in Japan for prevention of influenza which should facilitate the inclusion of Inavir® in Japanese stockpiles. The introduction of Inavir® to the Japanese market generated royalties for Biota of A$2.9 million in the 2010/2011 influenza season. Royalties to Biota for the nine month period ended March 31, 2012 were A$4.1 million.

BARDA Contract

On March 31, 2011, Biota's wholly owned subsidiary, BSM, was awarded a contract from BARDA. As noted above, BARDA is part of the ASPR, within HHS. The BARDA contract is fully funded over an estimated five year period; however, it is contingent upon the delivery of key milestones throughout the period. The BARDA contract was awarded on a cost-plus-fixed-fee basis, not to exceed $231,252,675. Of the "not to exceed" contract value, $15,128,679 represents BSM's fixed-fee and $216,123,996 represents the estimated costs reimbursable by BARDA.

The BARDA contract is designed to provide U.S. based manufacturing, technical and clinical data to support an NDA for laninamivir to the FDA. Subject to obtaining satisfactory clinical and other technical results, BSM expects to file an NDA for laninamivir in 2016.

BARDA's Charter includes but is not limited to U.S. based "manufacturing, clinical evaluation of pilot and commercial scale lots of drugs or biologicals, including but not limited to small molecules, enzymes, polypeptides, proteins and natural or synthetic antibodies and nucleic acids or derivatives thereof." Under the contract, BSM will establish U.S. manufacturing of laninamivir, optimize its manufacturing processes, and conduct clinical trials for safety and efficacy in adult and pediatric populations.

The BARDA contract is for 60 months, commencing on March 31, 2011. BSM's entitlement to the $15,128,679 fixed-fee is contingent of BSM's satisfaction of various "milestones" identified in the contract. Details regarding the contract milestones are provided in the BARDA contract's Statement of Work. In brief, BSM is required to achieve the following milestones:

- Milestone 1: Within three months of contract award, BSM shall provide to HHS for review and acceptance a comprehensive milestone-driven Product Development Plan, inclusive of preclinical and clinical activities performed and completed prior to the contract award, and those clinical and manufacturing activities to be performed after the contract award. The Product Development Plan has been submitted to HHS.
- Milestone 2: Within 6 months of contract award, BSM shall provide to HHS for review and acceptance a comprehensive Clinical Development and Regulatory Plan, inclusive of a summary of preclinical studies, and detailed descriptions of clinical evaluation and regulatory activities. The Clinical Development and Regulatory Plan has been submitted to HHS.
- Milestone 3: Within nine months of contract award, BSM shall provide to HHS for review and acceptance a Manufacturing Facility Plan relating to a facility to producing laninamivir, including pre-pandemic and pandemic facility management plans. The Manufacturing Facility Plan has been submitted to HHS.

Table of Contents

- Milestone 4: Within 12 months of contract award, BSM shall provide to HHS for review and acceptance a Feasibility Plan to manufacture, test and release product containing laninamivir. The Feasibility Plan has been submitted to HHS.
- Milestone 5: BSM will provide a work breakdown structure including comprehensive and integrated timelines (Gantt chart) and key objectives and its execution. This milestone is ongoing.

Like most contracts awarded by the U.S. Federal Government, the BARDA contract incorporates by reference many U.S. Federal Acquisition Regulation (“FAR”) and agency-supplement FAR clauses. Each of these clauses carries specific rights and obligations, many of which are unique to government contracting, including various procurement, socio-economic, ethics, import and export, security, pricing and cost accounting, contract termination, reporting, and audit requirements. BSM’s failure to comply with these regulations and requirements could result in reductions of the contract value, contract termination, the assessment of penalties and fines, and/or suspension or debarment from government contracting or subcontracting for a period of time. Additionally, these clauses subject BSM to routine audits and investigations by U.S. Federal Government agencies. These agencies are tasked with reviewing BSM’s performance, cost structure, and compliance with applicable laws, regulations, and standards. The HHS also has the right to conduct site visits/audits and collect samples of product held by BSM and its subcontractors.

Because BSM will continue as the contractor following the completion of the Transaction and the Transaction will not alter the assets used to perform the contract, no novation or name-change agreement should be required.

HRV Program

HRV infections are frequently associated with the common cold, which presents as a minor and mild disease in otherwise healthy individuals. However, there is a mounting body of medical evidence that links HRV infection to exacerbations in patients with concurrent, underlying lung disease such as asthma or chronic obstructive pulmonary disease and which may require significant medical intervention to reinstate control of the underlying disease.

In June 2009 the lead candidate vapendavir (BTA798) was demonstrated to reduce the incidence and severity of an induced HRV infection in healthy subjects. In July 2010 Biota commenced a U.S. based Phase IIb study in subjects with chronic asthma, designed to establish the effect of vapendavir on cold symptoms in asthmatics when given shortly after the onset of an infection. On March 28, 2012, Biota announced that the primary end point of the Phase IIb study was successfully achieved.

RSV Program

RSV infection affects most children by the age of two years and is the predominant cause of acute lower respiratory tract infections in children. Symptoms of RSV infection include cough, wheezing, fever and bronchiolitis, with 25-40% of affected children showing signs of pneumonia and bronchiolitis. Premature infants are particularly at risk of severe complications and few therapeutic options are available.

Biota has been active with its RSV program for a number of years and licensed an earlier lead compound to MedImmune/AstraZeneca. Development of that compound has ceased and all rights reverted to Biota.

Since then, Biota has identified a new lead candidate which has an excellent pharmacokinetic profile. The new lead candidate is one of the few prospective antiviral drugs suitable for oral administration and that has demonstrated potent inhibition of RSV in both culture and animal models.

The RSV product candidate is at the preclinical stage of development.

Hepatitis C virus

After infection with HCV, approximately 75-85% of people develop chronic infection. The majority of these people are asymptomatic and unaware that they are infected. These carriers serve as a source of HCV transmission and are at risk of chronic liver disease or other HCV-related chronic diseases decades after infection. Somewhere between one and five percent of people with chronic HCV infection will die of cirrhosis or liver cancer.

The WHO estimates that about 3% of the world's population has been infected with HCV, equating to more than 170 million chronic carriers who are at risk of developing the serious life threatening disease. The Centers for Disease Control ("CDC") estimates that in the U.S. alone 4.1 million people (approximately 1.6% of the population) are infected with HCV. Of these people, 3.2 million are chronically infected.

Biota anticipates that the treatment of HCV will evolve towards oral multidrug therapy, in which combinations of different direct acting antiviral ("DAA") drugs with complementary mechanisms of action serve to increase viral suppression and delay or prevent the emergence of resistance. This type of drug regimen could avert the need for the use of interferon and ribavirin, which have low response rates and are poorly tolerated by patients. Biota believes that there is a need for an effective direct acting antiviral ("DAA") treatment that is active against a range of HCV genotypes without the side effect profile and inconvenience associated with current drugs.

Biota has two HCV antiviral approaches:

Non-nucleosides

Biota has discovered a new class of potent and selective pan-genotypic non-nucleoside ("NN") polymerase inhibitors. Unlike the majority of non-nucleoside compounds in clinical development which generally only inhibit genotype 1, the Biota compounds target a site on the NS5b polymerase which confers HCV activity across the major genotypes (1 through 4). Biota's antiviral compounds have a suitable pharmacokinetic profile with the potential for once-daily dosing in a combination therapy, demonstrate activity against clinically relevant resistant mutants and possess strong synergistic effects when tested in conjunction with other DAAs used to treat HCV. Biota's HCV-NN inhibitor program is on track to nominate a preclinical candidate in 2012.

Nucleoside/tides

Biota has developed extensive "know how" and expertise in the chemistry and biology of antiviral nucleoside/tides. Biota's research program has led to the discovery of several novel classes of such compounds which inhibit HCV replication. Selected HCV nucleosides and nucleotides from the Biota series have demonstrated potent pan-genotype HCV inhibition in enzyme and cellular assays and excellent pharmacokinetic profiles in multiple species including high concentrations and long half-lives in liver cells.

Multidrug resistant bacteria

Gram-positive and Gram-negative bacteria are common causes of serious diseases such as pneumonia and complicated skin infections. Resistance to currently available antibacterial drugs is increasing and presents an important medical need. For example, more than 70% of cases of bacterial disease in hospitals are now believed to be caused by pathogens resistant to at least one antibiotic commonly used in their treatment. Disturbingly, diseases caused by multidrug-resistant ("MDR") Gram-positive pathogens such as methicillin-resistant Staphylococcus aureus ("MRSA") are becoming more commonplace, turning what were previously manageable infections into urgent, potentially life-threatening clinical problems.

Biota is actively addressing this unmet need through the discovery of new classes of antibacterials targeting processes that are essential for bacterial growth. The key to Biota's approach is to focus its proprietary technology on novel targets with potential to yield entirely new classes of antibacterials with activity against emerging drug resistant bacteria. Biota's portfolio addresses Gram-positive and Gram-negative bacterial infections.

Gyrase

Biota's program focuses on DNA supercoiling inhibitors, which target the ATPase of the enzymes DNA gyrase and DNA topoisomerase IV. Both enzymes are essential for bacterial survival and are simultaneously inhibited by compounds from this series. Dual-targeting inhibitors are attractive because they reduce the development of target-based resistance. The program is aimed at treating serious skin infections, bacterial pneumonia and sexually-transmitted infections in the first instance. The market for these types of therapies is valued in billions of dollars and existing therapies are increasingly compromised by resistance. Biota's inhibitors have demonstrated class-leading efficacy through oral and intravenous administration in multiple animal models of infection.

Clostridium difficile

Another program, funded by a grant of $2.9 million from the U.S. National Institute of Health, targets a potentially serious infection of the gastrointestinal tract caused by Clostridium difficile. Clostridium difficile can infect and flourish in the colon of patients following eradication of the normal gut bacteria by a course of broad spectrum antibiotics. This infection can lead to severe inflammation of the colon and can prove life threatening, particularly in the elderly. Authorities are also increasingly concerned about the potential emergence of an epidemic strain with increased virulence and/or antibiotic resistance.

Biota is developing a class of inhibitors which are targeted to the gut and are not absorbed into the bloodstream. This approach circumvents several obstacles normally associated with drug discovery and development, such as oral absorption, and provides a localized delivery to the site of the infection. Biota's antibacterials are potent and highly selective for Clostridium difficile, including drug resistant strains. They spare beneficial gut flora that are required for the normal functioning of the digestive system.

FLUNET

Biota's FLUNET compounds are in the preclinical stage of development and are intended as follow-on compounds to laninamivir. These dimeric compounds act via the same neuraminidase site as zanamivir and laninamivir, but are substantially more potent and have demonstrated effectiveness via once weekly dosing in animal models.

Biota's Strategy

Biota has traditionally licensed its programs to pharmaceutical companies relatively early in the development process. Licenses have earned Biota important income in the form of up-front payments on signing the license; research and development fees in respect of ongoing work on the relevant licensed programs; payments on key clinical and other milestones; and royalties and milestone payments on sales. With the award of the BARDA contract for the late stage development of laninamivir, the opportunity may arise to vary this traditional approach by means of direct sales to those countries that maintain stockpiles of influenza antivirals.

Biota currently intends to seek to identify suitable partners capable of selling laninamivir in the seasonal influenza market. Biota expects these partners to be existing pharmaceutical companies that market other products and can leverage their existing sales forces.

In respect of clinical trials, Biota maintains a core expertise and uses contractors and clinical research organizations to conduct trials on an "as needs" basis.

Competition

NI antiviral drugs that compete with zanamivir and laninamivir are oseltamivir (Tamiflu®) and peramivir (Rapiacta and PeramiFlu). Tamiflu® is sold worldwide by F. Hoffmann-La Roche Ltd and is delivered orally in a capsule or suspension form. Peramivir is currently marketed in Japan (as Rapiacta) and in South Korea (as PeramiFlu) for the intravenous treatment of influenza. BioCryst Pharmaceuticals, Inc. is currently conducting Phase 3 clinical trials of peramivir in the U.S.

Other antiviral drugs approved but not recommended, for the treatment of influenza, include amantadine and rimantadine. These are both oral drugs that work via a different mechanism to NIs and only inhibit the replication of the influenza A virus. However, due to high levels of resistance to amantadine and rimantadine, the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices does not currently recommend the use of these drugs for treatment or prophylaxis of currently circulating influenza A virus strains.

A number of other drugs are in clinical development for the treatment of influenza. Toyama Chemical Co., Ltd. is developing an oral formulation of favipiravir (T-706), a nucleoside RNA polymerase inhibitor, for the treatment of influenza. A marketing application for favipiravir has been submitted in Japan and a Phase II dose-finding trial has been completed in the U.S. NexBio, Inc. is currently conducting Phase II clinical trials of DAS-181 (Fludase®) for treatment of influenza. Targeting host cell sialic acid receptors, the drug is delivered to the lungs via inhalation. Vertex Pharmaceuticals Inc. is developing its influenza virus inhibitor VX-787 for the treatment of influenza A. A Phase II challenge study of VX-787 is currently underway.

Collaborative Relationships

As part of Biota's business strategy, it establishes collaborations with other companies, universities and medical research institutions to assist in the clinical development and/or commercialization of certain of its products and product candidates and to provide support for its research programs. Biota also evaluates opportunities for acquiring products or rights to products and technologies that are complementary to its business from other companies, universities and medical research institutions.

Collaboration and License Agreement between Biota and Daiichi Sankyo

On September 29, 2003, Biota and Sankyo Co., Ltd agreed, pursuant to a collaboration and license agreement, to merge their respective LANI programs, including pooling their respective LANI compound patents and technology, and collaborating and working together to license the LANI compounds to one or more third parties for development and marketing. Daiichi Sankyo subsequently acquired Sankyo Co., Ltd's rights and obligations under the agreement, as amended, as a result of a merger in 2007. This agreement was subsequently amended on June 30, 2005, March 27, 2009 and March 18, 2011 by BSM, Biota and Daiichi Sankyo.

Each of Biota and Daiichi Sankyo has cross-licensed to each other all patents and other information, including know-how, trade secrets, data and results relating to the LANI compounds.

Biota and Daiichi Sankyo are required to use their best efforts and work together to seek third party licensees to develop a finished product that contains a LANI compound on a worldwide basis in order to maximize the commercial return to the parties. Pursuant to the terms of the collaboration and license agreement, Biota and Daiichi Sankyo have formed a licensing committee to oversee the selection of third party licensees and the negotiation of license terms. All license fees, milestone payments, royalties, equity and other payments received from third party licensees of a LANI compound (e.g., laninamivir) outside of Japan are required to be divided between Biota and Daiichi Sankyo on a fifty/fifty basis.

Biota and Daiichi Sankyo have agreed not to develop, commercialize, or enter into any collaboration, license or development agreement with any other party for any LANI compound product in the field, in any country other than Japan, except for arrangements with third party licensees pursuant to the terms of the agreement or as otherwise agreed between Biota and Daiichi Sankyo.

The agreement terminates upon the later of the expiration of the last Biota or Daiichi Sankyo patent relating to the LANI compounds and the expiration or termination of the last license agreement with a third party licensee. The agreement can also be terminated on a country-by-country basis in certain other circumstances, including in the case of a material breach that is not remedied or in the case of a product recall or market withdrawal which continues for 12 months.

Research and Development

The following table provides the estimated amounts expensed under U.S. GAAP during the last three fiscal years on Biota’s programs. Research and development costs represent discovery activities including medicinal chemistry, virology, microbiology drug characteristics and early preclinical studies. Product development costs represent clinical program costs including sourcing, compound, toxicology and later stage preclinical studies. Cost of services represents research and development costs that have been incurred directly in relation to income generating activities, such as from collaboration agreements.

General Patent Protection and Challenges

Patents and other intellectual property (“IP”) rights are very important to Biota’s core business. Biota understands that with enforceable and valid patents protecting its NCEs and related technology, it is best placed to establish a competitive market position. As part of Biota’s business strategy, it actively seeks patent protection for its NCEs and related technology in the U.S., Europe, Japan, Australia and other foreign jurisdictions which it believes to be important to its marketing strategy at that time. Biota’s ability to be competitive will therefore depend on the success of its patent strategy which may also include in-licensing, out-licensing or collaborative efforts towards patentable inventions and related IP.

Biota may obtain patents for pharmaceutical products many years before it obtains marketing approval for those products. Because of this marketing delay Biota may be entitled to apply for an extension of patent term in some markets where it is recognized as grounds for such an extension.

It is also very important to Biota that it does not knowingly infringe patents or the intellectual property rights of others. If Biota does become aware of any potential infringement of patents or intellectual property rights, it may be required to obtain a license from certain third parties to allow Biota to use their technology. Biota however cannot guarantee that, if required, it would be able to obtain a license to any third party technology or that it could obtain one at a reasonable cost. If it were not able to obtain a license if one were required or access alternative technologies, it may be unable to develop or commercialize some or all of its products, and its business could be adversely affected.

Abbreviated New Drug Applications (“ANDA”) Filed by Generic Manufacturers

As part of the marketing approval process of some of Biota’s products the FDA, for example, grants an exclusivity period during which other manufacturers’ applications for approval of generic versions of its product will not be granted. In the U.S., generic manufacturers may challenge the patents protecting products that have been granted exclusivity one year prior to the end of the exclusivity period in order to obtain a generic first to market advantage. From time to time and in the case that Biota has an FDA approved product, Biota may receive notices from potential generic competitors indicating that they intend to import chemical intermediates possibly for use in making its products or seeking FDA approval for a similar or identical drug through an ANDA (i.e. the application form typically used by manufacturers seeking approval of a generic drug on the basis of a market leaders clinical data package).

Confidentiality and Trade Secrets

Biota also relies on maintaining the confidentiality of its trade secrets and innovative improvements, unpatented internal know-how and technological advances. For example, manufacturing expertise, which is a key component of its NCE technology, may be protected as a trade secret as an alternative to seeking patent protection. Biota aims to protect these rights through contractual arrangements such as confidentiality agreements with its corporate partners, employees, consultants, service providers and vendors. These agreements provide that all confidential information developed or made known to an individual during the course of their relationship with Biota will be kept confidential and will not be used or disclosed to third parties except in specified circumstances, for example, circumstances required by law. However, Biota cannot guarantee that these parties will comply with these confidentiality agreements, that it has adequate remedies for any breach or that its trade secrets will not otherwise become known through reverse-engineering or be independently discovered or developed by its competitors.

Ownership

In the case of employees, agreements are in place to provide that all inventions made by an individual while employed by Biota will be Biota's exclusive property. In some cases where Biota's R&D agreements are with a corporate partner, patentable inventions and/or intellectual property which is developed under the relevant agreement may become jointly owned by Biota and its corporate partner or alternatively become the exclusive property of only one of the parties. In certain circumstances, it may be difficult to determine who owns a particular invention and disputes may therefore arise from time to time such that processes, for example, mediation or legal proceedings, to resolve the ownership of those inventions are required.

Manufacturing and Raw Materials

As a drug discovery and development company, Biota does not manufacture drugs directly for clinical trials or resale. Clinical trial materials are sourced from third party suppliers on an as-required basis on commercial terms. Commercial products are manufactured by Biota's partners or their suppliers. Biota's third party manufacturers and corporate partners are independent entities who are subject to their own unique operational and financial risks which are out of Biota's control. If any of Biota's third party manufacturers or corporate partners fail to perform as required, this could impair Biota's royalties or cause delays in Biota's clinical trials and applications for regulatory approval. To the extent these risks materialize, Biota's financial results may be adversely affected.

Seasonal Royalties

Royalty revenue that Biota recognizes from GSK's sales of Relenza™ and Daiichi Sankyo's sales of Inavir® varies greatly depending on the severity of flu seasons and product delivery in response to the influenza pandemics.

Government Regulation

Biota's operations and activities are subject to extensive regulation by numerous government authorities in the U.S. and other countries. In the U.S., drugs are subject to rigorous FDA regulation. The Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act and other federal and state statutes and regulations govern the testing, manufacture, safety, efficacy, labeling, storage, record keeping, approval, advertising and promotion of Biota's products. As a result of these regulations, product development and product approval processes are very expensive and time consuming.

The FDA must approve a drug before it can be sold in the U.S. The general process for this approval is as follows:

Preclinical Testing

Before a drug candidate can be tested in humans, the drug candidate must be studied in laboratory experiments and in animals to generate data to support the drug candidate's potential benefits and safety. This data is then submitted to the FDA in an investigational new drug ("IND") application seeking its approval to test the compound in humans.

Clinical Trials

After review of the FDA IND application, the FDA may give permission to proceed with human clinical trials to determine if the drug candidate is safe and effective. These clinical trials involve three separate phases that often overlap, can take many years and are very expensive. These three phases, which are subject to considerable regulation, are as follows:

- Phase I – Pharmacokinetics ("PK") and safety. The drug candidate is given to a small number of healthy human control subjects to test for safety, dose tolerance, absorption, metabolism, distribution and excretion.
- Phase II – Safety and some indication of efficacy. The drug candidate is given to a limited patient population to determine the effect of the drug candidate in treating the disease, the possible side effects and safety risks of the drug candidate, the best dose of the drug candidate, and dose intolerance. It is not uncommon for a drug candidate that appears promising in Phase I clinical trials to fail Phase II clinical trials.
- Phase III – Efficacy and safety. If a drug candidate appears to be safe and effective in Phase II clinical trials. Phase III clinical trials are conducted over a longer term, involve a significantly larger population, are conducted at numerous sites in different geographic regions and are carefully designed to provide reliable and conclusive data regarding the benefits of a drug candidate and safety. It is not uncommon for a drug candidate that appears promising in Phase II clinical trials to fail in the more rigorous and extensive Phase III clinical trials.

FDA Approval Process

When the drug developer believes that the data from the Phase 3 clinical trials show an adequate level of safety and efficacy, it submits the appropriate filing, usually in the form of an NDA or supplemental NDA, with the FDA seeking approval to sell the drug candidate for a particular use. The FDA may hold a public hearing where an independent advisory committee of expert advisors asks additional questions and makes recommendations regarding the drug candidate. This committee makes a recommendation to the FDA that is not binding but is generally followed by the FDA. If the FDA agrees that the compound has met the required level of safety and efficacy for a particular use, it will allow the drug candidate to be sold in the U.S. for that use. It is not unusual, however, for the FDA to reject an application because it believes that the drug candidate is not sufficiently safe or efficacious enough or because it does not believe that the data submitted are reliable or conclusive.

At any point in this process, the development of a drug candidate can be stopped for a number of reasons including safety concerns and lack of treatment benefit. Biota cannot be certain that any clinical trials that it is currently conducting or any that it conducts in the future will be completed successfully or within any specified time period. Biota may choose, or the FDA may require it, to delay or suspend Biota’s clinical trials at any time if it appears that the patients are being exposed to an unacceptable health risk or if the drug candidate does not appear to have sufficient treatment benefit.

The FDA may also require Phase 4 non-registrational studies to explore scientific questions to further characterize safety and efficacy during commercial use of a drug. The FDA may also require Biota to provide additional data or information, improve Biota’s manufacturing processes, procedures or facilities or may require extensive surveillance to monitor the safety or benefits of a product candidate if it determines that a filing does not contain adequate evidence of the safety and benefits of the drug. In addition, even if the FDA approves a drug, it could limit the uses of the drug. The FDA can withdraw approvals if it does not believe that a distributor is complying with regulatory standards or if problems are uncovered or occur after approval.

In addition to obtaining FDA approval for each drug, a drug developer obtains FDA approval of the manufacturing facilities for any drug it sells, including those of companies who manufacture drugs for them. All of these facilities are subject to periodic inspections by the FDA. The FDA must also approve foreign establishments that manufacture products to be sold in the U.S. and these facilities are subject to periodic regulatory inspection.

Drugs are also subject to extensive regulation outside of the U.S. In the European Union, there is a centralized approval procedure that authorizes marketing of a product in all countries of the European Union (which includes most major countries in Europe). If this centralized approval procedure is not used, approval in one country of the European Union can be used to obtain approval in another country of the European Union under one of two simplified application processes: the mutual recognition procedure or the decentralized procedure, both of which rely on the principle of mutual recognition. After receiving regulatory approval through any of the European registration procedures, separate pricing and reimbursement approvals are also required in most countries.

Pricing and Reimbursement

Successful commercialization of Biota’s products depends, in part, on the availability of governmental and third party payer reimbursement for the cost of such products and related treatments. Government health administration authorities, private health insurers and other organizations generally provide reimbursement. In the U.S., the European Union and other significant or potentially significant markets for Biota’s products and product candidates, government authorities and third party payers are increasingly attempting to limit or regulate the price of medical products and services, particularly for new and innovative products and therapies, which have resulted in lower average selling prices.

Health Care Fraud and Abuse Laws and Anti-Bribery Laws

Biota’s strategic partners are subject to various federal and state laws pertaining to health care “fraud and abuse,” including anti-kickback laws and false claims laws. Anti-kickback laws make it illegal for a prescription drug manufacturer to solicit, offer, receive or pay any remuneration in exchange for, or to induce, the referral of business, including the purchase or prescription of a particular drug. Due to the breadth of the statutory provisions and the increasing attention being given to them by law enforcement authorities, it is possible that certain practices of Biota’s strategic partners may be challenged under anti-kickback or similar laws. False claims laws prohibit anyone from knowingly and willingly presenting, or causing to be presented for payment to third party payers (including Medicare and Medicaid), claims for reimbursed drugs or services that are false or fraudulent, claims for items or services not provided as claimed or claims for medically unnecessary items or services. Sales and marketing activities of Biota’s strategic partners may be subject to scrutiny under these laws. In addition, the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and similar worldwide anti-bribery laws generally prohibit companies and their intermediaries from making improper payments to non-U.S. officials for the purpose of obtaining or retaining business. Biota’s policies mandate compliance with these anti-bribery laws. Biota and its strategic partners operate in parts of the world that have experienced governmental corruption to some degree and in certain circumstances, strict compliance with anti-bribery laws may conflict with local customs and practices or may require them to interact with doctors and hospitals, some of which may be state controlled, in a manner that is different than in the U.S. Despite the training and compliance programs of Biota and its strategic partners, internal control policies and procedures may not protect them from reckless or criminal acts committed by their employees or agents. Violations of fraud and abuse laws or anti-bribery laws may be punishable by criminal and/or civil sanctions, including fines and civil monetary penalties, as well as the possibility of exclusion from federal health care programs (including Medicare and Medicaid). If the government were to allege against or convict Biota or its strategic partners of violating these laws, there could be a disruption on Biota's business and material adverse effect on its results of operations.

Employees

As of March 31, 2012, Biota had approximately 108 employees. Biota believes it has good relations with its employees.

Biota Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Forward-Looking Statements

The following discussion and analysis of Biota's financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with Biota's consolidated financial statements and related notes included in Annex B to this proxy statement. This discussion and analysis includes certain forward-looking statements that involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions. You should review the section of this proxy statement entitled "Risk Factors – Risks Related to Biota and the Combined Company" beginning on page 37 of this proxy statement and for a discussion of important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results described in or implied by such forward-looking statements. See also "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" beginning on page 46 of this proxy statement.

Overview

Biota is an anti-infective drug development company based in Melbourne, Australia. Since Biota's initial public offering in Australia on the ASX in 1985, Biota has evolved from a one-program research company to a diversified drug discovery and development company. Biota currently receives royalties from sales of two influenza drugs by its licensees and has a pipeline of potential drugs aimed at treating HRV, RSV, HCV and bacterial infections as well as early stage antibacterial research programs. Biota also has recently completed a Phase IIb study in asthmatics with its lead compound, vapendavir, for HRV infections.

Biota's first revenue-producing product, zanamivir, was developed as the first-in-class NI to treat influenza. In 1990, Biota licensed zanamivir on an exclusive, worldwide basis to GSK, which markets the product as Relenza™. Under the license agreement, Biota receives royalty payments of 7% of GSK's annual net sales of Relenza™ in major global markets. In some smaller countries, Biota receives a 10% royalty on GSK's net sales.

Biota's second revenue-producing product is laninamivir, a second-generation NI, which is marketed in Japan by Daiichi Sankyo as Inavir®. Under the commercialization agreement, Daiichi Sankyo has the right to market the product in Japan. Biota currently receives a 4% royalty on Daiichi Sankyo's net sales of Inavir® and has the right to earn up to an additional $18 million upon the achievement of sales milestones in Japan. In certain circumstances, the royalty rate can increase up to 6% if laninamivir is licensed to another party outside Japan. In September 2010, Inavir® was approved by the Japanese Ministry of Health and Welfare for the treatment of influenza in adults and children, which enabled Daiichi Sankyo to market the product in time for the 2010/2011 influenza season. Daiichi Sankyo has a Phase III preventative study underway in Japan that would increase Biota's revenue potential if successful.

In April 2011, Biota was awarded a $231 million contract for the advanced development of laninamivir from BARDA, which is part of ASPR at the HHS.

During fiscal 2010, research and development partnerships with AstraZeneca and Boehringer Ingelheim were brought to a close, with all intellectual property rights associated with these programs returned to Biota.

Components of Revenues and Expenses

Biota's revenues from continuing operations comprise primarily royalties, income collaboration and interest income. Royalty revenue represents amounts earned on sales of drugs by licensees. Collaboration income comprises primarily amounts received under Biota's cost plus fee contract with BARDA and prior to fiscal 2011, also included partnering revenue reflecting amortization of upfront receipts from AstraZeneca and Boehringer Ingelheim, as well as research revenue from those companies for research and development services.

Biota's royalty revenues are dependent on the nature and severity of influenza outbreaks and purchasing of government purchases of Relenza™ for stockpiling purposes, which makes Biota's revenues difficult to forecast.

Biota's expenses include primarily research and development, product development, business development and corporate expenses. Research and development costs are for drug discovery, microbiology, drug characterization and early preclinical studies. Product development costs are for clinical and non-clinical development, delivery on the BARDA contract, clinical virology, regulatory and medical affairs and quality assurance. Cost of services represents research and development costs that have been incurred directly in relation to income generating activities, such as from collaboration agreements. Business development costs include the out licensing of projects. Corporate (or General, selling and administrative) costs include Board and CEO expenses, finance department, human resources, investor relations and corporate consultancies.

Operating Segments

Biota analyzes its business in terms of three operating segments: research, product development and corporate. Information about these segments and segment financial information is contained in note 4 to Biota's audited consolidated financial statements included in Annex B to this proxy statement.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

Biota prepares its consolidated financial statements in accordance with Australian accounting standards and IFRS as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board. For purposes of this proxy statement, Biota has also included a reconciliation between net income and shareholder equity determined under Australian accounting standards and U.S. GAAP in note 32 to its audited consolidated financial statements and certain additional U.S. GAAP disclosures in note 33. This requires its management to make certain estimates, judgments and assumptions that could affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. Note 3 to Biota's consolidated financial statements included in Annex B to this proxy statement includes a discussion of these estimates, judgments and assumptions.

Results of Operations

The discussion below relates to Biota's financial information presented in accordance with U.S. GAAP, which is disclosed in note 33 to Biota's audited consolidated financial statements and note 8 to Biota's unaudited consolidated interim financial statements, which are included in Annex B to this proxy statement.

For the nine months ended March 31, 2012 and 2011

Royalty income for the nine months ended March 31, 2012 and 2011 was A$6.4 million and A$7.1 million, respectively, as a result of a subdued stockpiling market post the "swine flu" purchases of NIs in fiscal years 2010 and 2009. Of these amounts, royalties from sales of RelenzaTM and Inavir[®] for the nine months ended March 31, 2012 were $2.3 million and $4.1 million, respectively, and for the nine months ended March 31, 2011, were $4.3 and $2.8 million, respectively. The increase in Inavir[®] royalties during fiscal 2012 resulted from the launch of the drug in Japan in October 2010 and thus, 2012 reflects a full season of royalty-bearing sales. Interest income decreased to A$2.5 million for the nine months ended March 31, 2012 from A$3.5 million during the same period in the prior year due to lower average cash balances in the current year.

Collaboration income was A$6.0 million for the nine months ended March 31, 2012, comprising fees billed under the BARDA contract. As this contract was first awarded to Biota in April 2011, there were no fees billed under the contract during the same period in fiscal 2011.

Other income relates to income received under grants for Biota's programs from the National Institutes of Health. For the nine months ended March 31, 2012, other income was A$0.3 million compared to A$1.7 million in the comparative period due to the completion of specific grants in fiscal 2011.

Research and development costs decreased to A$11.5 million for the nine months ended March 31, 2012 from A$14.6 million for the nine months ended March 31, 2011, as a result of reduced expenditure on research across all programs.

Product development costs decreased to A$5.5 million for the nine months ended March 31, 2012 from A$11.5 million for the nine months ended March 31, 2011, due to the successful conclusion in March 2012 of the Phase IIB study on the HRV program.

Cost of service increased to A$5.8 million for the nine months ended March 31, 2012 from A$1.7 million for the nine months ended March 31, 2011, due to expenditure on programs associated with the BARDA contract.

Business development and corporate expenses remained consistent between the two periods.

Royalty income for fiscal 2011 and 2010 was A$9.6 million and A$63.7 million respectively, with the significant decrease in fiscal 2011 representing a subdued stockpiling market post the “swine flu” purchases of NIs in fiscal years 2010 and 2009. Inavir® was launched in fiscal 2011, earning royalties of A$2.9 million in its first season.

Collaboration income for fiscal 2011 was A$0.6 million for the year ended June 30, 2011 compared with A$1.3 million in fiscal 2010. Fiscal 2011 amounts represent fees billed under the BARDA contract. Fiscal 2010 amounts represent the final amounts received from research and development partnerships with AstraZeneca and Boehringer Ingelheim, which were completed during that year.

Interest income increased to A$4.4 million for fiscal 2011 from A$2.5 million during the prior year due to increased average cash balances following receipt of the higher royalty income in 2010.

Other income relates to amounts received under grants for Biota’s programs from the NIH. For fiscal 2011, other income was A$2.5 million compared to A$3.9 million in the comparative period due to the completion of specific grants during 2011.

Research and development costs of A$20.5 million for the year ended June 30, 2011 remained consistent with those incurred in the prior year. In the prior year, additional costs of A$12.0 million were incurred in acquiring antibacterial research and development programs that were expensed in full and are shown as a separate expense category. No such expenditure was incurred in 2011.

Product development costs increased from A$7.5 million for the year ended June 30, 2010 to A$13.3 million in the year ended June 30, 2011. This increase was due to the commencement in July 2010 of Phase IIB trials on the HRV candidate.

Cost of services decreased to A$2.5 million for fiscal 2011 from A$4.7 million in fiscal 2010 due to reduced expenditure on programs associated with Biota’s grant from the NIH.

Business development expenses remained consistent between the two periods. Subroyalty expenses represent the amortization of Biota’s 2007 buy-out of sub-royalty rights from two research institutions, which allowed Biota to retain the entire royalty on Relenza™ sales, for an agreed fixed payment. These payments have been expensed based on the patent life and the anticipated level of sales of the underlying asset. As of June 30, 2011, a further A$2.8 million remained to be amortized by December 2014. Amortization decreased to A$1.2 million in the year ended June 30, 2011 in line with the reduced revenue generated from the underlying product, Relenza™.

Corporate expenses increased to $5.1 million for fiscal 2011 from A$4.3 million in the prior year.

Biota recognized an income tax benefit of A$0.7 million for the year ended June 30, 2011 due to tax credits received in the U.K. In the comparative period, Biota incurred an expense of A$3.7 million on profits earned in Australia after utilization of previously unrecognized tax losses.

For the fiscal years ended June 30, 2010 and 2009

Royalty income for fiscal 2010 and 2009 was A$63.7 million and A$45.0 million respectively, with the increase representing additional sales of Relenza™ for the stockpiling market driven by concerns over “swine flu.”

Collaboration income was A$1.3 million for fiscal June 30, 2010, down from A$12.6 million from the prior year. The decrease was due to the termination of the partnerships with AstraZeneca and Boehringer Ingelheim during fiscal 2010.

Interest income decreased slightly to A$2.5 million for fiscal 2010 from A$2.9 million for the prior year.

Other income relates to income received under grants for Biota’s NIH programs and from settlement of litigation. For fiscal 2010, other income from grants increased to A$3.9 million from A$2.8 million for the prior year due to increased activity on the underlying projects. For fiscal 2009, Biota received A$20 million in full and final settlement of litigation with GSK. No such amounts were received in 2010.

Research and development costs increased to A$20.5 million in fiscal 2010 from A$6.1 million during the prior year, due to increased research activity, particularly on antibacterial research programs. Costs of A$12.0 million were incurred during fiscal 2010 in acquiring antibacterial research and development programs that were expensed in full. No such expenditure was incurred in fiscal 2009.

Product development costs increased to A$7.5 million for fiscal 2010 from A$5.9 million in the prior year, primarily due to preparation for the commencement in July 2010 of the Phase IIB study on the HRV candidate.

Business development expenses remained consistent between the two periods. Sub-royalty amortization was consistent between the periods in line with significant revenue generated from the underlying product, Relenza™.

Corporate expenses decreased to A$4.3 million for fiscal 2010 from A$11.8 million in prior year. Corporate expenses in fiscal 2009 included A$7.2 million in costs related to the GSK litigation.

In fiscal 2010 and 2009, income tax expense was A$3.8 million and A$3.6 million, respectively, after utilization of previously unrecognized tax losses A$5.2 million and A$8.0 million, respectively, in each year.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

To date, Biota has funded its operations primarily from capital raisings, licensing income and working capital. The last capital raised was for A$31.9 million in 2005.

Biota’s cash and cash equivalents at March 31, 2012 were A$51.4 million, compared to A$70 million at June 30, 2011, A$104.9 million at June 30, 2010 and A$86.7 million at June 30, 2009. The decline in 2012 and 2011 reflects the use of funds to advance programs and the fall in royalty income in 2011 from the levels achieved in 2009 and 2010, particularly as a direct result of government stockpiling of influenza drugs.

Biota invests its cash balances primarily in bank accounts and short-term deposits with Australian financial institutions.

Biota believes that its cash and cash equivalents at March 31, 2012 will be sufficient to meet its anticipated cash requirements for at least the next 12 months.

Cash from (used in) operating activities

Cash used in operating activities decreased to A$17.7 million for the nine months ended March 31, 2012 from A$34.6 million for the nine months ended March 31, 2011 reflecting the lower loss in 2012. Cash used in operating activities for the year ended June 30, 2011 was A$34.0 compared with cash flow from operating activities of A$42.6 million for the prior year and A$32.5 million for the year ended June 30, 2009. Operating cash in 2010 and 2009 included royalties from Relenza™ of A$63.7 million and A$45 million, respectively. Total royalties in 2011 were A$9.6 million.

Cash from (used in) investing activities

Cash used in investing activities was A$1.0 million and A$0.5 million for the nine months ended March 31, 2012 and March 31, 2011 respectively, principally for payments for plant and equipment. Similarly, for fiscal 2011, 2010 and 2009, cash used in investing activities was A$0.6 million, A$4.8 million and A$0.8 million, principally for plant, equipment and intangibles.

Cash from (used in) financing activities

Cash flows from financing activities were nil in the nine months ended March 31, 2012 and March 31, 2011. Cash flows from financing activities for fiscal 2011 were nil. In the year ended June 30, 2010, A$20 million was returned to shareholders. In fiscal 2009, Biota spent A$4.9 million on share repurchases.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

Biota does not have any off-balance sheet arrangements.

Contractual Obligations

The following table provides information as of March 31, 2012 with respect to the amounts and timing of Biota's known material contractual obligations as specified below. Information relating to contractual commitments at June 30, 2011 is disclosed in note 26 to Biota's audited consolidated financial statements included in Annex B to this proxy statement.

Most of the research and development commitments in the above table are the result of contract commitments under the BARDA contract and are reimbursable.

Biota Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Financial, Credit and Liquidity Risk

Biota's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: market risk (including currency risk and interest rate risk), credit risk and liquidity risk. Biota's risk management program focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimize potential adverse effects on the financial performance of Biota. Biota uses derivative financial instruments such as foreign exchange contracts and interest rate instruments to minimize certain risk exposures. Biota uses different methods to measure different types of risk to which it is exposed. These methods include sensitivity analysis in the case of interest rate, foreign exchange and other price risks, and aging analysis for credit risk.

This risk management is carried out by Biota's Treasury Management Committee under policies approved by Biota's Audit and Risk Committee and as delegated by the Board of Directors. The Treasury Management Committee identifies, evaluates and hedges identifiable financial risks. The Audit and Risk Committee approves written principles for overall risk management, as well as policies covering specific areas, such as mitigating foreign exchange, interest rate and credit risks, use of derivative financial instruments and investing excess liquidity.

Biota holds the following financial assets and liabilities:

	2011	2010	2009
	A$'000	A$'000	A$'000

Financial liabilities	4,090	9,427	5,631
Trade and other payables	4,090	9,427	5,631

Major risks and the mitigation processes are outlined below:

Market risk

Foreign exchange risk

Biota operates internationally and is exposed to foreign exchange risk arising from various currency exposures, principally to the U.S. dollar and U.K. sterling. Royalty income is derived on sales in all countries but exposure principally arises in the main market currencies, namely the U.S. dollar, Japanese yen, European euro and U.K. sterling. This exposure impacts on the calculation of royalties for the period by the relevant licensees. Payments of royalties to Biota are made in Australian dollars.

Foreign exchange risk arises from future commercial transactions and recognized assets and liabilities that are denominated in a currency that is not the entity's functional currency. The risk is measured using sensitivity analysis and cash flow forecasting. Forward contracts and foreign cash deposits are used to manage foreign exchange risk for specific commitments.

The Treasury Management Committee is responsible for managing exposures in each foreign currency. Biota's risk management policy is to substantially hedge anticipated transactions when net exposures are reasonably certain to occur.

Biota's exposure to foreign currency risk at the reporting date was as follows:

In thousands	June 30, 2011		June 30, 2010		June 30, 2009
	USD	GBP	USD	GBP	USD	GBP
Cash	38	5	Nil	39	950	—
Trade receivables	609	814	Nil	Nil	Nil	Nil

The carrying amounts of the financial assets and liabilities are denominated in Australian dollars.

Sensitivity

Based on the financial instruments held at June 30, 2011 the profit after tax impacts for change in Biota's foreign exchange exposure would be:

Exchange rates	June 30, 2011		June 30, 2010		June 30, 2009
	A$'000		A$'000		A$'000

Cash flow and fair value interest rate risk

Biota's interest rate risk arises from investment of available funds in capital guaranteed instruments consistent with the Treasury Management Committee directives. Biota manages its cash flow interest rate risk by using floating and fixed interest rate instruments.

Sensitivity

Based on average cash balances held throughout 2011 the profit after tax impacts for changes in interest rates would be:

	2011 AS'000	2010 AS'000	2009 AS'000

Credit risk

Biota has significant concentrations of credit risk. The very nature of Biota's business makes it dependent on a few customers including large pharmaceutical companies, from which it will receive income. Biota has policies in place to ensure that sales of services are made to customers with an appropriate credit history and exposures are restricted through regular invoicing and cash collection. Derivative counterparties and cash transactions are limited to high credit quality financial institutions with a long term credit rating greater than A-1+ or covered by an Australian Federal Government Guarantee. Biota has policies that limit the amount of credit exposure to any one (1) financial institution and in the last financial year ensured that a significant portion of cash balances were maintained in accounts covered by an Australian Federal Government Guarantee. The following table sets out the cash deposits summary, and an analysis of trade receivables by customer type.

	2011 AS'000	2010 AS'000	2009 AS'000

During the year cash at bank and short term bank deposits were placed with institutions whereby approximately 20% of cash holdings were secured by the Australian Federal Government Guarantee.

Liquidity risk

Prudent liquidity risk management implies maintaining sufficient cash and marketable securities. The Treasury Management Committee maintains appropriate cash forecasts to ensure sufficient liquid funds to meet reasonable short term operational needs. All financial assets and liabilities are available at call or are due for settlement within the next 30 days.

THE TRANSACTION AGREEMENT

This section of the proxy statement summarizes some of the material provisions of the Transaction Agreement, but is not intended to be an exhaustive discussion of the Transaction Agreement. The following summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Transaction Agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement and incorporated into this proxy statement by reference. The rights and obligations of the parties are governed by the express terms and conditions of the Transaction Agreement and not the summary set forth in this section or any other information contained in this proxy statement. All stockholders of Nabi are urged to read the Transaction Agreement carefully and in its entirety.

The summary of the terms of the Transaction Agreement is intended to provide information about the terms of the Transaction. The Transaction Agreement contains representations, warranties, covenants and other agreements, each as of specific dates. You should not rely on these representations, warranties, covenants and other agreements as statements of fact. These representations, warranties, covenants and other agreements are qualified by information contained in confidential disclosed information exchanged by Nabi and Biota in connection with their execution of the Transaction Agreement. While we do not believe that such confidential disclosed information contain information securities laws require us to publicly disclose other than information that has already been so disclosed, the confidential disclosed information does contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations, warranties, covenants and other agreements set forth in the Transaction Agreement. Moreover, some of these representations, warranties, covenants and/or other agreements may not be accurate or complete as of a specific date because they are subject to a contractual standard of materiality that may be different from the standard generally applied under the federal securities laws and/or were used for the purpose of allocating risk between Nabi and Biota rather than establishing matters as facts. Finally, information concerning the subject matter of these representations, warranties, covenants and other agreements may have changed since the date of the Transaction Agreement, which may or may not be fully reflected in Nabi's public disclosures.

The representations and warranties and other provisions of the Transaction Agreement should not be read alone, but instead should be read together with the information provided elsewhere in this proxy statement and in the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement. See "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 145 of this proxy statement.

Form of the Transaction; Transaction Consideration

On April 22, 2012, Nabi and Biota entered into the Transaction Agreement, under which it was agreed that, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Transaction Agreement, Nabi would acquire all of the outstanding ordinary shares of Biota in accordance with a scheme of arrangement to be submitted for approval by the Supreme Court of Victoria, Australia. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Transaction Agreement, after the effective time of the scheme of arrangement and upon the completion of the Transaction, each outstanding ordinary share of Biota will be transferred to Nabi in exchange for 0.448722952 newly issued shares of Nabi common stock (adjusted as described below). (The original exchange ratio set forth in the Transaction Agreement was 0.669212231, which was subsequently adjusted pursuant to the terms of the Transaction Agreement to reflect the 14,547,996 shares of Nabi common stock purchased in Nabi's issuer tender offer that expired on July 30, 2012.) As a result of the Transaction, Biota will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Nabi. Biota has represented to Nabi in the Transaction Agreement that, immediately prior to the closing of the Transaction, there will be no outstanding rights to acquire ordinary shares of Biota pursuant to any Biota equity incentive plan.

Nabi will not issue fractional shares of Nabi common stock in the Transaction. If the number of ordinary shares of Biota held by a Biota stockholder is such that the aggregate entitlement to the shares of Nabi common stock includes a fractional share, then such entitlement of the Biota stockholder will be rounded up or down, with any such fractional entitlement of less than 0.5 being rounded down to the nearest whole number of a share of Nabi common stock, and any such fractional entitlement of 0.5 or more being rounded up to the nearest whole number of a share of Nabi common stock.

Potential Adjustment to Transaction Consideration

Pursuant to an amendment deed to the Transaction Agreement, dated as of August 6, 2012, in the event that Nabi implements a reverse stock split with respect to its common stock prior to the completion of the Transaction as permitted by the Transaction Agreement, the number of shares of Nabi common stock to be issued in exchange for each ordinary share of Biota will be adjusted in order to preserve the respective percentage of shares of the common stock of the combined company to be held immediately after the completion of the Transaction by former Biota stockholders on the one hand (collectively being approximately 74%) and by existing Nabi stockholders on the other hand (collectively being 26%). Nabi currently expects that, subject to the approval by Nabi stockholders at the special meeting, the reverse stock split will be implemented immediately prior to the completion of the Transaction.

Status of Newly Issued Shares of Nabi Common Stock and Exemption from Registration

The Transaction Agreement provides that the shares of Nabi common stock to be issued to Biota stockholders in the Transaction must, upon issue, rank equally in all respects with all other shares of Nabi common stock then on issue, except that they will not carry a right to receive any payments from any CVR issued and outstanding on the implementation date or from any dividends declared prior to but remaining unpaid on the implementation date, and will be fully paid and issued free from any mortgage, charge, lien, encumbrance or other security interest.

The Transaction Agreement also provides that the shares of Nabi common stock to be issued to Biota stockholders in the Transaction will be issued pursuant to an exemption from registration under the Securities Act pursuant to section 3(a)(10) of the Securities Act. In the event that the exemption from registration under section 3(a)(10) of the Securities Act is not available for any reason to exempt the issuance of such shares of Nabi common stock from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, then Nabi must use its best endeavors (as such term is qualified in the Transaction Agreement) to file a Registration Statement on Form S-4 (or on such other form that may be available to Nabi) in order to register such shares of Nabi common stock and use its best endeavors to cause such registration statement to become effective at or prior to the implementation date.

Nabi Closing Net Cash Balance

The Transaction Agreement provides that, as soon as practicable after the date of the Transaction Agreement, the parties must use their best endeavors to agree in good faith on any matters that, in addition to the matters agreed upon by Biota and Nabi prior to the date of the Transaction Agreement, comprise Nabi cash balance offsets (including those based on any unforeseen events or circumstances). “Nabi cash balance offsets” are amounts payable or likely to be payable by Nabi and those companies controlled by and under common control of Nabi (collectively referred to herein as the “Nabi group”) in respect of any business activities carried out by Nabi on or prior to the implementation date, including the matters agreed upon by Nabi and Biota prior to the date of the Transaction Agreement. In addition, Nabi must deliver to Biota a Nabi closing net cash balance certificate showing a Nabi closing net cash balance of no less than $54 million: (1) at 8:00 a.m. on the day that is seven business days prior to the date of the Biota stockholders meeting; (2) prior to the announcement of any permissible Nabi stockholder cash transaction (which is one or more of an issuer tender offer, a dividend or a capital distribution by Nabi to Nabi stockholders, to be launched or declared at Nabi’s sole and absolute discretion); (3) at 8:00 a.m. on the second court date; and (4) at 8:00 a.m. on the implementation date.

Biota may perform a review of the Nabi closing net cash balance certificate during the period from 8:00 a.m. on the day that is seven business days prior to the date of the Biota stockholders meeting and the day that is two business days prior to the date of the Biota stockholders meeting (the “review period”). During the review period, Nabi must:

- provide, or ensure the provision of (1) the working papers of Nabi’s independent accountants, Ernst & Young LLP, that were produced in connection with the review of Nabi’s first quarter financial information for the 2012 financial year and (2) reasonable access, at the expense of Biota, to Nabi’s independent accountants for the purpose of Biota’s review of such working papers;

Table of Contents

- provide, or ensure the provision of, all of Nabi's working papers, and all information and assistance which may be reasonably requested by Biota, in connection with Biota's review of Nabi closing net cash balance certificate delivered to Biota at 8:00 a.m. on the day that is seven business days prior to the date of the Biota shareholders meeting; and
- at all reasonable times, permit Biota and its representatives to have reasonable access to and take extracts from or copies of all books of account, accounts, records and data of whatever kind and all other documents relating to the matters set out in the Nabi closing net cash balance certificate.

If there is any difference of opinion or dispute between Nabi and Biota as to (1) whether any matters should comprise Nabi cash balance offsets (including any matters based on any unforeseen events or circumstances) or (2) any of the specific dollar amounts included in the Nabi closing net cash balance certificate during the review period, then Nabi and Biota must work together in good faith to resolve such disagreement. If such disagreement is not resolved, then Nabi or Biota must promptly refer the dispute to a practitioner in the internal audit division of Bethesda Financial Group LLC (or such other party as Nabi and Biota may agree) for it to resolve the dispute. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Biota can only dispute specific dollar amounts if the aggregate of the difference between each amount set out in the Nabi closing net cash balance certificate which is disputed by Biota and Biota's opinion as to what each such amount should be is not less than $200,000. Any determination by Bethesda Financial Group LLC will be final and binding on Nabi and Biota in the absence of manifest error. The cost of a determination by Bethesda Financial Group LLC must be borne by Nabi and Biota in such manner as Bethesda Financial Group LLC determines (having regard to the merits of the dispute). Any Nabi closing net cash balance certificate delivered after the review period will reflect any determination by Bethesda Financial Group LLC in accordance with the provision described above.

Certain of Nabi's representations and warranties are qualified as to materiality or "Nabi material adverse change." "Nabi material adverse change" means any effect, event, occurrence or matter that individually or when aggregated with all such effects, events, occurrences or matters (1) is reasonably likely to diminish (whether now or through the implementation date), the Nabi closing net cash balance as shown in the Nabi closing net cash balance certificate to be provided by Nabi on the implementation date to below $54 million or (2) has the result that the Nabi group is unable to carry on its business in substantially the same manner as carried on as at the date of the Transaction Agreement, or that otherwise materially and adversely affects the prospects of the Nabi group. However, the following effects, events, occurrences or matters will not constitute a "Nabi material adverse effect":

- resulting from changes in the market price or trading volume of shares of Nabi common stock (it being understood that the facts or occurrences giving rise to or contributing to such change in the market price or trading volume may be deemed to constitute, or be taken into account in determining whether there has been, or would reasonably be expected to be, a Nabi material adverse change);
- resulting from the failure of Nabi to meet any operating projections or forecasts, or published revenue or earnings projections (it being understood that the facts or occurrences giving rise to or contributing to such failure to meet operating projections, or forecasts, or published revenue or earnings projections may be deemed to constitute, or be taken into account in determining whether there has been, or would reasonably be expected to be, a Nabi material adverse change);
- resulting from or arising in connection with the termination of employees;

However, the following effects, events, occurrences or matters will not constitute a "Biota material adverse effect":

- resulting from any change affecting the financial or securities markets in the U.S. or Australia or changes affecting the U.S. economy generally or the Australian economy generally or the economy of any region in which the Biota group conducts business, unless such effect, event, occurrence or matter has had or would reasonably be expected to have a materially disproportionate adverse impact on the financial condition, properties, business or results of operations of the Biota group, taken as a whole, relative to other persons operating in the same industries as the Biota group;

- resulting from changes in the market price or trading volume of Biota ordinary shares (it being understood that the facts or occurrences giving rise to or contributing to such change in the market price or trading volume may be deemed to constitute, or be taken into account in determining whether there has been, or would reasonably be expected to be, a Biota material adverse change);
- resulting from the failure of Biota to meet any operating projections or forecasts, or published revenue or earnings projections (it being understood that the facts or occurrences giving rise to or contributing to such failure to meet operating projections or forecasts, or published revenue or earnings projections may be deemed to constitute, or be taken into account in determining whether there has been, or would reasonably be expected to be, a Biota material adverse change);
- resulting from or arising in connection with the announcement, existence or performance (in accordance with its terms) of the Transaction Agreement, the scheme of arrangement or the other transactions contemplated by the Transaction Agreement; or
- resulting from or arising in connection any suit, investigation, proceeding, action or claim or threatened suit, investigation, proceeding, action or claim involving the Biota group relating to the Transaction Agreement, the Transaction or any other transaction contemplated by the Transaction Agreement, including without limitation, any such suit, investigation, proceeding, action or claim or threatened suit, investigation, proceeding, action or claim arising from allegations of breach of fiduciary duty or other violation of applicable law.

- in the case of Biota, to the extent consistent with such obligation, use its best endeavors to preserve intact the Biota group's current business organization, to keep available the services of the current officers, directors and employees of it and the other Biota group members, and to preserve the Biota group's relationship with governmental agencies, customers, suppliers, licensors, licensees and others having business dealings with it; and
- in the case of Nabi, to the extent consistent with such obligation, use its best endeavors to preserve intact the Nabi group's current business organization, to keep available the services of its current chief executive officer and certain other of its officers agreed in writing by the parties, and to preserve the Nabi group's relationship with governmental agencies, customers, suppliers, licensors, licensees and others having business dealings with it;

- that Nabi may conduct any permissible Nabi stockholder cash transaction (one or more of an issuer tender offer to purchase shares of Nabi common stock, a dividend or a capital distribution by Nabi to its stockholders, to be launched or declared at Nabi's sole and absolute discretion, provided that the applicable Nabi closing net cash balance certificate provided by Nabi to Biota pursuant to the Transaction Agreement shows a Nabi closing net cash balance of no less than $54 million); or
- to the extent required to be done or procured by Biota or Nabi pursuant to, or that is otherwise expressly permitted by, the Transaction Agreement or related documents, or the undertaking of which the other party has approved in writing, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

Access to Information and Cooperation. The parties have agreed that, during the period from the date of the Transaction Agreement up to and including the implementation date, each party must, and must procure each of their respective subsidiaries to, respond to reasonable requests from the other party and its representatives for information concerning the Biota group or Nabi group (as the case may be) businesses and operations, and give that other party and its representatives reasonable access to its directors, officers, employees and records, and otherwise provide reasonable cooperation to that other party and its representatives, in each case for the purposes of (1) the implementation of the Transaction, (2) the integration of the Biota group and the Nabi group following the implementation of the Transaction, or any other purpose that is agreed in writing between the parties, subject to the terms of the confidentiality agreement entered into between the parties and proper performance by the directors and officers of each party and its subsidiaries of their fiduciary duties.

No Regulated Events. The parties have agreed that, during the period from the date of the Transaction Agreement up to and including the implementation date, (1) Biota must ensure, to the extent within the control of any Biota group member, that no Biota regulated event occurs, without the prior written consent of Nabi (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) and (2) Nabi must ensure, to the extent within the control of any Nabi group member, that no Nabi regulated event occurs, without the prior written consent of Biota (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

A “Nabi regulated event” means, with respect to Nabi and any subsidiary of Nabi, other than as required to be undertaken or procured by the Nabi group pursuant to, or otherwise as contemplated by, (1) the Transaction Agreement and related documents, (2) a permissible Nabi stockholder cash transaction (one or more of an issuer tender offer, a dividend or a capital distribution by Nabi to its stockholders, to be launched or declared at Nabi’s sole and absolute discretion, provided that the applicable Nabi closing net cash balance certificate provided by Nabi to Biota pursuant to the Transaction Agreement shows a Nabi closing net cash balance of no less than $54 million), (3) permitted pre-implementation payments (Nabi cash balance offsets agreed upon by Biota and Nabi as those that may be paid by Nabi prior to the implementation date), (4) to the extent fairly disclosed in writing by Nabi to Biota prior to the date of the Transaction Agreement for the purpose of being an exception to a “Nabi regulated event,” or (5) another written agreement by Biota, which agreement shall not be unreasonably withheld by Biota, any actions to, or that cause the company to:

- convert all or any of its securities into a larger or smaller number of securities;

A “Biota regulated event” means, with respect to Biota and any subsidiary of Biota, other than as required to be undertaken or procured by the Biota group pursuant to, or otherwise as contemplated by, (1) the Transaction Agreement and related documents, (2) to the extent fairly disclosed in writing by Biota to Nabi prior to the date of the Transaction Agreement for the purpose of being an exception to a “Biota regulated event,” or (3) another written agreement by Nabi, which agreement shall not be unreasonably withheld by Nabi, any actions to, or that cause the company to:

- convert all or any of its securities into a larger or smaller number of securities;
- reduce or resolve to reduce its capital stock in any way;
- materially reduce its insurance coverage that results in a material increase in exposure to risk;
- enter into a buy-back agreement or resolve to approve the terms of a buy-back agreement;
- issue securities, or grant an option over or to subscribe for its securities, or agree to make such an issue or grant such an option, other than to a wholly-owned subsidiary of Biota or in connection with a dividend reinvestment plan (including pursuant to any underwriting of that plan) or any security issued upon conversion or exercise of rights attaching to any security issued under an employee incentive arrangement, and excluding any ordinary shares issued by Biota as a result of the exercise of Biota ordinary share rights in existence as at the date of the Transaction Agreement;

- the trustee of any trust in which Biota or any subsidiary of Biota has an interest of more than 50% and that would, if it were a company, be a material subsidiary of Biota, undertaking an action in respect of that trust if the corresponding action, in the case of Biota and its material subsidiaries, would (mutatis mutandis) constitute a Biota regulated event.

Restriction on Nabi Cash Payments. Nabi has agreed that between the effective date of the scheme of arrangement and the implementation date, it will not make any cash payments other than (1) permitted pre-implementation payments (Nabi cash balance offsets agreed upon by Biota and Nabi as those that may be paid by Nabi prior to the implementation date) or (2) any permissible Nabi stockholder cash transaction (one or more of an issuer tender offer to purchase shares of Nabi common stock, a dividend or a capital distribution by Nabi to its stockholders to be launched or declared at Nabi's sole and absolute discretion, provided that the applicable Nabi closing net cash balance certificate provided by Nabi to Biota pursuant to the Transaction Agreement shows a Nabi closing net cash balance of no less than $54 million).

Amendment of CVR Agreement. Nabi has agreed that, on or before the implementation date, it will not change the form of the CVR Agreement or amend the CVR Agreement after it is entered into by Nabi (which shall be at the sole and absolute discretion of Nabi) without the prior written consent of Biota (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

Additional Obligations

Parties' Obligations with Respect to the Transaction. The Transaction Agreement provides that each of Biota and Nabi must use their respective best endeavors to propose and implement the scheme of arrangement and other transactions contemplated by the Transaction Agreement as soon as is reasonably practicable after the date of the Transaction Agreement and otherwise substantially in accordance with the timetable agreed upon by the parties prior to the Transaction Agreement, including taking specific steps set forth in the Transaction Agreement with respect to the scheme of arrangement, preparation of the proxy statement to be mailed to Nabi stockholders and the scheme booklet to be distributed to Biota stockholders, and the Transaction consideration.

Nabi Board and Management as of the Implementation Date. Nabi has agreed that, as of the implementation date, Nabi's board of directors will be reconstituted so that it consists of the individuals set forth under "The Transaction—Board of Directors and Management of the Combined Company Following the Transaction; Headquarters" beginning on page 76 of this proxy statement, subject to the relevant individuals agreeing to become directors on Nabi's board of directors and meeting the regulatory requirements for a director set forth in any applicable laws and the rules of NASDAQ. In addition, as of the implementation date, Nabi's senior management will consist of Peter Cook (Biota's current chief executive officer) as the chief executive officer and Damian Lismore (Biota's current chief financial officer) as the chief financial officer. Following the implementation date, Biota's current chief executive officer, Peter Cook, and Biota's current chief financial officer, Damian Lismore, will fill those roles within the combined company for an appropriate transition period until U.S. based executives are appointed and assume responsibility. It is anticipated that senior management positions in the combined company will be filled principally from current members of the Biota management teams.

Indemnification and Insurance. From the implementation date, Nabi will indemnify and hold harmless each person who has at any time prior to the implementation date been an officer, director or employee of Biota or any of its subsidiaries or other person entitled to be indemnified by Biota or any of its subsidiaries pursuant to their respective constitutions or relevant deed(s) of indemnity as they are in effect on the date of the Transaction Agreement to the same extent as provided in such constitution or deed of indemnity; provided, that the foregoing undertaking will not grant to any such officers, directors or employees or other person rights of indemnity against Nabi more extensive than those such persons may currently have against Biota. In addition, for a period of six years after the implementation date, Nabi will maintain in effect directors' and officers' liability insurance covering those persons who are currently covered by Nabi's and Biota's directors' and officers' liability insurance policy on terms no less favorable to those applicable to the then current directors and officers of Nabi; provided, that Nabi will not be required to expend in excess of 300% of the annual premium paid by Nabi at the time of the implementation date for such coverage or such coverage as is available for 300% of the annual premium. The foregoing provision of the Transaction Agreement will survive the implementation date, is intended to benefit those persons who are currently covered by Nabi's and Biota's directors' and officers' liability insurance policy, who will have the direct right to enforce this provision as intended third party beneficiaries, and will be binding on all successors and assigns of Nabi.

Public Announcements; Communications. Both Nabi and Biota have agreed, subject to certain exceptions, to consult with each other on any announcements, disclosures and communications with governmental agencies in connection with the Transaction Agreement (including termination).

Board Recommendation

Each party has agreed to use its respective best endeavors to procure that its respective board of directors:

- does not change or withdraw the statements and recommendations set forth in the initial public announcement after entering into the Transaction Agreement;
- in the case of Biota, states in the scheme booklet to be distributed to Biota stockholders that Biota's board of directors considers the scheme of arrangement to be in the best interests of Biota stockholders and recommends that Biota stockholders approve the scheme resolution, in the absence of a superior proposal (described below), and does not change or withdraw those statements or recommendations once made;
- in the case of Nabi, states in this proxy statement that Nabi's board of directors unanimously considers the Transaction Agreement, the Transaction and the other transactions contemplated in the Transaction Agreement, including the proposals 1 through 4 described in this proxy statement, to be advisable and fair to and in the best interests of Nabi and its stockholders and unanimously recommends that Nabi stockholders approve the proposals 1 through 4 described in this proxy statement, and does not change or withdraw those statements or recommendations once made; and
- does not make any public statement or any statement to brokers, analysts, journalists, its stockholders or professional or institutional investors to the effect, or take any other action that suggests, that the Transaction is no longer so considered or recommended, unless:

- such party's board of directors determines, after considering the matter in good faith, that its fiduciary or statutory duties require it to change or withdraw its recommendation after having taken advice from its legal and external financial advisors; and
- prior to any such change or withdraw in the recommendation of the board of directors:
 - in the case of a competing proposal (described below), such party has complied with the requirements described under "—Exclusivity; No-Solicitation" on page 125);
 - such party has provided a written notice to the other party at least five business days before taking such action, which written notice will include:
 - the decision of such party's board of directors to take such action and the reasons therefore; and
 - in the event the decision relates to a competing proposal, a summary of the material terms and conditions of the competing proposal (which summary is not required to include the identity of the party making the competing proposal); and
- during the five business day period after giving such written notice to the other party, if requested by the other party, the party giving notice has and has directed its outside legal counsel and financial advisors to, (1) in the case of a competing proposal, where the parties have not taken the actions contemplated by the provisions described below in “—Exclusivity; No-Solicitation” on page 125 comply with such provisions and negotiate with the other party in good faith to make such adjustments to the terms and conditions of the Transaction Agreement so that the competing proposal ceases to constitute (in the good faith judgment of such party’s board of directors, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors) a superior proposal or, (2) if such change or withdraw in the recommendation does not involve a competing proposal, to negotiate in good faith to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of the Transaction Agreement so that such change or withdraw in the recommendation is otherwise not necessary.

“Competing proposal” means, with respect to Nabi or Biota, any proposed or possible transaction or arrangement pursuant to which, if ultimately completed, a third party would:

- directly or indirectly acquire voting and/or dispositive power over or become the holder of more than 20% of the ordinary shares of Biota or shares of Nabi common stock (as applicable), or the whole or a substantial part or a material part of the business or property of Biota or the Biota group or Nabi or the Nabi group (as applicable);
- acquire control of Nabi or Biota (as applicable), within the meaning of Section 50AA of the Corporations Act; or
- otherwise acquire or merge with Nabi or Biota (as applicable).

“Superior proposal” means, with respect to any party, an unsolicited, bona fide written competing proposal (except that with respect to the first bullet point above in the definition of a competing proposal, the percentage threshold shall be 50% and not 20%) for the party, which the board of directors of that party determines, acting in good faith and after having taken advice from its financial and legal advisors:

- is capable of being valued and completed, taking into account all aspects of the competing proposal, including its conditions; and
- would, if completed substantially in accordance with its terms, be more favorable to such party’s stockholders than the Transaction viewed in aggregate, taking into account all the terms and conditions of the competing proposal, after taking into account a qualitative assessment of the identity, reputation and financial standing of the third party making the competing proposal.

Exclusivity; No-Solicitation

Each of Nabi and Biota has provided warranties to the other party that, at the time of the execution of the Transaction Agreement, it was not in any negotiations or discussions, and had ceased any existing negotiations or discussions, with respect to a competing proposal with any person.

Each party has agreed that, during the period from the date of the Transaction Agreement until the earliest of its termination, implementation date or October 31, 2012, it will not, and it will use best endeavors to ensure that its representatives do not, except with the prior written consent of the other party:

- directly or indirectly solicit, invite, encourage or initiate a competing proposal or any inquiries, negotiations or discussions with any third parties with respect to a competing proposal, or communicate any intention to do any of those things;
- enter into, continue or participate in negotiations or discussions with, or enter into any agreement, arrangement or understanding with, any third party with respect to, or that may reasonably be expected to lead to, a competing proposal; or
- make available to any third party or permit any third party to receive any non-public information relating to such party in connection with the third party formulating, developing or finalizing, or assisting in the formulation, development or finalization of, a competing proposal.

In connection therewith, each party must promptly (in any event within two business days) notify the other party if it is approached by a third party to take any action of a kind that would breach its obligations described above and provide the other party with (1) the information in all material respects of oral and written communications with the third party, and a description of the material terms and conditions of any competing proposal and (2) any updated information as is reasonably necessary to keep the other party informed in all material respects of all oral or written communications with the third party regarding, and the status and material details of, any competing proposal as set forth below.

Exceptions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party may take action with respect to a bona fide written competing proposal (to the extent that such proposal was not encouraged, solicited, invited, facilitated or initiated in contravention of the provision in the first bullet point of the second paragraph of this “—Exclusivity; No-Solicitation” section) or to the extent that the party has provided notification as set forth in the preceding paragraph), provided that such party’s board of directors, acting in good faith, after consulting with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors, determines that (i) the competing proposal is, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, a superior proposal and (ii) not taking that act would, or would be likely to, involve a breach of the fiduciary or statutory duties owed by any director.

In such case, a prior written notice of its intention to take such proposed actions and the reasons therefor, including a summary of material terms and conditions of such competing proposal, must be sent promptly (in any case within two business days prior to taking any action) to the other party. The party providing such notice must ask the third party making the competing proposal for its consent to its name and other identifying details being provided to the other party on a confidential basis. If consent is refused, the party providing the notice may only withhold the identifying details from the other party if the board of directors of the party providing the notice, acting in good faith and after having taken advice from its legal advisors, determines that failing to do so would be likely to involve a breach of the fiduciary or statutory duties owed by the directors. If the identifying details are withheld, then the party must immediately notify the other party. Furthermore, before the party receiving the competing proposal provides any confidential information to a third party, such third party must enter into a written agreement in favor of the party regarding the use and disclosure of the confidential information by the third party and that restricts the third party’s ability to solicit the employees of that party (including its related corporate bodies controlled by or under common control of such party).

During the two business days after notice is provided as set forth in the preceding paragraph, the other party will have the right to offer to amend the terms of the Transaction so that the terms would provide an equivalent or superior outcome than the competing proposal for the stockholders of the party receiving the competing proposal. The party that has received the competing proposal must procure its board of directors to consider any such counterproposal, and if the board of directors of the party that has received the competing proposal determines, acting in good faith and after having taken advice from its legal and financial advisors, that

- the counterproposal described above is capable of being completed, taking into account all aspects of the counterproposal, including its conditions, and
- the counterproposal would, if completed substantially in accordance with its terms, be more favorable to the party’s stockholders than the competing proposal viewed in aggregate, then both parties must use their best endeavors to agree to the amendments to the Transaction Agreement and related documents that are necessary to reflect the counterproposal and the party that received the counterproposal must use its best endeavors to procure that its board of directors continues to recommend the counterproposal (and not the competing proposal) to its stockholders. Any material modification to any competing proposal (including any material modification relating to the price or value of any competing proposal) will be taken to make that proposal a new competing proposal with respect to which the parties must comply with their obligations described above in the preceding three paragraphs.

Termination

By Either Party. Either party may terminate the Transaction Agreement by written notice to the other:

- at any time before 8:00 a.m. on the second court date, if the other party is in material breach of any provision of the Transaction Agreement, provided that the terminating party has given notice to the other party setting out the relevant circumstances and stating an intention to terminate, and the relevant circumstances have continued to exist for 15 business days (or any shorter period ending at 5:00 p.m. on the last business day before the second court date) from the time such notice is given;
- if mutually agreed upon by the other party; or
- if the scheme of arrangement has not become effective on or before October 31, 2012.

In addition, if there is a breach or non-fulfillment of a condition precedent that is not waived in accordance with the Transaction Agreement before October 31, 2012 or a condition precedent becomes incapable of satisfaction, either party may serve notice on the other party and the parties agree to consult in good faith to determine whether (1) the Transaction may proceed by way of alternative means or methods, (2) to extend the relevant time or date for satisfaction of the condition precedent, (3) to change the date of the application made to the Supreme Court of Victoria for orders under Australian corporate law approving the scheme of arrangement or to adjourn that application (as applicable) to another date to be agreed upon by Nabi and Biota or (4) to extend the October 31, 2012 end date. If Nabi and Biota are unable to reach such agreement within 15 business days after the delivery of the notice or any shorter period ending at 5:00 p.m. on the day before the second court date, either party may terminate the Transaction Agreement, provided that: (a) the condition precedent to which the notice relates is for the benefit of that party (whether or not the condition precedent is also for the benefit of the other party) and (b) there has been no failure by that party to comply with its obligations under the Transaction Agreement, where that failure directly and materially contributed to the condition precedent to which the notice relates becoming incapable of satisfaction or being breached or not fulfilled before October 31, 2012.

By Nabi. Nabi may terminate the Transaction Agreement:

- at any time before 8:00 a.m. on the second court date by notice in writing to Biota if Biota's board of directors publicly changes (including by attaching qualifications to) or withdraws its statement that it considers the scheme of arrangement to be in the best interests of Biota stockholders or its recommendation that Biota stockholders approve the scheme of arrangement, in either case in accordance with Biota's obligations described under "—Board Recommendation" on page 124, or publicly recommends, promotes or otherwise endorses a superior proposal.

By Biota. Biota may terminate the Transaction Agreement:

- at any time before 8:00 a.m. on the second court date by notice in writing to Nabi if Nabi's board of directors publicly changes (including by attaching qualifications to) or withdraws its statement that it considers the Transaction to be in the best interests of Nabi stockholders or its recommendation that Nabi stockholders approve proposals 1 through 4 described in this proxy statement, in either case in accordance with Nabi's obligations described under "—Board Recommendation" on page 124, or publicly recommends, promotes or otherwise endorses a superior proposal; or
- if Nabi does not comply with its obligations, after the scheme of arrangement becomes effective, to provide the Nabi closing net cash balance certificate to Biota on the implementation date showing a Nabi closing net cash balance of no less than $54 million in accordance with the scheme of arrangement.

Break Fee

Each of Nabi and Biota has agreed to pay to the other a break fee equal to A$2 million in certain circumstances.

By Nabi. Nabi is required to pay Biota the break fee if:

- Nabi's board of directors fails to state that it considers the Transaction to be in the best interests of Nabi stockholders or fails to recommend the approval of proposals 1 through 4 described in this proxy statement, or publicly changes (including by attaching qualifications to) or withdraws that statement or recommendation;
- a competing proposal for Nabi is announced or made and is publicly recommended, promoted or otherwise endorsed by Nabi's board of directors or by a majority of Nabi's directors;
- a competing proposal for Nabi is announced or made prior to October 31, 2012 and is completed at any time prior to the first anniversary of the date of the Transaction Agreement and, as a result, a third party acquires control of Nabi or the Nabi group within the meaning of Section 405 of the Securities Act;
- Biota terminates the Transaction Agreement due to Nabi's board of directors publicly changing (including by attaching qualifications to) or withdrawing its statement that it considers the Transaction to be in the best interests of Nabi stockholders or its recommendation that Nabi stockholders approve proposals 1 through 4 described in this proxy statement, or publicly recommending, promoting or otherwise endorsing a superior proposal;
- a Nabi material adverse change or a Nabi regulated event occurs between the date of the Transaction Agreement and 8:00 a.m. on the second court date and Biota terminates the Transaction Agreement in accordance with its terms prior to the implementation date; or
- the scheme of arrangement is not completed on or before the date which is eight business days after October 31, 2012 due to Nabi failing to comply with its obligations to provide the Nabi closing net cash balance certificate to Biota on the implementation date showing a Nabi closing net cash balance of no less than $54 million.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Nabi is not required to pay the break fee to Biota if:

- the scheme of arrangement becomes effective notwithstanding the occurrence of any of the events described in the preceding sentence; or
- Nabi is entitled to terminate the Transaction Agreement due to (1) Biota's board of directors publicly changing (including by attaching qualifications to) or withdrawing its statement that it considers the scheme of arrangement to be in the best interests of Biota stockholders or its recommendation that Biota stockholders approve the scheme of arrangement, or publicly recommending, promoting or otherwise endorsing a superior proposal or (2) the occurrence of a Biota material adverse change or Biota regulated event.

In addition, Nabi is not required to pay the break fee to Biota merely by reason that proposals 1 through 4 described in this proxy statement are not approved by Nabi stockholders at the special meeting.

By Biota. Biota is required to pay Nabi the break fee if:

- Biota's board of directors fails to state that they consider the scheme of arrangement to be in the best interests of Biota stockholders or fails to recommend that Biota stockholders approve the scheme of arrangement, or publicly changes (including by attaching qualifications to) or withdraws that statement or recommendation;
- a competing proposal for Biota is announced or made and is publicly recommended, promoted or otherwise endorsed by Biota's board of directors or by a majority of Biota's directors;

- a competing proposal for Biota is announced or made prior to October 31, 2012 and is completed at any time prior to the first anniversary of the date of the Transaction Agreement and, as a result, a third party acquires control of Biota or the Biota group within the meaning of Section 50AA of the Corporations Act (or acquires an equivalent shareholding or economic interest in Biota pursuant to the implementation of a dual-listed company structure or reverse takeover);
- Nabi terminates the Transaction Agreement due to Biota's board of directors publicly changing (including by attaching qualifications to) or withdrawing its statement that it considers the scheme of arrangement to be in the best interests of Biota's stockholders or its recommendation that Biota stockholders approve the scheme of arrangement, or publicly recommending, promoting or otherwise endorsing a superior proposal; or
- a Biota material adverse change or a Biota regulated event occurs between the date of the Transaction Agreement and 8:00 a.m. on the second court date and Nabi terminates the Transaction Agreement in accordance with its terms prior to the implementation date.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Biota is not required to pay the break fee to Nabi if:

- the scheme of arrangement becomes effective notwithstanding the occurrence of any of the events described in the preceding sentence; or
- Biota is entitled to terminate the Transaction Agreement due to Nabi's board of directors publicly changing (including by attaching qualifications to) or withdrawing its statement that it considers the Transaction to be in the best interests of Nabi stockholders or its recommendation that Nabi stockholders approve proposals 1 through 4 described in this proxy statement, or publicly recommending, promoting or otherwise endorsing a superior proposal.

In addition, Biota is not required to pay the break fee to Nabi merely by reason that the scheme of arrangement is not approved by Biota stockholders at the Biota stockholders meeting.

If a break fee is payable to the other party as described above, Nabi or Biota, as the case may be, must pay the break fee within five business days after receiving a written notice from the other party setting out the relevant circumstances and requiring payment of the break fee. A written notice requiring payment of the break fee may only be made after the scheme of arrangement fails to become effective by October 31, 2012 or after the termination of the Transaction Agreement. The parties have agreed that payment of the break fee will not limit the rights of the parties in respect of any other claims that they may have against each other, whether under the Transaction Agreement or otherwise.

Costs and Expenses

Other than as described above under “—Break Fee” on page 128, the Transaction Agreement provides that each party will bear its own costs and duties in connection with the Transaction Agreement, except that Biota will reimburse Nabi for its costs in connection with one issuer tender offer, comprising a permitted Nabi stockholder cash transaction (which costs will include not only the costs arising out of the issuer tender offer but also the additional operational costs incurred by Nabi due to the extension of the implementation date resulting from Nabi conducting such issuer tender offer) in the amount that is the lesser of (1) $400,000 and (2) 50% of Nabi's costs. Promptly after July 30, 2012, Nabi completed its previously announced tender offer and purchased approximately 14,547,996 shares of its common stock.

Amendment; Waiver

The Transaction Agreement may be amended only by another agreement executed by all of the parties. A waiver is not valid or binding on the party granting that waiver unless made in writing.

PROPOSAL 1

General

The following summary of the amendment described in this proposal is qualified in its entirety by the text of Amendment No. 1 to the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of Nabi which is attached as Annex D to this proxy statement.

Nabi's board of directors has unanimously adopted a resolution authorizing, approving, declaring advisable and recommending to stockholders for their approval an amendment to Article Four of the Nabi certificate of incorporation increasing the total number of shares of its authorized common stock from 125,000,000 shares to 200,000,000 shares.

The proposed amendment (the "First Amendment") will become effective upon the filing of the amendment with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, which Nabi plans to do promptly after approval of this proposal by the Nabi stockholders.

Reasons for the Proposed Amendment

Nabi's board of directors recommends approval of the proposed amendment (1) so that it will be able to have sufficient authorized but unissued and unreserved shares to issue the Nabi shares pursuant to the Transaction and (2) to permit the pursuit and effectuation of corporate transactions requiring the issuance of common stock in the future.

Those transactions may include:

- the issuance of common stock in connection with the growth and expansion of Nabi's business;
- the issuance of common stock or securities convertible into common stock in connection with financing and recapitalization transactions;
- the future authorization of additional shares of common stock for issuance under Nabi's incentive compensation plans; and
- the issuance of common stock in connection with other corporate transactions that implement proper business purposes determined by Nabi's board of directors to be in the best interests of Nabi and its stockholders.

As explained below, only 58,743,614 shares of unissued, unreserved common stock remain available for future issuance.

Nabi needs to increase the number of its presently authorized shares in order to issue the number of shares required by the Transaction in the event that Nabi's board of directors determines not to implement the reverse stock split described in this proxy statement prior to the completion of the Transaction. In addition, Nabi's board of directors believes that additional authorized shares should be available in the future in order to permit Nabi to pursue the various transactions described above and to provide for its growth and financial stability. Many of the above transactions arise under circumstances requiring prompt action and do not allow the necessary time to seek stockholder approval to authorize additional shares. Nabi's board of directors believes that it is very important for it to have the flexibility to be able to act promptly in the best interests of Nabi and its stockholders when circumstances such as those described above arise.

Nabi may pursue from time to time the acquisition of other companies. In the event the proposed increase in authorized shares of Nabi common stock is approved by stockholders, such future acquisitions may be effected for a consideration that includes the issuance of shares of Nabi common stock, or other securities convertible into Nabi common stock, in partial or full payment of the purchase price. Nabi anticipates that the terms of any acquisitions in which it issues shares will be determined through direct negotiations with the securities holders or controlling persons of the entities or properties being acquired. Other than with respect to the Transaction, Nabi has not entered into any agreements nor made any decisions with respect to the issuance of any shares in connection with any future acquisitions. If Nabi determines to issue shares of common stock in connection with future acquisitions, Nabi will not seek stockholder approval of such issuance unless required as discussed below under “—Future Stockholder Approval of Common Stock Issuances.” The issuance of any such shares of common stock will have no effect on the rights of existing stockholders.

Currently Authorized Common Stock

Of the 125 million currently authorized shares of Nabi common stock, 28,328,034 shares were outstanding and 35,244,273 shares were held as treasury stock at August 3, 2012. In addition, as of that date, a total of 2,684,079 shares of common stock had been reserved for possible issuance in the future for the following purposes:

- 2,304,844 shares of common stock reserved for issuance under Nabi’s 2007 Omnibus Equity and Incentive Plan; and
- 379,235 shares of common stock reserved for issuance under Nabi’s Employee Stock Purchase Plan.

In view of the fact that a total of 66,256,386 shares of Nabi common stock are either outstanding, held as treasury stock or reserved for future issuance as described above, there remains 58,743,614 shares of unissued, unreserved shares available for future issuance and Nabi expects that it will issue up to approximately 84 million shares of common stock in the Transaction in the event that Nabi’s board of directors determines not to implement the reverse stock split described in this proxy statement prior to the completion of the Transaction. If the reverse stock split is implemented prior to the completion of the Transaction, the number of shares of Nabi common stock to be issued to Biota stockholders will be in the range of approximately 10.5 million to 21.0 million, depending on the actual ratio determined by Nabi’s board of directors.

Future Stockholder Approval of Common Stock Issuances

The additional shares of Nabi common stock sought by the proposed amendment would be available for future issuance without future action by Nabi stockholders, unless such action would be required by applicable law or the rules of the NASDAQ Stock Market. Generally, NASDAQ rules require stockholder approval of proposed issuances of additional shares if the issuance would result in an increase of 20% or more of the total number of shares of common stock outstanding before any such proposed issuance, subject to exemptions for certain public offerings for cash and an exception where the delay in securing stockholder approval would seriously jeopardize Nabi’s financial circumstances and certain other conditions are met. Stockholder approval also is required under NASDAQ rules prior to an issuance of common stock that would result in a change of control of Nabi. Furthermore, NASDAQ rules require stockholder approval under certain circumstances with respect to certain stock option or purchase plans and with respect to proposed issuances of common stock, or of securities convertible into or exercisable for common stock, to directors, officers or substantial stockholders of Nabi or its affiliates.

Potential for Anti-Takeover Effect

Although Nabi’s board of directors’ purpose for seeking an increase in the number of authorized shares of Nabi common stock is not intended for anti-takeover purposes, it should be noted that authorized but unissued shares of Nabi common stock, if issued, could be used by then incumbent management to make more difficult and thereby discourage an attempt to acquire control of Nabi even though its stockholders might deem such an acquisition desirable. For example, the shares could be privately placed with purchasers who might support the board of directors in opposing a hostile takeover bid. The issuance of the new shares could also be used to dilute the stock ownership and voting power of a third party seeking to remove directors, replace incumbent directors, accomplish certain business transactions or alter or amend provisions of the Nabi certificate of incorporation. To the extent that it would impede any such attempts, the issuance of additional shares of Nabi common stock following effectiveness of the proposed amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation could potentially serve to perpetuate the management in place after the amendment.

Required Vote and Board of Directors' Recommendation

Assuming the presence of a quorum, in order to become effective this proposal requires the affirmative vote of the majority of the shares of Nabi common stock outstanding as of the close of business on the record date for the special meeting. Abstentions, failures to submit a proxy (if you do not attend the special meeting in person) and any broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote against this proposal.

Nabi's board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" the approval of this proposal.

PROPOSAL 2
AMENDMENT TO CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION TO CHANGE THE NAME OF NABI BIOPHARMACEUTICALS

General

The following summary of the amendment described in this proposal is qualified in its entirety by the text of Amendment No. 2 to the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of Nabi, which is attached as Annex E to this proxy statement.

Nabi's board of directors has unanimously adopted a resolution authorizing, approving, declaring advisable and recommending to stockholders for their approval an amendment to Article First of the Nabi certificate of incorporation to change the company's name to "Biota Pharmaceuticals, Inc." if the Transaction is completed. The name change will be effected only if (1) the Nabi stockholders approve the Transaction Proposals, (2) the Biota stockholders approve the Transaction, (3) the Supreme Court of Victoria, Australia approves the Transaction and (4) the Transaction is completed. The proposed amendment (the "Second Amendment") to the Nabi certificate of incorporation, if approved, will be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware after the completion of the Transaction. In connection with the name change of Nabi to Biota Pharmaceuticals, Inc., the trading symbol for Nabi common stock on the NASDAQ will be changed from "NABI" to "BOTA."

Required Vote and Board of Directors' Recommendation

Assuming the presence of a quorum, in order to become effective this proposal requires the affirmative vote of the majority of the shares of Nabi common stock outstanding as of the close of business on the record date for the special meeting. Abstentions, failures to submit a proxy (if you do not attend the special meeting in person) and any broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote against this proposal.

Nabi's board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" the approval of this proposal.

PROPOSAL 3

AMENDMENT TO CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION TO EFFECTUATE REVERSE STOCK SPLIT

The following summary of the amendment described in this proposal is qualified in its entirety by the text of Amendment No. 3 to the Nabi certificate of incorporation which is attached as Annex F to this proxy statement. Nabi's board of directors has unanimously adopted a resolution authorizing, approving, declaring advisable and recommending to stockholders for the approval an amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation to effect a reverse stock split (the "Reverse Stock Split"), as described below (the "Third Amendment").

If approved by Nabi stockholders, the Reverse Stock Split would permit (but not require) Nabi's board of directors to effect a reverse stock split of Nabi common stock at any time prior to the December 31, 2012 deadline described below at one of five reverse split ratios, 1-for-4, 1-for-5, 1-for-6, 1-for-7 or 1-for-8, as determined by the board of directors in its sole discretion. We believe that leaving the determination of the final ratio to the discretion of Nabi's board of directors (provided that it is one of the five proposed ratios) will provide Nabi with the flexibility to implement the Reverse Stock Split in a manner designed to maximize the anticipated benefits for Nabi stockholders. In determining a ratio, if any, following the receipt of the approval of Nabi stockholders, Nabi's board of directors may consider, among other things, factors such as:

- the historical trading price and trading volume of Nabi common stock;
- the number of shares of Nabi common stock outstanding, including the number of shares of Nabi common stock issued in the Transaction (if the Transaction Proposals are approved);
- the then-prevailing trading price and trading volume of Nabi common stock and the anticipated impact of the Reverse Stock Split on the trading market for Nabi common stock;
- the anticipated impact of a particular ratio on our ability to reduce administrative and transactional costs; and
- prevailing general market and economic conditions.

If approved by Nabi stockholders at the special meeting, the Reverse Stock Split currently is expected to be implemented immediately prior to the completion of the Transaction. Nabi's board of directors reserves its right to elect to abandon the Reverse Stock Split, including any or all proposed reverse stock split ratios, if it determines, in its sole discretion, that the Reverse Stock Split is no longer in the best interests of Nabi and its stockholders.

Depending on the ratio for the Reverse Stock Split determined by Nabi's board of directors, four, five, six, seven or eight shares of Nabi's existing common stock, as determined by the board of directors, will be combined into one share of common stock. The number of shares of common stock issued and outstanding will therefore be reduced, in an amount which will depend upon the reverse stock split ratio determined by Nabi's board of directors. The amendment to the Nabi certificate of incorporation that is filed to effect the Reverse Stock Split, if any, will include only the reverse split ratio determined by Nabi's board of directors to be in the best interests of Nabi stockholders and all of the other proposed amendments at different ratios will be abandoned.

The Reverse Stock Split, if approved by Nabi stockholders, would become effective upon the filing of the Third Amendment with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. The exact timing of the filing of the Reverse Stock Split will be determined by Nabi's board of directors based on its evaluation as to when such action will be the most advantageous to Nabi and its stockholders. The Reverse Stock Split currently is expected to be implemented immediately prior to the completion of the Transaction. However, Nabi's board of directors reserves the right, notwithstanding stockholder approval and without further action by Nabi stockholders, to elect not to proceed with the Reverse Stock Split if, at any time prior to filing the Third Amendment, Nabi's board of directors, in its sole discretion, determines that it is no longer in Nabi's best interests and the best interests of its stockholders to proceed with the Reverse Stock Split. If a certificate of amendment effecting the Reverse Stock

Split has not been filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware by the close of business on December 31, 2012, Nabi's board of directors will abandon the Reverse Stock Split.

In lieu of issuing fractional shares of Nabi common stock, Nabi stockholders of record who would otherwise hold fractional shares as a result of the Reverse Stock Split will be entitled to receive cash (without interest) in lieu of such fractional shares determined by multiplying (i) the fractional share interest to which the stockholder would otherwise be entitled, after taking into account all shares of common stock then held by the stockholder immediately prior to the effective time of the Reverse Stock Split, and (ii) the average closing sale price of shares of Nabi common stock for the 10 trading days immediately prior to the effective time of the Reverse Stock Split as officially reported by NASDAQ.

Background and Reasons for the Reverse Stock Split

Nabi's board of directors is submitting the Reverse Stock Split to Nabi stockholders for approval with the primary intent of increasing the price of Nabi common stock to make Nabi common stock more attractive to a broader range of institutional and other investors, and to ensure Nabi's stock price remains in compliance with NASDAQ listing requirements. In addition to increasing the price of Nabi common stock, the Reverse Stock Split would also reduce certain of Nabi's costs, such as proxy related fees. Accordingly, for these and other reasons discussed below, we believe that effecting the Reverse Stock Split is in the best interests of Nabi and its stockholders.

We believe that the Reverse Stock Split will make Nabi common stock more attractive to a broader range of institutional and other investors, as we have been advised that the current market price of Nabi common stock may affect its acceptability to certain institutional investors, professional investors and other members of the investing public. Many brokerage houses and institutional investors have internal policies and practices that either prohibit them from investing in low-priced stocks or tend to discourage individual brokers from recommending low-priced stocks to their customers. In addition, some of those policies and practices may function to make the processing of trades in low-priced stocks economically unattractive to brokers. Moreover, because brokers' commissions on low-priced stocks generally represent a higher percentage of the stock price than commissions on higher-priced stocks, the current average price per share of common stock can result in individual stockholders paying transaction costs representing a higher percentage of their total share value than would be the case if the share price were substantially higher. We believe that the Reverse Stock Split will make Nabi common stock a more attractive and cost effective investment for many investors, which will enhance the liquidity of the holders of Nabi common stock.

In addition, the increase in the price of Nabi common stock that is expected to result from the Reverse Stock Split may be necessary for Nabi to meet the initial listing application criteria of the NASDAQ. See "Regulatory and Other Approvals Required for the Transaction—NASDAQ Initial Listing Application Requirement." In accordance with those listing standards, Nabi will be required to have a minimum bid price of Nabi's common stock of at least $4.00 upon the completion of the Transaction. A failure to satisfy such minimum bid price requirements may subject the company to the NASDAQ's procedures for independent review, suspension from listing, or delisting. By reducing the number of shares outstanding and thereby increasing the stock price of Nabi common stock, Nabi will mitigate the risk of non-compliance with such NASDAQ listing requirements.

Reducing the number of outstanding shares of Nabi common stock through the Reverse Stock Split is intended, absent other factors, to increase the per share market price of Nabi common stock. However, other factors, such as Nabi's financial results, market conditions and the market perception of the success of the Transaction and Nabi's business may adversely affect the market price of Nabi common stock. As a result, there can be no assurance that the Reverse Stock Split, if completed, will result in the intended benefits described above, that the market price of Nabi common stock will increase following the Reverse Stock Split or that the market price of Nabi common stock will not decrease in the future. Additionally, we cannot assure you that the market price per share of Nabi common stock after a Reverse Stock Split will increase in proportion to the reduction in the number of shares of Nabi common stock outstanding before the Reverse Stock Split. Accordingly, the total market capitalization of Nabi common stock after the Reverse Stock Split may be lower than the total market capitalization before the Reverse Stock Split.

In addition to increasing the price of Nabi common stock, we believe that a Reverse Stock Split will provide Nabi and its stockholders with other benefits. Currently, the fees that Nabi pays to list shares of Nabi common stock on the NASDAQ are based on the number of shares Nabi has outstanding. Also, the fees that Nabi pays for custody and clearing services, the fees that Nabi pays to the SEC to register securities for issuance and the costs of Nabi's proxy solicitations are all based on or related to the number of shares being held, cleared or registered as applicable. Reducing the number of shares that are outstanding and that will be issued in the future may reduce the amount of fees and tax that Nabi pays to these organizations and agencies, as well as other organizations and agencies that levy charges based on the number of shares rather than the value of the shares.

Effect of the Reverse Stock Split on Holders of Outstanding Common Stock

Assuming that the Reverse Stock Split is implemented immediately prior to the completion of the Transaction, it is expected that approximately 66.26 million shares issued (or reserved for issuance) will be affected by the Reverse Stock Split. In addition, the number of shares of Nabi common stock that are issued to Biota stockholders at the completion of the Transaction will reflect the effect of the Reverse Stock Split.

Depending on the ratio for the Reverse Stock Split determined by Nabi's board of directors, four, five, six, seven or eight shares of existing Nabi common stock, as determined by the board of directors, will be combined into one new share of common stock. The number of shares of Nabi common stock issued and outstanding will therefore be reduced, depending upon the reverse stock split ratio determined by Nabi's board of directors. The table below shows the number of authorized and issued (or reserved for issuance) shares of Nabi common stock that will result from the listed hypothetical reverse stock split ratios (without giving effect to the treatment of fractional shares), including the shares of Nabi common stock that are issued to Biota stockholders at the completion of the Transaction:

Approximate number of shares of Nabi common stock outstanding plus shares of Nabi common stock reserved for issuance following the Reverse Stock Split (millions of shares)
1 for 4	1 for 5	1 for 6	1 for 7	1 for 8
37.59	30.07	25.06	21.48	18.79

The actual number of shares outstanding after giving effect to the Reverse Stock Split, if implemented, will depend on the reverse stock split ratio that is ultimately determined by Nabi's board of directors.

If approved and implemented, the Reverse Stock Split will be realized simultaneously and in the same ratio for all of Nabi common stock. The Reverse Stock Split will affect all holders of Nabi common stock uniformly and will not affect any stockholder's percentage ownership interest in Nabi, except that as described below under "—Fractional Shares" on page 138, record holders of Nabi common stock otherwise entitled to a fractional share as a result of the Reverse Stock Split will receive a cash payment in lieu of such fractional share. These cash payments will reduce the number of post-Reverse Stock Split holders of Nabi common stock to the extent there are currently stockholders who would otherwise receive less than one share of Nabi common stock after the Reverse Stock Split. In addition, the Reverse Stock Split will not affect any stockholder's proportionate voting power (subject to the treatment of fractional shares).

The Reverse Stock Split may result in some stockholders owning "odd lots" of less than 100 shares of Nabi common stock. Odd lot shares may be more difficult to sell, and brokerage commissions and other costs of transactions in odd lots are generally somewhat higher than the costs of transactions in "round lots" of even multiples of 100 shares.

After the effective time of the Reverse Stock Split, Nabi common stock will have a new Committee on Uniform Securities Identification Procedures (“CUSIP”) number, which is a number used to identify Nabi’s equity securities, and stock certificates with the older CUSIP number will need to be exchanged for stock certificates with the new CUSIP number by following the procedures described below.

Beneficial Holders of Nabi Common Stock (i.e. stockholders who hold in street name)

Upon the Reverse Stock Split, we intend to treat shares held by stockholders through a bank, broker, custodian or other nominee in the same manner as registered stockholders whose shares are registered in their names. Banks, brokers, custodians or other nominees will be instructed to effect the Reverse Stock Split for their beneficial holders holding Nabi common stock in street name. However, these banks, brokers, custodians or other nominees may have different procedures than registered stockholders for processing the Reverse Stock Split and making payment for fractional shares. If a stockholder holds shares of Nabi common stock with a bank, broker, custodian or other nominee and has any questions in this regard, stockholders are encouraged to contact their bank, broker, custodian or other nominee.

Registered “Book-Entry” Holders of Nabi Common Stock (i.e. stockholders that are registered on the transfer agent’s books and records but do not hold stock certificates)

Certain of our registered holders of Nabi common stock may hold some or all of their shares electronically in book-entry form with the transfer agent. These stockholders do not have stock certificates evidencing their ownership of Nabi common stock. They are, however, provided with a statement reflecting the number of shares registered in their accounts.

If a stockholder holds registered shares in book-entry form with the transfer agent, they will be sent a transmittal letter by our transfer agent after the effective time of the Reverse Stock Split, and will need to return a properly completed and duly executed transmittal letter in order to receive any cash payment in lieu of fractional shares or other distributions, if any, that may be declared and payable to holders of record following the Reverse Stock Split.

Holders of Certificated Shares of Nabi Common Stock

Stockholders holding shares of Nabi common stock in certificated form will be sent a transmittal letter by the transfer agent after the effective time of the Reverse Stock Split. The letter of transmittal will contain instructions on how a stockholder should surrender his, her or its certificate(s) representing shares of Nabi common stock (the “Old Certificates”) to the transfer agent in exchange for certificates representing the appropriate number of whole shares of post-Reverse Stock Split common stock (the “New Certificates”). No New Certificates will be issued to a stockholder until such stockholder has surrendered all Old Certificates, together with a properly completed and executed letter of transmittal, to the transfer agent. No stockholder will be required to pay a transfer or other fee to exchange his, her or its Old Certificates. Stockholders will then receive a New Certificate(s) representing the number of whole shares of common stock that they are entitled as a result of the Reverse Stock Split. Until surrendered, we will deem outstanding Old Certificates held by stockholders to be cancelled and only to represent the number of whole shares of post-Reverse Stock Split common stock to which these stockholders are entitled. Any Old Certificates submitted for exchange, whether because of a sale, transfer or other disposition of stock, will automatically be exchanged for New Certificates. If an Old Certificate has a restrictive legend on the back of the Old Certificate(s), the New Certificate will be issued with the same restrictive legends that are on the back of the Old Certificate(s). If a stockholder is entitled to a payment in lieu of any fractional share interest, such payment will be made as described below under “—Fractional Shares.”

Nabi stockholders should not destroy any stock certificate(s) and should not submit any stock certificate(s) until requested to do so.

Fractional Shares

We do not currently intend to issue fractional shares in connection with the Reverse Stock Split. Therefore, we do not expect to issue certificates representing fractional shares. Stockholders of record who would otherwise hold fractional shares, because the number of shares of common stock they hold before the Reverse Stock Split is not evenly divisible by the split ratio ultimately determined by Nabi's board of directors, will be entitled to receive cash (without interest) in lieu of such fractional shares determined by multiplying (i) the fractional share interest to which the stockholder would otherwise be entitled, after taking into account all shares of common stock then held by the stockholder immediately prior to the effective time of the Reverse Stock Split, and (ii) the average closing sale price of shares of Nabi common stock for the 10 trading days immediately prior to the effective time of the Reverse Stock Split as officially reported by NASDAQ.

If a stockholder who holds shares in certificated form is entitled to a payment in lieu of any fractional share interest, the stockholder will receive a check as soon as practicable after the effective time of the Reverse Stock Split and after the stockholder has submitted an executed transmittal letter and surrendered all Old Certificates, as described above in "—Holders of Certificated Shares of Common Stock" on page 137. If a stockholder holds shares of Nabi common stock with a bank, broker, custodian or other nominee, those stockholders should contact their bank, broker, custodian or other nominee for information on the treatment and processing of fractional shares by their bank, broker, custodian or other nominee. By signing and cashing the check, stockholders will warrant that they owned the shares of Nabi common stock for which they received a cash payment. The cash payment is subject to applicable federal and state income tax and state abandoned property laws. Stockholders will not be entitled to receive interest for the period of time between the effective time of the Reverse Stock Split and the date payment is received.

Effect of the Reverse Stock Split on Equity Incentive Plan Awards

Based upon the Reverse Stock Split ratio determined by Nabi's board of directors, proportionate adjustments are generally required to be made to the per share exercise price and the number of shares issuable upon the exercise of all outstanding options. This would result in approximately the same aggregate price being required to be paid under such options upon exercise, and approximately the same value of shares of common stock being delivered upon such exercise, immediately following the Reverse Stock Split as was the case immediately preceding the Reverse Stock Split. The number of shares deliverable upon settlement or vesting of restricted stock awards will be similarly adjusted. The number of shares reserved for issuance pursuant to these securities will be reduced proportionately based upon the reverse stock split ratio determined by Nabi's board of directors.

Accounting Matters

The proposed amendments to the Nabi certificate of incorporation will not affect the par value of Nabi common stock per share, which will remain at $0.10. As a result, as of the effective time of the Reverse Stock Split, the stated capital attributable to Nabi common stock on Nabi's balance sheet will be reduced proportionately based on the reverse stock split ratio (including a retroactive adjustment of prior periods), and the additional paid-in capital account will be credited with the amount by which the stated capital is reduced. Reported per share net income or loss will be higher because there will be fewer shares of common stock outstanding.

Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Reverse Stock Split

The following summary describes certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Reverse Stock Split to holders of Nabi common stock.

Unless otherwise specifically indicated herein, this summary addresses the tax consequences only to a beneficial owner of Nabi common stock that for U.S. income tax purposes is: (i) a citizen or individual resident of the U.S., (ii) a corporation organized in or under the laws of the U.S. or any state thereof or the District of Columbia, (iii) an estate whose income is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source, or (iv) any trust if a U.S. court is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of such trust and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or it has a valid election in place to be treated as a U.S. person (a “U.S. holder”). This summary does not address all of the tax consequences that may be relevant to any particular investor, including tax considerations that arise from rules of general application to all taxpayers or to certain classes of taxpayers or that are generally assumed to be known by investors. This summary also does not address the tax consequences to (i) persons that may be subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax law, such as banks, insurance companies, thrift institutions, regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts, tax-exempt organizations, U.S. expatriates, persons subject to the alternative minimum tax, traders in securities that elect to mark to market and dealers in securities or currencies, (ii) persons that hold our common stock as part of a position in a “straddle” or as part of a “hedging,” “conversion” or other integrated investment transaction for federal income tax purposes, or (iii) persons that do not hold Nabi common stock as “capital assets” (generally, property held for investment).

This summary is based on the provisions of the IRC, U.S. Treasury regulations, administrative rulings and judicial authority, all as in effect as of August 1, 2012. Subsequent developments in U.S. federal income tax law, including changes in law or differing interpretations, which may be applied retroactively, could have a material effect on the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Reverse Stock Split.

Each prospective investor should consult its own tax advisor regarding the U.S. federal, state, local, and foreign income and other tax consequences of the Reverse Stock Split.

If a partnership (or other entity classified as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is the beneficial owner of Nabi common stock, the U.S. federal income tax treatment of a partner in the partnership will generally depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partnerships that hold Nabi common stock, and partners in such partnerships, should consult their own tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Reverse Stock Split.

U.S. Holders

The Reverse Stock Split should be treated as a recapitalization for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Therefore, except as described below with respect to cash in lieu of fractional shares, no gain or loss will be recognized upon the Reverse Stock Split. Accordingly, the aggregate tax basis in the common stock received pursuant to the Reverse Stock Split should equal the aggregate tax basis in the common stock surrendered (excluding the portion of the tax basis that is allocable to any fractional share), and the holding period for the common stock received should include the holding period for the common stock surrendered.

A U.S. holder who receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of Nabi common stock pursuant to the Reverse Stock Split should recognize capital gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the U.S. holder’s tax basis in the shares of Nabi common stock surrendered that is allocated to such fractional share of Nabi common stock. Such capital gain or loss should be long term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder’s holding period for Nabi common stock surrendered exceeded one year at the effective time of the Reverse Stock Split. The deductibility of net capital losses by individuals and corporations is subject to limitations.

U.S. Information Reporting and Backup Withholding. Information returns generally will be required to be filed with the Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) with respect to the receipt of cash in lieu of a fractional share of Nabi common stock pursuant to the Reverse Stock Split in the case of certain U.S. holders. In addition, U.S. holders may be subject to a backup withholding (at the current applicable rate of 28%) on the payment of such cash if they do not provide their taxpayer identification numbers in the manner required or otherwise fail to comply with applicable backup withholding tax rules. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be refunded or allowed as a credit against the U.S. holder's federal income tax liability, if any, provided the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

Non-U.S. Holders

The discussion in this section is addressed to "non-U.S. holders." A non-U.S. holder is a beneficial owner of Nabi common stock that is not a U.S. holder, as defined above.

Generally, non-U.S. holders should not be subject to U.S. federal income tax or, subject to the discussion below under the heading "U.S. Information Reporting and Backup Withholding," withholding tax on any gain realized upon the Reverse Stock Split unless: (a) such gain is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business carried on by the non-U.S. holder in the U.S. (in which case a 30% branch profits tax may also apply if the non-U.S. holder is a corporation), and, if required by applicable income tax treaty, is attributable to a non-U.S. holder's permanent establishment in the U.S., (b) with respect to non-U.S. holders who are individuals, such non-U.S. holders are present in the U.S. for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the Reverse Stock Split and other conditions are met, or (c) Nabi is or has been a U.S. real property holding corporation ("USRPHC") for U.S. federal income tax purposes at any time within the shorter of the five-year period ending on the date of the disposition and the non-U.S. holder's holding period and certain other conditions are satisfied. Nabi believes that currently it is not, and does not anticipate becoming, a USRPHC.

U.S. Information Reporting and Backup Withholding. In general, backup withholding and information reporting will not apply to payment of cash in lieu of a fractional share of Nabi common stock to a non-U.S. holder pursuant to the Reverse Stock Split if the non-U.S. holder certifies under penalties of perjury that it is a non-U.S. holder and the applicable withholding agent does not have actual knowledge to the contrary. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be refunded or allowed as a credit against the non-U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, if any, provided that certain required information is timely furnished to the IRS. In certain circumstances the amount of cash paid to a non-U.S. holder in lieu of a fractional share of Nabi common stock, the name and address of the beneficial owner and the amount, if any, of tax withheld may be reported to the IRS.

No Appraisal Rights

Under Delaware law and the Nabi certificate of incorporation, holders of Nabi common stock will not be entitled to dissenter's rights or appraisal rights with respect to the Reverse Stock Split.

Required Vote and Board of Directors' Recommendation

Assuming the presence of a quorum, in order to become effective this proposal requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Nabi common stock outstanding as of the close of business on the record date for the special meeting. Abstentions, failures to submit a proxy (if you do not attend the special meeting in person) and any broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote against this proposal.

Nabi's board of directors has unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" the approval of this proposal.

PROPOSAL 4

ISSUANCE OF NABI SHARES IN CONNECTION WITH THE TRANSACTION

Nabi's board of directors has unanimously adopted a resolution authorizing, approving, declaring advisable and recommending to Nabi stockholders for their approval the issuance of Nabi common stock to Biota's stockholders in connection with the Transaction.

NASDAQ Stock Market Listing Rule 5635 requires stockholder approval for the issuance of Nabi common stock (1) in connection with the acquisition of the stock or assets of another company if the issuance would result in an increase of 20% or more of the total number of shares of Nabi common stock outstanding before any such proposed issuance, or (2) that constitutes a change of control of Nabi. Both of these events will occur if the Transaction is completed.

As of August 3, 2012, 28,328,034 shares of Nabi common stock were issued and outstanding and 35,244,273 shares were held as treasury stock. Upon the consummation of the Transaction, and subject to adjustment as described below, Biota's stockholders will acquire an aggregate of up to approximately 84 million shares of Nabi common stock, representing approximately 74% of the outstanding common stock of the combined company immediately after the completion of the Transaction. In the event that Nabi implements the reverse stock split described in this proxy statement before the completion of the Transaction, the number of shares of Nabi common stock to be issued in exchange for each ordinary share of Biota will be adjusted in accordance with the Transaction Agreement in order to preserve the respective percentage of shares of the outstanding common stock of the combined company to be held immediately after the completion of the Transaction by Biota's former stockholders on the one hand (collectively being approximately 74%) and Nabi's existing stockholders on the other hand (collectively being approximately 26%). If the reverse stock split is implemented prior to the completion of the Transaction, the number of shares of Nabi common stock to be issued to Biota stockholders will be in the range of approximately 10.5 million to 21.0 million, depending on the actual ratio determined by Nabi's board of directors.

Required Vote and Board of Directors' Recommendation

Assuming the presence of a quorum, in order to become effective this proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Nabi common stock properly cast on the proposal at the special meeting. Abstentions, failures to submit a proxy (if you do not attend the special meeting in person) and any broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on this proposal.

Nabi's board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" the approval of this proposal.

PROPOSAL 5
ADVISORY VOTE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

As required by Section 14A of the Exchange Act and the SEC's rules thereunder, Nabi is asking its stockholders to cast an advisory (non-binding) vote on the compensation that may be payable to its named executive officers under existing agreements in connection with the Transaction, as described in this proxy statement under "The Transaction—Executive Compensation Payable in Connection with the Transaction—Change in Control Compensation," including in the associated narrative discussion. In accordance with these requirements, Nabi is asking its stockholders to vote on the adoption of the following resolution:

"RESOLVED, that the compensation that may be payable to Nabi's named executive officers in connection with the Transaction, as disclosed in the table captioned "Change in Control Compensation" beginning on page 74 of the proxy statement under "The Transaction—Executive Compensation Payable in Connection with the Transaction," including the associated narrative discussion, and the agreements or understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be payable, are hereby APPROVED."

The vote on the compensation payable in connection with the Transaction is a vote separate and apart from the votes on the other proposals described in this proxy statement. You may vote to approve this proposal and vote not to approve another proposal, or you may vote against this proposal and vote to approve some or all of the other proposals. Because the vote on this proposal is advisory in nature only, it will not be binding on Nabi. Accordingly, because Nabi is contractually obligated to pay the compensation covered by this proposal, such compensation will be payable, subject only to the applicable conditions, if the Transaction is approved and regardless of the outcome of the advisory vote.

Required Vote and Board of Directors' Recommendation

Assuming the presence of a quorum, in order to become effective this proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Nabi common stock properly cast on this proposal at the special meeting. Abstentions, failures to submit a proxy (if you do not attend the special meeting in person) and any broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on this proposal.

Nabi's board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" the approval of this proposal.

PROPOSAL 6
ADJOURNMENT OF SPECIAL MEETING

Nabi is asking its stockholders to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to permit further solicitation of proxies in favor of approval of any of the Transaction Proposals.

If the number of shares of Nabi common stock present in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting voting in favor of proposal 1, proposal 2, proposal 3 or proposal 4 is insufficient to approve one or more of such proposals at the time of the special meeting, then Nabi may move to adjourn the special meeting in order to enable the Board to solicit additional proxies in respect of the applicable proposal. In that event, Nabi stockholders will be asked to vote only upon the adjournment proposal, and not on any other proposal.

In this proposal, you are being asked to authorize the holder of any proxy solicited by Nabi's board of directors to vote in favor of granting discretionary authority to the proxy or attorney-in-fact to adjourn the special meeting one or more times for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies. If Nabi stockholders approve the adjournment proposal, Nabi could adjourn the special meeting and any adjourned session of the special meeting and use the additional time to solicit additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from Nabi stockholders that have previously returned properly executed proxies or authorized a proxy by using the Internet or telephone. Among other things, approval of the adjournment proposal could mean that, even if Nabi has received proxies representing a sufficient number of votes against the approval of proposal 1, proposal 2, proposal 3 or proposal 4 that such proposal would be defeated, Nabi could adjourn the special meeting without a vote on such proposal and seek to obtain sufficient votes in favor of such proposal to obtain approval of that proposal.

Required Vote and Board of Directors' Recommendation

Assuming the presence of a quorum, in order to become effective this proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Nabi common stock properly cast on this proposal at the special meeting. Abstentions, failures to submit a proxy (if you do not attend the special meeting in person) and any broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on this proposal.

Nabi's board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" the approval of this proposal.

FUTURE NABI STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS AND NOMINATIONS

Nabi has not yet set the date of its 2012 annual meeting of stockholders. The 2012 annual meeting of stockholders will therefore occur more than 30 days after the anniversary of the previous year's annual meeting. Accordingly, to be considered for inclusion in Nabi's proxy statement relating to the 2012 annual meeting pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act, a stockholder proposal must be submitted to Nabi a reasonable time before Nabi begins to print its proxy materials for the 2012 annual meeting. Under Nabi's by-laws, notice of stockholder nominations of a person to serve on Nabi's board of directors and other stockholder proposals (not submitted for inclusion in Nabi's proxy statement for the 2012 annual meeting pursuant to Rule 14a-8) will be considered timely if delivered to or mailed and received at the principal executive offices of Nabi not later than 90 days before the 2012 annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event that less than 100 days' notice or prior public disclosure of the 2012 annual meeting date is given or made to stockholders, then notice by the stockholder, to be timely, must be received no later than the close of business on the 10th day after such notice of the meeting date was mailed or such prior public disclosure was made. Nabi expects that it will announce the date of the 2012 annual meeting, and the specific deadlines for submission of stockholder proposals and nominations in respect thereof, by filing a Current Report on Form 8-K with the SEC promptly after Nabi's board of directors establishes the date of the meeting.

All stockholder proposals and nominations of persons to serve on Nabi's board of directors should be sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, to Nabi Biopharmaceuticals at 12270 Wilkins Avenue, Rockville, Maryland 20852.

- (f) If a party waives the breach or non-fulfilment of a Condition Precedent, that waiver will not preclude it from suing the other party for any breach of this Agreement constituted by the same event that gave rise to the breach or non-fulfilment of the Condition Precedent.
- (g) Waiver of a breach or non-fulfilment in respect of one Condition Precedent does not constitute:
 - (i) a waiver of breach or non-fulfilment of any other Condition Precedent resulting from the same events or circumstances; or

3.3 Best endeavours and co-operation

- (c) each of Biota and Nabi must use their respective best endeavours to satisfy, or procure the satisfaction of, the Conditions Precedent in clauses 3.1(a), 3.1(e), 3.1(i), 3.1(j) and 3.1(k), to the extent that it is within their respective control; and
- (d) neither party will take any action that will or is likely to hinder or prevent the satisfaction of any Condition Precedent, except to the extent that such action is required to be done or procured pursuant to, or is otherwise permitted by, the Transaction Documents, or is required by law.

For the purposes of paragraphs (a), (b) and (c), the 'best endeavours' of a party will require that party to (among other things):

- (e) observe and comply with clause 9.2; and

3.5 Failure of Conditions Precedent

- (a) If:
 - (i) there is a breach or non-fulfilment of a Condition Precedent that is not waived in accordance with clause 3.2 before the End Date; or
 - (ii) a Condition Precedent becomes incapable of satisfaction, having regard to the obligations of the parties under clause 3.3 and the terms of clause 3.6 (and the breach or non-fulfilment of the Condition Precedent that would otherwise occur has not already been waived),either party may serve notice on the other party, and the parties must then consult in good faith with a view to determining whether:
 - (iii) the Transactions may proceed by way of alternative means or methods;
 - (iv) to extend the relevant time or date for satisfaction of the Condition Precedent;
 - (v) to change the date of the application to be made to the Court for orders under the Corporations Act approving the Scheme or to adjourn that application (as applicable) to another date agreed by the parties; or
 - (vi) to extend the End Date.

- (b) If Nabi and Biota are unable to reach agreement under clauses 3.5(a)(iii), 3.5(a)(iv), 3.5(a)(v) or 3.5(a)(vi) within 15 Business Days after the delivery of the notice under that clause or any shorter period ending at 5pm on the day before the Second Court Date, either party may terminate this Agreement by notice in writing to the other party, provided that:
- (i) the Condition Precedent to which the notice relates is for the benefit of that party (whether or not the Condition Precedent is also for the benefit of the other party); and
 - (ii) there has been no failure by that party to comply with its obligations under this Agreement, where that failure directly and materially contributed to the Condition Precedent to which the notice relates becoming incapable of satisfaction, or being breached or not fulfilled before the End Date,
- in which case clause 13.4 will have effect.

3.6 Certificates in relation to Conditions Precedent

On the Second Court Date:

- (a) Biota must provide to the Court a certificate (or such other evidence as the Court may request) confirming (in respect of matters within its knowledge) whether or not as at 8am on the Second Court Date:
- (i) the conditions precedent set out in clauses 3.1(a), 3.1(c), 3.1(d), 3.1(j), 3.1(l), 3.1(m), 3.1(n) and 3.1(o) have been satisfied or waived in accordance with this Agreement; and

- (b) Nabi must provide to the Court a certificate (or such other evidence as the Court may request) confirming (in respect of matters within its knowledge) whether or not as at 8am on the Second Court Date:

 - (ii) to the best of Nabi's knowledge whether the conditions precedent set out in clauses 3.1(i) and 3.1(k) have been satisfied or waived in accordance with this Agreement.

Each party must provide to the other party a draft of the relevant certificate to be provided by it pursuant to this clause 3.6 by 5pm on the day that is two Business Days prior to the Second Court Date, and must provide to the other party on the Second Court Date a copy of the final certificate or other evidence provided to the Court.

4. Scheme

4.1 Outline of Scheme

- (a) The parties agree that:
- (i) Biota will propose the Scheme; and
 - (ii) the Scheme, if approved by the Court, will be subject to any alterations or conditions that are made or required by the Court and approved in writing by each party.
- (b) Subject to the Scheme becoming Effective, on the Implementation Date the general effect of the Scheme will be as follows:
- (i) all of the Scheme Shares will be transferred to Nabi in accordance with the terms of the Scheme; and

- (ii) in consideration for the transfer to Nabi of all Scheme Shares held by the Scheme Shareholders, the Scheme Shareholders will receive the Scheme Consideration in accordance with clause 4.2 and the terms of the Scheme.

4.2 Scheme Consideration

- (a) Subject to the Scheme becoming Effective and clauses 4.2(b), 4.2(c) and 4.3, Nabi agrees in favour of Biota that, in consideration of the transfer to Nabi of each Scheme Share under the Scheme, Nabi accepts such transfer, and provides to each Scheme Shareholder 0.669212231 New Nabi Shares for each Scheme Share held by them; provided, however, that if Nabi completes an issuer tender offer that is a Permissible Nabi Stockholder Cash Transaction, then the number of New Nabi Shares for each Scheme Share shall be a number determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$0.669212231 \times \frac{N_N - N_{TO}}{N_N}$$

Where:

N_N is the number of Nabi Shares outstanding as at the date of this Agreement (42,877,581) plus 1,277,386 (being one-third of the number of Nabi stock options on issue as at the date of this Agreement).

N_{TO} is the number of Nabi Shares acquired by Nabi in the issuer tender offer.

(It is noted that the purpose of this formula is to preserve the respective percentage shares of Nabi's issued stock to be held immediately after the Implementation Date by Scheme Shareholders (collectively) on the one hand (being 73.9603%) and Nabi Stockholders immediately prior to the Implementation Date (collectively) on the other hand (being 26.0397%) (subject in each case to rounding) following the issuer tender offer)

- (b) If the number of Scheme Shares held by a Scheme Shareholder as at the Record Date is such that the aggregate entitlement of the Scheme Shareholder to Scheme Consideration includes a fractional entitlement to a New Nabi Share, then the entitlement of that Scheme Shareholder must be rounded up or down, with any such fractional entitlement of less than 0.5 being rounded down to the nearest whole number of New Nabi Shares, and any such fractional entitlement of 0.5 or more being rounded up to the nearest whole number of New Nabi Shares.
- (c) If Nabi is of the opinion (acting reasonably) that two or more Scheme Shareholders (each of whom holds a number of Scheme Shares that results in rounding in accordance with clause 4.2(b)) have, before the Record Date, been party to shareholding splitting or division in an attempt to obtain unfair advantage by reference to such rounding, Nabi may give notice to those Scheme Shareholders:
- (i) setting out their names and registered addresses as shown in the Biota Register;
 - (ii) stating that opinion; and
 - (iii) attributing to one of them specifically identified in the notice the Scheme Shares held by all of them, and, after such notice has been given, the Scheme Shareholder specifically identified in the notice as the deemed holder of all the specified Scheme Shares will, for the purposes of the Scheme, be taken to hold all of those Scheme Shares and each of the other Scheme Shareholders whose names and registered addresses are set out in the notice will, for the purposes of the Scheme, be taken to hold no Scheme Shares. Nabi, in complying with the other provisions of the Scheme relating to it in respect of the Scheme Shareholder specifically identified in the notice as the deemed holder of all the specified Scheme Shares, will be taken to have satisfied and discharged its obligations to the other Scheme Shareholders named in the notice under the terms of the Scheme.

4.3 Treatment of Ineligible Foreign Biota Shareholders

- (a) Nabi will be under no obligation under the Scheme to issue, and will not issue, any New Nabi Shares to any Ineligible Foreign Biota Shareholder, and instead Nabi will issue on the Implementation Date the New Nabi Shares to which that Ineligible Foreign Biota Shareholder would otherwise have been entitled (if they were a Scheme Shareholder who was not an Ineligible Foreign Biota Shareholder) to a nominee appointed by Biota.
- (b) Biota will procure that, as soon as reasonably practicable and in any event not more than 15 Business Days after the Implementation Date, the nominee:
 - (i) sells on NASDAQ all of the New Nabi Shares issued to the nominee in accordance with clause 4.3(a) in such manner, at such price and on such other terms as the nominee determines in good faith, and at the risk of the Ineligible Foreign Biota Shareholders; and
 - (ii) remits to Biota the proceeds of sale (after deducting any reasonable applicable brokerage, stamp duty and other selling costs, taxes and charges).
- (c) Promptly after the last remittance in accordance with clause 4.3(b), Biota will pay to each Ineligible Foreign Biota Shareholder the proportion of the net proceeds of sale received by Biota pursuant to clause 4.3(b)(ii) to which that Ineligible Foreign Biota Shareholder is entitled.

4.4 Status of New Nabi Shares

- (a) The New Nabi Shares to be issued pursuant to the Scheme must, upon issue, rank equally in all respects with all other Nabi Shares then on issue, except that they will not carry a right to receive any payments from any Contingent Value Right issued and outstanding on the Implementation Date or from any dividends declared prior to but remaining unpaid on the Implementation Date, and will be fully paid and issued free from any mortgage, charge, lien, encumbrance or other security interest; and
- (b) The New Nabi Shares will be issued pursuant to an exemption from registration under the 1933 Act pursuant to section 3(a)(10) of the 1933 Act. In the event that the exemption from registration under section 3(a)(10) of the 1933 Act is not available for any reason to exempt the issuance of the New Nabi Shares in accordance with the Scheme from the registration requirements of the 1933 Act, then Nabi shall use its best endeavours to file a registration statement on Form S-4 (or on such other form that may be available to Nabi) in order to register such New Nabi Shares and shall use its best endeavours to cause such registration statement to become effective at or prior to the Implementation Date.

 - (i) the working papers of the Nabi Auditor that were produced in connection with the review of Nabi's first quarter financial information for the 2012 financial year; and
 - (ii) reasonable access, at the expense of Biota, to the Nabi Auditor for the purpose of Biota's review of such working papers;
- (b) provide, or ensure the provision of, all of Nabi's working papers, and all information and assistance which may be reasonably requested by Biota, in connection with Biota's review of the Review Certificate; and
- (c) at all reasonable times, permit Biota and its Representatives to have reasonable access to and take extracts from or copies of all books of account, accounts, records and data of whatever kind and all other documents relating to the matters set out in the Review Certificate, during the period from 8am on the day that is seven Business Days prior to the date of the Scheme Meeting and the day that is two Business Days prior to the date of the Scheme Meeting (the Review Period).

5.4 Dispute resolution procedure

- (a) If there is any difference of opinion or dispute between Nabi and Biota as to:
 - (i) whether any matters (additional to those agreed by the parties prior to the date of this Agreement) should comprise Nabi Cash Balance Offsets (including any matters based on any unforeseen events or circumstances); or
 - (ii) any of the specific dollar amounts included in the Review Certificate during the Review Period,

Nabi and Biota must work together in good faith to resolve such disagreement and, if such disagreement is not resolved, then Nabi or Biota must promptly refer the dispute to a practitioner in the internal audit division of Bethesda Financial Group LLC (or such other party as Nabi and Biota may agree) (the Expert) for it to resolve the dispute. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Biota can only dispute specific dollar amounts under clause 5.4(a)(ii) above if the aggregate of the difference between:

- (iii) each amount set out in the Review Certificate which is disputed by Biota; and
- (iv) Biota's opinion as to what each such amount should be, is not less than US $200,000.

- (b) The Expert must be instructed to decide the matters of disagreement and finish its determination and provide a final Review Certificate (if applicable) to Nabi and Biota:
 - (i) in the case of a disagreement as to any matters that comprise the Nabi Cash Balance Offsets – no later than 7 Business Days after the dispute was referred to the Expert (but in any event, 5 Business Days before a Nabi Closing Net Cash Balance Certificate is required to be provided by Nabi to Biota in accordance with clause 5.2); and
 - (ii) in the case of a disagreement as to the specific dollar amounts stated on the Review Certificate—before the end of the Review Period.
- (c) Nabi and Biota must co-operate with the Expert and promptly supply the Expert with any information and assistance requested by the Expert in connection with its determination.

11.6 Exceptions

(a) The obligations in clause 11.3(a), clause 11.4(a) and clause 11.5(a) do not apply to the extent that they restrict Biota, the Biota Board or any of its Representatives from taking any action in respect of a bona fide written Competing Proposal for Biota which was not encouraged, solicited, invited, facilitated or initiated by Biota in contravention of clause 11.2, or to the extent that they require Biota to provide the notification referred to in clause 11.5, provided that:

- (i) the Biota Board, acting in good faith, after consulting with its outside legal counsel and financial advisers, and in order to satisfy what the Biota Board considers to be its fiduciary or statutory duties, determines that the Competing Proposal is, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, a Superior Proposal; or
- (ii) the Biota Board, acting in good faith, after consulting with its outside legal counsel and financial advisers, determines that not undertaking that act would, or would be likely to, involve a breach of the fiduciary or statutory duties owed by any Biota Director, and a prior written notice is sent promptly (and in any event within two Business Days prior to taking any action) from Biota to Nabi of its intention to take such proposed actions and the reasons therefor, that it is relying on the carve out in this clause 11.6(a) and a summary of material terms and conditions of such Competing Proposal. Biota must ask the person who has made the applicable Competing Proposal (the Competing Party) for their consent to their name and other identifying details which may identify the Competing Party (Identifying Details) being provided by Biota to Nabi on a confidential basis. If consent is refused, Biota may only withhold the Identifying Details from Nabi if the Biota Board, acting in good faith and after having taken advice from its legal advisers, determines that failing to do so would be likely to involve a breach of the fiduciary or statutory duties owed by any Biota director. If information is withheld pursuant to this clause 11.6(a), Biota must immediately notify Nabi. Any information provided pursuant to this clause 11.6(a) will be provided subject to the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement.

(b) The obligations in clause 11.3(b), clause 11.4(b) and clause 11.5 do not apply to the extent that they restrict Nabi, the Nabi Board or any of its Representatives from taking any action in respect of a bona fide Competing Proposal for Nabi which was not encouraged, solicited, invited, facilitated or initiated by Nabi in contravention of clause 11.2, or to the extent that they require Nabi to provide the notification referred to in clause 11.5, provided that:

- (i) the Nabi Board, acting in good faith, after consulting with its outside legal counsel and financial advisers, and in order to satisfy what the Nabi Board considers to be its fiduciary or statutory duties, determines that, the Competing Proposal is, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, a Superior Proposal; or

and a prior written notice is sent promptly (and in any event within two Business Days prior to taking any action) from Nabi to Biota of its intention to take such proposed actions and the reasons therefor, that it is relying on the carve out in this clause 11.6(a) and a summary of material terms and conditions of such Competing Proposal. Nabi must ask the Competing Party for their consent to their name and the Identifying Details being provided by Nabi to Biota on a confidential basis. If consent is refused, Nabi may only withhold the Identifying Details from Biota if the Nabi Board, acting in good faith and after having taken advice from its legal advisers, determines that failing to do so would be likely to involve a breach of the fiduciary or statutory duties owed by any Nabi director. If information is withheld pursuant to this clause 11.6(a), Nabi must immediately notify Biota. Any information provided pursuant to this clause 11.6(a) will be provided subject to the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement.

- (c) If clauses 11.6(a) or 11.6(b) override the restrictions in clauses 11.4(a) or 11.4(b) (as applicable), the relevant party must not provide any confidential information to a Third Party, before the Third Party has entered into a written agreement in favour of the relevant party regarding the use and disclosure of the confidential information by the Third Party and that restricts the Third Party's ability to solicit the employees of that party and its Related Bodies Corporate (Third Party Confidentiality Agreement).
- (d) During the period of two clear Business Days referred to in clause 11.6(a) (in the event of a Competing Proposal for Biota) or clause 11.6(b) (in the event of a Competing Proposal for Nabi), the party that has not received the Competing Proposal will have the right to offer to amend the terms of the Scheme (a Counterproposal) so that the terms of the Scheme (as amended) would provide an equivalent or superior outcome for the shareholders than the applicable Competing Proposal.
- (e) The party that has received the Competing Proposal must procure its Board to consider any such Counterproposal and, if the Board determines, acting in good faith and after having taken advice from its legal and financial advisers:
 - (i) the Counterproposal is capable of being completed, taking into account all aspects of the Counterproposal, including its conditions; and
 - (ii) would, if completed substantially in accordance with its terms, be more favourable to the Biota Shareholders than the Competing Proposal viewed in aggregate, taking into account a qualitative assessment of the identity, reputation and financial standing of the party making the Competing Proposal,then Biota and Nabi must use their best endeavours to agree the amendments to the Transaction Documents that are reasonably necessary to reflect the Counterproposal (including any amendments to the Scheme Consideration that are reasonably necessary to reflect the Counterproposal), and to enter into one or more appropriate amended agreements to give effect to those amendments and to implement the Counterproposal, in each case as soon as reasonably practicable, and the party that received the Counterproposal must use its best endeavours to procure that its Board continues to recommend the Counterproposal to its shareholders and not the applicable Competing Proposal.
- (f) Any material modification to any Competing Proposal (which will include any material modification relating to the price or value of any Competing Proposal) will be taken to make that proposal a new Competing Proposal in respect of which the parties must comply with their obligations under this clause 11.6.

 - (iii) all out of pocket expenses; and
 - (iv) all commitment fees and other financing costs (whether associated with debt or equity finance);
- (d) The parties agree that clauses 12.2 and 12.3 do not limit the rights of Biota or Nabi in respect of any other claims that they may have against each other, whether under this Agreement or otherwise.

12.2 Biota Break Fee

- (a) Subject to clauses 12.2(b), 12.2(c) and 12.4(a), Biota must pay Nabi the Biota Break Fee in accordance with clause 12.5(a), without withholding or set off, if:
 - (i) the Biota Board fails to state that they consider the Scheme to be in the best interests of Biota Shareholders or fails to recommend that Biota Shareholders approve the Scheme, or publicly changes (including by attaching qualifications to) or withdraws that statement or recommendation, other than where the Independent Expert has concluded in the Independent Expert's Report that the Scheme is not in the best interests of Biota Shareholders (including any update to its report);
 - (ii) a Competing Proposal for Biota is announced or made and is publicly recommended, promoted or otherwise endorsed by the Biota Board or by a majority of the Biota Directors;
 - (iii) a Competing Proposal for Biota is announced or made prior to the End Date and is completed at any time prior to the first anniversary of the date of this Agreement and, as a result, a Third Party acquires control of Biota or the Biota Group within the meaning of section 50AA of the Corporations Act (or acquires an equivalent shareholding or economic interest in Biota pursuant to the implementation of a dual-listed company structure or reverse takeover);
 - (iv) Nabi terminates this Agreement in accordance with clause 13.1(b); or
 - (v) a Biota Material Adverse Change or a Biota Regulated Event occurs between the date of this Agreement and 8am on the Second Court Date and Nabi terminates this Agreement in accordance with its terms prior to the Implementation Date.
- (b) Despite any other term of this Agreement, the Biota Break Fee is only payable once.

- (c) Despite any other term of this Agreement, the Biota Break Fee will not be payable to Nabi if:
 - (i) the Scheme becomes Effective notwithstanding the occurrence of any event in clause 12.2(a); or
 - (ii) Biota is entitled to terminate this Agreement under clause 13.1(b), or if a Nabi Material Adverse Change Event or a Nabi Regulated Event occurs.
- (d) For the avoidance of doubt, the Biota Break Fee will not be payable merely by reason that the Scheme is not approved by Biota Shareholders at the Scheme Meeting.

12.3 Nabi Break Fee

- (a) Subject to clauses 12.3(b), 12.3(c) and 12.4(b), Nabi must pay Biota the Nabi Break Fee in accordance with clause 12.5(b), without withholding or set-off, if:
 - (i) the Nabi Board fails to state that they consider the Merger to be in the best interests of Nabi Stockholders or fails to recommend the approval of the Nabi Merger Proposals, or publicly changes (including by attaching qualifications to) or withdraws that statement or recommendation;
 - (ii) a Competing Proposal for Nabi is announced or made and is publicly recommended, promoted or otherwise endorsed by the Nabi Board or by a majority of the Nabi Directors;
 - (iii) a Competing Proposal for Nabi is announced or made prior to the End Date and is completed at any time prior to the first anniversary of the date of this Agreement and, as a result, a Third Party acquires control of Nabi or the Nabi Group within the meaning of section 405 of the 1933 Act;
 - (iv) Biota terminates this Agreement in accordance with clause 13.1(b);
 - (v) a Nabi Material Adverse Change or a Nabi Regulated Event occurs between the date of this Agreement and 8am on the Second Court Date and Biota terminates this Agreement in accordance with its terms prior to the Implementation Date; or
 - (vi) the Scheme is not completed on or before the date which is eight Business Days after the End Date due to Nabi failing to comply with its obligations under clause 6.2(o).
- (b) Despite any other term of this Agreement, the Nabi Break Fee is only payable once.
- (c) Despite any other term of this Agreement, the Nabi Break Fee will not be payable to Biota if:
 - (i) the Scheme becomes Effective notwithstanding the occurrence of any event in clause 12.3(a); or
 - (ii) Nabi is entitled to terminate this Agreement under clause 13.1(b), or if a Biota Material Adverse Change or Biota Regulated Event occurs.
- (d) For the avoidance of doubt, the Nabi Break Fee will not be payable merely by reason that the Nabi Merger Proposals are not approved by Nabi Stockholders at the Nabi Merger Approval Meeting.

12.4 Compliance with law

- (a) If a court or the Takeovers Panel determines that any part of the Biota Break Fee:
 - (i) constitutes or would, if performed, constitute:
 - (A) a breach of the fiduciary or statutory duties of the Biota Board; or
 - (B) unacceptable circumstances within the meaning of the Corporations Act; or

- (ii) is unenforceable or would, if paid, be unlawful for any reason, then Biota will not be obliged to pay such part of the Biota Break Fee and, if such fee has already been paid, then Nabi must within five Business Days after receiving written demand from Biota refund that part of the Biota Break Fee to Biota.
- (b) If a court determines that any part of the Nabi Break Fee:
 - (i) constitutes or would, if performed, constitute:
 - (A) a breach of the fiduciary or statutory duties of the Nabi Board; or
 - (B) unacceptable circumstances within the meaning of the Corporations Act; or
 - (ii) is unenforceable or would, if paid, be unlawful for any reason, then Nabi will not be obliged to pay such part of the Nabi Break Fee and, if such fee has already been paid, then Biota must within five Business Days after receiving written demand from Nabi refund that part of the Nabi Break Fee to Nabi.

12.5 Time for payment

- (a) Biota must pay Nabi the Biota Break Fee, if it is payable pursuant to clause 12.2(a), within five Business Days after receiving a written notice from Nabi setting out the relevant circumstances and requiring payment of the Biota Break Fee.
- (b) Nabi must pay Biota the Nabi Break Fee, if it is payable pursuant to clause 12.3(a), within five Business Days after receiving a written notice from Biota setting out the relevant circumstances and requiring payment of the Nabi Break Fee.
- (c) A written notice requiring payment of the Biota Break Fee or the Nabi Break Fee, as applicable, may only be made after the Scheme fails to become Effective by the End Date or this Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms.

13. Termination

13.1 Termination by either party

Either party (terminating party) may terminate this Agreement by notice to the other:

- (a) in accordance with clause 3.5;
- (b) at any time before 8am on the Second Court Date if the other party is in material breach of any clause of this Agreement (including a material breach of a representation or warranty given by the other party under clause 10), provided that the terminating party has given notice to the other party setting out the relevant circumstances and stating an intention to terminate this Agreement, and the relevant circumstances have continued to exist for 15 Business Days (or any shorter period ending at 5pm on the last Business Day before the Second Court Date) from the time such notice is given;
- (c) if mutually agreed upon by the other party; or
- (d) if the Scheme has not become Effective on or before the End Date.

13.2 Termination by Nabi

Nabi may terminate this Agreement at any time before 8am on the Second Court Date by notice in writing to Biota if the Biota Board publicly changes (including by attaching qualifications to) or withdraws its statement that it considers the Scheme to be in the best interests of Biota Shareholders or its recommendation that Biota Shareholders approve the Scheme, in either case in accordance with clause 8.1(b), or publicly recommends, promotes or otherwise endorses a Superior Proposal.

13.3 Termination by Biota

Biota may terminate this Agreement:

- (a) at any time before 8am on the Second Court Date by notice in writing to Nabi if the Nabi Board publicly changes (including by attaching qualifications to) or withdraws its statement that it considers the Merger to be in the best interests of Nabi Stockholders or its recommendation that Nabi Stockholders approve the Nabi Merger Resolutions, in either case in accordance with clause 8.2(a), or publicly recommends, promotes or otherwise endorses a Superior Proposal; or
- (b) if Nabi does not comply with its obligations under clause 6.2(o).

13.4 Effect of termination

In the event of termination of this Agreement, by either Nabi or Biota pursuant to clause 13.1, 13.2 or 13.3 this Agreement will have no further force or effect and the parties will have no further obligations under this Agreement, provided that:

- (a) this clause 13 and clauses 1, 9.3, 9.4, 12, 14 and 15 will survive termination; and
- (b) each party will retain any accrued rights and remedies, including any rights and remedies it has or may have against the other party in respect of any past breach of this Agreement.

14. GST

14.1 Recovery of GST

If GST is payable, or notionally payable, on a supply made under or in connection with this Agreement, the party providing the consideration for that supply must pay as additional consideration an amount equal to the amount of GST payable, or notionally payable, on that supply (the GST Amount). Subject to the prior receipt of a tax invoice, the GST Amount is payable at the same time that the other consideration for the supply is provided. This clause does not apply to the extent that the consideration for the supply is expressly stated to be GST inclusive or the supply is subject to reverse charge.

14.2 Liability net of GST

Where any reimbursement or similar payment under this Agreement is based on any cost, expense or other liability, it must be reduced by any input tax credit entitlement, or notional input tax credit entitlement, in relation to the relevant cost, expense or other liability.

14.3 Adjustment events

If an adjustment event occurs in relation to a supply made under or in connection with this Agreement, the GST Amount will be recalculated to reflect that adjustment and an appropriate payment will be made between the parties.

14.4 Cost exclusive of GST

Any reference in this Agreement to a cost, expense or other similar amount (Cost) is a reference to that Cost exclusive of GST.

14.5 Survival

This clause will continue to apply after expiration or termination of this Agreement.

14.6 Definitions

Unless the context requires otherwise, words and phrases used in this clause that have a specific meaning in the GST law (as defined in the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cth)) will have the same meaning in this clause.

15.2 No waiver

A failure to exercise or a delay in exercising any right, power or remedy under this Agreement does not operate as a waiver. A single or partial exercise or waiver of the exercise of any right, power or remedy does not preclude any other or further exercise of that or any other right, power or remedy. A waiver is not valid or binding on the party granting that waiver unless made in writing. For the avoidance of doubt, the doctrine of affirmation by election will not apply to any failure by a party to exercise, or delay by a party in exercising, any right, power or remedy under this Agreement.

15.3 Remedies cumulative

The rights, powers and remedies provided to each party in this Agreement are in addition to, and do not exclude or limit, any right, power or remedy provided by law or equity or by any agreement.

15.4 Entire agreement

This Agreement and the Confidentiality Agreement contain the entire agreement between the parties with respect to their subject matter. They set out the only conduct, representations, warranties, covenants, conditions, agreements or understandings (collectively Conduct) relied on by the parties and supersede all earlier Conduct by or between the parties in connection with their subject matter. Neither party has relied on or is relying on any other Conduct in entering into this Agreement and completing the Transactions. If there is any inconsistency between the provisions of this Agreement and the provisions of the Confidentiality Agreement, the provisions of this Agreement will prevail to the extent of any inconsistency and the provisions of the Confidentiality Agreement will be construed accordingly.

15.5 Amendment

This Agreement may be amended only by another agreement executed by all the parties.

15.6 Assignment

Neither party can assign, charge, encumber or otherwise deal with any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement, or attempt or purport to do so, without the prior written consent of the other party.

15.7 No merger

The rights and obligations of the parties will not merge on the completion of any transaction contemplated by this Agreement. They will survive the execution and delivery of any assignment or other document entered into for the purpose of implementing a transaction.

15.8 Further assurances

Each party must use its best endeavours (including executing agreements and documents) to give full effect to this Agreement and the Transactions.

15.9 Costs and duty

(a) Subject to clause 12, each party must bear its own costs arising out of the negotiation, preparation and execution of this Agreement. All duty (including stamp duty and any fines, penalties and interest) payable on or in connection with this Agreement and any instrument executed under or any transaction evidenced by this Agreement must be borne by the party incurring such duty.

Biota shall reimburse Nabi for its costs in connection with one issuer tender offer, comprising a Permitted Nabi Stockholder Cash Transaction (which costs will include not only the costs arising out of the issuer tender offer but also the additional operational costs incurred by Nabi due to the extension of the Implementation Date resulting from Nabi conducting such issuer tender offer) in the amount that is the lesser of:

- (i) US $400,000; and
- (ii) 50% of Nabi's costs.

15.10 Severability of provisions

Any provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction is ineffective as to that jurisdiction to the extent of the prohibition or unenforceability. That does not invalidate the remaining provisions of this Agreement nor affect the validity or enforceability of that provision in any other jurisdiction.

15.11 Governing law and jurisdiction

- (a) This Agreement is governed by the laws of Victoria, Australia; provided, however, that any matter dispute, claim or controversy arising out of or relating to the fiduciary duties of the directors of Nabi shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware, the United States of America.
- (b) Each of the parties irrevocably consents to the non-exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the state and federal courts located within Delaware, the United States of America and of Victoria, Australia, in connection with any matter based upon or arising out of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; provided, however, that any matter dispute, claim or controversy arising out of or relating to the fiduciary duties of the directors of Nabi shall be under the jurisdiction and venue of the state and federal courts located within the State of Delaware, the United States of America.
- (c) Each party agrees that process may be served upon it in any manner authorised by the laws of Delaware or Victoria, as the case may be, for such persons and waives and covenants not to assert or plead any objection which it might otherwise have to such jurisdiction and such process.
- (d) Each of the parties waives any right to trial by jury with respect to any action, suit, or proceeding in connection with any dispute, claim, or controversy arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the Merger, and any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

15.12 Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts. All counterparts together will be taken to constitute one instrument.

Merger Implementation Agreement – Amendment

The parties to this letter refer to the Merger Implement Agreement between the parties dated 22 April 2012 (the MIA).

The parties have agreed to amend the terms of the MIA as set out in this letter.

All capitalised terms in this letter have the meaning given to them in the MIA.

1. Amendment to definition of ‘Nabi Charter Amendment’

The definition of ‘Nabi Charter Amendment’ in clause 1.1 of the MIA is deleted and replaced with the following:

“Nabi Charter Amendment means the amendment to the certificate of incorporation of Nabi, reflecting: (i) the increase in the authorised number of Nabi Shares to 200 million, to allow for additional issuances, including the issuance of the New Nabi Shares; (ii) the reverse stock split whereby each eight, seven, six, five or four Nabi Shares (the final number to be determined by the Nabi Board in its sole discretion) would be consolidated into one Nabi Share at any time prior to December 31, 2012; (iii) the change in the name of Nabi to Biota Pharmaceuticals, Inc.; provided that the amendment relating to (iii) will be filed with the State of Delaware and become effective immediately after the Implementation Date.”

2. Amendment to clause 3.1(f) (Nabi Stockholder approval)

Clause 3.1(f) (Nabi Stockholder approval) of the MIA is deleted and replaced with the following:

“(Nabi Stockholder approval) the Nabi Charter Amendment Proposal (with or without the proposal relating to the amendment of the certificate of incorporation of Nabi regarding the reverse stock split, whereby each eight, seven, six, five or four Nabi Shares (the final number to be determined by the Nabi Board in its sole discretion) would be consolidated into one Nabi Share at any time prior to December 31, 2012) and the Nabi Share Issue Proposal are approved by the requisite majorities of Nabi Stockholders in accordance with the Delaware Law; for the avoidance of doubt, approval by Nabi Stockholders of the Nabi Charter Amendment Proposal regarding the reverse stock split shall not be a Condition Precedent for purposes of this clause 3.1;”

3. Amendment to clause 4.2(a)

Clause 4.2(a) of the MIA is deleted and replaced with the following:

“(a) Subject to the Scheme becoming Effective and clauses 4.2(b), 4.2(c) and 4.3, Nabi agrees in favour of Biota that, in consideration of the transfer to Nabi of each Scheme Share under the Scheme, Nabi accepts such transfer, and provides to each Scheme Shareholder 0.669212231 New Nabi Shares for each Scheme Share held by them; provided, however, that if:

Table of Contents

- (i) Nabi completes an issuer tender offer that is a Permissible Nabi Stockholder Cash Transaction, then the number of New Nabi Shares for each Scheme Share shall be a number determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$0.669212231 \times \frac{N_N - N_{TO}}{N_N}$$

Where:

N_N is the number of Nabi Shares outstanding as at the date of this Agreement (42,877,581) plus 1,277,386 (being one-third of the number of Nabi stock options on issue as at the date of this Agreement).

N_{TO} is the number of Nabi Shares acquired by Nabi in the issuer tender offer; and

- (ii) Nabi completes a reverse stock split prior to the Implementation Date, then the number of New Nabi Shares for each Scheme Share (adjusted in accordance with clause 4.2(a)(i) if applicable) shall be a number determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$NNS \times \frac{N_N - N_{SC}}{N_N}$$

Where:

NNS is 0.669212231 (adjusted in accordance with clause 4.2(a)(i) if applicable).

N_N is the number of Nabi Shares outstanding immediately prior to the reverse stock split.

N_{SC} is the reduction in the number of Nabi Shares outstanding as a result of the reverse stock split.

It is noted that the purpose of the above formulae is to preserve the respective percentage of shares of Nabi's issued stock to be held immediately after the Implementation Date by Scheme Shareholders (collectively) on one hand (being 73.9603%) and Nabi Stockholders immediately prior to the Implementation Date (collectively) on the other hand (being 26.0397%) (subject in each case to rounding) following the issuer tender offer or the reverse stock split, as applicable /."

4. Deed

Biota and Nabi agree that this letter constitutes a deed and may be executed in any number of counterparts. All counterparts together will be taken to constitute one instrument.

5. Governing law

Clause 15.11 (Governing law and jurisdiction) of the MIA applies to this letter.

Biota Holdings Limited
Accounting policies and notes to the financial statements
30 June

1 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The principal accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated. The financial statements are for the consolidated entity consisting of Biota Holdings Limited and its subsidiaries.

(a) Basis of preparation

This general purpose financial report has been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and other authoritative pronouncements of the Australian Accounting Standards Board including Urgent Issues Group Interpretations.

The financial statements were authorised by the Directors on 16 May 2012.

Compliance with IFRS

The consolidated financial statements and notes of Biota Holdings Limited also comply with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as issued by International Accounting Standards Board.

Historical cost convention

These financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, as modified by the revaluation of financial assets and liabilities (including derivative instruments) at fair value through profit or loss.

Critical accounting estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Australian Accounting Standards requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgement in the process of applying the Group's accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgement or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the financial statements are disclosed in note 3.

(b) Principles of consolidation

(i) Subsidiaries

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the assets and liabilities of all subsidiaries of Biota Holdings Limited ("Company" or "parent entity") as at 30 June 2011 and the results of all subsidiaries for the full year then ended. Biota Holdings Limited and its subsidiaries together are referred to in this financial report as the Group or the consolidated entity.

Subsidiaries are all those entities (including special purpose entities) over which the Group has the power to govern the financial and operating policies, generally accompanying a shareholding of more than one-half of the voting rights. The existence and effect of potential voting rights that are currently exercisable or convertible are considered when assessing whether the Group controls another entity.

Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are de-consolidated from the date that control ceases.

The purchase method of accounting is used to account for the acquisition of subsidiaries by the Group (refer to note 1(i)).

Intercompany transactions, balances and unrealised gains or transactions between Group companies are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of the impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

Non controlling interests in the results and equity of subsidiaries are shown separately in the statement of comprehensive income and balance sheet respectively.

Investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost, less any impairment, in the individual financial statements of Biota Holdings Limited.

(ii) Employee Share Trust

The Group has a trust to administer a part of the Group's employee share scheme. This trust is consolidated, as the substance of the relationship is that the trust is controlled by the Group.

Shares held by the Biota Holdings Employee Share Trust are disclosed as treasury shares and deducted from contributed capital.

(c) Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the Strategic Steering Committee which is the chief operating decision maker.

A business segment is identified for a group of assets and operations engaged in providing products or services that are subject to risks and returns that are different to those of other business segments. A geographical segment is identified when products or services are provided within a particular economic environment subject to risks and returns that are different from those segments operating in other economic environments.

(d) Foreign currency translation

(i) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates ("the functional currency"). The consolidated financial statements are presented in Australian dollars, which is Biota Holdings Limited's functional and presentation currency.

(ii) Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation at year end exchange rates of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are recognised in the income statement, except when they are deferred in equity as qualifying cash flow hedges and qualifying net investment hedges or are attributable to part of the net investment in a foreign operation.

(iii) Group companies

The results and financial position of all the Group entities (none of which has the currency of a hyperinflationary economy) that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

- Assets and liabilities for each balance sheet presented are translated at the closing rate at the date of that balance sheet;

Table of Contents

- Income and expenses for each income statement are translated at average exchange rates (unless this is not a reasonable approximation of the cumulative effect of the rates prevailing on the transaction dates; in which case income and expenses are translated at the dates of the transactions); and
- All resulting exchange differences are recognised as a separate component of other comprehensive income.

On consolidation, exchange differences arising from the translation of any net investment in foreign entities, and borrowings and other financial instruments designated as hedges of such investments, are taken to shareholders' equity. When a foreign operation is sold or any borrowings forming part of the net investment are repaid, a proportionate share of such exchange differences are recognised in the income statement, as part of the gain or loss on sale where applicable.

Goodwill and fair value adjustments arising on the acquisition of a foreign entity are treated as assets and liabilities of the foreign entity and translated at the closing rate.

(e) Revenue recognition

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable. Amounts disclosed as revenue are net of returns, trade allowances, rebates and amounts collected on behalf of third parties.

The Group recognises revenue when the amount of revenue can be reliably measured, it is probable that future economic benefits will flow to the entity and specific criteria have been met for each of the Group's activities as described below. The amount of revenue is not considered to be reliably measurable until all contingencies relating to the sale have been resolved. The Group bases its estimates on historical results, taking into consideration the type of customer, the type of transaction and the specifics of each arrangement.

Revenue is recognised for the major business activities as follows:

(i) Royalties and profit share

Royalty and profit share income is recognised upon sales of the underlying product by external parties.

(ii) Research and development revenue

Research and development revenue is recognised on the following basis:

- (a) On achieving "milestones" relating to the project;
- (b) Proportionally over the term of the project; or
- (c) When a re-imbusement is expected to align with related expenditure.

In 2011, Development revenue relates solely to the BARDA contract, which is recognised in accordance with (c) above.

(iii) Partnering revenue

Partnering income is recognised in accordance with the underlying agreement. Upfront and milestone payments are brought to account as revenue unless there is a correlation to ongoing research and both components are viewed as one (1) agreement, in which case the partnering revenue is amortised over the anticipated period of the associated research program. Unamortised partnering revenue is recognised on the balance sheet as Deferred Revenue.

(iv) Grants

Grants received from non-governmental organisations are recognised as income in the same period as the related services are performed.

(v) Interest

Interest income is recognised on a time proportion basis using the effective interest rate method.

(f) Government grants

Government grants are recognised at their fair value where there is a reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the Group will comply with all attached conditions.

Government grants relating to costs are deferred and recognised in the income statement over the period necessary to match them with the costs that they are intended to compensate.

Government grants relating to the purchase of property, plant and equipment are included in non-current liabilities as deferred income and are credited to the income statement on a straight line basis over the expected lives of the related assets.

(g) Income tax

The income tax expense or revenue for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate for each jurisdiction adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses.

Deferred income tax is provided in full, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. However, deferred income tax is not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction, affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the reporting date and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for deductible temporary differences and unused tax losses only if it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred tax liabilities are not recognised for temporary differences between the carrying amount and tax bases of investments in controlled entities where the parent entity is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that the differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Current and deferred tax balances attributable to amounts recognised directly in equity are also recognised directly in equity.

Tax consolidation legislation

Biota Holdings Limited and its wholly-owned Australian controlled entities have implemented the tax consolidation legislation.

The head entity, Biota Holdings Limited, and the controlled entities in the tax consolidated group account for their own current and deferred tax amounts. These tax amounts are measured as if each entity in the tax consolidated group continues to be a stand alone taxpayer in its own right.

In addition to its own current and deferred tax amounts, Biota Holdings Limited also recognises the current tax liabilities (or assets) and the deferred tax assets arising from unused tax losses and unused tax credits assumed from controlled entities in the tax consolidated group.

Assets or liabilities arising under tax funding agreements with the tax consolidated entities are recognised as amounts receivable from or payable to other entities in the Group.

Any difference between the amounts assumed and amounts receivable or payable under the tax funding agreement are recognised as a contribution to (or distribution from) wholly-owned tax consolidated entities.

(h) Leases

Leases of property, plant and equipment, where the Group as lessee has substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership are classified as finance leases. Finance leases are capitalised at the lease's inception at the fair value of the leased property or, if lower, the present value of the minimum lease payments. The corresponding rental obligations, net of finance charges, are included in other short-term and long-term payables. Each lease payment is allocated between the liability and finance cost. The finance cost is charged to the income statement over the lease period so as to produce a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability for each period. The property, plant and equipment acquired under finance leases are depreciated over the shorter of the asset's useful life and the lease term if there is no reasonable certainty that the Group will obtain ownership at the end of the lease term.

Leases in which a significant portion of the risks and rewards of ownership are retained by the lessor are classified as operating leases. Payments made under operating leases (net of any incentives received from the lessor) are charged to the income statement on a straight-line basis over the period of the lease.

(i) Business combinations

The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for all business combinations, including business combinations involving entities or businesses under common control, regardless of whether equity instruments or other assets are acquired. The consideration transferred for the acquisition of a subsidiary comprises the fair values of the assets transferred, the liabilities incurred and the equity interests issued by the Group. The consideration transferred also includes the fair value of any contingent consideration arrangement and the fair value of any pre-existing equity interest in the subsidiary. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred. Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are, with limited exceptions, measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date. On an acquisition by acquisition basis, the Group recognises any non-controlling interest in the acquiree either at fair value or at the non-controlling interest's proportionate share of the acquiree's net identifiable assets.

The excess of the consideration transferred the amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree and the acquisition-date fair value of any previous equity interest in the acquiree over the fair value of the Group's share of the net identifiable assets acquired is recorded as goodwill. If those amounts are less than the fair value of the net identifiable assets of the subsidiary acquired and the measurement of all amounts has been reviewed, the difference is recognised directly in profit or loss as a bargain purchase.

Where settlement of any part of cash consideration is deferred, the amounts payable in the future are discounted to their present value as at the date of exchange. The discount rate used is the entity's incremental borrowing rate, being the rate at which a similar borrowing could be obtained from an independent financier under comparable terms and conditions.

Contingent consideration is classified either as equity or a financial liability. Amounts classified as a financial liability are subsequently remeasured to fair value with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss.

(j) Impairment of assets

Goodwill and intangible assets that have an indefinite useful life are not subject to amortisation and are tested annually for impairment or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that they might be impaired. Other assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs to sell and value in use. For the purpose of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash flows which are largely independent of the cash inflows from the other assets or groups of assets (cash-generating units).

Non-financial assets other than goodwill that suffered an impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at each reporting date.

(k) Cash and cash equivalents

For cash flow statement presentation purposes, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, deposits held at call with financial institutions, other short-term, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three (3) months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, and bank overdrafts. Bank overdrafts are shown in current liabilities on the balance sheet.

(l) Trade receivables

Trade receivables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less provision for impairment. Trade receivables are generally due for settlement within thirty (30) days.

Collectability of trade receivables is reviewed on an ongoing basis. The carrying amount of the asset is reduced through the use of an allowance account and the amount of the loss is recognised in the income statement within 'other expenses'. When a trade receivable is uncollectible, it is written off against the allowance account for trade receivables. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited against other expenses in the income statement. An allowance for impairment of trade receivables is established when there is objective evidence that the Group will not be able to collect all amounts due according to the original terms of receivables. Significant financial difficulties of the debtor, probability that the debtor will enter bankruptcy or financial reorganisation, and default or delinquency in payments (more than 30 days overdue) are considered indicators that the trade receivable is impaired.

(m) Investments and other financial assets

Classification

The Group classifies its investments in the following categories: financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, loans and receivables, held-to-maturity investments, and available-for-sale financial assets. The classification depends on the purpose for which the investments were acquired. Management determines the classification of its investments at initial recognition and, in the case of assets classified as held-to-maturity, re-evaluates this designation at each reporting date.

(i) Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are financial assets held for trading. A financial asset is classified in this category if acquired principally for the purpose of selling in the short term. Derivatives are classified as held for trading unless they are designated as hedges. Assets in this category are classified as current assets.

(ii) Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables are non derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. They are included in current assets, except for those with maturities greater than twelve (12) months after the reporting date which are classified as non-current assets. Loans and receivables are included in receivables in the balance sheet.

(iii) Held-to-maturity investments

Held-to-maturity investments are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments and fixed maturities that the Group's management has the positive intention and ability to hold to maturity. If the Group were to sell other than an insignificant amount of held-to-maturity financial assets, the whole category would be tainted and reclassified as available-for-sale. Held-to-maturity financial assets are included in non-current assets, except for those with maturities less than twelve (12) months from the reporting date, which are classified as current assets.

(iv) Available-for-sale financial assets

Available-for-sale financial assets, comprising principally marketable equity securities, are non-derivatives that are either designated in this category or not classified in any of the other categories. They are included in non-current assets unless management intends to dispose of the investment within twelve (12) months of the reporting date. Investments are designated as available-for-sale if they do not have fixed maturities and fixed or determinable payments and management intends to hold them for the medium to long term.

Financial assets – reclassification

The Group may choose to reclassify a non-derivative trading financial asset out of the held-for-trading category if the financial asset is no longer held for the purpose of selling it in the near term. Financial assets other than loans and receivables are permitted to be reclassified out of the held-for-trading category only in rare circumstances arising from a single event that is unusual and highly unlikely to recur in the near term. In addition, the Group may choose to reclassify financial assets that would meet the definition of loans and receivables out of the held-for-trading or available-for-sale categories if the Group has the intention and ability to hold these financial assets for the foreseeable future or until maturity at the date of reclassification.

Reclassifications are made at fair value as of the reclassification date. Fair value becomes the new cost or amortised cost as applicable, and no reversals of fair value gains or losses recorded before reclassification date are subsequently made. Effective interest rates for financial assets reclassified to loans and receivables and held-to-maturity categories are determined at the reclassification date. Further increases in estimates of cash flows adjust effective interest rates prospectively.

Recognition and derecognition

Regular purchase and sales of financial assets are recognised on trade-date – the date on which the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Investments are initially recognised at fair value plus transaction costs for all financial assets not carried at fair value through profit or loss. Financial assets carried at fair value through profit or loss are initially recognised at fair value and transaction costs are expensed in the income statement. Financial assets are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the financial assets have expired or have been transferred and the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership.

When securities classified as available-for-sale are sold, the accumulated fair value adjustments recognised in other comprehensive income are included in the income statement as gains and losses from investment securities.

Subsequent measurement

Loans and receivables and held-to-maturity investments are carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

Available-for-sale financial assets and financial assets at fair value through profit and loss are subsequently carried at fair value. Gains or losses arising from changes in the fair value of the 'financial assets at fair value through profit or loss' category are presented in the income statement within other income or other expenses in the period in which they arise. Dividend income from financial assets at fair value through profit and loss is recognised in the income statement as part of revenue from continuing operations when the Group's right to receive payments is established.

Changes in the fair value of monetary securities denominated in a foreign currency and classified as available-for-sale are analysed between translation differences resulting from changes in amortised cost of the security and other changes in the carrying amount of the security. The translation differences are recognised in profit or loss and other changes in carrying amount are recognised in other comprehensive income. Changes in the fair value of other monetary and non-monetary securities classified as available-for-sale are recognised in other comprehensive income.

Fair value

The fair values of quoted investments are based on current bid prices. If the market for a financial asset is not active (and for unlisted securities), the Group establishes fair value by using valuation techniques. These include the use of recent arm's length transactions, reference to other instruments that are substantially the same, discounted cash flow analysis, and option pricing models making maximum use of market inputs and relying as little as possible on entity-specific inputs.

Impairment

The Group assesses at each reporting date whether there is objective evidence that a financial asset or group of financial assets is impaired. In the case of equity securities classified as available-for-sale, a significant or prolonged decline in the fair value of a security below its cost is considered in determining whether the security is impaired. If any such evidence exists for available-for-sale financial assets, the cumulative loss, measured as the difference between the acquisition cost and the current fair value, less any impairment loss on that financial asset previously recognised in profit or loss, is removed from equity and recognised in the income statement. Impairment losses recognised in the income statement on equity instruments classified as available-for-sale are not reversed through the income statement.

If there is evidence of impairment for any of the Group's financial assets carried at amortised cost, the loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows, excluding future credit losses that have not been incurred. The cash flows are discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate. The loss is recognised in the income statement.

(n) Derivatives and hedging activities

Derivatives are initially recognised at fair value on the date a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently remeasured to their fair value at each reporting date. The accounting for subsequent changes in fair value depends on whether the derivative is designated as a hedging instrument, and if so the nature of the item being hedged. The Group designates certain derivatives as either:

- Hedges of the fair value of recognised assets or liabilities or a firm commitment (fair value hedge);
- Hedges of the cash flows of recognised assets and liabilities and highly probable forecast transactions (cash flow hedges); or
- Hedges of a net investment in a foreign operation (net investment hedges).

Table of Contents

The Group documents at the inception of the hedging transaction the relationship between hedging instruments and hedged items, as well as its risk management objective and strategy for undertaking various hedge transactions. The Group also documents its assessment, both at hedge inception and on an ongoing basis, of whether the derivatives that are used in hedging transactions have been and will continue to be highly effective in offsetting changes in fair values or cash flows of hedged items.

(i) Fair value hedge

Changes in the fair value of derivatives that are designated and qualify as fair value hedges are recorded in the income statement, together with any changes in the fair value of the hedged asset or liability that are attributable to the hedged risk. The gain or loss relating to the effective portion of interest rate swaps hedging fixed rate borrowings is recognised in the income statement with finance costs, together with changes in the fair value of the hedged fixed rate borrowings attributable to interest rate risk. The gain or loss relating to the ineffective portion is recognised in the income statement within other income or other expenses.

If the hedge no longer meets the criteria for hedge accounting, the adjustment to the carrying amount of a hedge item for which the effective interest method is used is amortised to profit or loss over the period to maturity using a recalculated effective interest rate.

(ii) Cash flow hedge

The effective portion of changes in the fair value of derivatives that are designated and qualify as cash flow hedges is recognised in other comprehensive income and in the hedging reserve. The gain or loss relating to the ineffective portion is recognised immediately in the income statement within other income or other expense.

Amounts accumulated in reserves are recycled in the income statement in the periods when the hedged item affects profit or loss (for instance when the forecast sale that is hedged takes place). The gain or loss relating to the effective portion of interest rate swaps hedging variable rate borrowings is recognised in the income statement within 'finance costs'. The gain or loss relating to the effective portion of forward foreign exchange contracts hedging export income is recognised in the income statement within 'income'. However, when the forecast transaction that is hedged results in the recognition of a non-financial asset (for example, inventory or fixed assets) the gains and losses previously deferred in equity are transferred from equity and included in the initial measurement of the cost of the asset. The deferred amounts are ultimately recognised in profit or loss as cost of goods sold in the case of inventory, or as depreciation in the case of fixed assets.

When a hedging instrument expires or is sold or terminated, or when a hedge no longer meets the criteria for hedge accounting, any cumulative gain or loss existing in equity at that time remains in equity and is recognised when the forecast transaction is ultimately recognised in the income statement. When a forecast transaction is no longer expected to occur, the cumulative gain or loss that was reported in equity is immediately transferred to the income statement.

(iii) Net investment hedges

Hedges of net investments in foreign operations are accounted for similarly to cash flow hedges.

Any gain or loss on the hedging instrument relation to the effective portion of the hedge is recognised in other comprehensive income. The gain or loss relating to the ineffective portion is recognised immediately in the income statement within other income or other expenses.

Gains and losses accumulated in equity are included in the income statement when the foreign operation is partially disposed of or sold.

(iv) Derivatives that do not qualify for hedge accounting

Certain derivative instruments do not qualify for hedge accounting. Changes in the fair value of any derivative instrument that does not qualify for hedge accounting are recognised immediately in the income statement and are included in other income or other expenses.

(o) Property, plant and equipment

Plant and equipment is stated at historical cost less depreciation. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items. Cost may also include transfers from equity of any gains/losses on qualifying cash flow hedges of foreign currency purchases of property, plant and equipment.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to the income statement during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

Depreciation on assets is calculated using the straight line method to allocate their cost, net of their residual values, over their estimated useful lives or, in the case of leasehold improvements, the shorter lease term as follows:

- Leasehold improvements 8 - 10 years
- Plant and equipment 3 - 8 years

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at each reporting date.

An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount (see note 1(j)).

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing proceeds with carrying amount. These are included in the income statement. When re-valued assets are sold, it is Group policy to transfer the amounts included in other reserves in respect of those assets to retained earnings.

(p) Intangible assets

Royalty prepayments represent expenditure to CSIRO and the former Victorian College of Pharmacy where the parties agreed to exchange variable royalty payments in relation to intellectual property, for a fixed upfront payment and a fixed contingent success payment. They have a finite useful life, usually being the period to the patent or contract expiry and are carried at the present value of costs at acquisition date less accumulated amortisation. Amortisation is based on the anticipated sales of the related product over the contract or product life.

(ii) Computer software

Costs incurred in acquiring software and licenses that will contribute to future period financial benefits are capitalised to computer software. Amortisation is calculated on a straight-line basis over periods ranging from one (1) to three (3) years.

Table of Contents

(iii) Research and development

Expenditure on research activities, undertaken with the prospect of obtaining new scientific or technical knowledge and understanding, is recognised in the income statement as an expense when it is incurred. Expenditure on development activities, being the application of research findings or other knowledge to a plan or design for the production of new or substantially improved products or services before the start of commercial production or use, is capitalised if the product or service is technically and commercially feasible and adequate resources are available to complete development and it is probable that the project will generate future economic benefit.

The expenditure capitalised comprises all directly attributable costs that can be measured reliably, including costs of materials, services, direct labour and an appropriate proportion of overheads. Other development expenditures that do not meet these criteria are recognised as an expense as incurred.

Capitalised development costs are recorded as intangible assets and amortised when the asset is ready for use, on a straight-line basis over its useful life.

(iv) Intellectual property

Intellectual property represents expenditure in acquiring new research programs. They have a finite useful life, usually being the period to the patent expiry or the next assessment of go/no-go decision point on the acquired programs.

(q) Trade and other payables

These amounts represent liabilities for goods and services provided to the Group prior to the end of the financial year and which are unpaid. The amounts are unsecured and are usually paid within thirty (30) days of recognition.

(r) Provisions

Provisions including those relating to contingent consideration for the acquisition of assets are recognised when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events; it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation and the amount has been reliably estimated. Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses.

Where there are a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. A provision is recognised even if the likelihood of an outflow with respect to any one (1) item included in the same class of obligations may be small.

Provisions are measured at the present value of management's best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the obligation. The discount rate used to determine the present value reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. The increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

(s) Employee benefits

(i) Wages and salaries, annual leave and personal leave

Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits, annual leave and accumulating personal leave expected to be settled within twelve (12) months of the reporting date are recognised in other payables in respect of employees' services up to the reporting date and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled.

(ii) Long service leave

The liability for long service leave is recognised in the provision for employee benefits and measured as the present value of expected future payments to be made in respect of services provided by employees up to the reporting date using the projected unit credit method. Consideration is given to expected future wage and salary levels, experience of employee departures and periods of service. Expected future payments are discounted using market yields at the reporting date on national government bonds with terms to maturity and currency that match, as closely as possible, the estimated future cash flows.

(iii) Retirement benefit obligations

All employees of the Group are entitled to benefits from the Group's superannuation plan on retirement, disability or death. All employees are party to a defined contribution scheme and receive fixed contributions from Group companies and the Group's legal or constructive obligation is limited to these contributions. These contributions are expensed as incurred.

(iv) Share-based payments

Share-based compensation benefits are provided to employees via the Biota Employee Option Plan. Information relating to these schemes is set out in note 23.

The fair value of options allocated under the Biota Employee Option Plan is recognised as an employee benefit expense with a corresponding increase in equity. The fair value is measured at allocation date and recognised over the period during which the employees become unconditionally entitled to the options. Where appropriate, the fair value at allocation date is independently determined using the Monte Carlo option pricing model that takes into account the exercise price, the term of the option, the impact of dilution, the share price at allocation date and expected price volatility of the underlying share, the expected dividend yield and the risk free interest rate for the term of the option.

The fair value of the options allocated excludes the impact of any non-market vesting conditions (for example, profitability and sales growth targets). Non-market vesting conditions are included in assumptions about the number of options that are expected to become exercisable. At each reporting date, the entity revises its estimate of the number of options that are expected to become exercisable. The employee benefit expense recognised each period takes into account the most recent estimate. The impact of the revision to original estimates, if any, is recognised in the income statement with a corresponding adjustment to equity.

Upon the exercise of options, the balance of the share-based payments reserve relating to those options is transferred to share capital and the proceeds received, net of any directly attributable transaction costs, are credited to share capital.

The market value of shares issued to employees for no separate cash consideration under the employee share scheme is recognised as an employee benefits expense with a corresponding increase in equity over the period between grant and when the employees become entitled to the shares.

(v) Deferred cash bonus

Deferred cash bonus rights are provided to the Chief Executive Officer. The Company makes progressive provision for rights likely to vest. When rights vest the income statement will have reflected the full value of the rights over the vesting period.

(vi) Profit-sharing and bonus plans

The Group recognises a liability and an expense for bonuses and profit-sharing based on a formula that takes into consideration the profit attributable to the Company's shareholders after certain adjustments. The Group recognises a provision where contractually obliged or where there is a past practice that has created a constructive obligation.

(vii) Termination benefits

Termination benefits are payable when employment is terminated before the normal retirement date, or when an employee accepts voluntary redundancy in exchange for these benefits. The Group recognises termination benefits when it is demonstrably committed to either terminating the employment of current employees according to a detailed formal plan without possibility of withdrawal or providing termination benefits as a result of an offer made to encourage voluntary redundancy. Benefits falling due more than twelve (12) months after reporting date are discounted to present value.

(t) Contributed equity

Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or options are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or options for the acquisition of a business are not included in the cost of the acquisition as part of the purchase consideration but rather considered a cost attributable to raising equity.

If the Company reacquires its own entity instruments, for example as a result of a share buy-back, those instruments are deducted from equity and the associated shares are cancelled. No gains or loss is recognised in the profit or loss and the consideration paid including any directly attributable incremental costs (net of income taxes) is recognised directly in equity.

(u) Dividends

Provision is made for the amount of any dividend declared, being appropriately authorised and no longer at the discretion of the entity, on or before the end of the financial year but not distributed at balance date.

(v) Earnings per share

(i) Basic earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing:

- The result attributable to equity holders of the Company, excluding any costs of servicing equity other than ordinary shares; and
- By the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the financial year, adjusted for bonus elements in ordinary shares issued during the financial year and excluding treasury shares.

(ii) Diluted earnings per share

Diluted earnings per share adjusts the figures used in the determination of basic earnings per share to take into account:

- The after income tax effect of interest and other financing costs associated with dilutive potential ordinary shares; and
- The weighted average number of additional ordinary shares that would have been outstanding assuming the conversion of all potential ordinary shares.

(w) Financial guarantee contracts

Financial guarantee contracts are recognised as a financial liability at the time the guarantee is issued. The liability is initially measured at fair value and subsequently at the higher of the amount determined in accordance with AASB 137 Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets and the amount initially recognised less cumulative amortisation, where appropriate.

(x) Goods and services tax (GST)

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of associated GST, unless the GST incurred is not recoverable from the taxation authority. In this case it is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of the expense.

Receivables and payables are stated inclusive of the amount of GST receivable or payable. The net amount of GST recoverable from, or payable to the taxation authority is included with other receivables or payables in the balance sheet.

Cash flows are presented on a gross basis. The GST components of cash flows arising from investing or financing activities which are recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority, are presented as operating cash flow.

(y) Rounding of amounts

The Company is of a kind referred to in Class order 98/100, issued by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission, relating to the “rounding off” of amounts in the financial report. Amounts in the financial report have been rounded off in accordance with that Class Order to the nearest thousand dollars, or in certain cases, the nearest dollar.

(z) New accounting standards and interpretations

Certain new accounting standards and interpretations have been published that are not mandatory for 30 June 2011 reporting periods. The Group has assessed the impact of these standards and interpretations and note that they will have no significant impact on the Group’s financial statements or disclosures.

2 FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The Group’s activities expose it to a variety of financial risks; market risk (including currency risk and interest rate risk), credit risk and liquidity risk. The Group’s overall risk management program focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the financial performance of the Group. The Group uses derivative financial instruments such as foreign exchange contracts and interest rate instruments to minimise certain risk exposures. The Group uses different methods to measure different types of risk to which it is exposed. These methods include sensitivity analysis in the case of interest rate, foreign exchange and other price risks, and ageing analysis for credit risk.

Risk management is carried out by the Treasury Management Committee under policies approved by the Audit and Risk Committee and as delegated by the Board of Directors. The Treasury Management Committee identifies, evaluates and hedges identifiable financial risks. The Audit and Risk Committee approves written principles for overall risk management, as well as policies covering specific areas, such as mitigating foreign exchange, interest rate and credit risks, use of derivative financial instruments and investing excess liquidity.

	2011 A$'000	2010 A$'000	2009 A$'000
Financial assets
Cash and cash equivalents	70,011	104,867	86,704
Trade and other receivables	4,060	2,072	8,067
	74,071	106,939	94,771
Financial liabilities
Trade and other payables	4,090	9,427	5,631
	4,090	9,427	5,631

Major risks and the mitigation processes are outlined below:

(a) Market risk

(i) Foreign exchange risk

The Group operates internationally and are exposed to foreign exchange risk arising from various currency exposures, principally to the US dollar and UK sterling.

Foreign exchange risk arises from future commercial transactions and recognised assets and liabilities that are denominated in a currency that is not the entity's functional currency. The risk is measured using sensitivity analysis and cash flow forecasting. Forward contracts and foreign cash deposits are used to manage foreign exchange risk.

The Treasury Management Committee is responsible for managing exposures in each foreign currency. The Group's risk management policy is to substantially hedge anticipated transactions when net exposures are reasonably certain to occur.

	USD	GBP	USD	GBP	USD	GBP
Cash	37,979	4,527	467	39,413	950,155	—
Trade receivables	609,150	813,805	Nil	Nil	Nil	Nil

Sensitivity

Based on the financial instruments held at 30 June 2011 the profit after tax impacts for change in the Group's foreign exchange exposure would be:

Exchange rates	30 June 2011		30 June 2010		30 June 2009
	USD	GBP	USD	GBP	USD	GBP
+/- 10 percent	A$50,332	A$63,647	A$42	A$5,410	A$130,111	A$—

(ii) Cash flow and fair value interest rate risk

The Group's interest rate risk arises from investment of available funds in capital guaranteed instruments consistent with the Treasury Management Committee directives. The Group manages its cash flow interest rate risk by using floating and fixed interest rate instruments.

Sensitivity

	2011 A$'000	2010 A$'000	2009 A$'000
Interest rates
+/- 50 basis points	232	209	196
+/- 100 basis points	464	418	395

(b) Credit risk

The Group has significant concentrations of credit risk. The very nature of Biota's business makes it dependent on a few large pharmaceutical companies, from which it will receive income. The Group has policies in place to ensure that sales of services are made to customers with an appropriate credit history and exposures are restricted through regular invoicing and cash collection. Derivative counterparties and cash transactions are limited to high credit quality financial institutions with a long term credit rating greater than A-1+ or covered by an Australian Federal Government Guarantee. The Group has policies that limit the amount of credit exposure to any one (1) financial institution and in the last financial year ensured that a significant portion of cash balances were maintained in accounts covered by an Australian Federal Government Guarantee. The following table sets out the cash deposits summary, and an analysis of trade receivables by customer type.

Cash at bank and short-term bank deposits
AA/A-1+	57,011	98,867	78,704
A/A-1+	13,000	3,000	5,000
BBB+/A-2 (government guaranteed)	—	3,000	3,000
	70,011	104,867	86,704
Trade receivables
New customers (less than 6 months)	613	—	—
Existing customers (more than 6 months) with no defaults in the past	1,970	907	7,583
Total trade receivables	2,583	907	7,583

During the year cash at bank and short term bank deposits were placed with institutions whereby approximately 20% of cash holdings were secured by the Australian Federal Government Guarantee.

(c) Liquidity risk

Prudent liquidity risk management implies maintaining sufficient cash and marketable securities. The Treasury Management Committee maintains appropriate cash forecasts to ensure sufficient liquid funds to meet reasonable short term operational needs. All financial assets and liabilities are available at call or are due for settlement within the next 30 days.

(d) Fair value estimation

The fair value of financial assets and financial liabilities must be estimated for recognition and measurement or for disclosure purposes.

As of 1 July 2009, Biota Holdings Limited has adopted the amendment to AASB 7 Financial Instruments: Disclosures which requires disclosure of fair value measurements by level of the following fair value measurement hierarchy:

- (a) quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1);

- (b) inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (as prices) or indirectly (derived from prices) (level 2); and
- (c) inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs) (level 3).

At 30 June 2011 no assets were held at fair value therefore no disclosure is required.

3 CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS

Estimates and judgements are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that may have a financial impact on the entity and that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

(a) Critical accounting estimates and assumptions

The Group makes estimates and assumptions concerning the future. The resulting accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equal the related actual results. The estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are discussed below.

(i) Carrying value of intangible assets

In accordance with accounting policies note 1(p), the Group predominantly expenses all research costs. The nature of the pharmaceutical industry in regard to drug development and subsequent licensing often means that when a program is licensed there are significant upfront payments with the potential of significant milestone and royalty entitlements. The recoverability of internally generated intellectual property carrying values in the balance sheet does not take account of potential licensing or sale transactions, as these cash flows cannot be estimated with sufficient reliability nor can the probability of their occurrence.

The carrying values of intangible assets are supported by anticipated future revenues or benefits arising from the underlying intangible assets. Intangible assets capitalised have traditionally been purchased from third parties.

The identification of useful lives of these intangibles also requires judgement. The amortisation of acquired intellectual property is over the period of economic benefit to the Group, which has been estimated based on the next Go/No-go decision point for the relevant project.

The amortisation of the Royalty Prepayment is based on current year sales as a proportion of the total anticipated future sales.

(ii) Carrying value of property, plant and equipment

The assets in question represent scientific equipment and facilities used by Biota in the pursuit of their research activities. For accounting purposes these assets are property plant and equipment and subject to the impairment test as described in accounting note 1(j). AASB 136 Impairment of Assets defines the recoverable amount of an asset or group of assets as the higher of its fair value less costs to sell or value in use. Value in use is calculated using the present value of associated future cash flows. There are inherent issues about assessing the recoverability of Biota's assets because:

- (a) Biota is engaged in research activities and therefore future cash flows directly related to the current projects are difficult to predict; and
- (b) There is not an active secondary market for such assets and therefore their individual sales/fair value is limited and probably below carrying amount.

Table of Contents

The nature of Biota's activities is such that the assets are classified as corporate assets as defined in AASB 136, being those assets which do not generate cash flows independently of other assets. AASB 136 requires that corporate assets be allocated to other groups of assets and tested for impairment on that basis. Where a reasonable allocation cannot be made to asset groups the standard permits corporate assets to be tested for impairment against entity wide value. Applying this principle our view is that their recoverable amount can therefore be determined as the higher of entity wide cash flows or in this case, Biota's market value.

(iii) Income tax

The Group is subject to income taxes in Australia and jurisdictions where it has, or has had, foreign operations. The Group estimates its tax liabilities based on the understanding of the tax laws and advice from tax experts. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recorded, such differences will impact the current and deferred income tax assets and liabilities in the period such determinations are made. Key matters that may affect income tax are:

(a) Tax audit

The Australian Taxation Office (ATO) has been conducting an audit in respect to income and expenditures associated with the litigation against GlaxoSmithKline (GSK). On 19 December 2011, the ATO issued a position paper. The ATO's preliminary conclusion is that having accepted the legal costs as deductible, the settlement sum received of $20 million is ordinary income (and not a capital gain). If the latter is sustained, this would result in an additional income tax assessment of approximately $2 million after utilisation of previously unrecognised tax losses.

The ATO position paper invites a response where there is a disagreement of the facts or interpretation by the ATO. Biota disagrees with the conclusion reached in respect of the settlement sum received and have prepared a response to the ATO position paper. Accordingly, no liability has been recognised in this regard.

(b) Recognised tax losses

In determining the amount to be recognised in these accounts, management has estimated the amount for which there are sufficient taxable temporary differences and where there is convincing evidence that sufficient future taxable profit will be available. Given the industry the Group operates in, the historic volatility of revenue and that the majority of available losses are transferred (see note 8) management need to conclude that the "convincing evidence" requirements of the standard are met for future taxable income. Management has determined that given these uncertainties, the evidence available for forecast profitability does not support the early recognition of losses as at 30 June 2011 or 30 June 2010. As at 30 June 2009, management concluded that $4.6m ($1.38m net) in tax losses should be brought to account.

4 SEGMENT INFORMATION

(a) Description of segments

Management had determined the operating segments based on the reports reviewed by the strategic steering committee that are used to make strategic decisions.

The committee reviews the business from a divisional perspective (ie Research, Product Development and Corporate) and on a project basis. The business is predominantly managed on a divisional basis and so management has concluded that these divisions represent the operating and reportable segments of the business. The Group operates globally in developing its projects and has laboratories in Australia and England.

(b) Segment information provided to the strategic steering committee

The business segment information provided to the strategic steering committee for the reportable segments for the last three (3) financial years is set out in the table below:

The chief operating decision maker reviews assets and liabilities on a consolidated basis monthly. Therefore, no measure of segment assets and liabilities is separately disclosed in this report.

Whilst the Group advances its programs globally, it has assets in two (2) geographical locations. The following table sets out the location of the Group's non current assets:

	Australia			England			Total
	2011 AS'000	2010 AS'000	2009 AS'000	2011 AS'000	2010 AS'000	2009 AS'000	2011 AS'000	2010 AS'000	2009 AS'000
Non current assets	9,237	12,841	16,858	252	2,387	—	9,490	15,228	16,858

All revenue is generated by the Group's Australian based operations, although counterparties may be in other countries.

(c) Other segment information

(i) Segment revenue

Sales between segments are carried out at arm's length and are eliminated on consolidation. The revenue from external parties reported to the strategic steering committee is measured in a manner consistent with that in the income statement. Revenues from external customers are derived from royalty on sales, grants for institutions and funding agreements with partners. Revenue is derived from a small number of sources, and of which three contribute greater than 10% of revenue.

(ii) Adjusted EBITDA

A reconciliation of adjusted EBITDA to operating (loss)/profit before income tax is provided as follows:

Research revenue relates to payments made by AstraZeneca and Boehringer Ingelheim for Research and Development services in each period. Development revenue relates to cost plus fee contract awarded by BARDA, of the US Department of Health and Human Services.

Potential future income tax benefits attributable to tax losses carried forward have not been brought to account at 30 June 2011, 2010 and 2009 to the extent that the Directors do not believe that it is appropriate to regard realisation of the future income tax benefit as probable. Note 3 (a) (iii) (b) sets out the estimation of the amount of tax losses brought to account.

The recoverability of all of the unrecognised tax losses is dependent on continuing to meet the relevant tax laws. Group tax losses (those incurred after the Group entered into the tax consolidation regime) can be fully offset against future taxable income. Transferred tax losses (those which arose prior to entry into the tax consolidation regime) can only be utilised to the extent allowed by the tax consolidation rules. This only allows utilisation of a proportion of transferred losses in a given year, dependant on the “available fraction” calculation. Currently transferred tax losses are recoverable on a 53.7% basis, ie for every dollar of taxable income only 53.7 cents can be offset by transferred tax losses.

(d) Tax consolidation legislation

Biota Holdings Limited and its wholly-owned Australian controlled entities implemented the tax consolidation legislation. The accounting policy in relation to this legislation is set out in note 1(g).

Based on experience, the Group does not expect all employees to take the full amount of accrued long service leave or require payment within the next twelve (12) months.

23 SHARE-BASED PAYMENTS

(a) Biota employee option plan and Deferred bonus plan

Employees can participate in the growth of the Company. Under the Biota employee option plan (BEOP), shares are allocated and normally vest based on achievement of pre-set performance targets, death, permanent disability, takeover, Company initiated redundancy or under Board discretion. Awards under the BEOP are performance rights, either under the Equity Retention Incentive or the TSR Equity programs. Under the Deferred bonus plan rights are allocated and vest under criteria similar to the BEOP.

Equity retention incentive

Managers, scientists and support staff may be offered Biota shares on the achievement of specific performance targets and after achieving continuity of employment of two (2) years. For consistency, the performance targets are the KPIs used for the determination of the cash incentive, however, the retention incentive requires a defined target to be exceeded before any equity retention incentive can be awarded.

At 100%, the incentive is twice the value of the cash incentive, with the intermediate steps between 50% and 100% increasing logarithmically, from zero times the cash incentive at 50% to twice the cash incentive at 100%. Based on this calculation un-issued ordinary shares at an issue price equal to the Company's share price on the allocation date, normally on 30 June, are allocated to the individual.

50% of the allocated shares vest after the first and second anniversary of the date of allocation. Entitlements not exercised within five (5) years lapse.

The equity retention incentive is reported in the income statement over the vesting period at the share price on the allocation date. Due to the vesting criteria, accounting standards require that three (3) quarters of the value of the retention incentive is recognised in the first year and one (1) quarter is recognised in the second year.

The equity retention incentive is capped and cannot exceed twice the cash incentive for any member of staff.

TSR equity incentive

Senior executives, generally the key management personnel, are allocated rights to Biota shares which vest when pre-set Total Shareholder Return (TSR) conditions are achieved. The key features of the plan are:

- TSR targets are set by the Board at the commencement of each three (3) year period and consist of two (2) components:
 1. An absolute shareholder return based on share price growth and adjusted for capital or dividend payments. The absolute TSR targets set for shares allocated in F2011 are provided in Table 1. They are based on the fifteen (15) day volume weighted average share price to 30 June 2010 of $1.11 (30 June 2009: $1.27; 30 June 2008: $0.84); and
 2. Share price growth relative to a peer group. The relative TSR performance uses companies in the Intersuisse Biotech Index, an index that measures listed Australian biotech companies' share price growth each quarter, to assign a score to Biota's ranking. At the end of the three (3) year period, the cumulative score is used to calculate relative performance.

These shares are “at risk” and do not become the property of the individual unless the performance targets are met. The Board has determined that the final TSR measure will comprise 80% of the absolute component and 20% of the relative component, although this may be re-assessed with each new allocation. Under each TSR measure the incentive is only available when performance exceeds the Threshold. The maximum is available at Stretch and proportionally between.

The value of the TSR equity incentive and number of shares allocated are capped based on a percentage of an executive’s TFR. In the case of senior executives other than the Chief Executive Officer, it is capped at 60%.

The number of shares are calculated at the fifteen (15) day volume weighted average price at the beginning of the three (3) year period and sufficient number are allocated assuming stretch performance is achieved. The shares may only start to vest after three (3) years on the achievement of stated performance targets. If performance targets are not met, retesting may occur for no more than a further two (2) years, but with targets increasing at the pre set annual growth rate.

Allocated shares that have not vested lapse at the end of five (5) years.

Deferred bonus plan

The Chief Executive Officer has been allocated rights to receive a cash bonus which vest when pre-set Total Shareholder Return (TSR) conditions are achieved under a deferred bonus plan but may also vest on death, permanent disability, takeover, Company initiated redundancy or at the Board’s discretion. The deferred bonus plan uses the same targets as described above in the TSR equity incentive program. Each right confers upon the Chief Executive Officer a right to a cash payment equal to the market price of Biota shares at the time that the right vests.

The absolute and relative share price targets applicable to the rights are as set out in Table 1 above. Table 1 is a summary of the performance measures applicable that will be used to determine whether any of those rights vest and, if so, the percentage that vest.

The Board has determined that the annual allocation to the Chief Executive Officer is capped at 100% of Total Fixed Remuneration (TFR) and that 80% of the rights to receive a bonus will be measured against the absolute TSR component and 20% of the rights to receive a bonus will be measured against the relative TSR component. Under each TSR measure the incentive is only available when performance exceeds the Threshold and the maximum is available at Stretch and proportionally between. In F2011, the Chief Executive Officer has been allocated 477,478 rights to receive a cash bonus, with 381,982 based on the absolute share price measures and 95,496 based on the relative share price measures. In line with current best practice on long term incentives, the rights continue to exist after the retirement of the Chief Executive Officer and remain subject to achieving the TSR performance hurdles.

The number of rights allocated to the Chief Executive Officer is determined by dividing the Chief Executive Officer's TFR in the relevant year by the fifteen (15) day volume weighted average share price at the beginning of the three (3) year period. Unless Stretch performance is achieved, not all of those rights will vest. The rights may start to vest after three (3) years on the achievement of performance targets. If performance targets are not met, retesting may occur for a further two (2) years but with targets increasing at the pre set annual growth rate.

The following tables set out options allocated, exercised and forfeited during 2011, 2010 and 2009.

29 EVENTS OCCURRING AFTER REPORTING DATE

On 28 March 2012, Biota announced that the Phase II clinical study of its oral antiviral BTA798 for treatment of naturally acquired human rhinovirus (HRV) infection in asthmatics resulted in a statistically significant reduction in cold symptoms compared to a placebo.

On 23 April 2012, Biota and Nabi Biopharmaceuticals Inc announced the signing of a Merger Implementation Agreement to form a combined company Biota Pharmaceuticals, listed on Nasdaq and headquartered in the USA. Key elements of the Agreement are:

- Nabi will acquire all of the shares in BTA for new shares in the name of Biota Pharmaceuticals, a NASDAQ listed company. BTA will be de-listed from the ASX;
- Nabi's assets at merger will include US$54 million in cash, a right to receive royalties from a marketed product (PhosLyra) and an interest in NicVAX;
- After the completion of the merger, current Biota shareholders will own approximately 74% of Biota Pharmaceuticals and Nabi shareholders will own approximately 26% of Biota Pharmaceuticals;

Table of Contents

- Nabi plans to return to its existing shareholders cash in excess of the US$54 million required to be held by Nabi at closing, after satisfying certain obligations;
- Nabi intends to distribute contingent value rights providing payout rights from future sale, transfer, license or similar transactions involving NicVAX; and
- The Board will consist of six ex Biota Directors including the Chairman and two ex-Nabi Directors. Biota's current CEO and CFO will continue in their roles.

Transactions and other costs incurred (or which are expected to be incurred) by Biota in relation to the implementation of the Merger are currently estimated at $6 million, comprising investment banking, advisors, legal, accountants and expert fees, and various other costs. Approximately $3 million of these costs will be incurred regardless of whether the Merger is approved.

On 26 April 2012, Biota announced the March quarter Relenza royalty as advised by GlaxoSmithKline.

Apart from the foregoing, no other matter or circumstance has arisen since 31 March 2012 that has significantly affected, or may significantly affect:

- The Group's operations in future financial years;
- The results of those operations in future financial years; or
- The Group's state of affairs in future financial years.

(i) Shares allocated

Shares allocated to employees under the Biota employee option plan are considered to be potential ordinary shares and have been included in the determination of diluted earnings per share to the extent to which they are dilutive. They are not considered dilutive unless they reduce a profit or increase a loss. They have not been included in the determination of basic earnings per share.

32 RECONCILIATION BETWEEN NET INCOME AND STOCKHOLDERS' EQUITY DETERMINED UNDER AUSTRALIAN ACCOUNTING STANDARDS AND ACCOUNTING PRACTICES GENERALLY ACCEPTED IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA (US GAAP)

The following is a summary of the adjustments to net income for the years ended 30 June 2011, 2010 and 2009 and to stockholders' equity as of 30 June 2011, 2010 and 2009 to reconcile the net income and stockholders' equity under Australian and US GAAP. All figures are in A$'000.

- (i) Biota's accounting policy under Australian Accounting Standards is that awards under the Equity retention incentive plan (as disclosed in note 23) are expensed on a graded basis over the two year service life of the employee option, with each instalment of the award separately recognised over the relevant service period. This results in 75% of the expense in the first year after the award and 25% of the expense in the second year after the award. Under US GAAP the aggregate share based payment charges are recognised on a straight line basis over the two year life of the award, ie 50% expense in each of the two years following the award.
- (ii) Under Biota's US GAAP accounting policy, the purchase of an in-progress R&D program that has no alternative use should be expensed at the time of acquisition whereas our accounting policy under Australian Accounting Standards requires that such programs are recognised as an intangible asset on acquisition and amortised over their useful life. An adjustment has been made to recognise the immediate expense on purchase of such R&D programs. See note 33(d) for further information.
- (iii) The impact on income tax expense of adjustments 32(i) and 32(ii).

(c) Statements of Comprehensive Income

Shown below are the Statements of Comprehensive Income for the years ended June 30 2009, 2010 and 2011 in A$'000:

(d) Research and Development Activities

The Company's accounting policy for research costs under both Australian Accounting Standards and US GAAP is that they are expensed as incurred; advanced payments are deferred and subsequently expensed over the period of performance. These expenses are classified as 'Research and development' where the related program is in a preclinical research phase and classified as 'Product development' when the related program is proceeding through clinical trials. Biota does not currently undertake any 'Development activities' (as defined in our accounting policy under Australian Accounting Standards).

Research and development and Product development expenses include direct labour costs as well as the costs of contractors and other direct expenses. It does not include an allocation of the costs of facilities or overhead allocation.

These expenses are funded through a variety of sources. As disclosed in notes 5 and 6, Biota has received reimbursement for Research and Development activities from collaboration partners as well as from government grants. Where research and development expenditure is directly related to these income streams it has been classified as Cost of services within the Consolidated Profit and Loss statement disclosed above.

As disclosed in note 13, in the year ended 30 June 2010 Biota acquired two in-progress research and development programs. The intellectual property that was acquired with these programs is only of use within these early stage projects and has no alternative use. Under US GAAP, the expenditure on these programs has been expensed on acquisition.

(e) Recent accounting pronouncements

New accounting pronouncements: In October 2009, the Financial Accounting Standards Board, or the FASB, issued Accounting Standards Update 2009-13, "Revenue Recognition (Topic 605) Multiple-Deliverable Revenue Arrangements, a consensus of the FASB Emerging Issues Task Force," or ASU 2009-13. ASU 2009-13 amends existing accounting guidance for separating consideration in multiple-deliverable arrangements. ASU 2009-13 establishes a selling price hierarchy for determining the selling price of a deliverable. The selling price used for each deliverable will be based on vendor-specific objective evidence if available, third-party evidence if vendor-specific evidence is not available, or the estimated selling price if neither vendor-specific evidence nor third-party evidence are available. ASU 2009-13 eliminates the residual method of allocation and requires that consideration be allocated at the inception of the arrangement to all deliverables using the "relative selling price method." The relative selling price method allocates any discount in the arrangement proportionately to each deliverable on the basis of each deliverable's selling price. ASU 2009-13 requires that a vendor determine its best estimate of selling price in a manner that is consistent with that used to determine the price to sell the deliverable on a stand-alone basis.

Biota adopted the provisions of ASU 2009-13 effective July 1, 2010, for revenue arrangements entered into or materially modified in fiscal years beginning on or after that date. The adoption did not have any material effect on Biota's consolidated balance sheets, consolidated statements of operations and consolidated statements of cash flows for any historical periods as of, or for the year ended June 30, 2011 because Biota did not enter into or materially modify any revenue arrangements subsequent to June 30, 2010. Biota is not able to reasonably estimate the effect of adopting these standards on future periods because the impact will vary based on the nature and volume of new or materially modified revenue arrangements in any given period.

In April 2010, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update 2010-17, "Revenue Recognition—Milestone Method (Topic 605) Milestone Method of Revenue Recognition, a consensus of the FASB Emerging Issues Task Force" or ASU 2010-17. ASU 2010-17 provides guidance on the criteria that should be met for determining whether the milestone method of revenue recognition is appropriate. A vendor can recognize consideration that is contingent upon achievement of a milestone in its entirety as revenue in the period in which the milestone is achieved only if the milestone meets all criteria to be considered substantive. For the milestone to be considered substantive, the consideration earned by achieving the milestone should meet all of the following criteria: (i) be commensurate with either the vendor's performance to achieve the milestone or the enhancement of the value of the item delivered as a result of a specific outcome resulting from the vendor's performance to achieve the milestone, (ii) relate solely to past performance, and (iii) be reasonable relative to all deliverables and payment terms in the arrangement. An individual milestone may not be bifurcated and an arrangement may include more than one milestone. Accordingly, an arrangement may contain both substantive and non-substantive milestones.

Biota adopted the provisions of ASU 2010-17 effective July 1, 2010, for milestones achieved on or after that date. Since Biota's existing policies are consistent with those contained in ASU 2010-17, the adoption of ASU 2010-17 did not have any material effect on Biota's consolidated balance sheets, consolidated statements of operations and consolidated statements of cash flows for any historical periods or as of, or for the year ended June 30, 2011. Biota believes that the effect of adopting these standards on future periods will not be material.

In June 2011, the FASB issued ASU 2011-05, Comprehensive Income (Topic 220): Presentation of Comprehensive Income (ASU 2011-05). The accounting standard for other comprehensive income was amended to allow only two options for presenting the components of net income and other comprehensive income: (i) in a single continuous financial statement, statement of comprehensive income or (ii) in two separate but consecutive financial statements, consisting of an income statement followed by a separate statement of other comprehensive income. In addition, items that are reclassified from other comprehensive income to net income must be presented on the face of the financial statements. This standard update requires retrospective application and is effective for Biota's 2012 fiscal year. Biota does not expect the adoption of ASU 2011-05 to have a material effect on Biota's financial statements.

Independent Auditor's report to the members of Biota Holdings Limited

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated balance sheets and the related statements of income and comprehensive income, of changes in shareholders' equity and of cash flows present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Biota Holdings Limited and its subsidiaries at 30 June 2011, 30 June 2010 and 30 June 2009, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended 30 June 2011 in conformity with Australian Accounting Standards and International Financial Reporting Standards as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits of these statements in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Australian Accounting Standards vary in certain significant respects from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Information relating to the nature and effect of such differences is presented in Note 32 to the consolidated financial statements.

1. Summary of significant accounting policies

Basis of preparation of report

This general purpose financial report for the 3 month and 9 month interim financial reporting periods ended 31 March 2012 has been prepared in accordance with Accounting Standard AASB 134 Interim Financial Reporting and IAS34 Interim Financial Reporting.

This financial report does not include all the notes of the type normally included in an annual financial report. Accordingly, this report is to be read in conjunction with the annual report for the year ended 30 June 2011.

The accounting policies adopted are consistent with those of the previous financial year and corresponding interim reporting period.

2. Segment information

Description of segments

Management had determined the operating segments based on the reports reviewed by the strategic steering committee that are used to make strategic decisions.

The committee reviews the business from a divisional perspective (ie Research, Product Development and Corporate) and on a project basis. The business is predominantly managed on a divisional basis and so management has concluded that these divisions represent the operating and reportable segments of the business. The Group operates globally in developing its projects and has laboratories in Australia and England.

(a) Segment information provided to the strategic steering committee

The segment information provided to the strategic steering committee for the reportable segments for the nine months ended 31 March 2012 and nine months ended 31 March 2011 is as follows:

2. Segment information (continued)

(b) Other segment information

(i) Segment revenue

Sales between segments are carried out at arm's length and are eliminated on consolidation. The revenue from external parties reported to the strategic steering committee is measured in a manner consistent with that in the income statement. Revenues from external customers are derived from royalty on sales, grants for institutions and funding agreements with partners. Revenue is derived from a small number of sources, and of which three contribute greater than 10% of revenue.

Segment revenue reconciles to total revenue from continuing operations in note 3.

A reconciliation of adjusted EBITDA to reported loss after income tax is provided as follows:

6. Tax audit

The Australian Taxation Office (ATO) has been conducting an audit in respect to income and expenditures associated with the litigation against GlaxoSmithKline (GSK). On 19 December 2011, the ATO issued a position paper. The ATO's preliminary conclusion is that having accepted the legal costs as deductible, the settlement sum received of $20 million is ordinary income (and not a capital gain). If the latter is sustained, this would result in an additional income tax assessment of approximately $2 million after utilisation of previously unrecognised tax losses.

The ATO position paper invites a response where there is a disagreement of the facts or interpretation by the ATO. Biota disagrees with the conclusion reached in respect of the settlement sum received and have prepared a response to the ATO position paper. Accordingly, no liability has been recognised in this regard.

7. Events occurring after balance sheet date

On 23 April 2012, Biota and Nabi Biopharmaceuticals Inc announced the signing of a Merger Implementation Agreement to form a combined company Biota Pharmaceuticals, listed on Nasdaq and headquartered in the USA. Key elements of the Agreement are:

- Nabi will acquire all of the shares in BTA for new shares in the name of Biota Pharmaceuticals, a NASDAQ listed company. BTA will be de-listed from the ASX;
- Nabi's assets at merger will include US$54 million in cash, a right to receive royalties from a marketed product (PhosLyra) and an interest in NicVAX;
- After the completion of the merger, current Biota shareholders will own approximately 74% of Biota Pharmaceuticals and Nabi shareholders will own approximately 26% of Biota Pharmaceuticals;
- Nabi plans to return to its existing shareholders cash in excess of the US$54 million required to be held by Nabi at closing, after satisfying certain obligations;
- Nabi intends to distribute contingent value rights providing payout rights from future sale, transfer, license or similar transactions involving NicVAX; and
- The Board will consist of six ex Biota Directors including the Chairman and two ex-Nabi Directors. Biota's current CEO and CFO will continue in their roles.

Transactions and other costs incurred (or which are expected to be incurred) by Biota in relation to the implementation of the Merger are currently estimated at $6 million, comprising investment banking, advisors, legal, accountants and expert fees, and various other costs. Approximately $3 million of these costs will be incurred regardless of whether the Merger is approved.

Apart from the foregoing, no other matter or circumstance has arisen since 31 March 2012 that has significantly affected, or may significantly affect:

- The Group's operations in future financial years;
- The results of those operations in future financial years; or
- The Group's state of affairs in future financial years.

Adjustments

- (a) Biota's accounting policy under Australian Accounting Standards is that awards to employees through the Equity retention incentive plan are expensed on a graded basis over the two year service life of the employee option, with each instalment of the award separately recognised over the relevant service period. Under US GAAP the aggregate share based payment charges are recognised on a straight line basis over the two year life of the award.
- (b) Under Biota's US GAAP accounting policy, the purchase of an in-progress R&D program that has no alternative use should be expensed at the time of acquisition whereas our accounting policy under Australian

(d) Research and development activities

The Company's accounting policy for research costs under both Australian Accounting Standards and USGAAP is that they are expensed as incurred; advanced payments are deferred and subsequently expensed over the period of performance. These expenses are classified as Research and development where the related program is in a pre-clinical research phase and classified as Product development when the related program is proceeding through clinical trials. Biota does not currently undertake any development activities (as defined in our accounting policy under Australian Accounting Standards).

Research and development and Product development expenses include direct labour costs as well as the costs of contractors and other direct expenses. It does not include any allocation of the costs of facilities or other overheads, which are classified as general, selling and administrative expenses.

Biota has received reimbursement for research and development activities from collaboration partners as well as from government grants. Where research and development expenditure is directly related to these income streams it has been classified as Cost of services within the Consolidated Profit and Loss statement disclosed above.

In the year ended 30 June 2010 Biota acquired two in-progress research and development programs. The intellectual property that was acquired with these programs is only of use within these early stage projects and has no alternative use. Given this, under USGAAP the expenditure on these programs has been expensed on acquisition.

(e) Recent accounting pronouncements

New accounting pronouncements: In October 2009, the Financial Accounting Standards Board, or the FASB, issued Accounting Standards Update 2009-13, "Revenue Recognition (Topic 605) Multiple-Deliverable Revenue Arrangements, a consensus of the FASB Emerging Issues Task Force," or ASU 2009-13. ASU 2009-13 amends existing accounting guidance for separating consideration in multiple-deliverable arrangements. ASU 2009-13 establishes a selling price hierarchy for determining the selling price of a deliverable. The selling price used for each deliverable will be based on vendor-specific objective evidence if available, third-party evidence if vendor-specific evidence is not available, or the estimated selling price if neither vendor-specific evidence nor third-party evidence are available. ASU 2009-13 eliminates the residual method of allocation and requires that consideration be allocated at the inception of the arrangement to all deliverables using the "relative selling price method." The relative selling price method allocates any discount in the arrangement proportionately to each deliverable on the basis of each deliverable's selling price. ASU 2009-13 requires that a vendor determine its best estimate of selling price in a manner that is consistent with that used to determine the price to sell the deliverable on a stand-alone basis.

Biota adopted the provisions of ASU 2009-13 effective July 1, 2010, for revenue arrangements entered into or materially modified in fiscal years beginning on or after that date. The adoption did not have any material effect on Biota's our consolidated balance sheets, consolidated statements of operations and consolidated statements of cash flows for any historical periods as of, or for the year ended June 30, 2011 because Biota did not enter into or materially modify any revenue arrangements subsequent to June 30, 2010. Biota is not able to reasonably estimate the effect of adopting these standards on future periods because the impact will vary based on the nature and volume of new or materially modified revenue arrangements in any given period.

In April 2010, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update 2010-17, "Revenue Recognition—Milestone Method (Topic 605) Milestone Method of Revenue Recognition, a consensus of the FASB Emerging Issues Task Force" or ASU 2010-17. ASU 2010-17 provides guidance on the criteria that should be met for determining whether the milestone method of revenue recognition is appropriate. A vendor can recognize consideration that is contingent upon achievement of a milestone in its entirety as revenue in the period in which the milestone is achieved only if the milestone meets all criteria to be considered substantive. For the milestone to be considered substantive, the consideration earned by achieving the milestone should meet all of the following criteria: (i) be commensurate with either the vendor's performance to achieve the milestone or the enhancement of the value of the item delivered as a result of a specific outcome resulting from the vendor's performance to achieve the milestone, (ii) relate solely to past performance, and (iii) be reasonable relative to all deliverables and payment terms in the arrangement. An individual milestone may not be bifurcated and an arrangement may include more than one milestone. Accordingly, an arrangement may contain both substantive and non-substantive milestones.

Biota adopted the provisions of ASU 2010-17 effective July 1, 2010, for milestones achieved on or after that date. Since Biota's existing policies are consistent with those contained in ASU 2010-17, the adoption of ASU 2010-17 did not have any material effect on Biota's consolidated balance sheets, consolidated statements of operations and consolidated statements of cash flows for any historical periods or as of, or for the year ended June 30, 2011. Biota believes that the effect of adopting these standards on future periods will not be material.

In June 2011, the FASB issued ASU 2011-05, Comprehensive Income (Topic 220): Presentation of Comprehensive Income (ASU 2011-05). The accounting standard for other comprehensive income was amended to allow only two options for presenting the components of net income and other comprehensive income: (i) in a single continuous financial statement, statement of comprehensive income or (ii) in two separate but consecutive financial statements, consisting of an income statement followed by a separate statement of other comprehensive income. In addition, items that are reclassified from other comprehensive income to net income must be presented on the face of the financial statements. This standard update requires retrospective application and is effective for Biota's 2012 fiscal year. Biota does not expect the adoption of ASU 2011-05 to have a material effect on Biota's financial statements.

Upon receipt of documentation reasonably satisfactory to the Company, the Company shall authorize the CVR Registrar to permit the transfer of a CVR. It is also clarified that with respect to any payments to be made under Section 2.4 below, the Rights Agent will accomplish the payment to the street holders by sending one lump payment to DTC, who will then be required to distribute the payments to brokers and Holders. Neither the Company nor the Rights Agent will have any responsibilities whatsoever with regards to distribution of payments to the street holders directly.

- (d) A Holder may make a written request to the CVR Registrar to change such Holder's address of record in the CVR Register. The written request must be duly executed by the Holder and conform to such other reasonable requirements as the Rights Agent may from time to time establish. Upon receipt of such proper written request, the CVR Registrar shall promptly record the change of address in the CVR Register.

Subject to Section 2.4(b), until such Achievement Certificate is received by the Rights Agent, the Rights Agent may presume conclusively for all purposes that the Initial Term has not expired. Neither the Merger nor any of the transaction described in Section 6.1(a) hereof shall give the Holders the right to receive the CVR Payment Amount.
- (b) If the CVR Payment Threshold is not met on or before the expiration of the Initial Term, then, within fifteen (15) Business Days after the expiration of the Initial Term, the Company shall deliver to the Rights Agent a certificate (the "Non-Achievement Certificate") stating that the Initial Term has expired and that the CVR Payment Threshold was not met and stating whether the Company has entered into a NicVAX Transaction during the Initial Term. Until such Non-Achievement Certificate is received by the Rights Agent, the Rights Agent shall have no duties or obligations with respect to the expiration of the Initial Term, and the Rights Agent shall have no duties or obligations to monitor or determine the expiration of the Initial Term. The Company shall cause the Rights Agent to promptly (and in no event later than five (5) Business Days after receipt by the Rights Agent) send each Holder a copy of the Non-Achievement Certificate at such Holder's registered address (the date on which the Milestone Non-Achievement Certificate is first sent to the Holders (the "Initial Notice Date").

Until such notice is received by the Rights Agent, the Rights Agent may presume conclusively for all purposes that the CVR Payment Date has not occurred. Upon receipt of such written notice and all other necessary information, the Rights Agent will, on such CVR Payment Date, distribute the CVR Payment Amount to the Holders (each Holder being entitled to receive its pro rata share of the CVR Payment Amount based on the number of CVRs held by such Holder as reflected on the CVR Register) by (i) check mailed to the address of each such respective Holder as then reflected in the CVR Register or (ii) with respect to Holders that are due amounts in excess of $1,000,000 in the aggregate who have provided the Company with wire transfer instructions in writing (including the Holder's bank account information in order to effect the wire transfer), the Rights Agent will make payments by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the account specified in the written instructions of the Company. The Company shall cause the Rights Agent, on behalf of and at the expense of the Company, to mail with (or, in the case of payments made to Holders who have provided the Company with wire instructions, at the same time as) each payment made a copy of the Achievement Certificate. In addition, the Company shall post a copy of such Achievement Certificate on its Internet website and issue a press release announcing the payment of the CVR Payment Amount.

- (e) If the Company enters into a NicVAX Transaction during the Initial Term and the Milestone Event has occurred on or before the expiration of the Tail Period, then, within fifteen (15) Business Days after the expiration of the Tail Period, the Company shall deliver to the Rights Agent a certificate (the "Milestone Achievement Certificate"), certifying that the Tail Period has expired and that the Holders are entitled to receive the CVR Milestone Payment Amount (and setting forth the calculation of the CVR Milestone Payment Amount), and shall also deliver to the Rights Agent the indicated CVR Milestone Payment Amount in cash. Subject to Section 2.4(f), until such Milestone Achievement Certificate is received by the Rights Agent, the Rights Agent may presume conclusively for all purposes that the Tail Period has not expired. Neither the Merger nor any of the transaction described in Section 6.1(a) hereof shall give the Holders the right to receive the CVR Milestone Payment Amount.
- (f) If the Company enters into a NicVAX Transaction during the Initial Term and the Milestone Event has not occurred on or before the expiration of the Tail Period, then, within fifteen (15) Business Days after the expiration of the Tail Period, the Company shall deliver to the Rights Agent a certificate (the "Milestone Non-Achievement Certificate") stating that the Tail Period has expired and that the Milestone Event did not occur. Until such Milestone Non-Achievement Certificate is received by the Rights Agent, the Rights Agent shall have no duties or obligations with respect to the expiration of the Tail Period, and the Rights Agent shall have no duties or obligations to monitor or determine the expiration of the Tail Period. The Company shall cause the Rights Agent to promptly (and in no event later than five (5) Business Days after receipt by the Rights Agent) send each Holder a copy of the Milestone Non-Achievement Certificate at such Holder's registered address (the date on which the Milestone Non-Achievement Certificate is first sent to the Holders (the "Final Notice Date").
- (g) If a Milestone Non-Achievement Certificate has been delivered by the Company to the Rights Agent, then the Holders shall have no right to receive the CVR Milestone Payment Amount, and the Company and the Rights Agent shall have no further obligations with respect to the CVR Milestone Payment Amount.
- (h) If the Company delivers a Milestone Achievement Certificate to the Rights Agent, the Company shall establish a CVR Milestone Payment Date, which shall be within ten (10) Business Days following the date of the Milestone Achievement Certificate, and deliver written notice to the Rights Agent of such determination at least five (5) Business Days before such date. Until such notice is received by the Rights Agent, the Rights Agent may presume conclusively for all purposes that the CVR Milestone Payment Date has not occurred. Upon receipt of such written notice and all other necessary information, the Rights Agent will, on such CVR Milestone Payment Date, distribute the CVR Milestone Payment Amount to the Holders (each Holder being entitled to receive its pro rata share of the CVR Milestone Payment Amount based on the number of CVRs held by such Holder as reflected on the CVR Register) by (i) check mailed to the address of each such respective Holder as then reflected in the CVR Register or (ii) with respect to Holders that are due amounts in excess of $1,000,000 in the aggregate who have provided the Company with wire transfer instructions in writing (including the Holder's bank account information in order to effect the wire transfer), the Rights Agent will make payments by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the account specified in the written instructions of the Company. The Company shall cause the Rights Agent, on behalf of and at the expense of the Company, to mail with (or, in the case of payments made to Holders who have provided the Company with wire instructions, at the same time as) each payment made a copy of the Milestone Achievement Certificate. In addition, the Company shall post a copy of such Milestone Achievement Certificate on its Internet website and issue a press release announcing the payment of the CVR Milestone Payment Amount.

- (i) The Company shall be entitled to deduct and withhold, or cause to be deducted or withheld, from each CVR Payment Amount and CVR Milestone Payment Amount otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement, such amounts as the Company or the applicable subsidiary of the Company is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Internal Revenue Code, or any provision of state, local or foreign tax law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld or paid over to or deposited with the relevant governmental entity, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the Holder in respect of the payment to which such deduction and withholding was made.
- (j) Any cash that remains undistributed to the Holders six months after the CVR Payment Date and six months after the CVR Milestone Payment Date shall be delivered to the Company, upon demand, and any Holders who have not theretofore received any cash shall thereafter look only to the Company for payment of their claim therefor and shall have no greater rights against the Company than may be accorded to general unsecured creditors of the Company under applicable law. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, any portion of the cash provided by the Company to the Rights Agent that remains unclaimed after termination of this Agreement in accordance with Section 7.10 hereof (or such earlier date immediately prior to such time as such amounts would otherwise escheat to, or become property of, any governmental entity) shall, to the extent permitted by law, become the property of the Company free and clear of any claims or interest of any Person previously entitled thereto.

Section 2.5 No Voting, Dividends or Interest; No Equity or Ownership Interest in the Company.

- (a) The CVRs shall not have any voting or dividend rights, and interest shall not accrue on any amounts payable on the CVRs to any Holder.
- (b) The CVRs shall not represent any equity or ownership interest in the Company (or in any constituent company to the Merger, or any direct or indirect subsidiary thereof) or in any drug development program or intellectual property or other asset. The rights of the holders of CVRs are limited to those rights expressly set forth in this Agreement, and such holders' sole right to receive property hereunder is the right to receive cash from the Company through the Rights Agent in accordance with the terms hereof.

Section 2.6 Sole Discretion and Decision Making Authority; No Fiduciary Duty.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, subject to the proviso contained in the next sentence, the Company shall have sole and absolute discretion and decision making authority with respect to any and all matters related to (a) an actual or potential NicVAX Transaction, including but not limited to, any matter relating to pursuing, engaging in, negotiating, entering into, declining to effect, and consummating an actual or potential NicVAX Transaction, (b) the NicVAX Program, including but not limited to, any matter relating to the research, development or commercialization of NicVax® [Nicotine Conjugate Vaccine], including testing, regulatory submissions, regulatory approvals, manufacturing, marketing, sales, pricing, service, retaining existing rights or maintenance thereof and any existing agreements in connection therewith. For further clarification, the Company shall not have any obligation whatsoever to pursue, engage in, negotiate, enter into or consummate an actual or potential NicVAX Transaction or to research, develop or commercialize NicVax® [Nicotine Conjugate Vaccine] or any other product in the Field and (c) requiring the assumption by a Third Party of the Company's further payment obligations (i) under the Grant Agreement or (ii) under the Brookhaven License Agreement or the PHS License Agreement, in each case, to the extent relating to the research, development, manufacture or commercialization of products in the Field; provided, however, that to the extent that the Company makes a decision to pursue, engage in, negotiate or enter into a NicVAX Transaction, the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to seek to ensure that the consideration from such NicVAX Transaction is paid to the Company in cash and prior to the expiration of the Initial Term.

Section 2.7 Ability to Abandon or Acquire CVRs. The Holder of a CVR may at any time at its option abandon all of its remaining rights in a CVR by transferring the CVR to the Company without consideration therefore. In addition, nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to prohibit the Company from offering to acquire CVRs for consideration in its sole discretion.

ARTICLE III THE RIGHTS AGENT

Section 3.1 Certain Duties and Responsibilities. The Rights Agent shall be authorized and protected and shall not have any liability for, or in respect of any actions taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in connection with its acceptance and administration of this Agreement and the exercise and performance of its duties hereunder, except to the extent of its own willful misconduct, bad faith or gross negligence. No provision of this Agreement shall require the Rights Agent to expend or risk its own funds in the performance of any of its duties hereunder or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers.

Section 3.2 Certain Rights of Rights Agent.

The Rights Agent undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Agreement, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Agreement against the Rights Agent. In addition:

- (a) the Rights Agent may rely and shall be authorized and protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, power of attorney, endorsement, affidavit, letter or other paper or document believed by it in good faith to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties. The Rights Agent shall not be deemed to have knowledge of any event of which it was supposed to receive notice thereof hereunder but as to which no notice was provided, and the Rights Agent shall be fully protected and shall incur no liability for failing to take any action in connection therewith unless and until it has received such notice;
- (b) whenever the Rights Agent shall deem it necessary or desirable that any fact or matter be proved or established by the Company before taking, suffering or omitting to take any action hereunder, the Rights Agent may, in the absence of willful misconduct, bad faith or gross negligence on its part, request and rely upon an Officer's Certificate from the Company with respect to such fact or matter; and the Rights Agent shall incur no liability for or in respect of any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith under the provisions of this Agreement in reliance upon such certificate;
- (c) the Rights Agent may engage and consult with counsel of its selection and the advice of such counsel or any opinion of counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection to the Rights Agent in respect of any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it hereunder in good faith in reliance thereon in the absence of willful misconduct, bad faith or gross negligence on the part of the Rights Agent;

Table of Contents

- (d) in the event of arbitration, the Rights Agent may engage and consult with tax experts, valuation firms and other experts and third parties that it, in its sole and absolute discretion, deems appropriate or necessary to enable it to discharge its duties hereunder;
- (e) the permissive rights of the Rights Agent to do things enumerated in this Agreement shall not be construed as a duty;
- (f) the Rights Agent shall not be required to give any note or surety in respect of the execution of such powers or otherwise in respect of the notes or surety;
- (g) the Company agrees to indemnify the Rights Agent for, and hold the Rights Agent harmless against, any loss, liability, damage, judgment, fine, penalty, claim, demand, suit, settlement, cost or expense (including, without limitation, reasonable fees and expenses of legal counsel), incurred without willful misconduct, bad faith or gross negligence on the part of the Rights Agent, for any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by the Rights Agent in connection with the acceptance and administration of this Agreement, or the exercise or performance of its duties hereunder, including without limitation, the costs and expenses of defending against any claim of liability hereunder, directly or indirectly. The provisions of this Section 3.2(g) shall survive the termination of this Agreement, the payment of any distributions made pursuant to this Agreement, and the resignation, replacement or removal of the Rights Agent hereunder, including, without limitation, the costs and expenses of defending a claim of liability hereunder;
- (h) The Company agrees to pay the Rights Agent Fees and Expenses in connection with this Agreement, as set forth on Schedule 1 hereto; and
- (i) the Rights Agent and any stockholder, affiliate, director, officer, employee or agent of the Rights Agent may buy, sell or deal in the securities of the Company or become pecuniarily interested in any transaction in which the Company may be interested, or contract with or lend money to the Company or otherwise act as fully and freely as though it were not Rights Agent under this Agreement. Nothing herein shall preclude the Rights Agent or any stockholder, affiliate, director, officer, employee or agent from acting in any other capacity for the Company or for any other Person.

Section 3.3 Resignation and Removal; Appointment of Successor.

- (a) The Rights Agent may resign and be discharged from its duties at any time by giving written notice thereof to the Company specifying a date when such resignation shall take effect, which notice shall be sent at least 30 days before the date so specified. The Company shall have the right to remove the Rights Agent at any time by a Board Resolution specifying a date when such removal shall take effect. Notice of such removal shall be given by the Company to the Rights Agent, which notice shall be sent at least 30 days prior to the date so specified.
- (b) If the Rights Agent shall resign, be removed or become incapable of acting, the Company shall promptly appoint a qualified successor Rights Agent who may (but need not) be a Holder but shall not be an officer of the Company. The successor Rights Agent so appointed shall, forthwith upon its acceptance of such appointment in accordance with this Section 3.3(b), become the successor Rights Agent.

Section 3.4 Acceptance of Appointment by Successor.

Every successor Rights Agent appointed hereunder shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Company and the retiring Rights Agent an instrument accepting such appointment and a counterpart of this Agreement, and thereupon such successor Rights Agent, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become vested with all the rights, powers, trusts and duties of the retiring Rights Agent; provided, that upon the request of the Company or the successor Rights Agent, such retiring Rights Agent shall execute and deliver an instrument transferring to such successor Rights Agent all the rights, powers and trusts of the retiring Rights Agent and shall cooperate in the transfer of all relevant data, including the CVR Register, to the successor Rights Agent.

ARTICLE IV ADDITIONAL COVENANTS

Section 4.1 List of Holders.

The Company shall furnish or cause to be furnished to the Rights Agent in such form as the Company receives from its transfer agent (or other agent performing similar services for the Company), the names, addresses of registered holders of Common Stock as of the Close of Business on the Record Date.

Section 4.2 Payment of CVR Payment Amount.

The Company shall duly deliver the CVR Payment Amount, if any, and the CVR Milestone Payment Amount, if any, in immediately available funds, to the Rights Agent to be distributed to the Holders in the manner and time period provided for in Section 2.4 and in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. The Rights Agent shall have no liability of any kind, and shall not be obligated to make any payments, unless and until it receives the CVR Payment Amount and the CVR Milestone Payment from the Company.

Section 4.3 Assignments.

The Company shall not, in whole or in part, assign any of its obligations under this Agreement other than in accordance with the terms of Section 6.1 hereof.

ARTICLE V AMENDMENTS

Section 5.1 Amendments Without Consent of Holders.

- (a) Without the consent of any Holders, the Company, at any time and from time to time, may enter into one or more amendments hereto, for any of the following purposes:
- (i) to evidence the succession of another Person to the Company and the assumption by any such successor of the covenants of the Company herein; provided that such succession and assumption is in accordance with the terms of this Agreement;
 - (ii) to evidence the succession of another Person as a successor CVR Registrar or Rights Agent and the assumption by any successor of the covenants and obligations of such CVR Registrar or Rights Agent, as applicable, herein; provided that such succession and assumption is in accordance with the terms of this Agreement;
 - (iii) to add to the covenants of the Company such further covenants, restrictions, conditions or provisions as the Company shall consider to be for the protection of Holders; provided that in each case, such provisions shall not materially adversely affect the rights of the Holders;
 - (iv) to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision herein that may be defective or inconsistent with any other provision herein, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Agreement; provided that in each case, such provisions shall not materially adversely affect the rights of Holders; or
 - (v) to add, eliminate or change any provision of this Agreement unless such addition, elimination or change is materially adverse to the interests of the Holders.
- (b) Promptly after the execution by the Company and the Rights Agent of any amendment pursuant to the provisions of this Section 5.1, the Company shall mail a notice thereof by first-class mail to the Holders at their addresses as they shall appear on the CVR Register, setting forth in general terms the substance of such amendment.

Section 5.2 Amendments With Consent of Holders.

- (a) Subject to Section 5.1 (which amendments pursuant to Section 5.1 may be made without the consent of the Holders), with the written consent of the Holders of not less than a majority of the outstanding CVRs, the Company, when authorized by a Board Resolution, and the Rights Agent may enter into one or more amendments hereto for the purpose of adding, eliminating or changing any provisions of this Agreement, even if such addition, elimination or change is in any way adverse to the interests of the Holders. Any such amendment shall be fully valid even if such amendment is signed only by the Company and the Rights Agent.
- (b) Promptly after the execution by the Company and the Rights Agent of any amendment pursuant to the provisions of this Section 5.2, the Company shall mail a notice thereof by first-class mail to the Holders at their addresses as they shall appear on the Roche CVR Register, setting forth in general terms the substance of such amendment.

Section 5.3 Execution of Amendments.

Before executing any amendment permitted by this Article V, the Rights Agent shall be entitled to receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon, an opinion of counsel stating that the execution of such amendment is authorized or permitted by this Agreement, and that all consents, if any, have been obtained in accordance with Section 5.2. The Rights Agent may, but is not obligated to, enter into any such amendment that affects the Rights Agent's own rights, privileges, covenants, immunities, obligations or duties under this Agreement or otherwise.

Section 5.4 Effect of Amendments.

Upon the execution of any amendment under this Article V, this Agreement and the CVRs shall be modified in accordance therewith, such amendment shall form a part of this Agreement for all purposes and every Holder shall be bound thereby.

ARTICLE VI

CONSOLIDATION, MERGER, SALE OR CONVEYANCE

Section 6.1 The Company May Consolidate, Etc.

- (a) Except as contemplated by the Merger, the Company shall not consolidate with or merge into any other Person or convey, transfer or lease its properties and assets substantially as an entirety to any Person, unless:
 - (i) the Person formed by such consolidation or into which the Company is merged or the Person that acquires by conveyance or transfer, or that leases, the properties and assets of the Company substantially as an entirety (the "Surviving Person") shall expressly assume payment (if and to the extent required hereunder) of amounts on all the CVRs and the performance of every duty and covenant of this Agreement on the part of the Company to be performed or observed; and
 - (ii) the Company has delivered to the Rights Agent an Officer's Certificate stating that such consolidation, merger, conveyance, transfer or lease complies with this Article VI and that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to such transaction have been complied with.
- (b) In the event the Company conveys, transfers or leases its properties and assets substantially as an entirety in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Section 6.1, the Company and the Surviving Person shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of the CVR Payment Amount and the performance of every duty and covenant of this Agreement on the part of the Company to be performed or observed.

Section 6.2 Successor Substituted.

Except in connection with the Merger, upon any consolidation of or merger by the Company with or into any other Person, or any conveyance, transfer or lease of the properties and assets substantially as an entirety to any Person in accordance with Section 6.1, the Surviving Person shall succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of, the Company under this Agreement with the same effect as if the Surviving Person had been named as the Company herein, and thereafter the predecessor Person shall be relieved of all obligations and covenants under this Agreement and the CVRs.

Section 7.2 Notice to Holders.

Where this Agreement provides for notice to Holders, such notice shall be sufficiently given (unless otherwise herein expressly provided) if in writing and mailed, first-class postage prepaid, to each Holder affected by such event, at his, her or its address as it appears in the CVR Register, not later than the latest date, and not earlier than the earliest date, prescribed for the giving of such notice. In any case where notice to Holders is given by mail, neither the failure to mail such notice, nor any defect in any notice so mailed, to any particular Holder shall affect the sufficiency of such notice with respect to other Holders.

Section 7.3 Effect of Headings.

Section 7.4 Successors and Assigns.

All covenants and agreements in this Agreement by the Company, the Rights Agent or any Holder shall bind and inure to the benefit of their respective successors and permitted assigns.

Section 7.5 Benefits of Agreement.

Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, shall give to any Person (other than the parties hereto, the Holders and their permitted successors and assigns hereunder) any benefit or any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under this Agreement or under any covenant or provision herein contained, all such covenants and provisions being for the sole benefit of the parties hereto, the Holders and their permitted successors and assigns. The Holders shall have no rights or remedies hereunder except as expressly set forth herein.

Section 7.7 Legal Holidays.

In the event that a CVR Payment Date shall not be a Business Day, then, notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, any payment required to be made in respect of the CVRs on such date need not be made on such date, but may be made on the next succeeding Business Day with the same force and effect as if made on the CVR Payment Date.

Section 7.8 Severability Clause.

In case any one or more of the provisions contained in this Agreement shall for any reason be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other provisions of this Agreement, but this Agreement shall be construed as if such invalid or illegal or unenforceable provision had never been contained herein.

Section 7.9 Counterparts.

This Agreement may be signed in any number of counterparts (which may be effectively delivered by facsimile or other electronic means), each of which shall be deemed to constitute but one and the same instrument.

Upon termination of this Agreement, each CVR shall become void, and all rights thereunder and all rights in respect thereof under this Agreement shall cease.

Section 7.11 Entire Agreement.

This Agreement represents the entire understanding of the parties hereto with reference to the CVRs and this Agreement supersedes any and all other oral or written agreements made with respect to the CVRs.
